Swim Meet Sees New Records Set

Chelsea High school Girls Swimming Invitational proved to be a fast, exciting, highly competitive meet, with 11 teams from all over southeastern Michigan participating. Meet records were broken in 10 of 11 swimming events, with 35 state-qualifying performances.

Final results found Milan winning with 281 points; Brighton in second with 229; Chelsea, third, with 183; Dundee, 106; Albion, 106; Flint Powers, 105; Novi, 104; Willow Run, 41; St. Mary's, 18; Erie-Mason, 17; and Lincoln, 13.

Chelsea school records were set by Anita Powell, Teresa Degener, Sara Borders and Shannon Springer, and by Sara Borders in the 100-yard butterfly and Lisa Radke in the backstroke.

Personal bests were turned in by Janine Hoffman (IM), Sue Cobb (IM), Pam Spayd (50 and 100 free), Lori Volta (50 free and 100 free), Celeste Powell (100 fly) and Barb Davis (100 breaststroke).

The only record to stand was in the 50 free, which was set last year by Shelly Springer.

Next meet for the girls is Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 at Grand Rapids Junior College. Swimmers going include Anita Powell, Lisa Radke, Teresa Degener, Sara Borders, Kristin Thomas, Shannon Springer, Lori Volta, Michele Clark and Mary Bacon.

NUMBER ONE: Fred Klink was the first hunter to present his deer at The Chelsea Standard building last Thursday morning. Klink downed the huge buck on his own property off Waterloo Rd. just shortly after the season opened at dawn. The kill made 17 deer in 17 years for Klink.

Deer Hunters Reporting Good Success

Firearms deer hunting season is short, as any hunter will tell you, but for Fred Klink, Tom Wade and Armin and Jerry Kuhl, this year was exceptionally short.

Klink was the first hunter to arrive at The Chelsea Standard with his prize this year, a 207-pound buck bagged on his own property off Waterloo Rd. about 7:05 p.m. last Thursday.

Klink, who has gotten a deer every season for the past 17 consecutive years, attributes his success to being "in the right spot at the right time."

Arriving shortly after, and disappointed not to be the first, was Tim Wade, 209 Park St., who claimed he also downed his deer at about 7:05 a.m. Wade didn't have his catch weighed, but estimated it at approximately 150 pounds.

Finally, a huge 250-pound buck was brought in by father and son hunters Armin and Jerry Kuhl, bagged on the Kuhl property on Peckins Rd.

Verdict this year seems to be that the deer are large and good-looking, and that the hunting weather couldn't be better.

Jiffy Market reports dressing at least 40 deer since the beginning of the season, most of them taken in the immediate area. The deer are "big and heavy and about the nicest I've seen," according to a Jiffy spokesman.

Dunbar's Meat Locker in Dexter, the area's largest deer handler, reports some 156 animals brought in for dressing since Nov. 15.

"They're looking big," laughed a Dunbar spokeswoman, "especially when they're stacked 40 high. It looks like Santa Claus may do without some of his transportation this year."

Historical Society Elects Officers

Nineteen members and two guests attended the Chelsea Historical Society meeting at the McKune Memorial Library last Monday evening.

During the business meeting, a slate of officers for 1980 was presented. Elected were Mrs. John (Lois) Moore, president; Mrs. Richard (Sally) Rendell, vice-president; Mrs. Wendell (Christie) Wagner, secretary; Max Hepburn, treasurer; Board of Directors: Harold Jones, Britton Graham, one-year term, and Otis Titus, two-year term.

Discussion was held on acceptance of articles and memorabilia for preservation and display. Several people have offered such items to the society and it is hoped that, in the future, a permanent place suitable for such displays can be found. Sally Rendell and Katie Chapman are interested in hearing from anyone having available space.

It was voted to support the Lima Historical District in its request for federal funds to carry out their project to have an area in Lima township designated as the South Lima Rural Historic District.

In behalf of Mrs. Paul Hoffman and Dave Hoffman, Otis Titus presented to the Chelsea Historical Society three volumes of photos and descriptions of old Chelsea homes taken by the late Paul Hoffman. These will be placed in the Historical Room at the McKune Memorial Library.

Mrs. Lawrence (Alice) Ziegler was guest speaker. She spoke about and identified graves of Revolutionary War soldiers buried in Washtenaw county. (Continued on page two)

JC Auxiliary Plans 'Lunch With Santa'

Saturday, Dec. 8, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Chelsea's Jaycee Auxiliary will sponsor "Lunch with Santa," at the VFW Hall, 105 N. Main St.

For $1 each, children will enjoy a lunch of hot dogs, potato chips and drink, plus a Christmas treat handed out by Santa Claus himself. Surrounded by Christmas decorations and holiday music, children will have a chance to tell Santa their Christmas wishes in person.

In addition, children may bring letters to deposit in Santa's mailbox. These will be delivered to the North Pole where the elves are waiting to help Santa with the Christmas rush.

Parents are invited to bring their cameras and capture some memories of their child whispering holiday secrets to St. Nick.

Drew Sprague in New York for Macy's Thanksgiving Parade

Local celebrity Drew Sprague boarded a plane for New York Friday morning, on his way to join 101 other McDonald's All American Band members at the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

Sprague and the band will perform at a Carnegie Hall concert with Lionel Hampton while in New York and then will take their place in the nationally-televised parade Thursday. They will also cut an album at Carnegie Hall.

Ann Arbor radio station WAAM interviewed Drew live from New York on Tuesday morning and named him their Citizen of the Week. He commented on his impressions of the city and explained the various activities of the band members during the week.

Although all 102 students from around the country perform in the All American symphonic and marching bands, a smaller jazz band is organized from the larger group. Drew planned to audition for a spot in the jazz band soon after arriving in the city.

