Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

If you don't know that dog days are in full flower, all you got to do is glance at the headlines. It ain't so much that a grown woman just spent a week living in a eagle's nest in the tip of a pine tree in Florida, it's that crazy feeling all over that this is the hell after everything and before everything and we've got to do something to take up the slack.

The fellers kind of drug in to the session at the country store Saturday night. Ed Doolittle said he had spent a tiring day watching his corn grow, cause his old lady told him that was the best goody to come from the garden. Ed said he knew he was nuts, mated and elected shucker and sliker, and he had to conserve his strength for the big push. Ed allowed that it was a funny thing to him that a splinter of a woman that had no trouble sliding a 250 pound refrigerator across the floor ever month or so to clean behind it just don't have the muscle to stick beans and shuck corn.

Ed come with a clipping where one Andrew Bavas of Chicago got his crossways with the U.S. Department of Health. Education and Welfare for refusing a raise. Ed said that was a dog days twitch to perk up the fellers. According to the item, Bavas told his highups $43,000 a year was enough and they ought to put the $1,272 raise he had coming to better use. It turned out nobodies had ever said anything like that to a HEW computer before and there is no guidelines to handle such a situation. There was no form to fill out to turn down a raise, fer one thing, and it probably is again Civil Service law to refuse more pay in the first place.

To the bureaucratic mind, Ed reported, one of two things was going on. The HEW had here a man slap out of his mind, or a communist bent on causing problems for the department and slowing down the advance of civilization. Either way, it had to be nipped in the bud, so they cut the troublemaker's pay $8,000 a year and sentenced him to Philadelphia where he'd be out of everybody's way. He said he'd quit before he'd go, and Ed said at last report they were still looking for a resignation form, since the HEW computer is not set up to deal with people that walk away from a $43,000 Government job.

Clem Webster kept up the pace with a report out of California where the bride and groom couldn't wait to get home for their first lovers spat. They had a fight at the wedding reception. He threw the cake in her face, which upset her and touched off a free-for-all that ended with five of the 300 guests in jail. Clem said the item didn't say, but he wondered if the bride was wearing one of them maternity wedding gowns from the shop in San Antonio that is so popular, and maybe she hadn't took this up with the groom for one reason or another.

Actual, Mister Editor, Clem's wedding party was better off then the groom in North Carolina that was running late for the wedding and tried to outrun the law. He wound up with six tickets ranging from speeding to destroying property, and he probably was ready for a quiet spat with his bride over the breakfast table.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Final Word on Tax Cuts

Taxpayers will have the final word on how the legislature implements the Headlee tax limitation amendment.

Implementation of the amendment is currently under consideration in the legislature and citizens will not reap the benefits they believed they were voting for when accepting Headlee and rejecting the Tisch property tax cut.

Voters accepted the more moderate approach rather than the uncertain drastic 50 percent property tax cut. However, if Headlee does not provide tax relief, the property tax cut will undoubtedly be back for the voters in November of 1980 and probably with different results.

One piece of legislation to implement the Headlee amendment requires local tax millages to be rolled back if millages increase in a greater proportion than the consumer price index.

However, the implementation was placed on authorized millages and not on levied millages, so local units of government not levying at the maximum authorized have room to work before taxpayers in that unit would qualify for a rollback.

Another section of the constitutional amendment would require the state to pick up the cost of any mandated increases in current programs or any new programs mandated by an act of the legislature.

However, as passed by the Senate implementing legislation carries a list of exemptions that would not be considered mandated costs, thus requiring the state to pick up the tab.

The list includes numerous programs that are not a direct result of specific legislation. This includes court orders as a result of the legislation to implement federal programs requiring local units to spend funds for any program.

Taxpayers have recently been reminded, with the receipt of summer property tax bills, of the spiraling increase in taxes and are now beginning to wonder what happened to the constitutional amendment which was to have slowed the pace of tax hikes and put a check on government spending.

With no apparent results noticed in the individual's pocketbook, a drastic property tax cut will be back before the voters in 1980 and with different results this time.

The original message sent by the voters was not strong enough so the next one will not go unheeded.

Toxic Waste Regulation

After study by three separate committees, the House of Representatives approved legislation to deal with the problem of hauling and disposing toxic wastes, a growing problem in Michigan and around the nation.

Called one of the most critical issues before the legislature this year, the bill creates a hazardous waste management planning committee within the Department of Natural Resources that has the responsibility of developing a toxic waste management plan.

Once the plan is adopted, the measure further requires that disposal site approval boards be appointed to approve each proposed toxic waste disposal site.

The site approval board will have nine members—five permanent representatives for the state and four ad hoc members from the local area where the site has been proposed. Of the four, two will represent the county and two will represent the locality where the site is proposed.

Under the bill, no local ordinance could stop the site selection board from approving a site. The bill is intended to prohibit a local government from having veto power over site location.

The bill also requires disposal site construction and operation sites, licensing of persons who haul waste and listing of substances considered toxic wastes.

DETROIT EDISON OFFERS EIGHT IMPORTANT TIPS TO HELP YOU GET THE MOST OUT OF YOUR AIR CONDITIONER THIS SUMMER.

Fortunately, Detroit Edison customers have plenty of electric power available. Now and in the future. It's the result of planning, development and investment and the fact that over 84 percent of Detroit Edison's power is generated from coal, the nation's most abundant fuel. The balance is generated from other fossil fuels. Even so, none of us should waste energy. So follow these tips and stay cool and comfortable all summer long.

1 Keep your air conditioner on a moderate setting. When leaving home, set the temperature higher.

2 Pull down shades and close draperies to keep out the hot sun.

3 Be careful not to block the flow of cool air.

4 Shade windows from outside with ventilated awnings, solar screens, trees or shrubs.

5 Keep air filter, coils, registers and return ducts clean.

6 Flush out hot attic air with a powered ventilator.

7 Use heat and humidity-producing appliances such as your oven, washer and dryer early in the morning or in the evening.

8 If you're buying a new air conditioner, you'll save electricity if you select one with an energy efficiency rating (EER) of 8 or higher. The EER is figured by dividing the BTUs by the watts.

KEEPING THE POWER IN YOUR HANDS.

Firemen Sent To Incorrect Lake Home Address

Chelsea firemen were led on an almost-wild goose chase last Wednesday, July 11, as they were summoned to an incorrect address near Half Moon Lake.

According to Fire Chief James Gaken, a neighbor spotted a blaze and, thinking she knew who the occupant of the house was, looked up the name and address in the phone book and called Chelsea firemen.

Firefighters arrived at the address only to discover no fire. It took them a while to locate the actual fire, somewhere near the end of Noah Rd. One truck was eventually dispatched to the scene, where firemen learned that a microwave oven had ignited. The blaze had already been extinguished and damage was confined to the oven.

TODAY'S INVESTOR

By Thomas E. O'Hara
Q. I keep hearing about inventory profits. What are they?
A. There are a group of investors and analysts who feel a great many of the companies do not truly reflect what those companies are earning. This is due primarily to inflation. Let's look at our example.

A corporation buys a particular raw material for $10 a pound in 1977, $11 in 1978 and currently pays $12 per pound. Because of strong orders and feeling the price of their principal raw material may rise, the management decides to stockpile in 1977, purchasing more than they need for normal operation.

