Dawn Spencer Dies in Freak Truck Mishap

Dawn Marie Spencer, a 16-year-old junior at Chelsea High School, died Saturday, Sept. 15, from injuries suffered in a freak truck accident at her home at 288 Ellsworth Lake Rd.

Dawn had driven home in her father's pick-up truck and parked it in the family driveway when her brother noticed it was parked on an incline and had begun to roll. Dawn ran in front of the truck to try and stop it and was thrown against the side of the house and crushed.

Her brother vainly attempted to hit the brake of the rolling vehicle, but the truck refused to halt. Neighbors tried without success to help Dawn until the ambulance arrived, but she had been killed almost instantly by the force of the truck.

Dawn is survived by her parents, Charles and Joyce Spencer of Gregory, two brothers, John and Raymond, maternal grandmother Elnora Canine, and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Sept. 18 at Staffan Funeral Home with the Rev. Marvin McCallum officiating. Burial followed in Washtenaw Memorial Park, Ann Arbor.

Dawn's parents request that memorial contributions be made to the auto shop at Chelsea High School.

FOUNDING FATHER: Chelsea Area Historical Society Tuesday evening, presented a photographic portrait of James Congdon, one of Chelsea's founders, to McKune Memorial

Portrait of Chelsea's Founder Presented to McKune Library

Tuesday, Sept. 18, the Chelsea Area Historical Society presented the McKune Memorial Library a photographic portrait of James M. Congdon, one of the founders of the village of Chelsea.

Congdon acquired land and subdivided on the west side of Main St., while his younger brother, Elisha Congdon, owned a large tract of land on the east side of Main St.

Both members of the Congdon family were pioneers in the area and founders of the village. They gave it the name "Chelsea," taken from the village of Chelsea Landing, near their native Norwich, Conn.

James M. Congdon was born March 23, 1805, a son of Elisha and Abigail Miner Congdon. He married Sarah Elizabeth Maine and they moved to Michigan in 1833, finally settling in Washtenaw county in 1842.

James was active in business and politics and served in the Michigan state legislature. He died June 16, 1888 and was buried in Oak Grove Cemetery alongside his wife.

Seven children were born of his marriage. Sarah Elizabeth married David B. Taylor; Lois Marie married William Bacon; James Congdon married Vina Drake; Russell Congdon married Susie A. Sibley; Olive Alice married Edward A. Avery, and later F. D. Hare; Andrew married Mary Bushman; and Frank Congdon, unmarried, who lived in Omaha, Neb.

A number of James Congdon's descendants reside in the Chelsea area, among them Lois Palmer Moore, president of the Chelsea Historical Society.

Frosh Gridders Lose to Tecumseh

In an unusually hard-hitting freshman game, Chelsea's frosh gridders suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of Tecumseh, 16-2.

Chelsea led, 2-0, at the half, having picked up their points when Rob Robeson tackled the rival punter in his end zone after a bad Tecumseh snap.

With six minutes left in the third quarter, Tecumseh executed a one-yard quarterback sneak to put them on top, 8-2. Chelsea's defense held firm, but the opponents managed to score again with two minutes left in the game to finalize the score at 16-2. "It was a very defensive game and both teams played well," Coach Wayne Welton said. He pointed to linebackers Rob Robeson and Mike Neibauer, who turned in fine performances, racking up 19 and 15 tackles respectively.

Defensive end Matt McCallum picked up nine tackles and Eric Buckberry managed 10 from his safety position.

"Our offense moved the ball well," Welton said. "We needed a big play or break. If at any time we would have gotten eight one of those, we'd have been all right."

Robeson led the rushing with 63 yards, closely followed by Russell Harris with 48. Matt Villeneuve picked up 15 yards and Chris Seitz ran for six.

Chelsea did have some errors in the game, committing four fumbles and four turnovers. In spite of that, Coach Welton is proud of his team's performance.

"We don't have any reason to hang our heads," he said. "It was a real good football game."

The frosh footballers next travel to Milan Tuesday, Sept. 25 for a 7 p.m. contest.

Vision Test Offered By Lions Club

The Lions Club Sightmobile will be in Chelsea on Friday, Sept. 21, and Saturday, Sept. 22, and will be located downtown for the convenience of persons interested in having their vision tested free of charge.

According to Lion Chuck Murphy, project chairman, hours of operation will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

All Chelsea area adults and children are invited to visit the mobile testing unit. The vision test takes only about 10 minutes per person, according to Murphy.

Golf Team Wins Three Straight

Chelsea High School's golf team put together a three-match road winning streak last week to take an early lead in the conference.

Tuesday, Sept. 11, Chelsea traveled to Lincoln and took the match by a 172-192 score. Low medalists for Chelsea were John Welton and Steve Wolak, with scores of 41, followed by Doug Bowen with 45 and Mark Barnes with 46.

Thursday, Sept. 13, Chelsea traveled to Dexter and edged the Pryor who felt students would get a better grasp of book organization, card catalog, records, filmstrips, career planning materials and college catalogs if they had a unified program to show all the media center facilities.

Girls Basketball Team Wins Two

Chelsea's varsity girls basketball team kicked off their season in grand style last week, notching two non-league victories over Novi and Michigan Center.

Tuesday, the Bulldogs traveled to Novi and came away with a 51-19 trouncing of the Ladycats. Varsity coach Jim Winter listed three important factors leading to the win: tough defense, rebounding and hustle on both ends of the floor.

The defense proved tough indeed in the first quarter, shutting out the Ladycats completely. Meanwhile, however, the Chelsea squad was having some offensive problems of its own.

"We were really tight at the beginning of the game," explained Winter. "It was our first game and our pre-season scrimmage was cancelled, so this was our first action against someone besides ourselves. We weren't hitting our shots and threw the ball away too much, but our defense and rebounding was keeping us in control."

It was a different story in the second quarter, as the Bulldogs took control right from the beginning of play. Scoring more and hitting Novi with a hustling press, Chelsea held a 21-8 margin at the half.

The third quarter saw a more relaxed and determined Chelsea team hold the opponents to six points against the 21 grabbed by the Bulldogs. In spite of the large margin of scoring, Chelsea showed spirit in holding the Ladycats to just five points in the final eight minutes of the contest.

