MR. AND MRS. SYLVESTER WEBER

Sylvester Webers To Observe 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Weber will be honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at an open house Sunday, July 15 from 2 to 5 p.m. hosted by friends, neighbors and relatives at the UAW Local 1284 Union Hall on M-52 (Chelsea-Manchester Rd.).

ABWA Grants Four Scholarship Awards

Chelsea's chapter of American Businesswomen's Association met at St. Mary's school, Tuesday, June 26. Dinner consisted of chicken salad, hot rolls and butter and a dish of pears for dessert.

Following dinner, Mrs. Katie Chapman was awarded a plaque honoring her as the chapter's "Woman of the Year."

Gail Salyer announced the scholarship winners for this year. Recipients of ABWA local chapter scholarships are: Carolyn Hubbard, now a student at the University of Michigan; Diane Luick who is studying at Michigan State University; Vicki Koch, also at MSU; and Debbie DeSmyther who will be a freshman at Eastern Michigan University in the fall.

Debbie Hayworth was vocational speaker at the meeting, discussing her position in the sales-service department at Ford Motor Co.

The group discussed the pretzel booth which will be in front of the police station on Middle St. during the sidewalk sale. The ABWA pretzel booth will also be at the Community Fair in August.

Officers for 1979-80 were elected: Gerri Sullivan, president; Shirley Schneider, vice-president; Mickey Quackenbush, treasurer; Katie Chapman, secretary; and Alberta Pearson, corresponding secretary. A picnic-meeting will be held July 24 at 7 p.m. at Katie Chapman's. New officers will also be installed at the pot-luck affair.

where Miss Bertille Hindelang and Arthur Weber.

Sylvester was born on Nov. 14, the son of Simon and Frances (Larmers) Weber. Blanche was born in Eugene, Ore., to Peter and Rose (Doll) Wirkner, but has spent most of her life in this area.

Mr. Weber has been a farmer all of his life and his wife was a school teacher before their marriage. They lived on a farm which they purchased from his parents. After selling the farm to Chrysler Corp. in 1948, they purchased a farm on Scio Church Rd., about two miles east and moved their buildings across the fields to the new location. They are, therefore, still living in the same house in which Mr. Weber was born. Mr. Weber was on the School Board for 37 years until consolidation with Chelsea schools occurred.

They have been active in community affairs and are active members of the Mill Creek research Council. Reminding the Webers of the longevity of their marriage is a huge plant which was given to them on their wedding day and which still flourishes, outdoors in summer and inside in winter. The couple requests no gifts.

School Board Briefs

At a regular meeting of the Chelsea School Board of Education Monday, July 9, present were Stirling, Feeney, Schafer, Heller, Schumann, Dils, Superintendent Van Meer, Assistant Superintendent Mills, Principals Benedict, Wojcicki, Assistant Principal Vogel, and guests. Meeting called to order by President James W. Stirling.

The following officers for the 1979-80 school year were elected: president, James W. Stirling; vice-president, Ann E. Feeney; secretary, Robert N. Schafer; treasurer, Earl J. Heller.

The board designated the first and third Mondays of each month as its regular meeting dates. Meetings will be held at 8 p.m. in the board room of the Administration Building.

The board approved the Chelsea State Bank as the School District's bank depository.

The board approved the following check signature authorizations:

1. Authorized the signature plate of the superintendent for payroll checks.
2. Authorized signature plates of the Board of Education president, secretary and treasurer for all checks for payment of general fund, debt retirement and building and site bills.
3. Authorized the board treasurer, Frances Manzel, Frederick A. Mills, and Raymond E. Van Meer to endorse checks "For Deposit Only."

The board authorized the firm of Keusch and Flintoft to represent the school district in legal matters.

The board appointed Arthur E. Dils to represent the Board of Education on the Recreation Council.

The board appointed Robert N. Schafer to represent the Board with the Michigan Association of School Boards.

The board approved the following teacher contracts: Eugene F. LaFave as high school counselor and head football coach; Laurie VonHof, physical education at Beach Middle school, replacing a teacher who is on maternity leave.

The board authorized the administration to borrow $1 million against anticipated tax collection. The money is to be used for operating purposes until taxes are collected.

The board authorized the assistant superintendent to participate in co-operative purchasing with other school districts.

The board authorized the assistant superintendent to develop a fund investment program.

The board granted Michigan Bell Telephone Co. a right-of-way to lay underground cable beneath the driveway leading to the bus garage.

The superintendent presented program reductions that would be necessary because of the millage failure. The board, in reviewing the program reductions, approved another millage election to be held Aug. 20. The board will seek voter approval of 1.7 mills for operation for two years.

The board set Saturday, Aug. 11, as a workshop to establish District goals.

Cavanaugh Lake Residents form Association

Residents of Cavanaugh Lake met July 1 and formed the Cavanaugh Lake Association. This association is being chartered by the state of Michigan and is empowered to act on behalf of lake residents.

Early considerations of the newly-formed group are primarily lake pollution, lake usage and general policing of the area.

Officers and directors elected by the association are as follows: Don McKenzie, president; Max Sweet, vice-president; Sandy Mayer, secretary-treasurer; Zoltan Diosozi, Jerry Herrick, Walt Mohrlock and Dave Adams, directors.

Those lake residents unable to attend the organizational meeting who are interested in joining should contact one of the officers or directors.

NANNETTE PUSH, Chelsea softball pitcher par excellence, was named last week to the Detroit News All-State softball team, the first time a Chelsea player has been so designated. Push's golden arm also has brought her most valuable player honors at Chelsea High school for the past two seasons and berths on the Southeastern Conference All-League team in 1978 and 1979. Push will co-captain the Bulldogs in 1980, her senior year.

All-State Softball Honors for N. Push

Nannette Push, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Push of 13415 Old US-12, has been named to the 1979 Detroit News All-State softball team.

Nannette, a junior this past year at Chelsea High school, learned of the honor last Thursday. "I was very pleased and surprised," said Nannette. "I owe much of my success to my parents and teammates. Without them I never could have made it."

Nannette, in addition to her all-state honors, has been named the most valuable player at Chelsea High school for the past two softball seasons. In 1973 she was named to the Southeastern Conference All-League team. This year, she repeated the accomplishment again by setting a new SEC strike-out record.

Push is the first Chelsea softball player to receive all-state honors. Next season she will co-captain the 1980 Chelsea Bulldogs together with her catcher and friend, Patti Hume.

New Football Coach Chosen for Bulldogs

Chelsea School District Athletic Director Philip Barcis has announced the selection of Eugene F. LaFave as Chelsea High school's new football coach.

LaFave has been head football coach at Memphis High school since 1973. Previous to assuming that position, he had been assistant coach at Detroit's St. Francis DeSales High school in 1972. LaFave rebuilt a faltering football program at Memphis, compiling a 36-20 record over the past six years. The past two years Memphis had played to an 18-2 record. Last season, the team was a semifinalist in the Class "C" football play-offs.

LaFave and his wife Patricia, a clinical psychologist, attend All Saints Catholic church in Memphis. He graduated from Detroit's St. Francis DeSales and then Eastern Michigan University in 1972. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Honor Society and graduated cum laude.

He was awarded a BS degree in history and a master's in guidance and counseling from Eastern Michigan University. LaFave will be a counselor at Chelsea High school in addition to his coaching duties.

In 1974, LaFave was chosen Southern Thumb Coach of the Year. He was chosen Class "C" coach of the Year by Eastern Michigan University in 1978 and that year was also named Class "C" Region II Coach of the Year and Metro East Coach of the Year, selected by the Detroit News.

An interviewing committee of Superintendent Ray Van Meer, Principal John Williams and Athletic Director Barcis selected LaFave from among 22 applicants. The committee concluded that Gene LaFave met the specific criteria for selection.

He is a strong classroom teacher, a strong model for young people with exemplary private life habits and has been a successful head football coach who possesses

School Board Sets Date for Millage Vote

Chelsea School District President James W. Stirling has announced that the Chelsea Board of Education will seek voter approval for 1.7 additional operating mills for a two-year period.

The election will be held in the Large Group Instruction Room at Beach Middle school on Aug. 20. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m.

The board, after reviewing the necessary program reductions because of the millage failure on June 11, indicated that the reductions were excessively detrimental to the operation of the school district. The board indicated the millage is necessary to maintain and to continue to develop quality educational programs for school-age students and for adults in the community.

The present millage (20.02 mills) and other sources of income will generate $4,582,300 in revenue for the 1979-80 school year. This compares with a total revenue for 1978-79 of $4,459,408. The request for 1.7 mills for two years will generate approximately $220,150 the first year, which will offset the inflationary increases in goods and services and should allow a balanced budget for the 1980-81 school year.

Girls Softball Team Defeats Dexter, 11-4

Chelsea's Anita Powell turned in a fine pitching performance last week to loft Chelsea to a win over Dexter in the Ann Arbor 16- to 18-year-old fastpitch softball league by a score of 11-4.

Powell hurled well, fanning eight batters while walking only two. "I was very pleased to see Anita throwing so well," said Coach Bill Wescott. "Giving up only two walks is a good sign of progress."

Chelsea rose to Powell's level of expertise, lacing 10 hits off losing pitcher Tracy Morris. Chelsea's offense was sparked by a grand slam home run by Nannette Push in the second inning.

Chelsea then scored four more runs in the sixth inning. Molly Eisele, Jannifer Ringe, Kim Wood and Nannette Push all stroked more than one hit in the contest. Anita Powell now has a 2-0 record on the summer.

Last Monday evening, Chelsea players grabbed their third victory in succession by blasting Gabriel Richard, 11-4. Nannette Push was the winning hurler, striking out seven hitters and giving up only three hits. Her pitching record is now 4-1 this summer.

Amanda Schwarz made two fine defensive plays in centerfield and collected two hits. "Amanda is improving so much," marveled Coach Wescott. "I hope she continues to work hard. She has great potential as a centerfielder."