Because of inflation, the company raises prices of the end product in 1978 with further hikes in 1979. Even if the LIFO method of inventory accounting is used, the company eventually uses up the higher cost inventory and begins to use that which is on the books at $10 per pound. Since they don't reduce the price of the end product, the profits are higher. The difference in the normal profit and what is earned because of a counting is called inventory profits.

Remember that investors try to look into the future. They do not buy last year's earnings but potential earnings and dividends. The critics contend that with the increased cost of new material, profits will not be as good because profit margins will not stay at the same level.

These in the other camp are not as concerned. First, they feel the inventory profits gave the company additional funds for possible expansion or capital spending which would not normally be available to it. Those funds can be used instead of borrowing and having an interest expense. Next, if management is capable, they can maintain profit margins in the future by raising price if they stay in line with competitors.

THE REV. MARK PADUK

Glenmary Home Mission Priest To Visit Chelsea

Members of the Glenmary Home Mission have been invited to visit two parishes in the Lansing diocese, one of them Chelsea St. Mary's, during July. The visiting priests will tell the story of the society founded in 1939 to establish the Catholic Church in Appalachia and the rural South where it was virtually unknown.

More than 100 priests and brothers now serve in 12 states, staffing 88 missions in which the average number of Catholics is 87.

The Glenmary apostolate is to serve the poor, the exploited and disadvantaged, and to bring Catholicism to the minority of Catholics in the area, as well as to the unchurched. Those without any religious preference in the region served by Glenmary account for as much as 60 percent of the population in some places.

On the week-end of July 28 and 29, the Rev. Mark Paduk will be welcomed to St. Mary's in Chelsea by the pastor, the Rev. Philip Dupuis. A native of Detroit, Father Paduk was ordained to Glenmary in 1972. He was educated at Xavier University, Cincinnati, where he received a bachelor of science degree, East Texas State University, which bestowed upon him a master of arts degree, and St. Louis University, St. Louis, Mo., where he earned a master's in divinity.

He has done graduate work at the University of San Francisco,

Thomas More College, in Fort Mitchell, Kentucky, and Theological Institute, Leuven, Belgium. After serving the missions in Mt. Pleasant and Sulphur Springs, Tex., Father Paduk was appointed director of Glenmary's undergraduate students, whose program of studies at that time, 1975, was conducted at Loyola University, New Orleans, but was moved in 1977 to the University of Dayton, Dayton, O.

National Farm Safety Week Proclaimed

President Jimmy Carter has proclaimed the week of July 25-31 as National Farm Safety Week. The President reaffirmed the need for a reduction in the number of accidents and fires that lower production and bring personal loss to farm and ranch residents.

National Farm Safety Week is co-sponsored by the National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture and is supported by many organizations serving agriculture. This annual rural safety event began in 1944 to help reduce farm accidents impairing war-time food and fiber production.

Theme for the week is "Personal Protection — A Defense Against Injury." The Council and many farm safety leaders are encouraging expanded use of personal protective equipment by farmers and ranchers. Personal protective equipment has been a significant factor in reducing the number of work injuries in other industries.

According to preliminary estimates by the National Safety Council, in 1978, accidents claimed the lives of approximately 5,700 farm and ranch residents. Agricultural work accidents resulted in 1,900 deaths and 180,000 disabling injuries; farm and ranch residents accounted for 1,500 and 140,000 respectively. The total cost approached $5 billion.

All services and assistance provided by the Department of Labor for middle-aged and older workers is open to those encountering, or who anticipate encountering difficulty in securing and maintaining employment due to reasons related to age or characteristics associated with age.

Girl Scout Program Teaches Protection from Sexual Abuse

The Huron Valley Girl Scout Council has developed a program to help teach people how to protect themselves from sexual abuse.

S.A.F.E. (Social Awareness for Everyone) is an educational program about sexual abuse and rape prevention. S.A.F.E. shows Girl Scouts and other family members how to handle difficult and potentially dangerous situations.

Sexual abuse is the topic of a film strip, a film and discussion. "You Are Special" is for Brownie and Junior Scouts, in 1st through 6th grades. "Rape Prevention — No Pat Answer" is for Cadettes and Senior Scouts, junior and senior high school students.

"Goal of the S.A.F.E. program is to increase everyone's awareness of the problems of sexual abuse and to teach them how such situations may be handled," explains Mrs. Barbara Baldwin, Mrs. Baldwin is a volunteer troop service director for the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, a United Way agency. She presents S.A.F.E. to Brownie and Junior Troops in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area.

The girls' parents see the film strips and review the discussion topics before the Brownie and Junior Scouts go to understand the contents and to ask questions.

"Parents have been very positive about our program," says Mrs. Baldwin, the mother of two Junior Girl Scouts and two younger boys. "Previewing the filmstrip and discussing the presentation with the parents has helped to gain their support."

"We discuss physical and sexual abuse in terms that are appropriate for children of each age group," she says.

The "You Are Special" presentation covers safety rules and tips for avoiding potentially dangerous encounters. (Always walk home from school with a friend. Don't accept a ride from a driver who says "your parents sent me to pick you up" unless he or she can give a pre-arranged password.)

Girls learn what to do if strangers or acquaintances bother them. They talk about the differences between "secrets that are good to keep," such as birthday surprises, and "secrets that are bad to keep," such as improper behavior by an older person. They learn the importance of telling such "bad secrets" to a trustworthy adult, such as a parent or teacher.

Brownies and Juniors learn how to ask the telephone operator for help and how to handle a phone conversation when parents are not home.

Cadettes and Senior Scouts discuss the film "Rape Prevention — No Pat Answer." They discuss avoiding potential assault situations, self-defense techniques, and the difference between sexually and sexual abuse.

Kirsten Jensen, program specialist for the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, coordinates the S.A.F.E. program and trains volunteer presenters. For more information about S.A.F.E., call Miss Jensen at council headquarters in Ypsilanti, 483-2370.

Special Awards Set For State Fair Queen

Who will be the fairest of the Fair?

That's the question Michigan State Fair officials will answer in the 1979 Queen of Queen competition. And this year the royal winner will have an added jewel in her crown.

Harold Arnoldi, Supervisor of Entertainment and Special Events for the Fair, has announced that the winner in the queens contest, one of the Fair's most popular events, will receive a round-trip ticket for two to Orlando, Fla., and Disney World.

The queen will fly via Delta Airlines — designated Official Carrier of the Michigan State Fair "Queen of Queens" — to Orlando on the week-end of her choice.

There she'll receive two nights' complimentary accommodations at the Orlando Hyatt.

The trip is in addition to other prizes, including a $100 Savings Bond, a dozen American Beauty Roses and a basket of Michigan products.

Contestants in the Queen of Queens Pageant must have won a live beauty queen contest in the past year. Preliminary competition will be Tuesday, Aug. 28, with the finals Wednesday, Aug. 29.

For details on the queens contest or the Fair's other special events, write the Fairgrounds, Detroit 48203, or call (313) 383-1000. Entries must be received no later than Monday, Aug. 27.

The Michigan State Fair will run from Aug. 24 to Sept. 3 (Labor Day). It is the oldest state fair in the nation.

Admission to the 1979 Fair, the first under the direction of the Department of Natural Resources, will be the same as it has the past three years. Adults get in for $3. Children under 12 are admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

One of the oldest crops grown by man, soybeans have taken on many new dimensions. The "golden beans" are now used in margarine, cookies, baby foods, breads, candy, cereals and salad dressings. Soybean oil is the most plentiful vegetable oil available.