"The defense was good, but we certainly found out that we have some work to do offensively," Coach Winter concluded.

In their home opener Thursday, Chelsea hosted the Cardinals from Michigan Center and pleased the home crowd with a 57-42 victory.

The Bulldogs showed improvement on offense and came up with another good defensive effort. Both teams came out playing pressure basketball in the opening minutes, looking for the fast break and using a pressing defense.

Prodding and poking for holes, they battled evenly for most of the first quarter. A small spurt in the closing minutes left the Bulldogs on top, 11-7.

The second quarter was a different story.

"After the first quarter it looked as though the team who could handle the press better would win," Winter said.

Bulldog rebounding was a strong factor in that quarter, as Chelsea pulled 19 off the backboards against only three for the Cardinals. Again and again, forwards Nanette Push, Mary Boylan, Kim Wood, Mary Bort and Amy Unterbrink came away with important rebounds.

Unfortunately, the Bulldogs were also ahead in the foul category. With five players garnering two or more fouls by half time, Chelsea's fate was still in doubt, in spite of their comfortable lead.

Kim Wood and Amy Unterbrink exited in the third quarter with five fouls each, and Mary Boylan joined them with just a few minutes gone in the fourth. Teetering on the brink were Push and Jennifer Ringe, who played most of the quarter with four fouls each.

When the Bulldogs went to their zone defense to protect against further foul trouble, the Cardinals came up with 20 big points to cut the final margin to 57-42.

Push led the Bulldogs in scoring in the contest with 26 points and hauled down 16 rebounds. (Continued on page seven)

PLAYGROUND CLEAN-UP: After Chelsea Co-op Nursery's grounds were torn up for the digging of a new well last week, literally everyone pitched in to give the area a post-dig sprucing up.

Helping with the raking, watering and grass planting were, left to right, Michael Trinkie, Jeremy Wolf, Sara Jedele and teacher Pan Zahn.

Legislative Process May Gain Speed

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley gave the green light to a proposed rule which could speed up the legislative process by guaranteeing committees take action bills within 60 days.

The amendment to the Senate rules—governing principles under which the chamber operates—would require committee chairmen to take some action on each piece of legislation referred to that committee.

The proposed rule change is just another in a long string authored by Senate Majority Leader William Faust of Westland who has dedicated his leadership to giving the body more credibility and make the process more open to the public and the press.

Faust had asked the attorney general whether the proposed rule would be constitutional.

Not only would such a rule be allowed, but Kelley added such a rule could be suspended bringing legislation before the entire Senate for consideration prior to the 60-day limitation.

Kelley noted the separate houses of the legislature have sole control over its operating rules.

The only restriction the Constitution puts on the rules is a prohibition against any rule that would prevent legislators from discharging a bill from committee.

Faust sought the opinion before taking the rule change to the Senate to head off any questions of constitutionality. The rule would prohibit committee chairmen from "sitting" on legislation because of their personal feelings.

Historically, committee chairmen have been able to hold up legislation indefinitely or until they could get favorable action in another committee on their own pet pieces of legislation.

The rule change would guarantee that every piece of legislation with merit would be taken before the full Senate for full debate and a vote.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Zeke Grubb ain't near as dumb as he looks, and he was proving that again fer the fellers at the country store Saturday night. He said he has studied the situation up one side and down the other, and he is of a mind that all the electric companies weren't bent on gouging us with all them rate increases in the last three year, they were preparing us fer the worst that was to come. Right now, Zeke declared, electricity may be right back where it was 20 year ago—the best bargain we can get.

It ain't that electricity is getting cheaper, Zeke allowed, it's that everthing else is out of sight. Zeke said he set on his front porch the other day and watched a neighbor zip by in a little green car that didn't make a sound. Zeke ask him about it at church, and the feller said it was electric, and it was a heap cheaper to charge up than fill up. There's plenty of natural gas now, Zeke went on, but at a price that makes us wish we hadn't switched to gas fer house and water heating, and fer clothes drying back when electric rates was a few year ahead of their time.

Zeke said he had saw where this world's got seven yers of crude oil left at the rate we're using it, 12 years of gas and 600 years of coal. What we're going to have to do, he said, is use that coal to generate electricity, or else go back to coal heaters in our homes and blanket the country with smoke.

The fellers were fill agreed that was a mighty strong statement coming from a man that rarely can decide which side of a issue to come down on. Ed Doolittle said the jury is still out on nuclear power, but that Zeke had a good point about coal. Ed had saw recent where a plant in Kentucky already is trying out a coal and oil liquid mix that might work as a substitute for heating oil. And we're got big furnaces, Ed said, that burn ground-up coal like it was a gas. What we've got to do, declared Ed, is keep working on ways to wean us off oil.

Bug Hookum was with Ed. He said people all over the country are putting in fer permits to run stills to turn out alcohol to mix with gas, and after all the years of hearing everybody say that alcohol and gas don't mix. Bug said he figgers if all those people want to make liquor legal there must be a jump in the illegal kind as well. From what he can find out, Bug said, alcohol can be made from just about anything, so there must be somepun we can use that we ain't about to run out of.

The feller that runs the store broke in to say he brought up that matter with a man that come by selling apples. The man said he couldn't rightly say what was being done with all his apples, but that it does appear folks are kinder to animals than they use to be. He said people are coming to his orchard asking fer "deer apples." They don't care if the apples are on the ground half rotten, the man said, they tell him the deer in woods round their places are just crazy about apples, and the riper the better. If any apples should turn up as brandy clear as water and strong as no-load premium we might declare open season on deer feeding, was the store feller's words.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Vocational Special Ed. Program Set

A new vocational special education program is slated to begin this fall in the Chelsea, Manchester, Dexter and Whitmore Lake school districts.

Goal of the program is to provide students with skills and abilities, both general and specific, which will enable them to be responsible, productive and successful young adults.

Students will be placed at job training-employment sites according to their potential skill, ability or interest. Each student's training and-or employment will be designed on an individual basis by the employer, the student and the vocational coordinator to assure an optimal experience for all parties involved.

Anyone interested in more information regarding this program or interested in discussing a possible job training or employment opportunity for students may contact: Mrs. Deborah F. Mohl, Vocational Coordinator, Region V, Chelsea School District, East Washington St., Chelsea 48118.