Summer Musical Cast In Final Rehearsals

Rehearsals are nearly ended for the cast and crew of the Chelsea Players' summer musical "Bells Are Ringing." Performances will be July 19-21 at 8 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

Mark Taylor, Lori Van Riper, Julie Vorus, Doug Foreman and Herb Hodge take the leading roles in the story of Sue Summers who owns the telephone answering service, "Susanswerphone." The fun begins when Sue hires her cousin, Ella Peterson, to work the switchboard.

Instead of being a detached professional, Ella keeps getting in-involved in the customers' lives, whether they be the out-of-work actor, a dentist who composes songs on his air hose or a writer afraid of failure.

Throw in the vice squad and a couple of gamblers and it adds up to an evening of song and laughter everyone will enjoy.

Especially interesting to watch in this production will be the sets designed by Neil Cockerline. As the Chelsea Players' answer to Detroit's Fisher Theatre, the sets for "Bells Are Ringing" are mounted on revolving platforms.

MRS. KATIE CHAPMAN was recently named Woman of the Year by the Chelsea chapter of the American Businesswomen's Association, for her activities as Hospitality Chairman and work with various committees. Mrs. Chapman has been a member of ABWA for three years and in the past acted as Membership Chairman. She is also active in volunteer work for Spaulding for Children, was formerly co-ordinator of volunteers for CATS, is a member of the Altar Society at St. Mary Catholic church and is a member of the Chelsea Historical Society. She is involved in collecting oral histories for the society and addressed history classes for adult education at Washtenaw Community College last year.

WELCOME HOME: This brightly festooned house at 216 Washington St. became the first household in Chelsea to openly advertise itself as a willing target for a hunk of falling Skylab. The creative trio, left to right, Teresa Tudor, Michelle Kamyszek and Debbie Kamyszek, hoping fervently but somehow knowing their chances of being beamed by the satellite were slim, fashioned a mock aluminum foil-covered chunk labeled "NASA" for the home's mailbox. As of Wednesday afternoon they were still scanning the skies and waiting. . .

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Years ago I done some reading behind them old English poets. I never tried to understand the poems, but Ed Doolittle's daughter left one of her college textbooks at our house once, and it had some study in it about lives of some of them famous fellows. There was one named Lamb, I recollect, that wrote a poem about how good roast pig smells. That stuck with me because the book said he first smelled roast pig when he come on a barn that was on fire.

Now what we've got here is what I try to get my old lady to understand ever year about this time. If that feller Lamb had wore himself out helping fight the barn fire and get the hogs out he wouldn't of been in no shape to write a poem about it. So he done the right thing. He set down and wrote while the barn burned, and into this day his words are read and the barn and the hogs that night of burnt up anyway is remembered.

This is the right time of year for some serious setting, in a swing under a shadetree if that can be arranged. Ever time my old lady catches me doing my duty as a man of letters I have to remind her that some of the great works of the world was done by men in my position. James Watts was setting in the kitchen watching his old lady cook when he got to thinking on the steam coming out of the kettle and he went on to figure out the steam engine. And old Isaac Newton was laying under a apple tree when he discovered gravity. True, it had been there all along, but nobody had took time to pay attention. I explain all this, but the lesson never has took. She allus finds sompin for me to do, when I might be on the verge of working out a program to deregulate monomethine stills to turn out enough alcohol to take over fer the gasoline the oil companies have got but we can't get.

For instant, I was working the other day on this item where a pore man now is in better shape than a pore man was 10 years ago. I waded through all that about wages ain't quite keeping up with inflation, but all the Guv-ernment services and supports is more than making up the difference. The best I could figger, Mister Editor, is that the money a feller ain't got now ain't worth as much as the money he didn't have then, so the more he ain't got the better off he is. I might of done better by that economic lesson, but the old lady called me. She claimed I had dozed off and was just before falling off the porch.

Practical speaking, it's hard fer a man trying to do right to be took serious these days. I see where this undertaker in Vancouver, British Columbia is catching complaints from other undertakers because he's selling a $6 coffin. He got a real buy on some cardboard boxes big enough to handle the job, so he's passing the savings along to his customers. He's selling em, but his competition says he's undignified, especially since he uses a fancy false coffin front fer services. That's in Canada, Mister Editor, so our undertakers needn't worry. Over here, with our womb to tomb Government controls, a $6 coffin is bound to be agin the rules of 10 different agencies.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.MICHIGAN MIRROR

Half of Michigan Citizens Support Reduction of Marijuana Penalties
A survey conducted for the Commission of Criminal Justice has reported half of Michigan's citizens now support reducing the penalties for personal possession of marijuana.

For the first time in three years when the question was asked, 50 percent of those surveyed expressed basic agreement with legislation cutting penalties for marijuana possession. Meanwhile, even though an increasing majority of citizens believe penalties should be reduced, a large majority (66 percent) believe it should remain against the law.

Also, the survey showed that legalizing marijuana use is no more acceptable than legalizing prostitution, with 68 percent also opposing legalization of that crime. Besides marijuana and prostitution, respondents to the Market Opinion Research study support keeping three other crimes—numbers games, offtrack betting and homosexual acts between consenting adults.

Less than half the citizens (48 percent) believe sports betting events should remain illegal.
Other survey results show continued high support for establishing a death penalty for certain crimes: 65 percent believe it should be allowed for first degree murder, kidnapping and terrorism and another 8 percent for first degree murder of a law enforcement officer or prison employee.

Only 23 percent—down from 31 percent in 1974—still support the state constitution's ban on the use of capital punishment.

The steady erosion of support for a ban on handguns also continued in 1979. A ban is supported by 37 percent of the people, down from 47 percent in 1973 and from a high of 54 percent in 1974.

One of the largest statistical jumps occurred in the area of removing certain juvenile crimes from the criminal code. In 1979, 61 percent said truancy, runaways and incorrigible behavior should your life, not be in the criminal code, up from 44 percent in 1973.

Other results of the annual survey include:

State Police continue to have the most confidence of any law enforcement agency at 93 percent. Confidence in the criminal justice system is generally down, from 1973, however, with the FBI suffering the most loss of credibility.

70 percent think it is a good idea to appropriate state funds to county sheriffs for increased road patrol activities and 62 percent think similar grants should be given to local police.

53 percent would be willing to pay higher taxes to build prisons, but 17 percent of those would be willing to pay no more than $3.

Do you throw yourself into summer activities wholeheartedly? And find yourself eating on a hit and run basis—or even skipping some meals altogether? Well, you may not be doing your heart a favor, says the Michigan Heart Association. For your heart's sake you should increase your physical activities gradually, and remember to eat a heart-healthy diet all year round. For more information on both diet and exercise, call the Michigan Heart Association. We're fighting for your life.

Some Plain Talk

If you're like most people today, you're willing to accept a little discourtesy to get a little service on your car.

It used to be, the car buyer was king. Dealerships actually lived by that credo. Then somehow, things got turned around.

Now, you're treated right when you're buying. But when the deal is signed, and something goes wrong... well, nobody knows you. And, you start shopping.

By trial and error, you find a good mechanic. And, because he's good and in demand, he can afford to be short with you. So, you swallow the discourtesy and pay the bill. It's a sorry state of affairs.

Especially, because there is no good reason for it. At Rampy Chevrolet, we have 77 repair stalls and 75 employees. Some are there to sell cars... most are there to service them. All are there because they are good at their job... and because they like doing it.

There is no reason why you should accept less service than we are offering.

Take this ad in to your dealer. Tell him you're switching to Rampy, if he doesn't deliver.

If that doesn't inspire him, join our group of satisfied customers.

Either way, you win.

The bride is the daughter of Ralph and Ruth Fletcher of Chelsea. The parents of the bridegroom are Richard and Ruth Schanz, also of Chelsea.

Maid of honor was Daphne Fletcher of Chelsea, sister of the bride. Brother of the bridegroom, Steve Schanz of Manchester was man.

Bridesmaids were Janis Proctor, Lynnette Schanz, Tammy Stone and Lori Schanz. Junior bridesmaids were Tammy Schanz and Melinda Fletcher.

Ushers were Jeff Sweet, Dennis Thompson, Dean Thompson and Scott Schanz.

A reception was held at the UAW Local 1284 Hall in Chelsea.

Following a wedding trip to Daytona Beach the newlyweds will reside in Chelsea.

The superintendent presented two information items:

1. An early retirement plan for teachers, and

2. The Issuing of a Golden Pass for senior citizens to all activities of the school district.

These information items will be discussed further at one of the August meetings.

The board approved Tuesday, Sept. 4, as its first meeting date in September. This date is the Tuesday following Labor Day.

The board recessed into executive session at 10 p.m. to hear an update on the progress of negotiations with the teacher bargaining unit.

The board convened back into public session at 10:27 p.m. and adjourned at 10:30 p.m.

VFW Auxiliary Receives Reports on State Convention

Saturday, July 8, 32 members of the Chelsea VFW Post No. 4076 and guests attended the 30th annual convention, held on the VFW National Home grounds near Eaton Rapids.

Open house tours in the Guest Lodge, chapel, fire barn, nursery, Bi-centennial Building and health and education building were available for all who wished to visit.

Mary Keith Ballantine from Jackson, state representative from the 23rd district, was a guest of the Chelsea post at the Home. After a pot-luck dinner, Chelsea members enjoyed the film "Children of America" made and shown by the National Home.

Flag raising ceremonies were conducted by a Boy Scout troop from Brighton. A ribbon cutting ceremony was held, featuring state VFW officials. Flag and banner of the Chelsea Auxiliary was posted in the aisle of colors.

A Marine band, the "Lincoln's Own" from Brighton and Howell presented a concert.

An assortment of rides were available for all to enjoy and a fireworks display was shot off at dusk.

strong organizational and motivational skills.

LaFave indicated that he is "pleased to have been selected as Chelsea's head coach and am looking forward to the challenge of carrying on a strong football tradition." The LaFaves will relocate to Chelsea during the summer.

LaFave replaces Phil Bareis who served as Chelsea's head coach for the past 13 years. Bareis retired from football to devote full time to his positions as Director of Physical Education and Director of Athletics.