Announcing Modernization & Expansion of DRIVE-UP WINDOW SERVICES

Chelsea State Bank is pleased to announce the expansion of the Drive-Up Window facilities at the Main Office from the current two windows to four windows, each with a separate lane. This improvement, together with the new Branch Office of this bank, presently under construction at the corner of S. Main St. and Old US-12, will increase our ability to serve our customers with greater speed and efficiency.

During the construction period the Drive-Up Window service will be limited to one window. This inconvenience should not last more than a few weeks, and during this time more tellers will be on duty in the lobby.

We appreciate your patience and co-operation during this construction period.

VOGEL'S & FOSTER'S

ask THE GOVERNOR!

by William A. Bower

Question: Governor, you seem to be advocating voluntary conservation methods instead of government regulation as a means of dealing with the energy crisis. Do you have any suggestions for conserving gasoline?

Governor: Just a few simple steps by each motorist during the work week would save significant amounts of gasoline and could help forestall any serious shortages. Far more gasoline is used for going to and from work than for recreation and tourism. It has been estimated that about 80 percent of our gasoline is used within 20 miles of our homes.

Recreation is not a thrill. The recreation and tourism industry contributes more than $3.3 billion to our economy. It is an essential part of our economy in Michigan.

gan, and therefore relates to the total well-being of our citizens.

There are many ways to cut down on gasoline use. Here are a few suggestions:

—Keep track of the number of miles you drive a week and figure out ways to cut back. If you say Michigan motorist used even one less gallon of gasoline a week, the savings would amount to 20 million gallons a month.

—Consider a "good neighbor policy" and ride to work with low employees. Ridesharing even one day a week saves 20 percent of the gasoline one person uses for work trips.

—Slow down. Reducing driving speed to 55 miles per hour or less significantly saves gasoline. Most cars get about 18 percent better mileage on the highway at 50 than at 30 miles per hour.

—Consolidate errands or trips to the same part of town; do them all at the same time. In some cases, a telephone call can accomplish what you want to do, eliminating a drive. Or, again, get to know your neighbor and share rides when doing errands.

—Avoid rush hour traffic with its many stops and starts.

—Bicycle or walk to nearby destinations.

—Keep your car correctly tuned and tires properly inflated.

Question: Each holiday I hear about operation C.A.R.E. What is that?

Governor: Operation C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) is an intensive road patrol project run in co-operation with 47 other states by the Michigan State Police.

Under the program, which is funded by the federal government through a grant administered by the Office of Highway Safety Planning, the State Police add extra patrols during holiday weekends to prevent traffic accidents. The extra patrol watches for speeders and especially is alert to traffic violations in which there is an indication of alcohol involvement.

The patrols also are on the alert for improper passing, improper lane changes and following too closely.

An important element of the C.A.R.E. program is the volunteer efforts of 50 citizen band radio clubs. The more than 500 members in these clubs operate coffee stops at numerous highway rest areas throughout the state during the holiday week-ends.

Question: I understand that more than $1 million has been awarded to people through the Crime Victims Compensation Act. How does that operate?

Governor: The Crime Victims Compensation Act went into effect in 1977 and is designed to pay for uncompensated medical bills or for lost wages or earning power suffered by innocent victims of violent crime. In the two years the program has been in operation, more than $1.09 million has been awarded to more than 800 crime victims. The majority of the victims were between 15 and 40 years old and just over half of them sought compensation for injuries due to assault.

Under the law, victims can be compensated if they are Michigan residents, are victims of acts that constitute crimes in Michigan, report the crime to proper authorities within 48 hours and file a claim within 30 days, or within 90 days of the death of the victim if survivor benefits are sought.

The victim may not be compensated if he or she was criminally responsible for the crime, was an accomplice or contributed in the infliction of the injury—except in the case of someone who intervened in an attempt to prevent the crime or aid a victim.

Michigan was one of the first states to recognize that society not only must do all it can to protect its members from crime, but that it must protect innocent victims from the financial burdens which often persist long after the act of violence is punished.

While nothing can restore things as they were for the victims of crime, we can at least demonstrate to these people that in this state we care as much for the rights of the victim as we care for the rights of the accused. If society is to function, the rights of both must be protected to the best of our ability. It should be understood that this is not welfare or charity, but justice for the victim.

Farm Bureau Urges Approval Of Trade Package

The American Farm Bureau Federation has urged the Senate Committee on Finance to approve the Geneva trade agreements and implementing legislation. John Datt, AFBF secretary and administrator, told the senators: "Although we were hopeful that trade restrictions on American farm exports would be lifted even more than they were, we are certain that the trade package, viewed in its entirety, offers American farmers improved opportunities in overseas markets."

He pointed to better market access and lower duties on U. S. farm exports as signs of considerable progress on the trade front and praised the new codes of conduct outlined in the treaty. U. S. agriculture made a "positive contribution to our balance of payments of around $15 billion last year," Datt said.

tion, more than $1.09 million has been awarded to more than 800 crime victims. The majority of the victims were between 15 and 40 years old and just over half of them sought compensation for injuries due to assault.

Police Nab Cassidy Lake Walk-Away

Chelsea police officers apprehended an escapee from Cassidy Lake Technical School last Tuesday, July 17, as the walk-away was headed northbound on M-52 around 3:40 a.m.

Officers stopped Fredrick Joseph Friendship, III, 18 of Ecorse, who told them his truck had given out and that he was walking for help. Police reports indicate that officers did a check through the dispatcher and discovered that a subject was missing from Cassidy Lake.

Chelsea police transported Friendship to Cassidy Lake where he was identified, then took him to Washtenaw County Jail where he was lodged.

The case is open pending prosecution by Cassidy Lake.

Inverness Pro Competes in Mich. Open

Mark Black of Chelsea, Inverness Country Club pro, competed in a field of 76 professional and amateur golfers in the Michigan Open at the Michigan Golf Course last week-end.

Black finished with final score of 311 after four rounds of play. Randy Erskine won the event with a 281.

This is Black's first year as pro at Inverness. Previously he was at the Frankenmuth Golf and Country Club and played at Central Michigan University for four years. He just recently turned professional.

Area Students Earn Degrees From CMU

Three students from this area were among those receiving undergraduate degrees from Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant at the end of the academic year in May.

Shelly Marie Porath, 10280 Hadley Rd., received a bachelor of science degree in business and administration; Victor R. Steinbach, 70 Cedar Lake, was awarded a bachelor of science degree with a double major of recreation and earth science; and Janice Marie Powers, 1100 Clear Lake Rd., Grass Lake earned a BS degree in health education.

Four Students Attending Fine Arts Camp

Attending Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp for the second summer session this year are four students from Chelsea.

Area students who are at Blue Lake from July 10-22 include Andrew Martin, 3701 McKinley Rd., band; Joshua Smith, 18185 North Territorial, band; Pattie Schumann, 667 Washington, musical theater; and Amy Wolter, 18185 North Territorial, band.

Blue Lake, which will host approximately 3,200 elementary through high school students this summer, offers instruction in a wide variety of fine arts.