Mrs. Mohl may be reached by phone during the day at 475-9131 (ext. 74 or 78) and 475-9639 evenings.

Chelsea Co-op Nursery School Well Runs Dry

Chelsea Co-op Nursery had a very close call with its opening date last week. It had nothing to do with teachers, students, finances or any combination of the above, but concerned a huge hole in the ground.

What happened was that the well ran dry.

Teacher Pam Zahn was the one to first discover the school building had no water. Outdoor maintenance chairman Larry Bernhard soon delivered the news that the school would need a new well.

He contacted Gerald Wheeler, who had a child in the nursery a few years ago. Wheeler answered the emergency call and dug the new well on Sept. 5—just one day before school started.

Members of the Chelsea Co-op Nursery love their little schoolhouse. It was built in 1916 and has a rich history. But any 63-year-old building needs plenty of upkeep.

To this end, the co-op will be sponsoring fund-raising projects in the future to keep their school going and serving pre-school children in the Chelsea-Dexter area.

First fundraiser will be announced soon.

Waterloo Methodist Women Elect New Officers

Waterloo Village United Methodist Women's Society met Wednesday, Sept. 12 at Zella Levan's for a pot-luck dinner. Eight members were in attendance.

The meeting was opened by vice president Bessie Barbour. A prayer was said by Sally Nichols and all answered the roll call with a reading.

Future activities were discussed. Albion District meet will be at the First United Methodist church, Battle Creek, Thursday, Sept. 27 with the Rev. Sharon Rader, speaker. Youth Haven will be the evening of Oct. 5 at Rives Junction.

A fall supper will be held at Waterloo Township Hall Thursday, Oct. 27.

Nomination for officers was held and a unanimous vote was cast for the following candidates: Evelyn Hondrick, president; Bessie Barbour, vice-president; LaVon Beeman, treasurer; Mary L. Clark, secretary.

The meeting closed with a benediction.

An estimated 93.9 million Americans are potentially eligible for veterans benefits.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boyer

Mary Beth Aspiranti and James Boyer were joined in marriage last Saturday, Sept. 8, in an afternoon ceremony at the First Methodist church in Chelsea. The Rev. Marvin McCallum and the Rev. Fr. Philip Dupuis officiated at the nuptials.

Mary Beth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Aspiranti of Gregory. Mr. and Mrs. Winston Boyer of Chelsea are parents of the bridegroom.

For the ceremony the bride wore her mother's wedding dress, a mid-length gown of ivory satin and lace net. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, yellow roses, baby's breath and ivy.

Mother of the bride was attired in a rust silk floor-length gown with spaghetti straps and a chiffon cape. The bridegroom's mother wore a sweet-pea green floor-length gown with long sleeves and a lace bodice. Both wore wrist corsages of yellow roses and white carnations.

A niece of the bride, Laura Burnett of Gregory, served as flower girl.

Best man was Chuck Johnson of Chelsea, a friend of the bridegroom. Ushers were the bride's brother, John Aspiranti, and friends of the bridegroom Ron Keil of Chelsea and Steve Klink of Chelsea. A cousin of the bride, Billy Sampsell of Ferndale, was junior usher.

How'd He Do That?

Leonardo DaVinci drew sketches of it, but it was Igor Sikorsky who finally did it. On July 18, 1940, Sikorsky made the first direct-lift aircraft rise into the sky for 15 minutes and three seconds near Stratford, Conn. His helicopter, the Vought-Sikorsky VS-300, is now on exhibit in Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, along with more than a dozen other historic aircraft.

Discussion Group Meets At Methodist Home

One of the needs felt most keenly by residents of the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home is the need to keep up on the happenings in the world, study lives of important people and remain alive to issues of the day in government, economics, social services, religion, literature and other areas.

This need is met by a discussion group that meets every Monday at 10 a.m. from September through early June. The Rev. Ralph Harper heads the group, assisted by a committee selected by participating members. At the first fall meeting, everyone is asked to offer topic suggestions and indicate if they are willing to lead.

The committee then studies the subjects suggested and selects the ones it feels are most important and interesting. Topics are

THIS MAP OF NEW ZEALAND is just one of the treasures Bradley Cox retrieved from The Chelsea Standard office last week, after the Standard received a mysterious envelope full of the foreign brochures. A New Zealand newspaper forwarded information on animals and birds to The Standard for Bradley nearly four months after his original request was sent.

No Sharks Found In New Zealand

What do a Chelsea boy's interest in sharks and The Chelsea Standard's mailbox have in common?

No, it's not a trick question. Until last week, the answer would have been a quite simple "nothing." Until, that is, a huge, mysterious envelope with New Zealand stamps appeared in the Standard post office drawer, bearing literature on animals for Bradley Cox.

The whole episode had begun some four months before, when Bradley and his father, Charles Cox, scanned their world globe for suitable shark habitats. The pair settled on New Zealand, picked a small town, recorded on their globe as "Okuro," and sent off a letter requesting information on sharks and other animals indigenous to the area.

"I like sharks," Bradley explained, "and I figured New Zealand was a good place to write because there are a lot of them in the warm water there."

The months passed and no information arrived. The North school fifth grader began to feel that his request had been ignored.

Unknown to Bradley, however, The Standard had received an envelope from the Taumarunui Gazette in New Zealand explaining the round-about journey of the lost information.

Managing editor of the Gazette, Mark Ebrey, explained in a long, friendly letter that New Zealand has no town called "Okuro" so the post office forwarded the request to Taumarunui, which is

Tools Stolen From Garage

More than $700 worth of tools were taken from a Chelsea man's garage last week, Chelsea police reported.

Kenwood Hurst, 408 S. Main St., told police that he had noticed the tools missing last Thursday, Sept. 13 and speculated that they could have been gone since the previous day.

Police have no suspects in the theft.

There will be six two-hour weekly sessions beginning Monday, Oct. 1 at 7 p.m. at Chelsea High School.

The six sessions will cover the following topics:

- Oct. 1—Increasing your understanding of the psychological aspects of aging.
- Oct. 8—Chronic illness and behavioral changes with age.
- Oct. 15—Sensory deprivation and communication.
- Oct. 22—Decision making and alternative living arrangements.
- Oct. 29—Availability and utilization of community resources.