RUSS-STINEHELFER: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Russ of Dundee have announced the engagement of their daughter, Debby, to John Stinehelfer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stinehelfer of Chelsea. The couple plan an Aug. 25 wedding. Miss Russ is a graduate of Faithway Baptist High school. She is employed by Frenchtown Convalescent Home in Monroe. Her fiancé is a graduate of Chelsea High school. He is employed by Safeway Stores in Idaho. They both attended Faithway College.

Seminar Slated for Families Concerned With Aging Members

When it comes to dealing with the problems faced by aging parents or other older family members, many people are suddenly aware of an acute lack of the information crucial to the solution of such pressing difficulties.

To aid these families, Chelsea Community Hospital Social Services will be offering a special, six-session discussion group covering unique concerns and problems of family members with aging relatives.

The group will meet Monday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. beginning July 23 and ending Aug. 27. Pre-registration by July 16 is required.

Organized in conjunction with the Institute of Gerontology at the University of Michigan, the sessions will focus on biological and psychological phenomena of aging. The first meeting will provide an opportunity for participants to introduce themselves to others in the group and express their feelings about their own particular family situation.

Subsequent meetings will cover the medical aspects of aging, the process of sensitizing family members to an aging relative and ways in which senior citizens may remain independent.

Bobbi Krasny, co-facilitator of the program, together with Peggy Whittle, stresses that the meetings are designed for family members rather than for seniors themselves. The program is trying to reach those who are experiencing problems with a relative over 60 years of age.

Group interaction is important, said Krasny, since participants may be at varying levels of solution to their problems and may help others with their experiences and knowledge.

Cost for the six weeks is $20 or a sliding scale for those who cannot meet that fee. Pre-registration should be completed prior to July 16. Additional information and registration may be obtained by calling 475-1311 (ext. 485 or 289).

Katherine Slater Chosen for Alma Orientation Duty

Katherine E. Slater, an Alma College sophomore from Chelsea, has been selected for the 1979 Orientation committee at Alma College.

The orientation committee is a group of 32 upperclass volunteers who assist Alma freshmen during a 10-day pre-term program. Starting Sept. 1, the pre-term program gives incoming freshmen a chance to become acquainted with college life and one another before classes begin Sept. 11. Among the highlights of the program are academic seminars, a picnic with faculty members, an evening meal with the college president at his home, and an activities carnival to provide information on campus organizations.

Members of the committee are chosen by two pre-term chairpersons through submitted applications. They are selected on the basis of leadership experience, motivation and outgoingness. Each member is responsible for planning and supervising two days of the pre-term program and becoming acquainted with the freshmen.

David Campbell, associate dean of students and co-ordinator of the orientation program, calls the orientation committee work "one of the finest leadership experiences available to Alma students."

Katherine is the daughter of Mrs. Beverly N. Slater of 184 Cedar Lake, Chelsea and Dr. Thomas H. Slater of Jackson. She is a 1978 graduate of Chelsea High school.

NEW OWNERS: If this trio has their way, Cavanaugh Lake Store should soon begin to closely resemble a neighborhood grocery store, stocking items to fill needs other than just a quick loaf of bread or a bag of potato chips. The new owners, left to right, Vickie Nye, Tom Wingrove and James Nye pose in front of the new doors they've installed. Further remodeling plans include completion of the new, blue exterior siding and rearrangement of the inside floor plan.

New Owners Begin Renovation Work on Cavanaugh Lake Store

Last week, Bill Dittmar went fishing on a week-day. James and Vicki Nye and Tom Wingrove spent that day painting, installing doors and, in general, slaving away.

What all these people have in common is the Cavanaugh Lake Store at 163 Cavanaugh Lake Rd. The fact that Bill Dittmar can fish to his heart's content during the week, something he hasn't done for many years, is a good indication that he is the former owner, retired from the responsibility of the store he and his son Jim operated for about 10 years.

Equally revealing of the new owners is the almost non-stop labor involved in taking over a business.

Tom Wingrove of Ypsilanti and Jim and Vicki Nye of Chelsea plan to convert the store from a kind of jack-of-all-trades convenience shop into an establishment featuring all the comforts of a neighborhood grocery store.

Wingrove points out that residents of Cavanaugh Lake Rd. have to travel into Chelsea to grocery shop. "We'd like to save them the extra two gallons of gas it takes to get into town and back," he said.

Of course, if the customer needs those two gallons of gas to get into town, the store can oblige from one of the Boron pumps out in front.

Initial changes by the trio include a new set of glass front doors, bright blue siding for the exterior of the building and the eventual move of the check-out counter to the center of the store.

Hearings Being Held on Workers Compensation

Business and labor leaders need to recognize each other's concerns about the state's existing workers' compensation system before any substantive changes in the system can be worked out, a member of the House Republican Task Force on Workers Compensation said recently.

State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine (R-23rd District), who chaired public hearings on workers' compensation in Jackson and Battle Creek during the week of June 23, said, "Before we can come up with a workable and more equitable workers comp system for both sides, we must listen with an open mind to both business and labor and try to understand the other side's point of view."

Ballantine said she is encouraged by other workers compensation conferences being conducted around the state, including the day-long seminar that was held June 27 in Lansing.

"Open meetings of that type are essential if people who will be working to change the present system are to understand its problems," Ballantine said. "I was particularly interested in the presentation on the employee and employer points of view. The more you listen to representatives of both sides present their arguments, the more you begin to believe that both sides have solid arguments for change and that there will have to be some give-and-take by both sides if we are to improve the existing system."

Mrs. Ballantine also said she is pleased with the response the House Republican Task Force has received in different cities around the state.

"I know that listening to people in Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Battle Creek and Jackson has allowed me to focus in on the problems in the existing system."

Ballantine said that workers' biggest complaint with the present system is that compensation for a disability is generally lower than in other surrounding states. She added that businesses grumble that Michigan's premiums are higher than in other Midwestern states.

The House Republican Task Force was to conduct public hearings July 9 in Detroit, Utica and Monroe.

Average (median) weekly earnings of all women who usually work full-time were about 61 percent of the full-time earnings of men in May 1978, according to the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ Danger in National Grain Board

Grain prices have reached their best level in about four years and —wouldn't you know it?—somebody wants to place the government in charge of marketing all grain. If anything could ruin the outlook for grain, that could!

The bill to establish a National Grain Board was introduced by Congressman James Weaver of Oregon. It would, among other things, designate the Commodity Credit Corp. (CCC) as the seller and marketing agent for all export sales of wheat, rice, corn, grain sorghum, barley, oats, rye and soybeans. Private exporters, including farmer co-operatives, could continue to operate as shipper under the auspices of the grain board.

What we would end up with is a state-controlled marketing system for grain with a politically set price instead of a free enterprise system with prices set by the market.

The idea is similar to the Canadian Wheat Board. One of its recent decisions was to withdraw Canadian wheat and barley from export sale because of shipping delays and labor problems. How would that decision, applied in this country, go over with our farmers, especially at a time when we know there is good world demand for grain?

Certainly other countries would like to see use adopt a National Grain Board because it would make us less efficient and slower to act. It would discourage new production practices and enable our competition to grab some of our markets.

It would come at a time when it looks as if real prosperity is returning to the American grain farmer. Let's not ruin that.

Sen. Pierce Offers Amendment to Social Service Bill

State Senator Edward C. Pierce (D-Ann Arbor) in Senate debate over the Social Services Appropriations Bill Tuesday (July 3) offered an amendment which would have put an additional $75 million into the AFDC shelter allowance portion of the bill.

Citing the inability of families to find adequate housing at the current rate, Pierce used the current $160 housing allowance for a family of three in Washtenaw county as an example of how totally out of line allotments are with housing costs in an area.

Pierce said, "We are perpetuating the cycle of poverty and we are telling people they must live in squalor housing."

Current DSS practice in determining housing allotments for AFDC families is to fix a rate at which 60 percent of those families in a county will find adequate. Pierce's amendment, which was defeated, would have fixed the rate at 90 percent of need.

Pierce explained that DSS arrives at the percentage by surveying the already existing housing of AFDC clients, which in most cases is below standard. This means that each year AFDC families, as a class, are pressured into housing of lower and lower quality, according to Pierce.

The Labor Department's Wage and Hour division enforces federal wage and hour laws.

Disco with Dick

And dance down memory lane.

Put off your penny loafers and dig out your charm bracelets. Mingles is rolling up the rug and rolling back the calendar with its own version of American Bandstand revisited. Every Wednesday night, Mingles will play your favorite tunes from the bygone, beloved era of the ballroom, the hop, and the twist. We'll set your toes tapping, with a bubbly checker, Little Richard, and Brenda Lee. We'll spice up the evening with the Beach Boys and the Righteous Brothers. We'll throw in some early Elvis and a little Motown. And for occasional contrast, we'll bring you up to date with disco, disco-funk and no holds barred nostalgia, it's This is with Dick. Every Wednesday night, only at Mingles. (Disco socks optional.)

Steve Bergmann Elected To State Band Position

Few Bright Spots In 'Glass Menagerie'

Steve R. Bergmann, Chelsea Band Director, has recently been appointed 1st vice-president of the Michigan Schools Band and Orchestra Association District 12 by the MSBOA executive board. He will replace Joe Vavdracek of Grand Rapids in that position.

Although this is the first office he has held in Michigan, Bergmann served in Nevada as vice-president of the Southern Nevada Music Educators in 1972, president in 1973, and in 1974 was one of the three southern Nevada teachers nominated "Outstanding Young Educator."

After three years in Nevada, Bergmann moved to Rogers City, where he directed the band that represented Michigan in the 1976 Bi-Centennial Parades in Washington, D.C. and Philadelphia, Pa.

Since moving to Chelsea in 1976, he has led the Chelsea Symphony Band in its travels to Traverse City for the 1976-77 State Festival; on tour in Washington, D.C. in May, 1978; and to Cedar Point in June, 1978 with the "Pride of Chelsea" Marching Band.

Currently, Bergmann and the Chelsea Symphony Band are preparing for their May, 1980 travels to Mexico City where they will represent the state of Michigan in the "Ninth Annual Mexican Band Festival."