Students such as Martin, Smith and Wolter, who elect a band major at Blue Lake can expect to find their work challenging, no matter what their level of proficiency or experience may be. Band students are assigned to one of three different bands on the basis of ability. In addition to three hours of intensive daily rehearsals and sectionals, technique classes and a master class are included as part of the regular fee.

Those, such as Schumann, electing a musical theatre major participate in a four-week session of instruction and rehearsal, ending with a public performance in Blue Lake's Howmet Playhouse. Theatre is available as a major only to students at the high school level.

Located 15 miles north of Muskegon in the Manistee National Forest, the 14-year-old summer school of the arts has grown to be one of the largest facilities of its type in the United States.

REBUILDING: Only the still-intact revolving sign in the rear center of this picture gives any indication that the tumbled cinder blocks and boards were once the building housing the Chexer gas station at the corner of M-52 and Old US-12. Like the phoenix rising from the ashes, however, the Chexer will rise again as the company begins construction of a smaller, more economical building on the site and installs new pumps and a new gas storage tank.

Get Your Secret Recipes Ready for State Fair Entry

Have friends told you that your home-made cake or candy is better than any they've ever tasted? That it's so good, it could win a prize?

Well, now's the time to find out. The 1979 Michigan State Fair is taking entries for all categories in its Community Arts Division competition. The deadline is Aug. 1.

There are more contests and prizes than ever this year, including a new counterpart to the Governor's Cookie Jar Award.

In that contest, the winning cookie jar is presented to Governor Milliken, and the winning cookie maker gets a special award. This year, the Fair will also have the First Lady Candy Box Award.

The winning candy box, with at least four different candies represented, will be given to the state's First Lady, Mrs. Milliken, and the winning candy maker will receive a special award.

The list of prizes is lengthened by the addition of more firms that will give special awards to winners in various categories, such as highest total points in cookie competition.

There are special categories for men only and for senior and handicapped citizens. The latter two require no entry fee.

For those who may not want to compete but who want to learn or improve their skills, the Community Arts Division is offering Make-It and Take-It Craft Workshops.

These almost-daily workshops, covering such skills as quilting and porcelain-doll making, are offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Materials and instruction are included in the nominal entry fee.

Marie Harding, Community Arts Division Supervisor, urges entrants to apply as soon as possible, especially those who want to enroll in the workshops, because space is limited.

Entry blanks and premium books detailing the various categories are available by writing Community Arts Division, State library that Walter became aware of the opening at McKune, applied for the position and was hired by the library board.

New Head Librarian...

At this point, with only a week on the job, Walter is still commuting from Jackson but is searching for a place in Chelsea. Born and raised in Jackson, she has made her home there with the exception of a couple of moves, once to Detroit, followed by returns home.

Now, however, Walter is eagerly looking forward to a move to Chelsea. "It's been a dream of mine to work in a small library like this," she said.

Walter's active life shatters the stereotyped image of the librarian as bookworm. She enjoys outdoor sports such as tennis, volleyball and badminton and delights in riding the bike she often totes on the back of her Volkswagen.

After only a week on the job, Walter is plunging into mastering McKune's 22,000-book collection. "I'm still finding out where the pens and pencils are at this point," she admits.

No matter how well she will eventually know the McKune collection, it's sure money that Jo Ann Walter will go on challenging herself with new goals and tasks, from which Chelsea can only benefit.

As she puts it, "It's like being paid to practice a hobby you love."

other win, 14-8, over the Blue Angels.

An excellent, errorless game was played between Basso's Bombers and the Chelseettes, Thursday. Donna Bruck doubled to knock in two runs for the Chelseettes in the top of the first. The following three innings were scoreless for both teams.

Basso's Bombers finally broke loose in the fifth with a Laura Torres double, which scored two runs to even the score. Chris Basso then stepped up and delivered a double to right field, scoring what ended up the winning run.

Bombers, Chandra Hurd, then came in to finish up the pitching duties and help the Bombers to hold the opposition, 4-2.

Tournament play is quickly creeping up on both leagues.

The Junior Miss League teams will participate in a double-elimination tournament, beginning next week. Teams playing in the first round of contests have not yet

Pirates Continue Lead In Babe Ruth Play

It was a slow weed in the Babe Ruth League with several rain-outs marring the schedule.

The Pirates continued their tenure in first place and won two games, beating the Giants, 12-6, and the Astros, 11-7. It was a come-from-behind victory over the Giants as the Pirates took an early inning lead and the Pirates came back in the fourth inning to go ahead. Jeff Beaver and Doug Pagliarini teamed up to pitch a four-hitter. Doug Henson had two hits. The Pirates came from behind against the Astros with Randy Krichbaum and Doug Henson each collecting two hits.

Hanging in right behind the Pirates are the Yankees, just one half game off the pace as they continue their steady play. The Royals beat the Orioles with Jeff Blanchard pitching and Ross Murphy in relief. Against the Dodgers Steve Grau struck out 15 as the Royals won handily.

The Astros, in a happy note, have moved out of the cellar. The Astros beat the Reds, 12-5, to notch their first win in league play and vow to win more with new-found pitching strength.

July 15 was the deadline for mailers to use up small and undersized envelopes and cards, Chelsea Postmaster Richard Schaules reminds customers.

Starting that date, the Postal Service makes its new size standards effective. Cards and envelopes measuring less than 3 1/2 inches high or 5 inches long no longer will be mailable and will be returned to sender.

Extra large first-class envelopes — more than 6 1/8 by 11 1/2 inches — will incur a 7-cent surcharge if they weigh one ounce or less.

Postmaster Schaules advises these oversized pieces will be returned to the sender if they do not carry the 7-cent surcharge but can be remailed if the surcharge postage then is affixed. However, delays for these pieces can be avoided if mailers make sure that sufficient postage has been applied.

The new regulation also will prohibit thin or flimsy cards. After July 15, the cards must be at least seven-thousandths (.007) of an inch thick.

"Small" envelopes and flimsy cards tend to jam mail processing equipment and cause damage to other mail as well," explained Postmaster Schaules. "The surcharge on oversized or odd-shaped pieces is intended to cover the added cost of handling such pieces which must be processed manually." Schaules said, "These standards have been established to allow the Postal Service to process mail more efficiently and this will mean better service for customers."

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Enlightens us on God's mindfulness of man. The Psalmist wrote in Psalms 8:4, "What is man, that thou art mindful of him," Truly God has been mindful of man in every respect. How grateful the human race should be! God is mindful of man's physical needs. (Matthew 6:11, 25-30; James 1:17). We learn also from the Bible, that Jehovah is mindful of man's social needs. "And Jehovah God said, It is not good that man should be alone; I will make for him a help meet for him." (Genesis 2:18, 23-25). The apostle Paul likened this blessed tie to Christ and his church. (Ephesians 5:22-23). The Lord is mindful of man's spiritual needs. Man was created in the image of God. (Genesis 1:26, 27; 2:7). After man's fall God promised to send the Saviour. (Genesis 3:15; Matthew 1:21; Romans 5:8). The gospel was given to save. (Romans 1:16). The Scriptures were given to guide man. (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Man is not able to direct his own steps. (Jeremiah 10:23). Lastly, God is mindful of man's eternal needs. Christ has gone to prepare a place. (John 14:2). He will come again. (John 14:3); to receive the redeemed ones unto himself. (John 14:3). Heaven is a prepared place for a prepared people.

Can Organic
Farming Feed
The World?