Cider Season Moves into High Gear

A stop at one of Southern Michigan's 92 cider mills in fall is as traditional as raking leaves or following football, reports Automobile Club of Michigan.

At many of the mills listed in Auto Club's 1979 Cider Mill Guide, visitors can watch apple harvesting in nearby orchards and view pressing operations while sipping fresh cider and eating doughnuts.

Auto Club's guide lists 32 mills in Southeast Michigan, 35 in West Michigan and 25 in East Michigan.

"Cider was one of the most popular drinks of early, rural America," explains Joseph Ratke, Auto Club's touring manager. "During the mid-19th century when three of every four Americans lived on a farm, home-made cider presses were as common as woodburning stoves."

Michigan ranks third in the nation in apple production and first in production of Jonathons and Northern Spies, two favorite varieties of cider apples.

Some mills offer custom pressing, whereby customers bring their own apples and containers and pay the operator to extract the juice. The mills range in size from the tiny roadside stands with farm-size presses to huge operations with hydraulic presses and modern equipment.

"Some cider mills stay open all year, but the peak apple-picking season is from early September through October," said Ratke. "We advise persons interested in watching pressing operations to telephone ahead. Many mills operate on irregular schedules dictated by availability of apples."

The cost of cider this fall should range from $1.50 to $2.00 per gallon with doughnuts priced between $1 and $2.20 per dozen. Some mills allow customers to bring their own containers to save approximately 25 cents per gallon.

Symphony Band Plans Slave Sale

Members of the Chelsea Symphony Band will take time out of their busy schedule to hold a slave auction as one of their first activities planned for the Mexican Festival Project.

Some 20-25 "teams" consisting of four members each, two girls and two boys, will be up for bids, offering their services to community residents and local businesses for fall projects such as leaf raking, putting up storm windows and closing summer cottages.

Bidding will take place at the home football game on Friday, Sept. 28. Lucky winners with the highest bids will arrange satisfactory scheduling with their individual teams, with all work to be completed by Saturday, Oct. 27.

ABWA Plans Enrollment Night

American Business Women's Association, Chelsea Charter Chapter, is holding their annual enrollment even on Tuesday, Sept. 25. The meeting is held at Linda Ormsby's and is by invitation only.

Anyone interested in participating should contact either Debbie Haworth at 475-1517 (home) or 475-8611 (work), or Gerry Sullivan at 475-7653 (home).

Persons can spend many hours at a cider mill enjoying such features as horse-drawn wagon rides, orchard tours, antique and gift shops and animal farms. One mill offers live country and western music on week-ends while others offer pumpkin picking or winter activities such as cross-country skiing and sleigh rides.

Many people who experience the symptoms of a heart attack refuse to seek help because they think they are experiencing indigestion, or some other mild disorder and they will feel foolish if they go to a hospital. In fact, the average heart attack victim waits three hours before seeking help, which is why half of those who die of a heart attack, die before they ever reach a hospital. Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from State Rep. Mary Keith Ballentine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of Sept. 17-24

Together Again — The legislative returns for fall session this week. There are still a few budget bills to be approved, and several major bills containing revisions and consolidations of present laws are scheduled for debate in the near future.

No Primary? — The Senate Republican Leader has now declared his support of HB 4392, which would abolish Michigan's presidential primary. That bill must first clear the House, then be approved by the Senate: action will probably come soon.

Comp Delay — Although the special task force studying reform of the workers' compensation system was supposed to meet again this month, issues involved in the auto-contract talks have caused a delay, probably until at least Oct. 1.

License Package — The House will soon discuss HB 4114, which contains a new codification of laws licensing professions and occupations. This measure has been developed over the past four years to give uniformity to the licensing structure; it will also improve the handling of consumer complaints and give the public more input into the regulatory process.

Court Proposals — A special Supreme Court committee has made 21 recommendations for improving state policy for sentencing criminals, including a handbook of guidelines for trial judges, and appellate courts being able to modify sentences. The State Bar has proposed "presumptive sentencing," under which there is a particular, standard sentence for a particular crime.

Abortion Reversal — The Court of Appeals has ruled that Governor Milliken is operating within his constitutional powers when he authorizes publicly-funded abortions after vetoing restrictions in budget bills. This reverses a lower court ruling. This case has not been about abortion as such, but about the Governor's powers with respect to budget items.

Sun Credits — A new Energy Administration publication describes the "Michigan Solar Tax Credit Program" which applies to property owners/renters who install energy-conversion devices in their homes. Write for a free copy to the Energy Admin., Box 30228, Lansing 48909.

Fish Rules — The Department of Natural Resources has just completed a series of public hearings for comments on proposed rules controlling the wholesale purchase and sale of fish; these are designed to promote the conservation of fish in Michigan lakes and streams.

Cool Air — Another Energy Administration publication, "No More Hot Air About Room Air Conditioners," explains how to buy an air conditioner that will operate in the most cost-effective and energy-efficient way. Write Box 30228, Lansing 48909, or call 800-292-4704.

Who Picks Up The Tab?

The current strike by about 600 grain handlers pits the American Federation of Grain Millers against eight grain firms in the Great Lakes port at Superior, Wisconsin and Duluth, Minn.

In the 10-week-old strike, each idle worker has gambled an average of over $3,000 on their efforts to gain cost-of-living protection in a new contract. The losses to the grain firms, in business losses, demurrage on stalled freight cars, and business diverted to other ports, already adds up to millions of dollars.

The biggest losers in the strike will be the innocent victims of the labor dispute. They are the farmers of the upper-

Midwest who depend on the Superior-Duluth port for a market for much of their grain.

The farmers spend the final weeks of the growing season fine-tuning their machinery and grain handling equipment. This year, just as they were about to begin harvesting the bumper crops of wheat and barley, their market broke down.

With the grain market paralyzed for two months this close to harvest time, the movement of the old crop to market could not be completed in time for the new crop to start coming in. Insufficient storage space and lack of adequate transportation add up to bad marketing conditions.

It's too early to try to estimate the cost of the strike and the related tie-up of storage and transportation to the grain producers in the Midwest. That will depend on how much price discount they suffer, and how much of the grain may have to be stored on the ground or in temporary facilities.