Respectfully known to Chelsea Band students as "Mr. B.," he promotes the mutual devotion between fellow band students as well as between the students and their director. In this atmosphere, the students develop the ability and discipline necessary to a band program which travels extensively.

With this appointment as 1st vice-president, Bergmann, along with other members of the MSBOA will conduct duties which include the setting up and running of all District 12 band and orchestra festivals. In 1978, Chelsea hosted one of these District 12 state festivals.

Manchester's Black Sheep Theatre, with its current production of Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie," has managed to capture a magic theatrical half-hour for playgoers. Unfortunately, Williams' play is a good deal longer than that and therein lies the problem.

"Menagerie" is written as one man's memory of himself, his domineering mother and painfully shy sister, their illusions and dreams in depression-era St. Louis. A "gentleman caller" who finally brings reality to the family is "the long delayed but always expected something we live for."

No amount of delicate charmed acting by Bethany Carpenter and Michael Woods (as Laura, the sister, and the gentleman caller) however, can wipe out the resounding impression that the anchor and core of the play, the mother, Amanda, is played with little sense of what the character is or what she represents.

As Amanda, Roberta Yule Owen is all steely strength and practicality, prating endlessly about lost Southern charm but never exhibiting the slightest trace of it in herself. Williams' dialogue clearly intends Amanda to be less firmly grounded in reality than the woman in iron grey suit and severe turban hat who confronts us in the first act.

Amanda is a willing victim of her own self-deception, reminiscing over lost gentleman callers and faded Southern glories. She should be brought into angry awareness only occasionally rather than wallowing in poverty and despair as Owen does.

The gentleman caller is intended to be an "emissary of reality," to this other-worldly family, but his impact is blunted by the toughness Owen brings to Amanda. He seems, if anything, to be more fragile and unusual than Amanda, which is contrary to the playwright's intention.

With the emphasis thus altered, the proceedings bump along awkwardly until the end of the second act, when Laura and the gentleman caller finally share the stage with only a bent candelabrum. Carpenter and Woods are finally able to weave the theatrical spell that makes it possible to forget actors on a stage and instead become submerged in caring for the characters and their lives.

As the restless son, Tom, Owen J. Anderson is a talented constant that keeps the evening from being a real disappointment. Alternating between rueful monologues that illuminate the play's action and appearing as a character in it, Anderson displays the best control and sense of characterization of the cast, his explosions of joy and anger never striking an embarrassingly false note.

His drunk scene with Laura on the fire escape is a wonderful moment in an otherwise mundane act and his final monologue, blending pain and memory, brought tears to many in the audience. One can only conclude that the huge round of applause the actors received as they took final bows was directed at that final scene and expressed great relief at having been made to feel emotion for these people at last.

The ambience of a once-elegant St. Louis apartment is well captured by Mindy Farbrother's tailored, sparse living room set. Surfer directorial hand than Susan Brinkley's, however, might have erased some clumsiness in blocking and brought real distinction to the production.

As it is, however, the playgoer is left with a real surge of frustration at not being brought to an emotional bond with the characters until the final moments of the production.

"The Glass Menagerie" runs until July 29 at the Black Sheep Theatre.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

By Thomas E. O'Hara

Q. I asked a friend recently to join my investment club and told him it was a good way to accumulate some money and make a little profit. He jumped all over me and said I must think he was some kind of fool. He said he reads the papers and knows that no one makes money in stocks anymore. In fact, he said it was a sure way to lose your shirt and he didn't think a friend would suggest he invest in stocks.

I've been buying stocks since 1953 and have made quite good money both on my own and in my investment club. Have I just been lucky and is my friend right or wrong in his thinking?

A. It is popular these days to say no one makes money in the stockmarket, but that doesn't agree with what has happened to the average investment club. It would appear that in the present stockmarket cycle, the bottom of the market was in the last quarter of 1974. Since that time I've seen a lot of people make money. The "average" investment club has earned 10 1/2 percent a year since then. Those above average have come up with some terrific earnings.

Of course the big problem is to have your money in the right stocks. I just reviewed the 12 stocks that were suggested for study in Better Investing in 1974. Moog, Inc., was selling at $5 and recently sold for $19 1/2. Universal Instruments sold for $10.50 and recently was $35. Times-Mirror was selling for $3.87 and has been $35. Kaneb Services was $3.25 and recently was $17. The balance have less appreciation or a small loss. The people who have owned the stocks we've named have made a lot of money.

If, on the other hand, you have had your money in the much maligned oil companies or some of our other giant companies which have done about as the stock averages have done you won't have made anywhere near as much money or may even have small loss. But for the individual who is willing to do a little checking and who is guided by sound principles, the chances of making money in the stockmarket have been excellent in recent years.

And it would seem like there is much opportunity ahead. By all normals standards of judgment most stocks are at bargain levels today. There are three principles that have made money for thousands of investors that investment clubs follow. To me they seem excellent for today. They are: (1) Invest a set sum regularly over a long period of time. (2) Reinvest earnings. And (3), invest in companies that show promise of being worth more five years from now. You can learn and practice those principles with just a few dollars a month if you start an investment club.

Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions, but will answer them only through this column. Readers who send in questions on a general investment subject or on a corporation with broad investor interest and whose questions are used, will receive a complimentary year's subscription to the investment magazine, Better Investing. We would be pleased to send a complimentary copy of Better Investing magazine or information about investment clubs to any reader requesting it. First Adding Machine

The first adding machine to use a depressible keys was made by Du Bois D. Parmelee of New Paltz, N. Y. Calling his machine a "calculator," Parmelee was issued his patent on Feb. 5, 1890. While his device was neither practical nor generally used, examples of successful adding machines are part of the extensive Lighting and Communications Collections in the newly redesigned Hall of Technology of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

Summer Festival Underway at Saline

Entertainment, a street art fair, a public auction, and bargains galore are promised visitors to the City of Saline during the Saline Summer Festival going on now through Saturday, July 14.

Approximately 100 area artists and craftsmen are expected to display their handiwork during the street art fair from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m. until everyone gets tired Saturday, including demonstrations. In addition, downtown bargains are offered throughout the festival.

Michigan AAU 20-Km. Run Set for July 16

The Michigan AAU 20-kilometer championships will be the featured event when road runs of three distances are held simultaneously Saturday, July 21, starting at Ann Arbor's Briarwood Mall.

Deadline for official AAU entries is midnight Monday, July 16. In addition to the 20-kilometer (12.4 mile) event, there will be 10 km. (6.2 mi.) and 5 km. (3.1 mi.) "fitness runs."

The runs, co-sponsored by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Michigan, Briarwood Mall and the Great Lakes Track Club, start at 8 a.m. Physically fit persons are eligible to enter the events for males or females as individuals in one of six age groupings or as team runners representing organizations or amateur teams.

Entry forms are available from the Great Lakes Track Club, Box 7702, Ann Arbor 48107, phone 663-7052. A wide array of trophies and donated merchandise awards will be given out.

A pre-race clinic, focusing on nutrition, training and running injury prevention, will be held from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday, July 20 in the community room of the mall, located on the north side of I-94 at State St.

Olympic runner Jeff Galloway, track authorities and running trainers will be featured at the clinic.

Motorcycle Guide Stresses Rider Safety

A nine percent jump in motorcycle fatalities in Michigan during 1978 has prompted Automobile Club of Michigan to mail a 32-page booklet entitled "Guide to Motorcycling" to 12,000 of its members insuring cycles through the organization.

"The purpose of this manual is to help reduce motorcycle accidents by providing information necessary to operate a motorcycle safely," said Auto Club President Richard R. Dann.

In Michigan, 175 persons were killed and 7,264 injured in motorcycle mishaps in 1978. A cyclist's chance of being killed in traffic was four to seven times greater than a motorist's last year.

In 1975, Auto Club released "Portrait of a Motorcyclist," a study based on Michigan's motorcycle fatalities.

The report cited youth, alcohol, lack of training and the apparent inability of motorists to see two-wheelers as major reasons for the growing safety problems.

It also showed that motorists were the cause of 40 percent of the fatal mishaps. Three out of four of those accidents were caused by motorists who made left turns in front of oncoming cycles or failed to yield the right of way.

"Guide to Motorcycling" stresses being seen and looking for trouble while riding in traffic. Some of the safety tips include:

—Keep the headlight on at all times. One study shows that during the day motorcycles become up to 1 1/2 times more noticeable to oncoming drivers when the headlight is on.

—Wear bright colored clothing and reflective helmets. Yellow, orange and red are the most noticeable colors.

—Use the horn in a potentially dangerous situation. In case you can't be seen, be heard.

—Try to ride where you can see the rearview mirror of the car ahead and don't ride in another driver's "blind spot."

—Look ahead to check the road surface for slippery objects, bad bumps, broken pavement, loose gravel, wet leaves or objects lying in the road.

—Check rearview mirrors every few seconds especially when slowing down, changing lanes, turning or stopping suddenly.

—Keep at least two seconds' distance between the vehicle ahead and move from one side of the lane to another to increase lateral distance.

—Don't share lanes with a car or drive between rows of stopped vehicles.

—Reduce speeds on slippery, uneven, sloping, grooved or grated surfaces.

Mustard Factory Started in 1768

According to several sources, mustard was first manufactured in America by Benjamin Jackson of Germantown, Rd., Philadelphia, Pa. He advertised himself as the "original establishment of the mustard manufactory in America" in an ad in the Pennsylvania Chronicle of Feb. 15, 1768. The Domestic Arts Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, provides fascinating insight into the domestic implements of bygone days, including butter churns, early washing machines and cream separators.

A most interesting talk on "juvenile delinquency" was given at the Kiwanis Club meeting Monday by John Martin of Ann Arbor. Mr. Martin stated that the crime situation has achieved alarming proportions and after the war the country is facing the bloodiest and costliest crime wave ever seen.

Disclosing that the nation's stockpile of tin has been depleted 70 percent since Pearl Harbor, the War Production Board has called upon the Michigan Office of Civilian Defense for immediate intensification of tin can salvage.