Drew and his compatriots will all return home Thanksgiving Day, but will reunite after Christmas in Pasadena, Calif., where they will march in the Tournament of Roses Parade and perform in concert with Doc Sevrinsen.

Girls Varsity Cagers Close 4-6 Season

A 4-6 league season record was all Chelsea's girl cagers could muster this year, as they finished their SEC schedule with a 47-38 loss to Saline and a 68-46 win over Lincoln last week.

"We didn't do a good job on defense," explained Coach Jim Winter of the Saline defeat. "We didn't stop their big people. That was the difference."

Nanette Push was held to just 16 points against the Hornets, with Amy Unterbrink netting eight and Kim Wood bucketing six. Push, Unterbrink and Mary Boylan each had 10 or more rebounds.

On the other hand, Coach Winter described the Lincoln game as "a good team effort. They had beat us in overtime earlier this season and we wanted to show them we were better than they were."

The Bulldogs dominated the action all the way through, scoring 42 points in the first half alone. Push excelled with 27 points, Unterbrink had 11 and Boylan, 10.

Push pulled down 10 rebounds and had five assists and five steals. Boylan scored 10 points and hauled down 18 rebounds. Unterbrink bucketed 11 points and had 12 rebounds.

Following a non-league contest with Mason, Chelsea will begin play in the SEC tournament next Wednesday, Nov. 28 against the (Continued on page six)

Proceeds go to assist debate team activities.

DANGEROUS STEP: Recreational therapy head Alice Tite surveys damage done to the exercise trail behind Chelsea Hospital. Vandals have removed the railings from this bridge on the trail, making any mis-step by a runner a potentially dangerous one. Tite holds an exercise sign, just one of the many removed from its proper place on the trail.

Vandalism Destroying Unique Exercise Trail

One of Chelsea's most unique resources is in danger of being obliterated by vandals, and there doesn't seem to be much that anyone can do about it.

The resource is the exercise trail that winds from Pierce Park back around the hospital for about a mile and a half and includes stops for various exercises along the way.

Modeled after a popular European innovation, the parcours, the trail was probably the second of its kind in the state, after the Ann Arbor trail. Exercisers walk or jog along the path, stopping at various signs which demonstrate exercises to be repeated before moving on. Rather than just exercising the legs and heart, such courses focus on exercise for the entire body.

Vandals, however, have rendered many of the signs unreadable with black spray paint and in some cases have destroyed them altogether. Logs placed on the trail for specific exercise purposes have been destroyed or removed and litter clutters the entire trail.

For Alice Tite, head of recreational therapy at Chelsea Hospital, the destruction is a discouraging sight. Many patients at the hospital are urged to use the trail for therapy, and tales of vandalism are brought back daily by runners and staff members.

Walking the trail with Tite is a disheartening experience. The large wooden sign welcoming visitors to the park and explaining the exercise trail is gone. As the trail winds further and further away from the park, the damage becomes more prevalent.

Signs are broken, removed and tossed into the woods, or spray-painted beyond recognition. Litter from fast foods abounds and food and drinks are smeared and splashed on the signs.

In one particularly dangerous stunt, railings were removed from a bridge over a creek on the trail, leaving users susceptible to a 10-foot fall over the edge.

"I don't understand it," said Tite, who explained that the signs, painted in a volunteer effort by Harold Davis, have all been replaced at least twice since the course opened in 1977.

Realistically, Chelsea police cannot commit officers to patrol the park and the course, and have to rely on reports of problems while the disturbances are taking place.

If conditions don't improve, there is a real possibility that the trail will lose its double function and become just a jogging course.

"I hate to say that the signs might come down permanently," sighed Tite, "but they're down now, aren't they?"

BANK BRANCH: Construction is estimated to be completed by Feb. 1 on Chelsea State Bank's new branch at the corner of M-52 and Old US-12, according to bank president Paul Mann. Mann also said that the drive-in improvements at the bank's main branch will be completed before Dec. 10.

House Approves Severance Tax Hike On Oil And Gas

Following the report of record profits by the oil companies, the Michigan House of Representatives has voted to increase the oil and gas severance tax from a straight two percent of market value to eight percent on oil and four percent on gas.

If approved by the Senate and signed into law by the governor, it will be the first time in 50 years the tax has been increased.

As amended by the House, the money raised by the tax hike will be designated for the home heating assistance program. Should it be in effect by Dec. 1, it would raise the $34 million estimated necessary to pay for the program this winter.

However, that appears unlikely because only seven session days have been scheduled for the remainder of the month.

If the bill goes into effect in January, it would raise about $30.5 million. The increase would raise about $3.5 million each month that could be used for the program that already has been approved.

The bill originally proposed an increase to the severance tax to 10 percent. The House Taxation Committee recommended six percent on both oil and gas.

Governor William G. Milliken originally took no position on the tax increase but later said he would support increases to five percent on oil and four percent on gas as a source for the home heating program costs.

There has been no indication from the governor's office as to whether he would veto the higher rate or not.

State To Enter High-Speed Rail Compact

The State of Michigan will soon enter a multi-state compact to study the feasibility of a high-speed rail network.

Under the plan, states would pool resources to study the need for, the usefulness of and the cost of constructing such a railroad connecting major cities in the network.

Supporters of the high-speed network say the system could outpace Amtrak, promote energy conservation and be profitable.

Michigan will join with Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Illinois, West Virginia and Kentucky in studying the feasibility of creating such a system.

A high-speed system could be comparable to systems in countries like Japan, where electric "bullet-trains" have been in operation since the 1960's.

Supporters envision that the system could run at speeds of up to 125 miles per hour, connecting major cities.

Should the interstate compact decide to build the system, Michigan would probably contribute toward the cost.

At present, no major state expenditures are required or committed.

Historical Society

In her talk, she related that in 1976 she was asked to speak on the early history of the county for a bi-centennial event. As she researched material for her talk, she was told that there were Revolutionary War soldiers buried here. The names of ten such soldiers were given to her and as her research progressed she found more names. By May 1976, 32 names had been uncovered.