No matter when the strike is ended or what kind of settlement is finally reached, one thing is certain: in the long run, it will be the farmers who pick up much of the tab!

Senior Citizens Open House Held

Warm weather and pleasant breezes Sunday brought out more than 150 people to an open house for the new Senior Citizens Activities Center on W. Middle St.

Activities for the day included registration for more than 25 classes and events, refreshments made by the seniors themselves, a look at the new Country Store and picture taking for the Golden Age Pass.

Director of the program, Jaclynn Rogers, reported that registration is still taking place for classes which begin the week of Sept. 24. Also, persons 50 years and older are invited to visit the center on a daily basis from 1 to 5 p.m. to participate in activities.

Next issue of the Senior Citizen Newsletter will be mailed next week. Anyone not already on the mailing list may call the Community Education Office at 475-9830.

Participants at the center are also creating their own country store. Anyone with a marketable hobby who would like to sell at the store should call Alice at 475-2074.

Other special activities offered through the program include the Senior Volunteer program in elementary schools, a high school completion program for seniors, Golden Age Pass for school activities and a pot-luck night the third Friday of each month at 7 p.m.

Co-sponsors of the center, Chelsea Kiwanis, Chelsea School District, Chelsea Community Hospital and the Chelsea Recreation Council, urge everyone aged 50 and over to participate in the varied classes and activities available.

Immanuel Church Plans 'Sermons from Science'

Immanuel Bible church, 145 E. Summit St., has announced that periodically throughout the next 18 months, the church will be showing an internationally-acclaimed series of films entitled "Sermons from Science," produced by the Moody Science Institute.

The films have received awards from the Photographic Society of America and the Scholastic Teachers Association. Selected entries in the series have also won awards at film festivals in Edinburgh, Venice and Vancouver, and have been seen by countless people at world's fairs and the Olympic games in Montreal and Munich.

Various films in the series deal with radio astronomy, space, instrument navigation, the atom, amazing properties of water, the voices of fish, insects, the senses, heart and circulatory system and the speed of light.

First in the series, "City of the Bees" will be shown at Immanuel Bible church Sunday, Sept. 16 at 6 p.m. This film presents the ingenious bee cities with their air conditioning, police and sanitary squads, nurseries, chemical processing plants and some remarkable structural engineering.

While people everywhere are struggling with the problem of human behavior, this film reveals God's solution to this age-old problem.

Remaining films in the series will be shown generally on the third Sunday of each month. For further information, call Immanuel Bible church at 475-8936.

The first state legislation permitting a state to attempt to settle labor disputes was in Maryland in 1878, according to the U. S. Department of Labor publication "Labor Firsts in America."

Right Writer Is Type Writer

Sept. 12, 1873, was the date of the successful completion of the first practical typewriter by Christopher Sholes. The first patent on the timesaving device was as early as 1829, but it wasn't until Sholes' machine—invented in 1867, patented the next year and finally produced five years later—that the ingenious device with two rows of black walnut painted keys became popular with the public. The newly opened Interpretive Center of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, exhibits an 1874 model of Sholes' typewriter among hundreds of fascinating artifacts from the nation's past.

This year's event will feature hot, fresh apple butter made over an open fire while visitors watch, fresh homemade baked goods, doughnuts and jams and jellies.

On the non-culinary side, the day will offer a bazaar table with homemade crafts, a flea market, and plants and produce.

All are invited to enjoy the autumn season with food and fun.

Gasoline Consumption Declines in Michigan 34 Years Ago . . .

open a new restaurant at 103 N. Main St. about Oct. 10.

The employment needs of wounded veterans will be spotlighted in Detroit and Michigan during the coming week, as part of an all-out effort by every public and private agency to find them jobs.

Last Thursday evening the teachers of Washtenaw county met to discuss personal and professional problems. The evening included a delicious chicken dinner served by local churchwomen, and a business meeting chaired by President Dorothy Schanz of Chelsea.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weinberg and Mrs. R. G. Foster spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weber at their home in Ferndale.

Wounded veterans in the hospitals need books and recent magazines. The Chelsea Public Library is sponsoring a drive for books published in the past three years and magazines published in the past year.

Glick's "Bulldogs," local softball champs, were honored by their sponsor, Mr. Glick, with a very fine dinner at the Marilyn Inn last Thursday night.

Buses and heavy-duty trucks regularly produce noise levels that exceed the level at which sound can be hazardous, warn hearing specialists. When driving next to such a noisy vehicle make certain your car windows are closed the specialists add.

Gasoline consumption in the second quarter of 1979 declined in Michigan for the first time since the Arab oil embargo in 1974, the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) reported recently.

Michigan collected taxes on 1,094,740,536 gallons of gas in the April-June period, down by 4.7 percent from the same three months in 1978. Declines were registered in all three months, ending with a 6.3 percent drop in June.

At the same time, the dollar value of gasoline distributed increased. In Chelsea, the total rose from $16,646 in the second quarter of 1978 to $19,138 in the same quarter of 1979. In Washtenaw county as a whole, the figures stand at $1,215,621 in 1979 and $1,054,344 in 1978.

Consumption was about the same as in the second quarter of 1973 when there were approximately 800,000 fewer autos registered in Michigan. The decline is attributed not only to reduced driving because of fuel shortages and steeply rising prices, but also to improved engine performance and lighter-weight vehicles.

Gas tax revenues for the second quarter went up by $8,574,330, or 18 percent, because of a two-cent increase in the nine-cent-a-gallon tax that went into effect last Jan. 1. Collections totaled $121,659,163.

The diesel fuel tax, raised at the same time from seven to nine cents, produced $8,300,499, up by 29.6 percent. The number of gallons taxed decreased in the quarter by two-tenths of one percent, to 93,399,291, but showed a 3.8 percent increase for June.

Weight tax revenues from license plate fees, which went up last November, increased by 9.2 percent to $38,478,136. Those and other fuel taxes and revenues from interest yielded $174,904,530 for the Michigan Transportation Fund, an increase of 17.1 percent from the comparable period of 1978.

Deductions for collection costs and other grants left $159,637,947 for distribution to the state, the counties and the municipalities, an increase of 13.9 percent.