Stop the Presses

On May 11, 1854, Ottmar Mergenthaler entered the world in the little hamlet of Hachtel, Germany. In his early years Mergenthaler was apprenticed to a watchmaker, but his natural bent toward machinery quickly took hold. In 1884 he revolutionized the printing industry with his linotype machine, which allowed printers to set entire lines rather than a letter at a time. Examples of Mergenthaler's linotypes and their descendants are part of an exhibit in the Communications Collection of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

Earn While Learning Vocational Training

Take a comprehensive industrial on-the-job training program which pays its participants to earn while they learn, combine it with a staff of trained counselors who provide job placement assistance, and you have a working solution to the current high rate of unemployment problems.

Operated by the Chrysler Training Center, this vocational training program features specialized classroom training, simulated industrial settings which prepare trainees for the real world of work, and a "hands-on" familiarization with industrial tools and equipment.

Trainees work at their own pace — getting a basic overview, learning the vocabulary, how to read and follow instructions. After two weeks they have the option of advanced training or looking for a job. Most opt for advanced training in such fields as electronics, carpentry, machine set-up, general repair and welding.

Bob Cottrell, manager of the Training Center, states that in 10 weeks the program can train a person to become a welder in a permanent job earning a beginning $6.25 an hour.

An important part of the Institute's training philosophy is follow-up, according to Cottrell. Each placement is reviewed with the employer. "If one of our trainees doesn't pass a welding certification exam, we want to know why."

The Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners, prime sponsor for the Comprehensive Employment Program, saw the need for training designed specifically for private sector employment. To facilitate such training the Board subcontracted with the Chrysler Learning Institute of Detroit, a Chrysler Corp. subsidiary.

A Private Industry Council (PIC) was formed last year in order to insure that the training activities relate to available private sector jobs.

Success of the training program is evidenced by the fact that 80 percent of the program's participants have found jobs in private industry during the latter half of 1978.

"The trend indicates that people who enter the program want to work and that makes sense because most have families to support," Cottrell said.

For those who successfully complete the program and find jobs, the average hourly starting wage has been around $5.75 an hour.

In addition to welding, the Center offers training in electronics, carpentry, and machine set-up. Persons will also be trained in a fuel economy program and will ultimately be employed insulating homes of low income families through the local community action network.

DEATHS

Timothy C. Gillespie

20-Year-Old Dexter Youth Dies Suddenly July 4

Timothy Clay Gillespie, 1455 Stein Rd., Ann Arbor township, age 20, died suddenly Wednesday, July 4.

He was born Feb. 15, 1959, in Honolulu, Hawaii, the son of John and Virginia Griffith Gillespie. He graduated from Dexter High school in the class of 1977. He was active in Boy Scouts and was the first Eagle Scout of Troop 477, Dexter.

He was employed by Jodon Engineering Associates of Ann Arbor.

He is survived by his parents who live at 14413 Stoffer Court, Chelsea; one brother, Michael J. of Ann Arbor; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Gillespie of Flint; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edwina Griffith of Southfield and several aunts and uncles.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 7 at 2 p.m. at the Hosmer Funeral Home with the Rev. John Elliott of North Lake United Methodist church officiating. Burial followed at North Lake Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Timothy C. Gillespie Campers Memorial fund. Envelopes are available at the Hosmer Funeral Home.

VHVC Members Participate in Area July 4th Parades

Although there was some concern last Wednesday that the weatherman would not fully cooperate, 14 Village Historic Vehicle Club (VHVC) autos made their way to Grass Lake's annual July 4th Parade.

Afterward the group enjoyed a leisurely broiled chicken dinner at the Chelsea Fairgrounds. Then it was on to Whitmore Lake for more parading amid appreciative applause from the crowd.

Tired VHVC participants were delighted to learn that they had been awarded the first-place trophy again this year.

Funeral services were held Thursday, July 12 at 2 p.m. at the Staffan Funeral Home with the Rev. Ronald Purkey officiating. Burial followed in Vermont Cemetery.

FORMER DWELLING: Paul Mann was hoping Skylab would clobber it first, but it was a conventional wrecking crew that downed the house on Orchard St. adjacent to the Chelsea State Bank parking lot Tuesday afternoon. The bank purchased the dwelling about a year ago and earmarked the land for more parking space to alleviate traffic congestion and to provide expanded drive-up banking service. Construction on these projects began as soon as the rubble from the house was cleared away. Construction should be completed in about three months.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

We all learn from other people's mistakes. But unfortunately, some of us have to be the "other people." One of these mistakes can be setting the wrong selling price on your house. An under-priced house will sell fast, but the owner will lose money. An over-priced house will not move at all, and many excellent buyers will be lost to others.

What your house is worth is not what you think it is, or what the buyer might think it is. Its true value is determined by its location, the general economic climate, the current local real estate situation, the age of the property and the wear and tear it has seen.

Call in a well-established local REALTOR for this vital determination. He's experienced in real estate evaluation and is in constant touch with the local market. He knows what homes are selling at what prices. It's a nice feeling to have him working on your side right from the start.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 335 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8688; evenings 475-2821. We're here to help!

Aquatic Club Rushes Conference Leaders

Last Saturday Chelsea's Aquatic Club went up against the best team in the Washtenaw Interclub Swim Conference: the Huron Valley Swim Club. At the conclusion of the meet, Huron Valley remained atop the standings. In competition with these league leaders Chelsea swimmers achieved many personal best times and put forth fine efforts. First place winners from Chelsea were the 8-and-under boys medley relay team of Bromley, Karns, Karns and Plant; the 8-and-under girls medley relay team of Vosters, Brown, Weis and S. Colombo; and the 13-14 boys medley team of Oxner, Nicola, Mason and Martin.

Double winners for Chelsea included Dave Karns in the 25-yard freestyle and 25-yard butterfly; Sarah Weis in the 25-yard freestyle and 25-yard butterfly; and Kristin Thomas in the 50-yard freestyle and 50-yard butterfly.

Girls Softball Play Shortened By Holiday

Holiday week abbreviated the playing schedule for Chelsea Recreation girls softball league, the Midgets and Junior Misses, last week. The teams that did play, though, generated plenty of excitement and runs.

In the Junior Miss League Monday, July 2, the Orange Crush boomed 11 hits in an exciting comeback victory over the Black Panthers, 23-21. Joy Albrecht made a superlative defensive catch in the bottom of the fifth inning to clinch the Crush's win.

In other Monday action, the Red Devils slammed 19 hits to demolish the Candy Kisses, 36-11. Contributing to the hitting were Nora Morseau and Venus Roberts, who each smacked three-run homers. Red Devil Beth Unterbrink pitched three no-hit innings.

Tuesday night games in the Midget League saw Kim Collins and Laura Walton combine their pitching talents to record another win for the Blue Streaks. Streak's Michelle Easton homered in the fourth to ease the Streaks past the Angels, 7-3.

Basso's Bombers and the Giants engaged in a see-saw struggle for their full six innings, with each team garnering 15 hits and 10 runs.

Patricia Elkins knocked in three runs with a round-tripper in the third inning. The 10-10 tie was the first recorded this season in either league.

EXPERIENCED NUCLEUS: Kim Wood, Patti Hume, Nannette Push (left to right) and Amanda Schwarze (not pictured) all have one thing in common—experience. "This experience has helped Chelsea stay in first place in the 16- to 18-year-old softball league this summer," Coach Bill Wescott said. Chelsea is presently being sparked in competition by the quartet, each of whom has been an outstanding player for the past three years. The team has a 6-1 mark thus far this season and is tied for first place.

Girls Win District Softball Tourney To Qualify for State

Friday night, the Chelsea 13 to 15-year-old travel team remained unbeaten in the Ann Arbor Fast Pitch League as they defeated arch rival Great Lakes Federal, 16-7, in five innings.

Ann Eisele went the distance for Chelsea on the mound, giving up just three hits while striking out six. The girls' play was a little rough after an almost two-week layoff because of rain and a limited schedule. However, Eisele settled down after the third inning and pitched well, shutting out Great Lakes in the last two innings.

Laurie Voita and Shelly Weber led the Chelsea hitting attack with two hits each, as Voita collected two hits and a walk to score three runs. Weber tripled and singled, driving in four runs. Voita gave a boost to the entire team as she made a spectacular running catch of a line drive with the bases loaded in the first inning to retire the side.

The win over Great Lakes Federal gives Chelsea the undisputed lead in the league, with a 6-0 record and their closest competition two games off the pace. Chelsea's Travel team opened the MASA District No. 16 State Tournament on Saturday in an attempt to qualify for the State ASA Tournament in Alpena, to be played on the week-end of July 20.

Chelsea drew Stadium Bike as their first opponent of the tournament and stopped them, 26-11, behind the pitching of Shelley Weber. It was only the second start of the year for Shelley and she was wilder than usual, walking 16 batters and hitting three while striking out seven. However, Shelley was sharp in tough situations, as she twice struck out the last batter of an inning with the bases loaded. Chelsea scored almost automatically with a well-balanced hitting barrage as all 15 Chelsea players saw action in the game.

Missi Lazarz, Tracy Borton, and Amy Hume had outstanding days at the plate. Lazarz had a perfect day at the plate as she walked four times and collected a single in five times at bat and scored all five times. Tracy Borton blasted two singles and scored twice in three times at bat, while Hume punched out two singles and a

Good Things Growing In Michigan

Summer is a great time for all kinds of ice cream treats. With good things growing in Michigan, "mixing and matching" ice cream flavors and fresh fruits to discover new combinations can be half the fun!

Try a dessert cooler made by mixing one cup of sliced strawberries combined with two tablespoons of sugar and one cup of vanilla ice cream. Add two cups of milk, blend and pour into tall, chilled glasses. Top with a scoop of vanilla or strawberry ice cream.

Or, if your kitchen becomes as busy as an expressway during rush hour, make ice cream filled cones, wrap in heavy plastic and store in the freezer for quick desserts and snacks without fuss.

Imagine eating 832.8 million of these single dip ice cream cones! That's the amount of ice cream Michigan's processors produced last year, which translates into approximately 35 million gallons.