With the aid of personnel at the Bentley Historical Library, various news media libraries and the Daughters of the American Revolution, she was able to locate the cemeteries where the markers, although a bit weather beaten, are still readable. Many of the names she mentioned are still familiar in the area 200-plus years later.

One of the Historical Society members, Sally Ticknor Rendell of Chelsea, is a descendant of one of these men. Members also learned that the "men" were as young as 13 years of age. Some of the notations read: "Served for his father in the war." Males aged 15 through 60 were drafted into the army.

She pointed out that as far as could be determined, Terhune St. in Ann Arbor is the only one named for a Revolutionary soldier in this area. There is a cemetery in the Forestbrooke Subdivision which contains the graves of Terhune and his relatives.

She also noted that a Hatfield helped found the Presbyterian church at Stoney Creek. Her talk was illustrated with slides taken of the graves of the soldiers in various locations in the county.

An interesting fact brought to light by Mrs. Ziegler was that pensions were paid to survivors of the Revolutionary War dead until 1932.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Next meeting is scheduled for Jan. 8 at McKune Library.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

You know how newspapers lay out their news so we readers is supposed to get the most of a story first and work down to the least? Well, I'm here to tell you that don't fool Ed Doolittle for a minute. I've watched him read. He works the ads from the back to the front, then he works the news from front to back, and he never fails to skip over to another page when you put part of a story over there. He'll even cut out both pieces and past em together if he thinks he'll need the article at one of the country store sessions. I mention that, Mister Editor, because that's what he done last week.

Ed came to the session Saturday night with his usual run of clippings, and as soon as he got the floor, which was right off, him being presiding officer, he let in on how the papers let themselves be used to the good of them making the news. For instance, he said, take this girl that is suing one of them naked wimmen magazines fer talking her into posing fer pictures and then not living up to their bargain. She said she was "lured" from North Carolina to Florida and "held captive" fer a week while more than 1,000 pictures of ever angle of ever bit of her was took. That's one thing, Ed said, but at the end of the story was mention that the girl is fixing to open a night club in Charlotte, where she was lured from. Ed said he couldn't help wondering how upset she would be with that girlie picture book if she weren't trying to get attention to her new business. That feller that flew over New York City the other day and claimed he was going to ram a building with the airplane didn't make no bones about it. When he landed, he told police "now my book will sell."

Zeke Grubb was of a mind that when that old poet said all the world's a stage he didn't know how right he was. If we think the newspapers git caught pushing causes, Zeke said, look at TV. If you're famous or if you can think of somepun real crazy to do the cameras beat a path to your door, was Zeke's words. He was thinking particular of Jane Fonda that has made a new career out of protesting nuclear generators. She walks to the corner grocery for a quart of milk, and she's got a press conference, Zeke declared, and she says the same thing to the same people and they put it on the air like it was just brung down from the mountain. Anyhow, Zeke said, if Zsa Zsa Gabor can sell car mufflers Jane can be a nuclear scientist.

Actual, Bug Hookum said, the press conferences he likes is where everybody knows where everybody stands. Like when None Of The Above tried to git on the ballot fer governor of Louisiana. The former Luther Knox called a press conference to announce he had changed his name and he was going to give the voters of his state a real choice fer onct. Above, alias Knox, hit a legal snag, Bug said, but he made his point and the reporters that wrote him up was full aware of what they were helping him do. Even some readers wouldn't be took in with that one, Bug said, but it's probable best that voters won't git to say what they think of all them above candidate None.

Yours truly,

Uncle Lew.

WARM GLOW: Kurt Neumann explains the techniques of constructing a stained glass hanging lamp, the labor of nine months and some 500 man-hours. Neumann, a resident of the Village Apartments, constructed the intricate lamp as a Christmas present for his daughter in Ohio. More than 890 separate pieces of hand-cut glass went into the design.

Tiffany Style Lamp Built By Methodist Home Resident

What's clear and sparkling, creates a warm glow and contains dozens and dozens of grapes?

In this case, the obvious answer is not necessarily the only one, or the best one. Proof of that may be seen at the Chelsea Methodist Home apartments where Kurt Neumann is likely to be bent over a table creating something that fits the above description like a glove.

No, Neumann is not the village's friendly old winemaker, but he is its foremost practitioner of the ancient techniques of stained glass art.

The warm, clear, grape-laden object in question is a Tiffany-style glass lamp, the labor of nine months or some 500 hours of Neumann's time. It is a Christmas gift for his daughter, Joyce Hughes of Lima, O., and contains at least 897 pieces of glass, each individually hand-cut and soldered into place.

Neuman first became acquainted with stained glass when he saw a demonstration of the art at the Ann Arbor Senior Citizens Guild. He became interested enough to take instruction from the Ann Arbor man giving the presentation and quickly absorbed the techniques of the process.

The glass itself comes in sheet of a square foot and ranges in cost from $5 to more than $10 for a square. Neumann cuts the pieces into various shapes by hand, according to the plans for the lamp which he bought together with the glass. In the case of difficult to cut round grapes, Neumann fitted a drill press with a glass cutter and moved the cutter by hand in a full revolution to shape the circles.

Each piece of glass is then fitted with a piece of copper that adheres to all the edges of the glass. Each piece is then joined to the others by soldering it in place. A high-temperature solder is used on the inside of the lamp and then a low-temperature type on the outside, to prevent the previous bonds from re-melting.

Neumann has made all of this careful piecing even more difficult by adding extra pieces of glass on the inside so that the lamp is two panes thick in some spots. The inside glass adds color to the inside which is also visible among the pinks, greens and deep purples of the outside.