The State Trunkline Fund, used for construction and maintenance on the state highway system, will receive $60,885,943 as its 38.4 percent share of the fund. The Comprehensive Transportation Fund, earmarked primarily for state-financed public transportation and rail programs, will receive $13,186,530, or 8.3 percent of the total.

The 83 county road commissions will collect $55,076,581 as their 34 percent share, up by 14.2 percent from the second quarter of 1978. The 531 incorporated cities and villages will receive $30,508,893 as their 19 percent share, up by 14.1 percent.

Salmon Fishermen May Fill Available Dock Space

Michigan's Great Lakes salmon angling armada should be more concerned with finding dock space than gasoline at marinas as the annual fall fishing spectacle gets underway near 37 state rivers, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Great Lakes marinas report adequate fuel for the half-million anglers heading after the sleek coho and bruising chinook salmon now schooling for spawning runs.

Week-end transient dock space at many marinas will be tight across the Great Lakes, due mainly to the growth in popularity of trolling.

Since 1973, the number of fish taken by trolling has doubled, now accounting for two out of three chinook and nearly nine out of 10 coho salmon creels.

The switch from rivers to the Great Lakes is easy to understand, stated Auto Club. Salmon still in the Great Lakes make prime table fare and take lures readily. In rivers, fish are usually too ripe for prime meat and must be provoked into striking a lure.

This fall, returns from plants of nearly four million 12-pound coho and four million chinook up to 40 pounds will darken the waters at hot spots shown on Auto Club's 1979 guide.

Lake fishing is at its peak now through mid-October. While stream fishermen should be successful from mid-September through early November, a few rivers will be good until early January.

River anglers should find the best fishing in three years on a trio of Lake Michigan tributaries. In Lake Superior and northern Lake Huron, biennial runs of the pink, or humpback salmon, will hit many streams.

Due to budget cuts and maintenance problems, temporary weirs which controlled coho and chinook runs on the Jordan and Pere Marquette rivers and Bear Creek along Lake Michigan will not be installed this fall. Each stream should have very good runs through November.

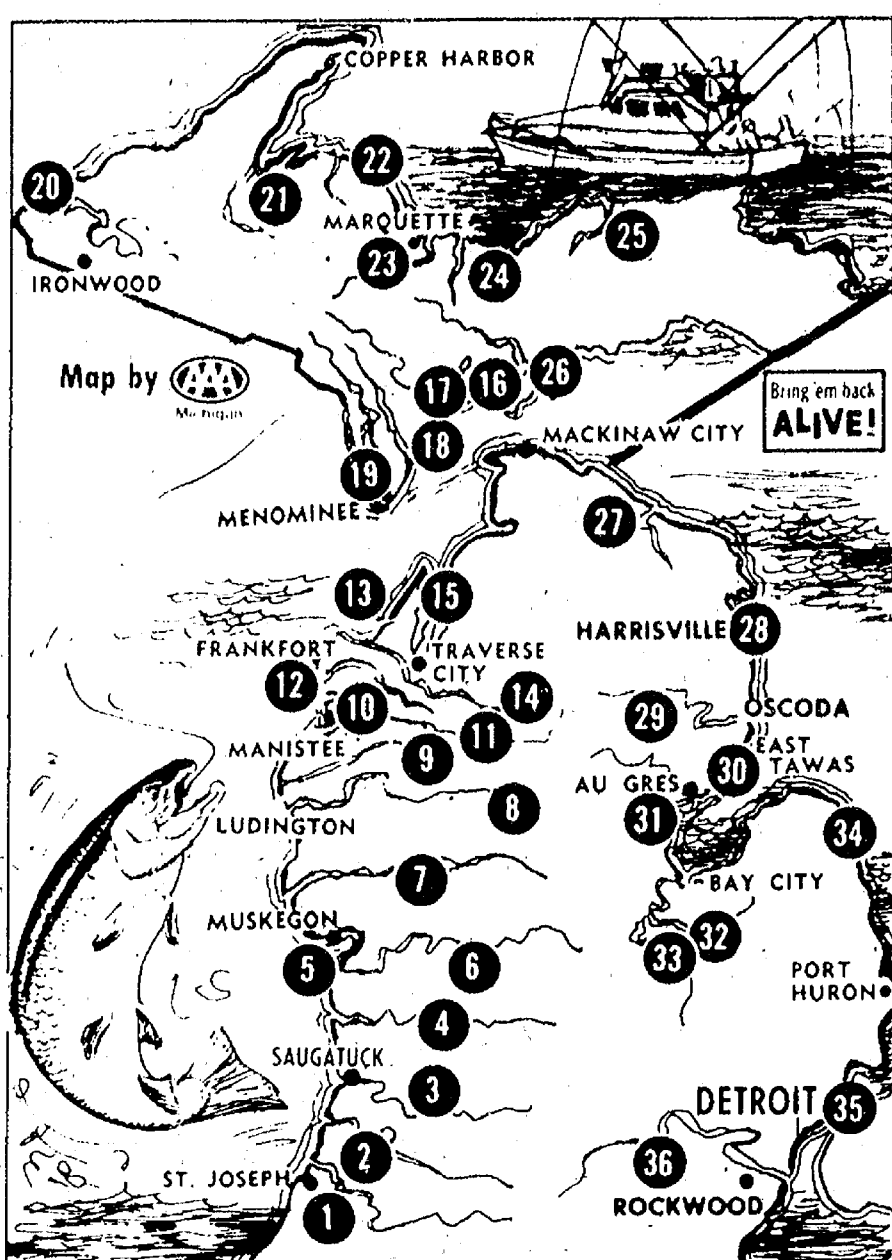

In the Upper Peninsula, Lake Superior coho and chinook will be joined this year by the smaller pink salmon, with peak runs expected by mid-September. Anglers have a good chance at cracking the state record this year, which stands at just over three pounds.

While virtually all humpbacks are taken in streams on flies and spinners extreme stealth is required, as spawning fish are easily disturbed. Many anglers agree that pinks are the tastiest of all Great Lakes salmon.