There's a lot of talk these days about organic farming. There once was a time when all farming was organic.

That meant it took a lot of people to do the work. There was soil to be cleared and plowed... manure to be moved from cow barn to the fields... crops to be planted... weeds to be hoed... and entire families pitched in to pull the bugs from the crops by hand.

Without modern machines and chemicals, colonial farmers did little better than feed themselves. To eat, 95 out of every 100 Americans had to farm.

By 1776, each farm worker fed himself and two others. This year, each farm worker can feed 60 people.

Can organic farming feed today's millions? Many people have strong opinions about that—both for and against. Or is there a middle ground whereby organic food-growing methods can reduce our dependence on some modern technology and still not cut our food production too low?

These are some questions the U.S. Department of Agriculture is trying to answer through research. The research team will study the benefits of organic farming—the values, present and future economic impacts, and costs. The team will look at different degrees of organic farming—from no organic farming at all to total reliance on organic farming.

The team will look for the reasons why some food and fiber producers have turned to organic farming and chemicals to organic farming—and how well they do. It also will determine what information is needed for successful organic farming and the technological barriers that may stand in its way.

Organic farming is widely practiced in Europe as a matter of necessity. In China, the practice is centuries old—although now undergoing some changes. Many farmers question whether organic farming can produce enough food to feed the millions of people who must be fed in modern times. The USDA research team hopes to find the answer.

Laws and regulations setting employment standards, providing workers' compensation and requiring federal contractors to provide equal employment opportunities are enforced by the Employment Standards Administration of the Labor Department.

Chelsea Students Attending WMU Music Seminar

Two Chelsea students will be participants in Seminar 79, the original chamber music program for high school students in Michigan, to be held on the campus of Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo Sunday, July 15 through Saturday, July 28.

Sara Merkel, daughter of Robert and Barbara Merkel, 124 W. Summit St., and Faith Markle, daughter of James and Patricia Markle, 17476 Cavanaugh Lake Rd., will both play viola in the two-week program.

Approximately 160 students have been selected by audition to participate in this program, which is WMU's 28th annual summer music camp. Each student is enrolled in one of seven seminars—string, woodwind, brass, percussion, vocal, piano or composition.

During their stay at WMU, students will study music theory and music literature, take private lessons, and perform in a variety of large and small ensemble concerts which are open to the public. All music performed during Seminar 79 is learned and prepared during the two-week camp.

Unlike other camps, Seminar 79 emphasizes chamber music: music which is composed for a small number of performers, each playing his or her own part. Seminar students are involved in daily chamber music-making under the guidance of a distinguished artist-faculty.

Seminar 79 operates under the auspices of WMU's College of Fine Arts.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I wish to extend congratulations to the Chelsea Recreation Department for its handling of the 15-year-old state tournament which was held in Lansing Saturday, July 14.

Due to the lack of concern by the director the team was not allowed to participate in the tournament.

The rules are specific, you must furnish the proper documents to play.

If these papers are not furnished you do not play. That is what happened on Saturday. The team, ready to play, was informed that they forfeited the game.

The entire team was despondent because the team members were cheated by the director.

Many hours were spent training for this day, many of the players will never have the opportunity to play in the state tournament again.

The team was unable to play in the state tournament because of the incompetence of the director of Babe Ruth League.

Mr. and Mrs. Coomes.

To the Editor:

In the July 12 issue of The Chelsea Standard, I see where the president of the Chelsea School District, announced to seek voter approval on the 1-7 mills, that was voted down by the voting public on June 11. Is there any wonder that our youth, so many cannot take no for an answer, when our officials display this kind of action?

With the increase in assessed valuation in the District, along with the new homes and business, how much more operating costs are met in this way? Perhaps the School Board should cut out some non-essentials, and learn to live within their means, same as the taxpayer. Are we going to destroy ourselves from within? Beware.

A concerned citizen.

Dear Editor:

In 1823 President Monroe issued his Doctrine that warned Europe that any interference with existing states in this hemisphere would be looked upon as an act unfriendly to the United States.

In 1962 President Kennedy gave Khrushchev a non-intervention promise which was followed in 1970 by President Nixon giving a blanket pledge that the United States would not again intervene in another Latin American country which renounced the Monroe Doctrine and the powers it gave us over this hemisphere. We renounced it further when we failed to clean up the Cuba situation and to wipe out the Soviet Russian beachhead in our Caribbean front yard.

Now our Congressman, Robert Carr of the Sixth District votes with the Organization of American States to suspend all assistance to President Somoza of Nicaragua who has been fighting Communism for 30 years. Carr blames Somoza for the bloodshed there but it is the Sandinistas (named for a life-long Communist) who are fighting the National Guard, torching cotton and sugar fields, destroying farm buildings and equipment and haranguing farm workers at gun point.

President Somoza on TV tonight said he was resigning, that the OAS would guarantee a democratic government in Nicaragua, and that he will remain in his country just long enough to make sure. He said that if the Communists take over Nicaragua, they will be crossing the Rio Grande in a few years. Is that what Robert Carr wants?

Mrs. Josephine Lutchka.

To the Editor:

This past Saturday, July 14, fifteen boys, Coach Dave Lukasiak, Assistant Coach Jeff Sweet and several parents left Chelsea in high spirits to attend and participate in the Michigan District Babe Ruth Tournament for 13-15-year-olds at Lansing. Upon our arrival we learned that Chelsea had to forfeit! We will get to the reason later.

First, we would like to say how proud we are in regard to the way the coaches and team handled themselves. They went on to play an exhibition game in a very sportsman-like manner. The final score was 7-6 in favor of the other team. There is no doubt in our minds, however, that the Chelsea team would have won had their spirits not been dealt such a low blow.

We would also like to mention that next to Chelsea's name on the program were the words "NO ROSTER AVAILABLE." How would you like to put that in your son's scrapbook?

Back to the reason for the forfeit. The tournament rules clearly stated that the team scorebooks had to be presented before game time in order to prove that the tournament players had been playing in a Babe Ruth League. The Chelsea team did not have all the necessary scorebooks. Where were they? Ask Mr. Russell Pichlik, director of the Babe Ruth League. Strike one!

Coach Lukasiak was not told that Chelsea would be participating until a week before the tournament. Therefore, only one week of practice for our boys and one month for the opposing team. Strike two!

A similar circumstance happened during the tournament for 13-year-olds last year. This year Chelsea didn't even have a team of 13-year-olds entered in the tournament. Strike three!

Mr. Pichlik—you're out! There is also trouble in the younger leagues. Our "Little Leaguer" showed up for a game only to find that the game had been called. Due to the amount of rain we had that day, the fact that the field wasn't playable could have been ascertained at 2 p.m. Where was Mr. Robert Draper, director of Little League? Why didn't he check the field at an earlier time, notify the coaches and they in turn notify their team members? Also, two games were scheduled at the same time, on the same diamond, this past Friday with only one umpire. No umpires were scheduled for the later game.

All of the blame cannot be placed on just these two men. A share must go to the person who hired or appointed them, the Summer League Director, Mr. Robin Raymond. Why were these people hired in the first place? What were their qualifications?

Some people say that young people's sports have become too organized. That certainly cannot be said of Chelsea's Summer Baseball League.

We believe that if steps are not taken immediately to remedy this situation there soon will be no baseball program. Why should these boys and their coaches work so hard for so little?