Deep red pieces, which add drama to any stained glass piece, are the most expensive, Neumann explained, and for a surprising reason. Glass is colored with dyes in most cases, but for red, no coloring has ever been discovered to give an acceptable tint. There is, however, one precious substance that will do the trick—gold.

Gold nuggets are melted down, Neumann said, and placed into the glass to produce a deep, impressive red shade.

Glass cutting came easily to Neumann, he relates, because in his work before retirement he had had experience in it. More patience, however, is required for the pupils he meets with once a week at the Senior Citizen Center on W. Middle. For the most part, the women eager to learn the craft have never cut glass before, so Neumann has started them out on window glass, learning to cut and break the glass in the right way.

Still in the beginning stages, the class is open to anyone interested. Each Thursday afternoon the small group meets to discuss the idiosyncracies of glass and has gingerly begun to shape and break it. Small, colorful window ornaments are first on the list of projects for the group once they begin to work on colored glass, Neumann said.

His own lamp is nearly completed and will be hung for a party in the Crippen Building at the Village Apartments for residents to admire before the lamp takes up permanent residence in Ohio.

FFA Reports Corn Test Plot Results

Chelsea FFA reports the following results on their corn test plots this year. The plots were hand-picked and tested Oct. 23.

Variety: Bally Sx 333; population: 10,600; moisture: 36; yield per acre: 37; Funks G4 323, 11,800, 36, 77; Super Crost 2350, 17,300, 32.5, 90; Garbo Sx 95, 14,500, 32.5, 79; Cardinal Sx 105, 12,100, 31.3, 69; Asgrow Rx 2345, 10,200, 32.5, 70; Pioneer 3780, 15,400, 32.0, 91; Pioneer 3901, 15,900, 27.7, 98; with lime Pioneer 3780, 14,900, 30.1, 73; without lime Pioneer 3780, 14,400, 29.6, 80.

All the corn matured in about 100 days and was planted on May 23. At the time of planting, 260 pounds per acre of 6-15-40 was used with no supplemental nitrogen being added to the plots.

Fred White donated lime, Frank Donohue of the American Cyanimid Co. donated Prowl, Washtenaw County Crop Service put out the chemical test plots and seed corn was donated by Harold Trinkle, Bob Heller, Farmers Supply, Bill Van Riper, Washtenaw Crop Service, Reuben Lesser, Jr. and Orson Beeman.

Livestock Judging Team Places in National Contest

Washtenaw county 4-H youths, representing the state of Michigan, took honors in the North American International Livestock Exposition held in Louisville, Ky., Nov. 12-15. The county team, which won the state contest at Michigan State University in August, is composed of Tom Harmon of Saline, Sue Nonnacher of Ann Arbor, David Skjaerlund of Dexter, and DeeDee Starling of Saline.

The group placed 10th in reasons, which involves giving an oral presentation for animal selections, and 21st in the over-all contest. David Skjaerlund placed 6th for individual reasons and 6th in sheep.

Team coaches are Bill Lutz of Saline and Bob Baldus of Dexter.

It's a sure bet that a good deal of warmth will be generated by grapes at that party—and they won't come from a bottle.

Anyone else interested in seeing the lamp may do so Sunday, Nov. 25 at the Crippen Building where it will be on display from 2 to 4 p.m.

The further along you get in your mortgage payments, the faster your equity grows. In the tenth year, your $210 buys equity at $53 per month rate and in your 20th year it's up to about $130 per month.

For example, let's assume you're in the first year of paying off a $25,000 mortgage you got at 9% for 25 years. Your monthly payments for principal and interest are $210.00, of which about $24 is principal, the rest interest. At the end of the year you own about $280 more of your home than when you started — sort of a forced savings account. (And you've got a

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from
State Rep. Mary Keith Ballentine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Period of Nov. 19-Dec. 3

TEACHER STRIKES — The House is now considering HB 4645, which would allow teachers and other public employees to strike. Initial amendments included one which would prohibit supervisory employees from belonging to teachers' unions; it failed.

TABS FOR SALE — Passenger vehicle license plate tabs for 1980 are now on sale at Secretary of State offices throughout Michigan. Since we are now shifting to registration by birthday, your fee will be more or less than a year, accordingly.

ERA OPINION — The Attorney General has ruled that state department directors may not prohibit employees from traveling to states which have not ratified the Equal Rights Amendment to the U. S. Constitution. 35 of a required 38 states have ratified.

WAYNE COUNTY — Now in the House is SB 652, which provides for reorganizing Wayne County government to include a strong county executive and accountability at all levels. Governor Milliken has insisted on reorganization before approving any more financial aid to the county. Meanwhile, a Detroit Senator has urged instead a two-mill property tax increase there.

ESSENTIAL INSURANCE — The Governor has now signed into law SB 428, which guarantees the availability of automobile and homeowners' insurance in all but a few cases. This was partly required by the Supreme Court to make our no-fault auto insurance law constitutional; also, it restores fault to auto accidents, allowing drivers to sue others for up to $400 for damage.

REFUGEE NUMBER — Governor Milliken is organizing a special Michigan volunteer effort to help get food and medical supplies to Indochinese refugees in camps in Thailand. Many existing groups are helping with this; information may be obtained by calling 800-221-2870, toll-free.

GAS DOWN — The Energy Department has reported that gasoline consumption in Michigan has been dropping ever since February and now stands at 4 percent below last year. Presuming this positive trend continues, we will feel little or no effects from the Iranian oil cutoff.

FAMILY WEEK — November 18 through 24 has been designated "Family Week in Michigan," calling attention to society's most fundamental social institution. The stability of a community, state or nation depends to a great extent on the influence of families.

WETLANDS WAITING — The full House is now considering Senate Bill 3, which as presently written would immediately bring most of the state's high-population, high-growth areas under the procedures designed to preserve and protect wetlands. Smaller areas would have more elaborate procedures, with the result that it would be 4 to 5 years before the whole state is covered.