Most U. P. streams should have some pinks, but significant runs are expected in the Laughing Whitefish, Sucker and Black rivers. Moderate to good runs are predicted for the Carp River near St. Ignace and the Lower Peninsula's Ocqueoc River near Rogers City in Lake Huron.

For Lake Huron chinook, try the Harrisville harbor area and the Au Sable River at Oscoda. Both areas offer good fishing through late October.

Good chinook runs are anticipated in the Au Gres River at Au Gres and, for the first time, in the Flint River. A fish ladder built in downtown Flint will allow mature chinook up to Holloway Dam. Fish running 12 to 20 pounds from plants averaging 100,000 annually since 1976 should be in the river from November to January.

A moderate chinook run should occur in the Tawas River at Tawas City, while moderate to good runs of Alaskan-strain coho salmon will come off the Thumb's Diamond Creek near Port Hope. Excellent coho and chinook fishing is expected in West Michigan's Muskegon and Grand rivers, and coho fishing should be very good in the Platte River.

Coho salmon are expected in Southeast Michigan's Detroit River off Belle Isle in mid-to-late September. Last fall's runs were moderate.

Anglers fishing in the "liberalized" section of the Huron River at Flat Rock are advised that local police are arresting non-residents using city park facilities.

Sections of 12 other rivers are open to liberalized fishing rules, allowing anglers to keep four-hooked Pacific salmon from Sept. 1 through Dec. 31. For dates and sections open on each stream, consult the DNR 1979 Michigan Fishing Guide.

Because Lakes Michigan and Huron salmon may contain excessive amounts of polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), the Michigan Department of Public Health advises children and nursing mothers against eating any fish. Others are cautioned to eat no more than one-half pound per week. Further information is in the DNR Fishing Guide.

Walk-Away Nabbed By Police

Chelsea police last week apprehended a Cassidy Lake Technical School walk-away who admitted to robbing and attempting to steal two cars in the village following his escape.

Two successive reports of auto break-ins early the morning of Tuesday, Sept. 4 came just hours after Chelsea police had been alerted to be on the lookout for the escapee, 20-year-old Steven Albert Boerner of East Detroit.

Tom Dmoch, 30 Sycamore, told police the ignition in his 1979 Chevrolet had been tampered with and some small change taken while the car sat overnight in his driveway.

Barely an hour later, police took a call from Richard L. Schanz, 15 Hickory St., who reported items missing from his 1975 Plymouth, also parked overnight in his residential driveway. Schanz told police thieves took a blue Chrysler Proving Grounds windbreaker, one Chelsea State Bank checkbook with 10 checks and a carton of cigarettes.

Police at that time listed Boerner as a suspect in the larcenies and auto theft attempts but had no leads, according to reports.

On routine patrol the next morning around 1 a.m., however, Patrolman David Dettling observed a man dive into some weeds near Lets Creek bridge on McKinley St. near Elm.

Dettling gave chase on foot, police reports said, and apprehended the man, who could produce no identification. The officer made a cursory search and found items resembling those taken from Schanz, including his checkbook and the jacket, which Boerner was wearing.

Boerner was placed under arrest for possession of stolen property and escape from a penal institution.

Back at the Chelsea Police Station, reports said, Boerner admitted to the escape and the two auto incidents. Chelsea Police notified Cassidy Lake officials who sent an officer to transport Boerner to Jackson State Prison.

Case is open pending disposition of warrants.

Michigan was the first state to establish roadside picnic tables.

Thomas Kern Elected To Membership in Angus Association

Thomas Kern, Chelsea, has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dr. C. K. Allen, executive vice-president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Mo.

The American Angus Association, with some 38,000 active life and junior members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world. Its computerized records include detailed information on nearly 10 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U. S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U. S. consumption.

Gridders of the Week

JOHN DUNN, left, Bulldog quarterback, is the "main cog" of the 1979 squad, according to Coach Gene LaFave. In the two opening games, the 5'10, 170-pound senior threw for 344 yards and completed 22 passes in 41 attempts. He himself ran for 37 yards in Chelsea's recent victory over Jackson County Western.

LOU JAHNKE, right, is pegged by Coach LaFave as "the key to our pass rush. Against Jackson County Western he did an excellent job playing defensive end. There weren't many more things he could have done." Jahnke, a 6'0", 185-pound senior also plays baseball for the Bulldogs.

JV Gridders Fall To Jackson Western

Chelsea's junior varsity footballers fell before a determined Jackson County Western team last Thursday night, losing the contest by a 24-0 score.

The Bulldogs began shakily, fumbling the football the first two times they had possession. Jackson County scored two quick touchdowns on a run of 18 yards and a 65-yard pass, making the first quarter score 12-0.

Some defensive progress was made by Chelsea in the second quarter as they held the opponents to just 29 yards, but couldn't move the ball themselves. Western managed another TD on a 35-yard run and the score stood 18-0 at the half.

The Bulldog defense was strong again in the third quarter, as it held Western to 23 yards and no scoring. Again, however, Chelsea couldn't make a dent offensively.

Western put the game away in the fourth quarter with just two minutes to go, as they finalized the score at 24-0.

Coach Jon Schaffner said the JV offense must improve if the Bulldogs are to be a winning team this year.

Leading tacklers in the game were Bill Lamb, 7; Tim Whitesall, 6; Todd Sprague, 5; Rick Poljan, 5; Ken Nicholas, 4; Jeff Klink, 3; Darren Pierson, 3; Tom Headrick, 2; Steve Grau, 2; Brian Cooper, 2; Toby Boyd, 2; Gary Van Meer, 2; and Dave Harrison, Ross Murphy, Will Rosentreter, Tim Pennington, and Jeff Hager with one each.

Whitesall, Pierson and Murphy led an effective pass rush and Whitesall and Klink recovered fumbles for the Bulldogs.

This week, the team travels to Okemos to a 7 p.m. game. Okemos has a fine football program and will be sure to challenge the JVs.

Study Skills Workshop Planned

Chelsea's chapter of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) and Chelsea Community Education are sponsoring a workshop designed to teach students to develop good study skills. The class will be offered at Chelsea High school on Saturday, Sept. 29.

Developing good study skills is not difficult. There are a few basics, which once mastered, can reduce homework time by as much as one-half. These methods have been tested and are actively employed at Michigan State University.