We hope other concerned persons will join us at the next meeting of the Recreation Council which, according to the Community Calendar, will be Aug. 1, at 7:30 p.m. in the village council room.

Dan and Carol Murphy.

To the Editor:

The "Joy of Winning"—or the "Agony of Defeat"—that's what sportsmen say all around the world. Last Saturday 15 players of Chelsea's Babe Ruth League learned another word, "forfeit."

I wish every parent and especially "Mr. Pichlik" could have been there to see the disappointment and broken hearts of the Chelsea All Stars. You teach your children to be good sports if they win or lose, but how do you teach them to accept forfeit because someone was paid to do a job and didn't do it?

It takes a great coach to put a winning team together with only a week's notice, but Dave and Jeff did it. Dave not only handled the playing of ball, but then had to explain the hard, cold facts of life (if that's what you want to call it).

Congratulations Dave on a great job! I'm sure glad I didn't have to stand in front of those boys and give them the bad news. You should have been there to see the expressions on their faces. Knowing that they would never have another opportunity to play in another state tournament game for 15-year-olds. Dave Lukasiak and Jeff Sweet deserve a lot of credit. I didn't know how you apologize to coaches for taking a win away from them and their team for laziness, carelessness or whatever.

I'm sure everyone else at the "State Tournament" (from all over) was as impressed as I was with the programs. The other teams had complete team line-ups. The big blank space with "Chelsea — Not Available" was great.

I guess any 14-15-year-old guy that only made the All Star game doesn't care if his name was in it or not. He didn't need a silly ole program for his sport scrapbook anyway.

Also on the program, I was shocked to learn that Chelsea was not represented. No team at all for the 13-year-old division. As a parent it's hard for me to believe that with all the 13-year-old boys in Chelsea, we couldn't get a team. I'm sure that Mr. Pichlik has a very good explanation for this, too.

I must admit that I was very glad to be able to drive and take five other boys with our son. Those boys were really inspired and could hardly wait to get there and start with the game. It's top bad that the memory of the game will be as it is.

Another great job, recreation Department Manager; Mr. Pichlik, I hope you were well paid this year. How do you feel after contributing to the waste of more of our tax money?

Tom Dault.

B. The requirements of the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance for the establishment of "planned unit developments" shall be interpreted consistent with the following purposes: to permit flexibility in the regulation of land development; to encourage innovation in land use and variety in design, layout, and type of structures constructed; to achieve economy and efficiency in the use of land, natural resources, energy, and the provision of public services and utilities; to encourage useful open space; and to provide better housing, employment, and shopping opportunities particularly suited to the needs of the residents of this State.

C. Regulations relating to the use of land, including permitted uses, lot sizes, setbacks, heights, limitations, required facilities, buffers, open space areas, and land use density, shall be determined by the Lima Township Planning Commission in accordance with the plan unit development regulations specified in the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance. Said regulations need not be uniform with regard to each type of land use if equitable procedures recognizing the due process principles and avoiding arbitrary decisions are followed in making regulatory decisions.

D. Following receipt of a request to approve a planned unit development, the Lima Township Planning Commission shall hold at least one (1) public hearing upon the request. Pre-application conferences before submission of a planned unit development request may be had by the Lima Township Planning Commission at its election and said Planning Commission may request the submission of preliminary site plans at said conferences before the public hearing. Notification of the public hearing shall be given in the same manner as provided for public hearings on special land uses. Within a reasonable time following the public hearing, the Lima Township Planning Commission shall meet for final consideration of the request, and deny, approve or approve with conditions the request. The Lima Township Planning Commission shall prepare a report stating its conclusions on the request for a planned unit development, the basis for its decision, the decision, and any conditions relating to the affirmative decision. If an amendment to the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance is necessary to act upon the planned unit request, the Lima Township Planning Commission acting as the Lima Township Zoning Board shall hold the public hearing required for the amendment of the Ordinance, and the report and the documents relating to the planned unit development request shall be transmitted to the Township Board together with the recommendation for rezoning for consideration by said Township Board in making a final decision. If amendment of the Zoning Ordinance is required, the requirements of Public Act 184 of 1943 as amended and Public Act 637 of 1978 for amendment of a Zoning Ordinance shall be followed, except that the hearing and notice required by this subsection of this amendment shall be regarded as fulfilling the public hearing and notice requirement necessary under Section 9 of Public Act 637 of 1978.

E. In the event that an amendment to the Zoning Ordinance for the authorization of the planned unit development is not required, the Lima Township Planning Commission may approve, approve with conditions, or deny a request.

F. Final approvals may be granted on each phase of a multiphased planned unit development if each phase contains the necessary components to insure protection of natural resources and the health, safety, and welfare of the users of the planned unit development and the residents of the surrounding area.

G. The requirements of the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance for the approval of a planned unit development request shall be interpreted by the Lima Township Planning Commission to be consistent with the following standards: to promote the intent and uses of the zoning ordinance, to insure that the land use or activity authorized shall be compatible with adjacent uses of land, the natural environment, and the capacities of public services and facilities affected by the land use, and to be consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare of the township. The requirements of other applicable ordinances, state and federal statutes, are hereby declared to be appropriate standards in addition to those set forth in said Zoning Ordinance for the approval of planned unit development requirements, including by way of illustration and not limitation: the Lima Township Subdivision Ordinance or the Subdivision Control Provisions of the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, the Plat Act, the Washtenaw County Building Code, the Washtenaw County Health Code, the Lima Township Private Road Ordinance, and/or the Rules and Regulations of the Washtenaw County Road Commission.

H. A request for the approval of a planned unit development which meets the requirements of this amendment Ordinance, the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, the conditions imposed pursuant to this Ordinance and amendment, and other applicable Ordinances, state and federal statutes, shall be approved.

I. Reasonable conditions may be required with the approval of the planned unit development. Conditions may include conditions necessary to insure the public services and facilities affected by the proposed land use or activity will be capable of accommodating increased service and facility loads caused by the land use or activity, to protect the natural environment or conserve natural resources and energy, to insure compatibility with adjacent uses of land, and to promote the use of the land in a socially and economically desirable manner. Conditions imposed shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Be designed to protect natural resources, the health, safety, and welfare and the social and economic well being of those who will use the land use or activity under consideration, residents and landowners immediately adjacent to the proposed land use or activity, and the community as a whole;

(ii) Be related to the valid exercise of the police power, and purposes which are affected by the proposed use or activity.

(iii) Be necessary to meet the intent and purpose of the zoning ordinance, be related to the standards established in the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance and this amendment for the land use or activity under consideration, and be necessary to insure compliance with those standards.

I. The conditions imposed with respect to the approval of a land use or activity shall be recorded in the record of the approval action, and shall remain unchanged except upon the mutual consent of the Lima Township Planning Commission and the landowner. The Lima Township Planning Commission shall maintain a record of conditions which are changed.

J. Section 8.02, 8.05, 8.06, 8.07, 8.08, the last sentence of Section 8.03, and all reference to "Zoning Board of Appeals" in Section 8.09, Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, be and the same is hereby repealed. All reference throughout the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance to review of requests for conditional use permits by the Lima Township Planning Commission and the submission of recommendations to the Lima Township Zoning Board of Appeals, be and the same are hereby deleted. The remaining provisions of Article VIII, Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, be and the same are hereby ratified and reaffirmed.