NEW CEMETERY — The first National Cemetery to be located in Michigan will be at Fort Custer near Battle Creek. It will open in late 1983 and will serve veterans in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin and Minnesota in addition to the 1.2 million veterans in our own state.

NUMBER TWO: Arriving second at The Chelsea Standard, just after the start of deer hunting season, was Tim Wade, who bagged his prize around 7:05 a.m. off Freer Rd. Wade estimated his deer at approximately 150 pounds. Note the white covering of snow which greeted the area Thursday morning in the season's first snowfall.

Leftover Foods Provide Potential Source of Poisoning

Leftover foods, in abundance following holiday feasts, can cause serious illness if improperly handled, warns Dr. Edward Heffron, Food Inspection division chief. Symptoms may begin with upset stomachs, but serious cases can result in death, especially with very young children or elderly people.

A single bout with food poisoning will cost more in lost time, doctor bills and medication than the dollar value of most foods, which might better be dumped down the disposal or into the garbage can. That's why food inspectors warn, "When in doubt, throw it out."

Allowing hot foods to cool at room temperature for long periods of time can be dangerous. Cooling foods not more than 30 minutes before refrigerating is safest.

Permitting foods to remain at room temperature, usually 70 to 80 degrees, is most hazardous, since these temperatures are ideal for growth of food poisoning organisms. A good guide is to keep hot foods at or about 140 degrees, cold foods at or below 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

Housewives are advised to stuff the holiday bird just before it goes into the oven, remove and chill any leftover dressing quickly. Beware too, of salad dressings and all types of cream pies and sauces, left at room temperature. These too are fertile breeding grounds for bacteria.

Get the Point?

On Nov. 25, 1817, Senaa Samma, touted as an Indian juggler from Madras and London, became America's first sword swallower when he thrust the sword of one William Pyle of New York down his throat. Both Samma and Pyle's sword have long departed, but visitors to Henry Ford Museum have a chance to see a number of sabers and swords of that era on exhibit in the Dearborn Museum's Hall of Technology.

A win there would send Chelsea to another contest, determining the team to move on to district play.

Volunteers Help in Grid Team Progress

It would have been difficult to ignore Chelsea's varsity football team and their spectacular season finish this year, and yet, for most people, football is just a Friday night affair. Coach Gene LaFave credits a good deal of the team's success to those people who made it for more than just Friday nights.

To begin the season, a football camp was held for the team, largely through the efforts of Bob Daniels, Federal Screw Works and Paul Mann. Observations made at the camp helped coaches get a head start on the season.

"I know we had a slow start," said LaFave, "but it would have been even slower without the camp."

Mothers of team members pitched in every Friday before the games to help provide a team meal for the players and cheerleaders and contribute to a sense of camaraderie before the contest.

Various other parents lent their homes for hot dog roasts on Thursday nights, at which team members burned a wooden stake symbolic of Friday's opponent. After the season was ended, the team took a trip to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, O., largely through the efforts and donations of people interested in the team.

"These things really uplift your program," LaFave said. "It pleases me more than anything to see the community and parents involved. It's more than just a Friday night activity."

As far as the ultimate achievements are concerned, LaFave gives the credit to the players.

"We had only three returning starters out of 22 kids," he recalled. "We had kids who worked hard and we pushed them. They sometimes had this discouraged look on their face as though they were wondering if all this nonsense is worth it. But we grew in confidence."

Seniors and coaches had the toughest job this year, adapting to LaFave's new system and organization for the program, and he gives them all the highest marks for co-operation and a positive attitude.

Coaching the other squads this year at the high school and at Beach were Bud Janich, Bill Wehrwein, Bert Kruse, Bill Wescott, Charlie Waller, Mike Phillips, Randy Seltz, Wayne Welton, Jon Schaffner, Bill Bainton, Jim Ticknor and Jim Tallman.

LaFave sees his own personal strong points as "enthusiasm and organization. You must delegate a lot of responsibility and put a lot of trust in your kids. You must not allow some to vegetate while others think twice as hard."

Training for next season begins in January with a weight lifting program, and then a two-to-three-week training program in the spring.

"Then," said LaFave, "they should have time to be kids."

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from
State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Period of Nov. 19-Dec. 3

TEACHER STRIKES — The House is now considering HB 4645, which would allow teachers and other public employees to strike. Initial amendments included one which would prohibit supervisory employees from belonging to teachers' unions; it failed.

TABS FOR SALE — Passenger vehicle license plate tabs for 1980 are now on sale at Secretary of State offices throughout Michigan. Since we are now shifting to registration by birthday, your fee will be more or less than a year, accordingly.

ERA OPINION — The Attorney General has ruled that state department directors may not prohibit employees from travelling to states which have not ratified the Equal Rights Amendment to the U. S. Constitution. 35 of a required 38 states have ratified.

WAYNE COUNTY — Now in the House is SB 652, which provides for reorganizing Wayne County government to include a strong county executive and accountability at all levels. Governor Milliken has insisted on reorganization before approving any more financial aid to the county. Meanwhile, a Detroit Senator has urged instead a two-mill property tax increase there.

ESSENTIAL INSURANCE — The Governor has now signed into law SB 428, which guarantees the availability of automobile and homeowners' insurance in all but a few cases. This was partly required by the Supreme Court to make our no-fault auto insurance law constitutional; also, it restores fault to auto accidents, allowing drivers to sue others for up to $400 for damage.

REFUGEE NUMBER — Governor Milliken is organizing a special Michigan volunteer effort to help get food and medical supplies to Indochinese refugees in camps in Thailand. Many existing groups are helping with this; information may be obtained by calling 800-221-2870, toll-free.

GAS DOWN — The Energy Department has reported that gasoline consumption in Michigan has been dropping ever since February and now stands at 4 percent below last year. Presuming this positive trend continues, we will feel little or no effects from the Iranian oil cutoff.