Study skills taught in the workshop range from the SQ3R method to test-taking hints. Vickie Koch, who has been teaching such skills for MSU's Office of Supportive Services since 1977, will run the workshop. For registration information contact Suzanne Morrison at the Community Education Office, 475-9830, before Sept. 28.

The first states to have equal pay legislation for women were Michigan and Montana in 1919, according to the U. S. Department of Labor publication "Labor Firsts in America."

Good Things Growing in Michigan

With summer's activities behind us and school again in session, try adding a few extra minutes to your meal planning. There are many 'good things growing in Michigan' fresh from harvest, including carrots, celery and cabbage, that are great for adding extra touches to your fall menus.

Colorful additions may be soup made with carrots, onion, rice and vegetable stock; or, carrots glazed with honey and spices. If you're busy canning, try pickled carrots for a different treat this winter.

Carrots are the second highest volume fresh vegetable crop in Michigan, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Our state has the fifth largest carrot production in the nation, with 73,200 tons harvested in 1978, primarily in Newaygo, Lapeer, St. Clair and Van Buren counties.

Weight watchers often choose celery for a tasty between-meal snack. A whole pound of fresh celery contains only about 82 calories. Celery is also used in salads, stews, chop suey and soups. This fall, try moving celery off the relish tray by making celery fritters, a baked celery ring or braised celery.

About 60 commercial growers in our state produced 93.6 million pounds of celery on 2,300 acres in 1978, third largest crop in the nation according to MDA. Major producing areas are Ottawa, Muskegon, Kent and Lapeer counties.

Cole slaw, sauerkraut and New England boiled dinner have long been favorite cabbage dishes. If you're due for a change of pace, try cabbage soup or french fried cabbage. Or, stuff cabbage rolls with cheese combined with rice, vegetable, ham or corned beef.

A total 70.8 million pounds of cabbage was produced in 1978 to rank Michigan ninth among the states. Macomb, Monroe, St. Clair, Saginaw and Bay counties lead the state in cabbage production.

Senior Citizen Tours Arranged

Since July Senior Citizens of Chelsea and the surrounding area have been given the opportunity to visit the Detroit Race Track, take a trip to Frankenmuth and in September spend a day at Amish Acres in Nappanee, Ind.

The Detroit Race Track visit was via a school bus, affording many their first ride on such a vehicle.

A smorgasbord dinner was served to the group. Each table had a TV set where one could have a close-up view of each race. Also one could watch the races through the glass enclosed restaurant. Betting windows were close-by where bets could be placed between races. The sixth race of the evening was named Chelsea Senior Citizens.

The trip to Frankenmuth, in August, again was via three school buses, driven by very capable drivers, carrying more than 120 passengers. Dinner was served at the Bavarian Inn. Upon arrival in Frankenmuth many spent the time shopping before the dinner hour. Following dinner, buses were boarded for the visit to Bronners and the trip home.

The next trip, which was to Amish Acres in Nappanee, Ind. was by charter bus, leaving Chelsea at 8 a.m. and returning about 7:30 p.m. Upon arriving at Amish Acres time was spent visiting the various shops on the grounds. A family style dinner was served to the group in the Red Barn.

Following the dinner two groups were formed to take a tour of the grounds, by guides, through the historic buildings.

Upon completion of the tour the bus was boarded for Shipshewana to spend some time at the open air flea market before returning to Chelsea.

Senior Citizens activities are sponsored by the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, Chelsea School District, Chelsea Community Hospital and Chelsea Recreation Council.

Future trips being planned are "Autumn Nights and Early Lights" which is a special tour to Greenfield Village in October and a Mystery Trip in November. Area residents are urged to make reservations early for the various trips to afford those planning these activities to make final plans so all may participate. In addition to these trips various class activities are beginning in two weeks.

He's Looking for Trouble!

During his 16 years as a mechanic, Gary Leftridge has run across just about every problem a car or truck can develop. Experience, training and natural ability have made him what he is: an above average mechanic at a place known for hiring the best ... Rampy Chevrolet.

So in addition to working on his current specialty, heavy haulers, Gary test drives "problem cars." Those are the cars that come in because they aren't running right ... but which don't look like they should be running wrong.

There are a lot a very subtle things that can affect the way a car drives. Sometimes, cars can be eccentric. That's why it takes someone like Gary Leftridge with training, experience and intuition to seek out the trouble. When Gary test drives a problem car he's determined to find and cure the problem ... and he does 99% of the time.

Rampy wouldn't have it any other way. Gary's job is looking for trouble and that's just how they both want it.

Rampy's not just selling cars... he's selling service.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Is God's mirror for the soul. (James 1:23) ASV. By using this mirror man can discern the character and needs of the soul. It enables man to see himself as God sees him. The functions of this mirror reveals the origin of the soul. (Genesis 2:7). In the most distinct manner God shows us that man is a compound being, having a body and a soul distinctly created. God's mirror for the soul reveals the value of the soul. (Matthew 16:26). All the wealth, glory, pleasure and power of earth are worthless to the dying man. If he should gain them all and lose his own soul, he has lost all. "What shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" What would a man not give? What is there he can give, if in this life he has not followed Christ? In Matthew 10:28 we read the words of Jesus, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both body and soul in hell." To the Thesalonians the apostle Paul wrote, "And the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Thesalonians 5:23).

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

BURGLAR-PROOF EXTERIOR DOOR

The most obvious entrance for a burglar into most homes is via the front or rear exterior doors. A burglar can open an ordinary snap lock fairly easily with a thin sheet of plastic or metal. On all hinged exterior doors, you should use a dead-bolt. In this, a separate pin on the flat side of the latch tongue stays stuck in the strike even when a burglar pushes back the latch tongue.

Locks with a dead-bolt that is operated by a thumb-turn from the inside are equally effective; but, of course, they do not lock a door automatically.

For maximum security, you can equip exterior doors with an automatic dead-lock.

plus a separate night lock. In the latter, the lock and strike fit together like a mortise and tenon joint, and there is no way a burglar can pry them apart.

The most expensive night lock can be opened only with a key from both inside and out. Even if a burglar breaks a glass beside the door, he cannot open or force the lock. The lock is dangerous, however, if you have a fire and can't find the key.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!