To make one gallon of ice cream, 12 pounds of whole milk are required. Milk is the largest single item sold from Michigan farms, accounting for about one fourth of farmers cash receipts. Our state's 403,000 milk cows produced 4,793 million pounds of milk last year.

The smooth, light texture of ice cream is created by air being beaten into the mixture during the freezing process. The amount of air, milk fat and flavoring determine the quality and influence price.

High quality ice cream and milk are assured Michigan consumers because Michigan Department of Agriculture dairy inspectors routinely check for sanitation and quality control. Laboratory tests of dairy products also measure butterfat and other elements.

More than 50 major commodities are produced in Michigan each year amounting to a $10 billion industry. In 1978 with processing and marketing costs. CHELSEA VILLAGE COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Regular Session July 3, 1979
The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Wood.

Present: President Wood, Clerk Neumeyer, Administrator Weber, Special Projects Director Barkley.

Trustees present: Brown, Criswell, Popovich, Rady, Schardein, and Sweet.

Others present: Police Chief Aiello, Civil Defense Director Wade and A. Kurzy.

The minutes of the June 19, 1979 meeting were read and approved.

Police Chief Aiello gave the police report for the month of June.

There was discussion of the Village Attorney's opinion re: James Knott Fence Permit. The Zoning Inspector was directed to enforce the Zoning Ordinance regarding fences.

Bids for the 1979 Street Improvement Program were received and reviewed with A. Kurzy Consulting Engineers. It was recommended by A. Kurzy to reject bids as they were over estimates.

Motion by Brown, supported by Schardein, to reject bids as they are over budget. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Rady, supported by Sweet, to adopt a resolution to accept the proposal of Bell Equipment Company on a new Elgin Street Sweeper in the amount of $54,900.00, provided Bell Equipment Company gives a ninety (90) day extension on the trade-in agreement for the village's old sweeper, and to borrow the sum of $44,900.00 from the Electric Fund for a period of four (4) years to help cover the cost of the new sweeper. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Correspondence was received from LithoCrafters accepting the Village's offer of $7,000.00 plus closing and survey cost for property adjacent to Veterans Park.

Motion by Criswell, supported by Popovich, to accept the offer of LithoCrafters for the property adjacent to Veterans Park and to split survey and closing costs. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Various committee reports were given.

Motion by Sweet, supported by Schardein, to pay bills as submitted. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Motion by Rady, supported by Schardein, to adjourn. Roll call: Yeas all. Motion carried.

Yeas all. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.

Thomas Neumeyer, Village Clerk.

Vacuum Cleaner

Invented in 1869

Ives W. McGaffey of Chicago, Ill., helped lighten housewives' work and strengthen their arms with his invention of a hand-powered suction device on June 8, 1869. McGaffey called his machine a vacuum cleaner and included instructions that the harder one pumps, the greater the suction.

Henry Ford Museum's Domestic Arts Collection in Dearborn, offers a wide selection of early household helpers, including vacuum cleaners, mechanical spits and early toasters and roasters.

home run as she collected five RBI's.

Chelsea's second opponent of the day was Great Lakes Federal and they fell victim to the hurling of Amy Unterbrink. Unterbrink gave up just one hit and three walks as she fanned 10 in five innings and allowed the usually hard-hitting Great Lakes Federal team just two runs.

Chelsea girls pounded out 13 hits as they took the victory, 17-2, in five innings under the mercy rule. Shelley Weber continued to lead the team in hitting as she collected three hits and five RBI's. Laurie Cobb and Ann Elisele also contributed two hits each. Molly Feeney and Amy Check each came off the bench to lash hits, as Chelsea broke the Great Lakes Federal's team spirit.

Chelsea returned to the competition on Sunday to face Ling's Marathon in the critical game of the tournament. The winner of this game would have the tournament edge. The losing team would have to win the next three games on Sunday while the winner would only have to win one of two possible games.

Ling's Marathon fielded a strong team as Saline's varsity pitcher took the mound to face Chelsea's hard-throwing Amy Unterbrink. It was a classic conflict between the two best young freshman pitchers in the area.

Ling's Marathon drew first blood and held a 4-3 margin at the end of the top of the third inning. However, Chelsea kept the pressure on and smashed out eight hits against Shelly Leonard as the Chelsea girls pushed a total of 12 runs across the plate. Amy Unterbrink allowed Ling's only three hits while striking out 14 batters.

Chelsea walked away with a 12-7 win and the knowledge that they could hit an excellent pitcher in tight competition.

Laurie Voita and Amy Unterbrink each smashed out two hits to lead the Chelsea hitting with Unterbrink smacking a triple over the left fielder's head. Amy Hume also clubbed a triple and combined with Shelley Weber in cutting down two runners trying to steal second base.

Celeste Powell, Amy Check, and Shelley Weber each had singles to contribute to the balanced hitting attack. Laurie Cobb produced four RBI's.

In the final game of the tournament, Chelsea faced Great Lakes Federal who had upset Ling's Marathon, 23-22, in seven innings. Ann Elisele was given the start against Great Lakes Federal and pitched an outstanding game against the tired Great Lakes team.

Chelsea failed to hit their left-handed, top-ball pitcher with any real authority, but did punch out 17 singles and come away with the championship in a 10-4 win.

Ann Elisele pitched her best game of the year to claim the championship for Chelsea as she gave up seven hits and walked only four while striking out six. Ann shut out the Great Lakes team for four innings while the Chelsea offense stumbled. She suffered from some poor fielding in the fifth inning as she gave up three runs behind sloppy throwing by her teammates.

Her teammates came back, however, and scored seven runs in the last three innings to put the win away for her.

Elisele also helped her own cause as she pounded out three hits while Maggy Sweet, Amy Check, Shelley Weber, Missi Lazarz, and Donna Popovich each punched out two hits. Amy Hume contributed a fine play at shortstop and Molly Feeney made three sharp fielding plays at third and laid down a perfect bunt single.

Chelsea will now play in the State Tournament in Alpena for the MASA State Championship.

Passion Play Deadline Date Approaching

Local residents who may be considering the possibility of attending the world famous Oberammergau Passion Play in Germany next summer are reminded that reservations are required at least one year in advance.

The Passion Play is included as one option on a 16-day tour to Austria and Germany sponsored nationally by Educational Opportunities. A group of 18 Dexter and Ann Arbor area residents visited the Holy Land last February with the same Christian organization.

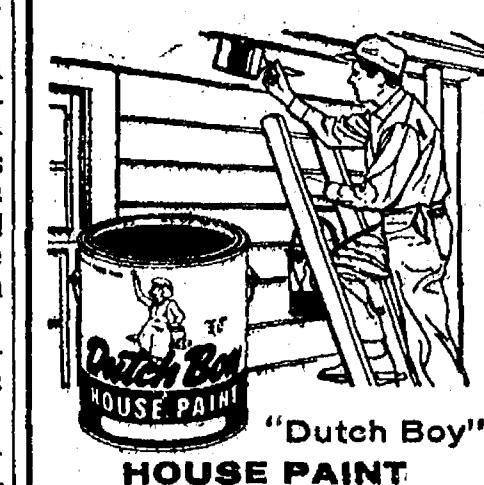

The Oberammergau Passion Play is presented once each decade by a tiny village in the Bavarian Alps. The presentations began in 1633, when the villagers were spared from a plague and vowed to present the story of the Passion Play every 10 years as an expression of their thanksgiving.

In 1970, more than a million people were unable to obtain tickets to the six-hour play.

The Oberammergau tour, scheduled for July 1980, will include optional visits to Czechoslovakia, Austria, Yugoslavia and Hungary. Morning lectures by competent Biblical scholars will be based on the theme "Jesus, Lord and Master."

Those interested in learning more about the Passion Play opportunity are encouraged to call Karen Longman (426-2488) Director of Christian Education at St. Andrew's United Church of Christ in Dexter. Messages may also be left at the church at 426-8610 during morning hours.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Sets forth the importance of Christ coming to earth. The Light of God reveals these things: The law would not have been fulfilled. He came not to destroy the law but to fulfill it (Matthew 5:17). He did fulfill the law and nail it to the cross (Galatians 3:19; Colossians 2:14). There would have been no atonement for sin (1 Peter 2:24; John 1:29). There would have been no redeeming gospel (2 Timothy 1:10; Mark 16:15, 16; 2 Thessalonians 1:8). There would have been no universal invitation (Matthew 11:28-30; Revelation 3:20; 22:17). There would have been no golden rule to follow (Matthew 7:12). The rule before he came is found in (Matthew 5:38). There would have been no prepared place for us (John 14:3). There would have been no gain in death. By living Christ, death becomes gain (Philippians 1:21). The apostle Paul wrote in 2 Corinthians 8:9, "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for our sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." And in 2 Corinthians 9:15 he stated: "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift."

ask THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Williams

Question: I am concerned about the dumping of toxic wastes into Michigan's environment. What is being done to prevent this at the state level?

Governor: There are a number of programs at the state level which deal with toxic waste. The most recent development in this area is the Toxic Waste Bill which was passed by the Michigan House of Representatives and currently is being considered by the Senate.

In addition, I have urged the National Governors' Association (NGA) to consider supporting the implementation of the United Nations system of identification on vehicles transporting hazardous materials. With an ever-increasing amount of hazardous material being transported on our highways, we must take every precaution to remove any danger. I believe the U.N. system of identification would improve our handling of toxic waste transportation by better preparing response agencies to handle emergencies.

Michigan also recently received a $501,000 grant from the Environmental Protection Agency to begin updating the state's information on the impact of toxic chemicals on the environment. Through the two-year grant we will expand and implement programs to prevent harmful exposure of Michigan's citizens and environment to toxic substances. We will also modify state permit and monitoring programs so that we can zero in on chemicals with the greatest potential for environmental damage.

I also have appointed a Toxic Substance Control Commission which has the authority to act in emergency cases. The commission will investigate reports of problems involving toxic materials when departments fail to make proper inquiries and gather the necessary data on chemicals in this state to protect the public. This group also has the authority to draft a toxic emergency declaration for the Governor's signature if a situation develops involving a toxic substance which poses an immediate threat to the welfare of the state.