FAMILY WEEK — November 18 through 24 has been designated as "Family Week in Michigan," calling attention to society's most fundamental social institution. The stability of a community, state or nation depends to a great extent on the influence of families.

WETLANDS WAITING — The full House is now considering Senate Bill 3, which as presently written would immediately bring most of the state's high-population, high-growth areas under the procedures designed to preserve and protect wetlands. Smaller areas would have more elaborate procedures, with the result that it would be 4 to 5 years before the whole state is covered.

NEW CEMETERY — The first National Cemetery to be located in Michigan will be at Fort Custer near Battle Creek. It will open in late 1983 and will serve veterans in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin and Minnesota in addition to the 1.2 million veterans in our own state.

NUMBER TWO: Arriving second at The Chelsea Standard, just after the start of deer hunting season, was Tim Wade, who bagged his prize around 7:05 a.m. off Freer Rd. Wade estimated his deer at approximately 150 pounds. Note the white covering of snow which greeted the area Thursday morning in the season's first snowfall.

Leftover Foods Provide Potential Source of Poisoning

Leftover foods, in abundance following holiday feasts, can cause serious illness if improperly handled, warns Dr. Edward Heffron, Food Inspection division chief. Symptoms may begin with upset stomachs, but serious cases can result in death, especially with very young children or elderly people.

A single bout with food poisoning will cost more in lost time, doctor bills and medication than the dollar value of most foods, which might better be dumped down the disposal or into the garbage can. That's why food inspectors warn, "When in doubt, throw it out."

Allowing hot foods to cool at room temperature for long periods of time can be dangerous. Cooling foods not more than 30 minutes before refrigerating is safest.

Permitting foods to remain at room temperature, usually 70 to 80 degrees, is most hazardous, since these temperatures are ideal for growth of food poisoning organisms. A good guide is to keep hot foods at or about 140 degrees, cold foods at or below 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

Housewives are advised to stuff the holiday bird just before it goes into the oven, remove and chill any leftover dressing quickly. Beware too, of salad dressings and all types of cream pies and sauces, left at room temperature. These too are fertile breeding grounds for bacteria.

Get the Point?

On Nov. 25, 1817, Senaa Samma, touted as an Indian juggler from Madras and London, became America's first sword swallower when he thrust the sword of one William Pyle of New York down his throat. Both Samma and Pyle's sword have long departed, but visitors to Henry Ford Museum have a chance to see a number of sabers and swords of that era on exhibit in the Dearborn Museum's Hall of Technology.

A win there would send Chelsea to another contest, determining the team to move on to district play.

Volunteers Help in Grid Team Progress

It would have been difficult to ignore Chelsea's varsity football team and their spectacular season finish this year, and yet, for most people, football is just a Friday night affair. Coach Gene LaFave credits a good deal of the team's success to those people who made it for more than just Friday nights.

To begin the season, a football camp was held for the team, largely through the efforts of Bob Daniels, Federal Screw Works and Paul Mann. Observations made at the camp helped coaches get a head start on the season.

"I know we had a slow start," said LaFave, "but it would have been even slower without the camp."

Mothers of team members pitched in every Friday before the games to help provide a team meal for the players and cheerleaders and contribute to a sense of camaraderie before the contest.

Various other parents lent their homes for hot dog roasts on Thursday nights, at which team members burned a wooden stake symbolic of Friday's opponent.

After the season was ended, the team took a trip to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, O., largely through the efforts and donations of people interested in the team.

"These things really uplift your program," LaFave said. "It pleases me more than anything to see the community and parents involved. It's more than just a Friday night activity."

As far as the ultimate achievements are concerned, LaFave gives the credit to the players.

"We had only three returning starters out of 22 kids," he recalled. "We had kids who worked hard and we pushed them. They sometimes had this discouraged look on their face as though they were wondering if all this nonsense is worth it. But we grew in confidence."

Seniors and coaches had the toughest job this year, adapting to LaFave's new system and organization for the program, and he gives them all the highest marks for co-operation and a positive attitude.

Coaching the other squads this year at the high school and at Beach were Bud Janich, Bill Wehrwein, Bert Kruse, Bill Wescott, Charlie Waller, Mike Phillips, Randy Seitz, Wayne Welton, Jon Schaffner, Bill Bainton, Jim Ticknor and Jim Tallman.

LaFave sees his own personal strong points as "enthusiasm and organization. You must delegate a lot of responsibility and put a lot of trust in your kids. You must not allow some to vegetate while others think twice as hard."

Training for next season begins in January with a weight lifting program, and then a two-to-three-week training program in the spring.

"Then," said LaFave, "they should have time to be kids."

Good Things Growing in Michigan

Good things growing in Michigan includes wholesome Grade A milk. Our state has 8,000 dairy farms, with a total of 403,000 cows, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Milk is the largest single item sold from our farms, accounting for about a quarter of farmers' cash receipts. In 1978 our state ranked sixth in the nation, producing 4,793 million pounds of milk. Output per cow was 11,893 pounds.

MDA dairy inspectors carefully check each milk parlor and all milk house equipment for sanitation. Only farms issued a state permit with sanitation approval may supply Grade A milk to dairies.

The Michigan legislature was the first in the nation to adopt the Grade A fluid milk laws in 1965. All fluid milk for bottling in our state must meet these standards. Previously, Grade A milk was only offered on a voluntary basis by certain dairies.

Milk contains many vital nutrients needed in human diets including calcium, protein and vitamins. To make sure your family receives an adequate amount of milk in their daily meals, use milk to make puddings, home-made chowders and cream sauces for vegetables and in rice or noodle casseroles.

During the holidays, serve family and guests eggnog, the traditional holiday drink, or Orange Milk Punch. Any Michigan fruits, including blueberries and strawberries available in the frozen foods section, may be added to the basic eggnog recipe for a different taste treat.