SECTION 5. Pursuant to Section 20 of Public Act 637 of 1978 with regard to special land use and planned unit developments, there shall be no appeal allowed to the Lima Township Board of Zoning Appeals. All other discretionary decisions provided in the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance shall be made in accordance with Section 16 d of Public Act 637 of 1978, and appeal from such decisions shall lie with the Lima Township Board of Zoning Appeals.

SECTION 6. "Site Plan" shall include documents and drawings required by the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance to insure that a proposed use or activity is in compliance with local ordinances and state and federal statutes. Where the zoning ordinance requires site plan approval, the site plan, as approved, shall become part of the record of approval, and subsequent actions relating to the activity authorized shall be consistent with the approved site plan, unless a change conforming to the zoning ordinance receives the mutual agreement of the landowner and the township body which initially approved the site plan. The site plan shall be approved if it contains the information required by the zoning ordinance and is in compliance with the zoning ordinance, the ordinance, and state and federal statutes. Conditions imposed pursuant to the ordinance shall include all conditions imposed by the Lima Township Planning Commission in the approval of a special land use or in the approval of a planned unit development which shall be incorporated into said site plan. All references to "Township Board" in Section 9.10, Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, be and the same are hereby deleted and the term "Planning Commission" is substituted in their place and stead.

SECTION 7. "Improvements" means those features and actions associated with a project which are considered necessary by the Lima Township Planning Commission in the granting of approval for special land use, planned unit developments, or site plans, to protect natural resources, or the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the township and future users or inhabitants of the proposed project or project area, including roadways, lighting, utilities, sidewalks, screening, and drainage. Improvements shall not include the entire project for which approval is sought.

A. In order to insure compliance with the zoning ordinance and any conditions imposed thereunder, the Lima Township Planning Commission, the Township Board of Zoning Appeals, or any other body or official who is granted the discretionary authority in the approval of any uses or activities under this ordinance, may require that a cash deposit, certified check, irrevocable bank letter of credit, or surety bond acceptable to the approving body covering the estimated costs of improvements associated with a project for which site plan approval is sought under the various provisions of this ordinance, be deposited with the Clerk of the Township to insure faithful completion of the improvements. The performance guarantee shall be deposited at the time of the issuance of the permit authorizing the activity or project. The township shall not require deposit of the performance guarantee prior to the time when the township is prepared to issue the permit. Said approving commission, board, or authority shall at the time it requires a cash deposit establish a procedure whereby a rebate of the cash deposit in reasonable proportion to the ratio of work completed on the required improvements will be made as work progresses. This provision shall not be applicable to improvements for which a cash deposit, certified check, irrevocable bank letter of credit, or surety bond has been deposited pursuant to Act No. 288 of Public Acts of 1967, as amended, being Section 560.101 to 560.293 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

SECTION 8. Notwithstanding any pliance with the zoning ordinance, the conditions imposed pursuant to the ordinance, other applicable ordinances, and state and federal statutes. Conditions imposed pursuant to the ordinance shall include all conditions imposed by the Lima Township Planning Commission in the approval of a special land use or in the approval of a planned unit development which shall be incorporated into said site plan. All references to "Township Board" in Section 9.10, Lima Township Zoning Ordinance, be and the same are hereby deleted and the term "Planning Commission" is substituted in their place and stead.

SECTION 9. Uses of land, and dwellings, buildings, or structures including tents or trailer coaches, used, erected, altered, razed, or converted in violation of the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance and all amendments thereto are hereby declared to be a nuisance per se. The Court shall order the nuisance abated and the owner or agent in charge of the dwelling, building, structure, tent, trailer coach, or land is guilty of maintaining a nuisance per se. SECTION 10. All provisions of the Lima Township Zoning Ordinance and all amendments thereto which are not expressly inconsistent with the foregoing amendment, be and the same are hereby ratified and reaffirmed. Signs of Change

By Loren D. Estleman

"Fahrheit 451" is just around the corner. In Ray Bradbury's classic tale of science fiction, butchered some years ago by Hollywood, the written word has been declared illegal in the world of the future and photographs and drawings are used to impart information. In the world of the present, we have already taken the first step toward that end by substituting barely comprehensible symbols for words on signs.

In place of the familiar legend "Do Not Enter," the confused motorist who seeks to drive the wrong way down a one-way street or enter an expressway via the exit ramp is now confronted with the image of a doughnut with a bar driven through it. This one never fails to make me hungry.

An 18-wheeler perched atop a wedge is meant to indicate "Steep Grade — Trucks Use Low Gear." "Danger — Cheese in the Road" would seem as appropriate.

Instead of "Men" and "Women," restrooms are now identified by silhouettes intended to represent the respective genders. The fact that short hair and slacks are as much a part of the female world these days as of the male (with long hair and skirts equally debatable in some quarters) doesn't appear to have occurred to the system's designers. Further, since these figures don't seem to be doing anything other than just standing there (the alternative, I imagine would be (indicate), I imagine would make obtuse. They could just as well be designating different entrances to a singles bar.

(Despite arguments to the contrary, the above point will prove useless in the event the Equal Rights Amendment is passed, applying federal sanction to unisex restrooms. But that's another column.)

Parking lots are branded by an oversize "P." For obvious (if somewhat offensive) reasons, it's understandable that the uninformed might read this as a direction to a restroom.

Defenders of these recent changes reason that visitors from foreign lands cannot always understand our printed signs, and thus certain symbols already familiar in many European countries must be substituted. This is a notable enough sentiment, and not at all related to the manic desire on the part of America's planners to bring us into line with the rest of the world, as is the case with our unnecessary adoption of the metric system in place of a perfectly serviceable method of measurement. It's the cultural overflow that concerns me.

Already the language is suffering from this streamlining mania. Time was when it was acceptable to spell such words as "catalogue" and "cigarette" without being obliged to drop the last two letters, and "through" appears to be slipping away before the simpler "thru," taught to us exclusively by the various road commissions (as in "Thru Traffic Only"). The non-existent word "flammable," which once could be read only on aerosol cans and tanker trucks loaded with combustible chemicals, has already replaced the correct "inflammable," a term thought to confuse the slow-witted.

There is an unintentional conspiracy afoot on the part of three major American institutions to destroy the English language. To "Washingtonese" and "Madison Avenue Gobbledygook" must be added the term "Signese," completing the picture of the triple-headed hydra industriously pecking away at Webster's Dictionary.

A language whose employers believe that "presently" and "currently" and "persuade" and "convince" are interchangeable is already in deep trouble. When there is no longer anyone left who can spell them, can "Fahrheit 451" be far away?

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

★ EPA Over-Reaction

The Environmental Protection Agency, that self-appointed guardian of humanity, seems to operate on the theory of "don't confuse the issue with facts."

Take the case of EPA's ban on the use of 2,4,5-T. The herbicide was used successfully and safely in this country for weed and brush control in forests, rights-of-way and pastures for more than 30 years. It came under fire earlier this year when some women in Oregon who lived near an area that had been sprayed with 2,4,5-T had miscarriages. A limited study indicated that the miscarriages were related to the spraying of the herbicide. Evidence was limited and inconclusive, but EPA decided to arbitrarily ban the herbicide.

The American Farm Bureau Federation joined Dow Chemical and nine other plaintiffs in a suit that challenges EPA's action. And, although the judge ruled in EPA's favor, he said he did so because he had no jurisdiction over the government agency.