Question: In response to the energy crisis, what forms of alternate energy programs are being studied in Michigan?

Governor: A number of alternate energy form programs are under way in Michigan. One area that I am especially interested in is solar energy. Michigan recently received a $1.07 million federal Department of Energy contract for solar energy research. This research is expected to lead to greater accessibility of low-cost solar energy systems in Michigan and the nation.

I have worked with the Michigan Congressional Delegation and the State Legislature for several years to attract federal solar research programs and I think this is a positive step in that direction. The state also is launching a campaign to encourage development of hydro-electric power. Recent studies by the Michigan Department of Commerce's Energy Administration indicate that the state has great potential for producing low-cost electricity by converting the state's 641 existing dams into hydro-electric power plants.

Michigan recently received a $30,250 grant from the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission to establish a hydropower assistance program at Ferris State College in Big Rapids to assist in the feasibility studies and to provide expert advice in converting dams to low-cost electricity producers.

Several other alternate energy sources are being studied in this state. Department of Energy grants fund studies in wind power, oil shale production and wood powered electricity.

Question: In light of the fuel shortage, if you were planning a vacation in northern Michigan this summer, would you still go?

Governor: Yes, I most definitely would. Things are looking brighter as far as the fuel shortage is concerned. Our July allocation has increased over June levels. The July allocation fraction is 82 percent—compared with 78 percent in June and the availability and the price of gasoline tends to improve as one moves further north.

Tourists who would like information about gas availability may call the Gas-O-Line, a toll-free gasoline information service. The Gas-O-Line number in Michigan is 1-800-292-2920. The number in 18 states and the District of Columbia is 1-800-248-5700.

Manchester Woman Receives Merit Scholarship from WCC

Elizabeth Ann Clouse, 11283 Pleasant Lake Rd., Manchester, was one of nine county residents recently awarded Community Merit Scholarships from Washtenaw Community College.

Awards were made based upon each recipient's "significant contribution to the community, previous grades, vocational goals and recommendations from community organizations or groups," explained Guy Hower, co-ordinator of the financial aid office at WCC. The award carries a stipend to cover fall and winter semester tuition at the college as well as $90 per semester for books and supplies.

MUCC Conservation Publication Purchased For Classroom Use

Schoolchildren in Chelsea will be learning a great deal about conservation next school year, thanks to D. Daniel Robbins, past president of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs (MUCC) and the organization's National Wildlife Federation representative.

In his continuing effort to promote conservation education, Robbins has purchased "Tracks" for use in Chelsea Public Schools. "Tracks," published by MUCC, is a new monthly conservation publication aimed at 4th and 5th grade readers. It seeks to give young students an understanding and appreciation of the natural world, and covers a variety of topics from the habits and habitat of wildlife species to what is going on outdoors each month.

"Tracks" is produced from September through May which includes all nine issues and a free teacher's guide each month.

ANOTHER DODGE DIVIDEND FROM VILLAGE MOTOR SALES, INC.

America's lowest priced pickup.
Dodge D100 pickup is still America's lowest priced pickup. Yet it carries a higher payload rating than comparable Ford or Chevy models. It's no wonder that 94 percent of Dodge trucks registered in the last ten years are still on the job. Dodge pickups are a tough deal to beat.

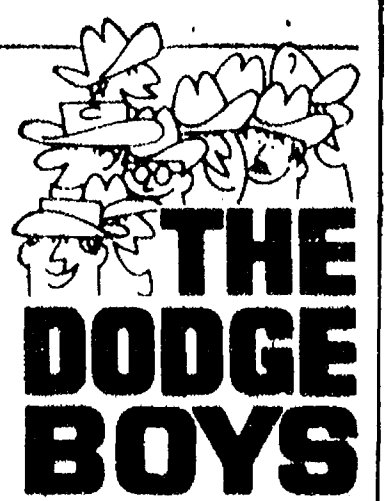

DODGE PICKUP 17^{EST. MPG} 20^{Hwy. EST.}

These are EPA estimates. Use the estimated MPG for comparison purposes. Your mileage may vary depending on speed, weather conditions, and top length. Actual highway mileage will be lower than the highway estimate. California estimates are lower.

MILEAGE UPDATE.
Chrysler Corporation is No. 1 in gas mileage of the Big Three for cars and trucks, based on projected 1979 Corporate Average Fuel Economy ratings.

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from
State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of July 9-16

BUDGET WORK—The legislature continued to work on the 1979-80 budget on either side of the July 4 holiday. At least half of the budget bills have now received initial approval by both houses; most work will be done by the July 14 recess.

WASTE BILL—The House has unanimously approved HB 4380, which would create a new agency to develop and implement a toxic waste management plan. This would have authority over disposal of nuclear wastes and dangerous chemicals.

PRIMARY CONTEST—The House has approved HB 4392 which would abolish our Presidential Primary, although a reconsideration motion is pending. Primary opposition stems from its cost of $3-million-plus and conflict with Democrat national rules.

NO-FAULT RATES—The Senate will soon vote on SB 428, which is designed to make no-fault insurance rates conform to Supreme Court guidelines. As the bill now reads, there would be one rate for the entire state. This means the present high rates for Detroit would go down, while insurance rates outside would increase to make up for that.

BOOSTED BIRD—The DNR reports that the world population of the rare Kirtland's warbler, a songbird found almost exclusively in northern lower Michigan, has increased 7 percent for a total of just over 420. The DNR plans to burn 2,000 acres of state forest lands this year in order to provide habitat for the warbler, which prefers young jack pine stands.

HEATING ASSISTANCE?—The House will soon vote on HB 4726, which extends the home heating assistance program for another year. However, Governor Milliken has recommended against funding this program as part of the overall need to cut $100 million from next year's budget due to rising costs in other areas. A program can be created, but funding is separate.

FAMILY COUNSELING—The House has approved HB 4619, which would require that family counseling services be set up in any circuit court area that receives more than 1,000 divorce petitions a year. Marriage license fees would be increased to $20 from $5 to pay for this.

ORV OUTLAWS—The DNR is stepping up patrols to help combat the growing problems of off-road vehicles being driven through state park and recreation areas; nearly all such areas are closed to ORV's. Four-wheel-drive pickup trucks have caused most of the destruction.

COLLEGE COMMITTEE—Governor Milliken is creating a special committee to study the question of putting new state money into college campuses while enrollments are declining. This could lead to reduced state spending for higher education in the years ahead.

VFW Members Attend National Home Carnival

Veterans of Foreign Wars No. 4076 Ladies Auxiliary held their first meeting with newly elected president Lucy Platt presiding. New officers took charge after the annual State Convention at Kalamazoo, June 21-24. Thirteen members were in attendance.

Reports of that convention were given by Mary Erskine, Eulalie Packard and Lucy Platt. The auxiliary and chairman received several citations for the past year's achievements.

A group of 38 from Chelsea attended the annual carnival at the National Home Sunday, July 8. The local auxiliary will serve a group of the children from the National Home in the VFW hall for lunch and again for supper on July 28, before and after a Tiger baseball game in Detroit.

National Home chairman Mary Erskine urged everyone to write their state representatives asking them to vote favorably for bills 4544 and 4547 on child care.

Auxiliary Americanism chairman Eulalie Packard reported the local group had their flags displayed at the National Home carnival along with the many flags of Auxiliaries and Posts from throughout the state.

Voice of Democracy chairman Lucy Platt reported that the tape of the University of Detroit winner has arrived and will be given to high schools in this area for use in upcoming contests this fall.

Bertha White was elected trustee number one to fill a vacancy. Because of the resignation of the present treasurer, Elizabeth Smith, a new treasurer will be elected at the Aug. 13 meeting.

Ten dollars was requested by the Community Service Chairman Sandi Ellenwood and allocated to the state VFW fund for Muscular Dystrophy, which will be given at the time of the annual MD telethon.

Bertha White was named chairman of the luncheon to be sponsored by the Auxiliary at the time of the local sidewalk sales days. Eulalie Packard is to be in charge of purchasing and compiling a scrap book of all citations received by the Auxiliary. She also slated July 16 as the date for the past-presidents' pictures to be taken in the VFW hall from 7 to 7:30 p.m.

President Lucy Platt announced a planning meeting to be held in the VFW hall at 7:30 p.m. July 30 following the Sixth District planning meeting at Hamburg on July 22. All officers and chairmen are urged to attend and the meeting is open to all members.

Next regular meeting is Monday, Aug. 13 at 8 p.m. in the VFW hall.

Motorcyclist Receives Broken Leg in Sunday Crash With Auto

A Gregory woman was injured Sunday, July 8 when the motorcycle she was riding slammed into a car on Werkner Rd. near Lindley.

Jodi Welton, 19261 Joslin Lake Rd. was riding northbound on Werkner Rd., according to Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department reports, when she failed to control the cycle on a curve and slammed into an oncoming car, driven by Penny Collinsworth, 19819 Ivey Rd.

Welton was taken to Chelsea Community Hospital and was later moved to University of Michigan Hospital, reportedly suffering from a compound fracture of the left leg. A spokeswoman at U-M Hospital Wednesday morning reported Welton in good condition.

This summer, do your heart a favor, says the Michigan Heart Association. Start your summer activities gradually, and don't overexert during hot spells. And remember to eat a heart-healthy diet all year round, or more information on both diet and exercise, contact the Michigan Heart Association. We're fighting for your life.

Summer Festival Underway at Saline

The City of Saline's second annual Summer Festival will get underway Friday, July 13 at 10 a.m. with a Street Art Fair that will run until 7 p.m. that evening and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

Downtown bargain days, which began Wednesday, July 11, will continue through Saturday, July 14. A street dance will be held on Friday and Saturday nights with live bands.

A high point of the festival will be Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock when the City of Saline Public Auction will be held. Municipal equipment, city vehicles, unrecouped property and other goodies will be sold to the highest bidder. Entertainment and refreshments will be available uptown through Friday and Saturday.

Martin Jack Visiting Dexter Area Friends

Martin Jack of Redondo Beach, Calif., is making his annual visit to the Dexter area. Mr. Jack and his family were former residents of Dexter, living at the edge of the village on Baker Rd.