Make eggnog by beating six eggs until thick. Add two cups each milk and cream, two-thirds cup sugar, two tablespoons vanilla extract, and one-fourth teaspoon salt. Add one cup brandy or dark rum (optional). Mix well until blended. Top with freshly grated nutmeg. Makes 12 servings.

To make Orange Milk Punch, combine one quart softened vanilla ice cream and two pints orange sherbet. Add one 16-ounce bottle carbonated lemon-lime drink, one quart milk and blend. Serve in punch bowl garnished with maraschino cherries if desired. Makes 24 one-half cup servings.

Michigan initiated steam powered navigation 20 years before the advent of steam powered ocean vessels. The "Walk in the Water" was the first Great Lakes steamer making its way north from Lake Erie then Lake Huron and into Lake Michigan in 1818, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

DAVID KARNs, Chelsea Aquatic Club swimmer, paddled to a club record in the 25-yard butterfly last Monday in Ypsilanti. The nine-year-old Karns swam to a 17.4 second mark, beating the old record by .4 seconds.

SARAH WEIS, 8-year-old Chelsea Aquatic Club member, set a club record in Ypsilanti last week in the 25-yard butterfly. Weis' 16.8 second time smashed the record she herself set this past summer.

Aquatic Club Win Makes 4 Straight

Last Monday evening the Chelsea Aquatic Club traveled to Ypsilanti to defend their unblemished season mark of 3-0. By the end of the meet, the swimmers had not only increased their record to 4-0, but four club records were broken and one was tied.

First outstanding swim was performed by Sarah Weis, an eight-year-old, who broke the record she had set this past summer in the 25-yard butterfly. Monday night she was timed at 16.8 seconds.

Another record was set by Dave Karns, a nine-year-old, in the 25-yard butterfly. His time of 17.4 breaks the previous record of 17.8 seconds.

Margie Rawson broke her own existing mark in the 50-yard backstroke by going 33.6, breaking the old mark of 33.8.

Nine- and 10-year-old boys then got into the swing of record breaking and smashed the record they had set the previous week in Milan. The boys, David Karns, Darrin Girard, Kevan Flanigan and John Cattell, will be key individuals in Chelsea's attempt to take home the first-place trophy in the upcoming championships, Dec. 7 and 8.

Nine and ten girls relay of Cathy Hoffman, Martha Koerike, Jenny Pichlik and Laura Stephens then tied the existing record of 1:03.7.

Other Chelsea winners include the following:

8 and under boys—Medley relay: Jimmy Alford, Matt Weis, Tim Karns, Jason Overdorf; 25-yard butterfly: Matt Weis; 100 free relay: Jimmy Alford, Matt Weis, Tim Karns, Jason Overdorf.

8 and under girls—Medley relay: Mary Burke, Sharon Colombo, Sarah Weis, Molly Thompson; free relay: Molly Thompson, Sharon Colombo, Allison Brown, Sarah Weis.

Interchange Plan Up for Action

Proposed plans for construction of an interchange at Interstate 94 Freeway and Platt Rd. in Ann Arbor and Pittsfield township will be on the agenda for review and action when the State Transportation Commission meets Nov. 28 in Lansing.

The Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) proposes to construct an interchange at that location will all ramps west of Platt Rd. The project includes related improvements such as widening of Platt Rd. to five lanes in the area and construction of a bridge to carry Ellsworth Rd. over I-94, restoring the continuity of Ellsworth Rd.

A public hearing on the project was held Jan. 30 in Scarlett Junior High school, Ann Arbor. Estimated cost of the project is $4.5 million. A contract letting is scheduled for the summer of 1982.

Start Plans Now For Conservation Project in Spring

If you are planning to install a conservation project next year, District Conservationist Clark Eacker suggests that now is a good time to contact the Soil Conservation Service to schedule the necessary field assistance.

Eacker states that conservation practices such as grassed waterways, erosion control structures, diversions, livestock waste storage facilities and sediment control basins all require considerable time to plan and design. By completing the field work now, plans may be prepared and ready for the construction season next spring.

Contact the Soil Conservation Service, located at 6101 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor, telephone 761-6721, to schedule your project now.

Michigan Bell

Michigan Bell... people who enjoy serving people.

If you've ever forgotten how to get a needed phone number for a distant city — outside your own area code — you may want to clip this ad and keep it near your phone as a reminder. Here's all you do: First, dial "0" and ask the operator for the area code, if you don't already know. Then, for Long Distance directory assistance, dial "1," plus the area code for that city, then 555-1212. You will reach a Long Distance directory assistance operator who will give you the number. Once you have the number, write it down so the next time you need it, you can dial it direct and save. If you don't have a good place to write it down, we have a place for you... your Personal Telephone Directory — a handy book for keeping your personal list of local and out-of-town phone numbers. It's free. Just call your Michigan Bell business office and ask for a copy.

They are, frankly, the most professionally trained automotive sales force in the county and possibly southeast Michigan. Meet Bill Kaniski on the left. He's Rampy's General Sales Manager and his specialty is new cars. Bill Miller, in the middle, has been matching up cars and people for years. He's in charge of used car sales. On the right is Gordon Hagopian. He's an expert in truck sales which have had a tremendous upsurge in the last few years. Folks are looking at trucks now who would never have considered buying one a couple of years ago. Gordy has the ability to help you choose a perfect truck for your needs.

Everyone benefits from a well-trained sales staff. Rampy is number one in the county in repeat business because each of his sixteen salesmen is expert in matching the needs of the customer with the right Chevrolet car or truck.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Representative Ballantine: Since I will be out of town and unable to attend your meeting with constituents scheduled in Grass Lake this month, I wanted to take this opportunity to tell you of a concern of mine, and that is the problems of inmates escaping from Cassidy Lake Technical School. As you are no doubt well aware, inmates from Cassidy Lake who have walked away from the "school" have committed a series of crimes, including two violent crimes, in the past few weeks.