A group of scientists who attended a conference sponsored by Farm Bureau have now concluded that the evidence "did not demonstrate that miscarriages reported in the EPA study were due to spraying of 2,4,5-T in forests." They also concluded that the herbicide does not cause cancer and is generally of little ecological concern if used and applied according to label instructions.

The 48 scientists, from the United States and seven other countries, are from the fields of medicine, toxicology, chemistry, ecology and agriculture. Some 50 other scientists and non-scientists from government, universities, environmental organizations, industry and the news media acted as observers at that conference.

Now, it's EPA's move. Will it accept fact—or unsupported guesswork?

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from
State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of July 16-23

CONFERENCE TIME—The legislature is now in recess until mid-September, but it's not a vacation: joint House-Senate conference committees are working to resolve dollar and language differences in bills passed by both houses through last week.

HEATING ASSISTANCE—The future of the home heating assistance program has warmed up recently, with House approval of HB 4726 which continues the program, and the governor's renewed support for it due to increased heating oil costs.

SCHOLARSHIP LIBERATION—Governor Milliken has signed into law SB 227, which allows recipients of state scholarships to use them at any nonprofit, postsecondary school in Michigan, rather than just at degree-granting colleges and universities.

YOUR PARTY, PLEASE—The Senate last week took action on SB 540, which would create what is called a "closed" Presidential Primary; before you could vote, you would have to announce whether you are Republican, Democrat or Independent. The votes of Independents would not be used for national convention delegate selection if banned by party rule; Democrats ban them.

GAS RATIONING?—The Department of Commerce is holding public hearings this week to get public reaction to "odd-even" and "minimum-purchase" gasoline distribution proposals. These are standby plans only. Hearings are in Cadillac, July 16; Marquette, July 17; Kalamazoo, July 18; Saginaw, July 19; and Detroit, July 20. You may give testimony at these hearings.

POINT COUNTERPOINT—Now in the House is the Senate-approved SB 471, which adds on penalty points for speeding violations over the present 55-mph speed limit and any future energy-imposed speed limit set by the governor. One point would be added for 55 to the previous limit while two points or more would result from violating a special energy-related speed limit.

WORKER COMPANIES—Governor Milliken has signed into law HB 4119, which provides state help for the establishment of employee-owned corporations. This is designed to help save jobs at companies which the owners want to close, if the employees want to take them over.

EASY RIDING—Although tourism is down somewhat from 1978's record levels, the outlook is still good for this summer—particularly because gasoline is readily available at most locations in northern Michigan. To learn gas availability, you can call 800-292-2520.

SAFETY RECORD—Our recent midweek 4th of July holiday was the safest in 28 years. There were only 5 recorded traffic deaths during the 30-hour period, the lowest since at least 1951. This was attributed to increased traffic patrols and reduced personal travel.

Simple Rules Can Lead to Safe Summer

To make summer time a safe time, Michigan Basic Property Insurance Association suggests some simple rules.

According to Samuel W. Murphy, Jr., general manager, Michigan Basic Property Insurance Association, a non-profit organization that provides fire insurance for homes and commercial property throughout the state of Michigan, summer outdoor life presents hazards that can result in tragic fires.

Michigan Basic offers these 10 rules for a safer season.

1. Keep the outdoor barbecue grill well away from the house, clear of burnable materials. Be especially careful if you have a frame house. Many home fires are started by sparks coming from the barbecue.

2. Never help along a wood fire with flammable or combustible liquids. This may cause explosions that very often result in fatalities.

3. Always make sure that smoldering ashes are covered with sand or put in a metal container. And be sure that the container is not near anything that will burn.

4. Don't move your barbecue grill indoors if it starts to rain. Play it safe and delay the meal.

5. When using a lawn mower, don't refuel it when the motor is still hot. Spilled fuel or escaping gases may start a fire or explosion if they touch a hot area.

6. Check your room air conditioners to make sure they're in good working order. If you have central air conditioning, have it looked over by a professional. Short circuits are potential fire hazards.

7. Don't overload your electric circuits. Remember, you can expect a heavy draw from your air conditioners if it's a hot day. Add this to your use of power tools and it could result in overburdened circuits, a common cause of home fires.

8. Be careful when you're storing combustibles. Keep them in a cool place. Cover the open paint cans and turpentine containers tightly to avoid spillage.

9. Summer time is a good time to throw away piles of papers and old rags that have accumulated in the attic or basement. Get rid of any unusable material and don't start a new pile of oily rags or partially cleaned paint brushes.

10. Choose your working clothes with care. Loose blouses and shirts can catch fire when you're starting your barbecue. Don't smoke near combustible materials.

FRIDAY THE 13th turned out a decidedly unlucky day for ConRail as a 118-car freight train derailed in Grass Lake late in the afternoon. Freight cars bearing brand-new cars and trucks were overturned and the undercarriage of some railroad cars ripped off and mangled. Officials have not yet determined the cause of the wreck.

TWISTED METAL, ruined tracks and freight cars tumbled helter skelter were visible as far as the eye could see, Friday, July 13, at the Brown St. railroad crossing in Grass Lake. The ConRail freight train derailed at about 3:15 p.m. enroute to Elkart, Ind.

USDA Proposes Limitation on Junk Food Sales

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has defined "junk food," at the urging of Congress, and proposed a regulation to ban sales of candy, chewing gum, frozen desserts and sodas in most schools before the last lunch period.

Junk foods, as defined by the USDA, are "foods of minimum nutritional value." Foods fall into this category if one serving, or a portion with 100 calories, contains less than five percent of the recommended daily allowance of any one of eight basic nutrients.

The regulation would take effect next Jan. 1 in nearly 98 percent of the schools serving federally subsidized lunches. Vending machine distributors, the food industry and the public, including students, will have 60 days to comment on the proposed ban.

USDA hopes that schools and vending machine distributors will offer more fruits, vegetables, fruit juices, and nuts as snacks to students.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

Steaming hot Michigan corn-on-the-cob with fresh melted Michigan butter is a perfect picnic treat for summer outings. For a different corn taste, try serving with a cheddar cheese spread, sour cream and chives or make sweet corn and bacon hot cakes.

Good things are growing in Michigan and fresh sweet corn is now arriving at markets and stores.

Our state ranks fifth in the nation in sweet corn, producing nearly eight million dozen ears in 1978, valued at $8,515,000, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Corn leads all of our other crops in value, with nearly 40 034cent of our planted acreage, nearly three million acres, being devoted to field and sweet corn, popcorn and corn silage.

With improved fertilization, irrigation and farm management, yields have risen from 30 bushels of corn an acre in 1886 through the mid-40's to an average 81 bushels an acre today.

Sweet corn, as we know it, was cultivated in the early 1800's and is one of the few vegetables native to America, dating back to the Indians of Guatemala.

Fresh sweet corn's good flavor is quickly lost after it's picked, because its high sugar content turns to starch as ears mature. To help keep the flavor, leave husks on and refrigerate until it is to be cooked.

Freezing sweet corn is an easy way to retain Michigan freshness and flavor for a 'winter picnic' around the fireplace.

For a listing of where you can stock up on sweet corn from pick-your-own farms and roadside markets, write the Michigan Department of Agriculture for the free P.O. Box 30017, Lansing 48909.