Mr. Jack returns to Dexter each summer for about a month and visits friends from his former years here as a teacher in the Dexter Community schools. He arrived here July 3.

Seminar Slated at WCC on Rights Of Self-Employed

Those who are self-employed will find assistance in a special seminar being offered by Washtenaw Community College on Monday, July 16 from 6 to 9 p.m. on the "Rights of the Self-Employed."

Conducted by Ann Arbor attorney, Pauline R. Rothmeyer, the seminar will concern the legal rights as well as responsibilities of the self-employed.

Advanced registration for the class, to be given in the College's Ypsilanti Center at 210 W. Cross St., is requested by calling 482-2230. An $8 fee is charged. Indigent senior citizens are invited to attend at no charge.

Kiwanis Club Officers Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Harbaugh of W. Summit St. and Mr. and Mrs. George Parker of Waterloo Rd. attended the 64th annual Kiwanis International convention July 1-4, in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Harbaugh is president of the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea and Parker is vice-president of the club.

Approximately 20,000 persons, including ladies and children attended the four-day event.

Kiwanis International is a men's service organization for community leaders. It has 300,000 members in 7,500 clubs in 69 countries. This was Kiwanis' fifth convention in Toronto. The first held in 1922 saw an attendance of 4,300. General sessions were conducted in Maple Leaf Gardens, registration, exhibits, seminars, and other feature attractions took place at the Sheraton Centre Hotel.

The Problem With Most 'Unfinished' Homes Is That They Look 'Unfinished'

A Centennial Home Looks Like This When 'Unfinished'!

The exterior of a Centennial home is completely finished, from the rough-sawn natural wood to the roofing shingles. (It's the inside that's 'unfinished'.)

We made the 'unfinished' home simple!

Why settle for someone else's plans and ideas when you can use your own - both inside and out. A Centennial home is designed and constructed to your specific needs and dreams by our professional sales representatives and architects. Centennial can bring the pride of home ownership to your front door - now!

Imagine saving 30%

By finishing all or part of the inside yourself, you'll realize savings up to 30% on construction costs. The more finishing you do, the less you pay - it's that simple.

Finish the inside yourself

When the exterior of your home is completed, you're ready to finish the inside yourself. Centennial makes this easy by providing diagrams for the installation of packages such as plumbing, heating, electrical materials and kitchen cabinets tailored to your taste. The great part is that they're all self-contained - you don't have to run to the hardware store for anything.

When it comes to financing, come to us

Your Centennial sales representative can arrange a loan for you even when the bank won't - and for less! Whether it's a construction loan or a permanent mortgage - our expert guidance will help you obtain suitable financing.

Manchester Chicken Broil Slated July 19

Summertime and July spell Charcoal Chicken Broil to Manchester Optimists and Jaycees, the civic clubs that sponsor the 28th Broil on Thursday, July 19, at the Manchester Athletic Field. Some 500 men and boys are prepared to serve more than 11,000. Serving starts at 4 p.m. Profits are always for youth projects.

In this nostalgic dinner setting thousands of chicken eaters converge on the village. Maybe they will pause a minute to watch the Raisin River tumble over the Main Street dam. Where else can you see and talk with so many old friends in such a short time? In this year of gas shortage the broil is especially welcome.

A first this year is the chance to have a free buggy ride. You can be transported from the parking areas at the high school by horse-drawn stage coaches, wagons, and buggies. A reminder of Mackinaw Island. With the gasoline crunch this is apropos. And the price? Gene Bentschneider, general chairman, says they've held the line — same as last year! Would you believe that presale tickets are $5.00 — at the gate the day of the broil $3.50. Dinner includes half a chicken, potato chips, cole slaw, radishes, buttered roll and coffee or milk. Table service is included.

Chefs in their white aprons and hats learned the art of outdoor broiling over hot coals and basting with country fresh butter from Howard Zindell of Michigan State. He personally supervises these dinners.

Loud speakers herald the names of visitors and there is special entertainment through the dinner hours. There is a special line for take-outs where dinners are boxed ready to go.

In Manchester tickets are available at A&B IGA Market, Bauernstube Restaurant, Back Door Party

Store, Gill's Gamble Store, Great Lakes Federal Savings, Krauss Pharmacy, Manchester Enterprise, Michigan Livestock Exchange, Mann's Mill, Union Savings Bank and Village Tap. Tickets are also available in Ann Arbor, Bridge-water, Brighton, Brooklyn, Chelsea, Clinton, Dexter, Napoleon, Pleasant Lake, Saline and Ypsilanti.

For more information concerning broil tickets call Broil Headquarters, Gill's Gamble Store, 126 E. Main St., 428-8422.

Area Students Receive U-M Scholarships

Six area students are among the 886 outstanding Michigan high school graduates who have been named by the University of Michigan as Regents-Alumni Scholars.

Local students so honored are Janet A. Walz, 603 McKinley, Chelsea; Michael J. Waldyke, 555 Chandler St., Chelsea; Elizabeth Aschenbrenner, 8847 Cedar Lake Rd., Pinckney; Michael N. Gregerson, 19229 Sharon Valley Rd., Manchester; and Dexter High school students John S. Maffin, 4270 Eastgate Dr., Ann Arbor and Catherine Lee Knox, 3595 Delhi, Ann Arbor.

Each year the U-M selects Regents-Alumni Scholars on their "superior academic achievement and their potential contribution to the scholarly community of the University of Michigan."

A certificate for each scholar has been sent to his or her high school. Of the 886 recipients, 245 will receive a $500 Regents-Alumni Scholarship when they enroll in U-M this September. Walz, Waldyke and Martin will receive scholarships.

The "merit" scholarship (financial need is not a consideration) is for first-year students residing in Michigan and is not renewable.

Candidates are nominated by the U-M admissions office and alumni play an active part in the selection procedure. The candidates, chosen from all Michigan resident applicants for freshman admission, are referred to U-M alumni for interviews and recommendations. Some 250 alumni participated this year.

Boy Scouts Plan Frog Jumping Contest

The joint will be jumping at the Robert C. Brown farm at 8594 W. Huron River Dr. when Boy Scout Troop 448 launches its first frog jumping competition Monday, July 16, from 7 to 8 p.m.

Plans are still in the works, but a first prize of either a five-dollar bill or $5 in silver dollars will be awarded to the owner of the best jumper, with a booby prize yet to be determined for the competitor who has the most trouble with his amphibian.

Cleland Wyllie Was Friend of All Michigan Publishers, Editors

Cleland B. Wyllie, retired director of media relations at The University of Michigan and one of the state's best known railroad authorities, was found dead Monday (July 2) at his home, 3926 E. Delhi Rd., near Ann Arbor. He was 72 years old.

Mr. Wyllie formally retired from the University in June 1977 after a 35-year career, but had continued at the University part-time as editor of the U-M Mass Media Memo, a newsletter that briefs U-M alumni at work in news media fields on the activities of their colleagues.

He had also continued to serve as secretary-treasurer of the University Press Club of Michigan, a post he had held since 1953. The position involved the arrangement of annual meetings and programs for editors, publishers and other news media members from across the state.

Michael Radock, U-M vice-president for university relations and development, said of his long-time colleague: "For more than 35 years, Cleland Wyllie was 'Mr. Michigan News Service' to hundreds of reporters, editors, and U-M mass media alumni. Whether questions related to University history, details of some legendary Michigan-Ohio State football game, or the present whereabouts of some former Michigan Daily editor, Cleland knew the answer. When it came to railroads, he not only could recite timetables, but literally had ridden on most of the lines. As prime mover of the University Press Club, Cleland took his responsibility seriously in interpreting relationships of higher education and the media. His final closing '30' will leave a significant impact on the U-M campus."

Familiar as he was to news media people in Michigan and elsewhere, Mr. Wyllie was equally well-known for his life-long interest in and support for railroading. He was author of many articles on the railroads and frequently served as a consultant on railroad matters. He served as a member of the Michigan State Highway Commission's Railroad Advisory Council and personally travelled an average of 10,000 miles each year on trains—including trips to each of the post-war Rose Bowl appearances by the Michigan football team. He was familiar with the rolling stock of all of the major railroads.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, July 5, at the Hosmer Funeral Home, 3410 Broad St., Dexter. The Rev. Fr. Harry F. Shafer, III, of St. James Episcopal church officiated. Graveside services were at 3:30 p.m. Thursday at Greenwood Cemetery in Vernon. Memorial contributions in Mr. Wyllie's name may be made to heart research, University of Michigan Medical Center.

Survivors include a brother, George F. Wyllie of Lansing; a nephew, Jack Conrad of Durand; and a brother-in-law, Karl Josephans of New Buffalo. His late wife, Faye Josephans Wyllie, whom he married in 1932, died in 1971.

Mr. Wyllie was born in Durand on Oct. 30, 1906. At that Michigan rail center he worked for the Grand Trunk Western Railroad for two years before enrolling at the U-M in the fall of 1926. After earning a bachelor's degree at the U-M in 1930, Wyllie began his long journalistic career as telegraph editor of the Owosso Argus-

Press. He edited the weekly Durand Express in his hometown in 1935-36, and returned to the Argus-Press until 1942 when he was named assistant to the editor of the U-M News Service.

Following a leave of absence from the University to serve in the U.S. Army in 1943-45 as an information officer, he returned to become editor of the U-M News Service a year later. He became managing editor in 1956 and in 1962 became the university's director of media relations.

As media relations director he worked directly with newspaper and magazine editors and publishers in Michigan and other states, informing them of the expertise U-M faculty and staff members could offer for news backgrounding and reference, and keeping them alerted to campus events of public interest.

He was active in leadership roles in the American College Public Relations Association and its successor, the Council for Advancement and Support of Education. For several years he headed a U-M and national Council for the Advancement of Science Writing program in which campus scientists were brought together with news media people for briefings on the latest developments in scientific fields. He was a member of the Lexington Group, an organization of railroad historians, Michigan Press Association, Detroit Press Club, University Club of Ann Arbor and University of Michigan Club of Ann Arbor.