You recently received a letter from Mr. Tom Hodgson of Chelsea which was printed in the Letters to the Editor column in The Chelsea Standard, and which I read with great interest and support. I believe Mr. Hodgson expresses a growing concern among many of your constituents in the Waterloo-Chelsea area.

My family has lived in the Waterloo area (2 miles from Cassidy Lake Technical School) for approximately five years and it is interesting to note that the school, its inmates and the escaping problem never received any publicity until approximately this past year. I suspect without having verified it that to some degree escaping from a minimum security Technical School is always a problem, but escaping inmates in the past have seldom perpetrated violent crimes and thus the resulting lack of publicity is perhaps understandable.

Recent violent crimes committed in the area by Cassidy Lake escapees raises several serious questions about the facility. The overcrowded prison situation in Michigan is a well-known fact along with the associated problem of choosing a site and constructing new prisons. If I can draw a common thread between the growing Cassidy Lake problem and the prison overcrowding problem, I conclude that it is possible that the State Department of Corrections is placing individuals at Cassidy Lake whose criminal record and level of rehabilitation do not warrant residence at a minimum security technical school-halfway house. I am deeply concerned that the character of the current inmate population at Cassidy Lake might not be in tune with the original purpose upon which Cassidy Lake Technical School was founded. If this is the case, the problems of recent months are going to continue and indeed grow worse.

I fully concur with Mr. Hodgson's comments that the events of the past few months portend a growing danger to the citizens of the Waterloo-Chelsea area—your constituents—and that an investigation regarding the inmate placement policy of the Department of Corrections needs to be undertaken. I urge you to initiate this investigation and find a solution before more violent crimes or any crimes are committed by Cassidy Lake escapees. If the current trend continues, the use of the Waterloo Outdoor Recreation Area by not only the citizens of the Waterloo-Chelsea area, but people who drive many miles from surrounding communities in southeast Michigan to enjoy a fall color tour or just a day in the outdoors may cease.

My wife and I are joggers and hikers and thoroughly enjoy walking through the Waterloo Recreation Area virtually at all times of the year. We feel we can no longer do so without some potential danger to our person or at least the thought that some violent crime could occur—both of which make total enjoyment or any enjoyment of that recreation area impossible. Some positive action to curtail the escape problem at Cassidy Lake Technical School must be taken soon. I urge you to adopt this very serious and growing problem as your cause celebre and find a solution in the near future.

William R. Parker.

To the Editor,

From all sources we have received congratulations on the Veterans Day Parade held Sunday, Nov. 11, in Dexter.

To those of you who assisted in the preparation and conduct of the parade, the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans wishes to express its deepest thanks and appreciation for the extended effort you gave.

To those units and organizations participating in the "Line of March," and the VIPs on the reviewing stand, the Council thanks you all for the outward expression and recognition you gave to all our Veterans, especially those 28,000 plus in Washtenaw county.

Again, our deepest thanks. Colonel Gerald G. Miller, Retired Parade Chairman.

Dear Editor:

I am concerned that ratification of SALT II by the U. S. Senate will advertise to the world that the U. S. accepts strategic inferiority to the USSR and is willing to place the future independence and national sovereignty of this nation at the mercy of Communist Russia. Any "peace" bought at that price will be as dangerous as the "peace in our time" bought by British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain at Munich in 1938 which triggered World War II.

An editorial in The News of Lynchburg, Va., on May 15, 1979 stated:

"As Mr. Carter plumps for an unverifiable treaty with a government that has broken 50 of 52 major pacts it has signed, the Soviets are continuing to build Cuba into a massive air and submarine base under our noses . . .

"If we sign this pact and live up to its provisions and the Soviets do not—as they have done in SALT I—there will be no need for a SALT III. The Carter Administration will have sold out American sovereignty on paper, without a fight. And James Earl Carter, Jr., will go down in history as the man responsible."

Phyllis Schlafly in her Report of August 1979 warned:

"The SALT II treaty allows the Soviet Union to build everything they need to achieve a first-strike capability, decisive nuclear superiority, and control of the world.

"As soon as the Soviets finish their current nuclear building programs, they can move offensive nuclear weapons and troops into Cuba; they can cut off all our

Christmas Craft Exhibition Set at Manchester Art Gallery

Grandmother's country kitchen at Christmas time is the setting for the second annual Christmas crafts exhibition at the Manchester Art Gallery. An old cook stove, rocking chair, Christmas tree, and other items reminiscent of a cozy country kitchen will form the backdrop for the many fine art and craft items on display and for sale. These handcrafted gift items, ornaments, and pieces of fine art have been made for this exhibition by area artists and craftspeople.

The Opening Celebration of "Over the River and Through the Woods: A Visit to Grandmother's" will take place on Friday, Nov. 23. Visitors are invited to join Manchester Art Guild members between 10 and 4 for a cup of mulled cider and a Christmas cookie while looking over the wide assortment of treasures. Along with the handcrafted gift items, there will also be home-canned and baked goods perfect for giving, or serving, to family and friends.

A very special "Children's Day" has been planned for Saturday, Dec. 15 from 10 to 4. Area artists have been busy making unique items with small price tags for this special day. Children will be met at the door by Art Guild members who will help them in making their selection. The small visitors may then create their own gift wrapping at no extra charge. Storytelling sessions, given by Grandmother herself, have been planned throughout the day. Mulled cider and cookies will be available for the youngsters and parents may enjoy a cup of coffee and cookies while their children shop.

In addition to the festivities planned for the Opening Celebration and Children's Day, there will also be an opportunity to learn how to create your own Christmas ornaments and gifts. The Calico Family Workshop on Nov. 24 will teach how to make lovely ornaments using scraps of fabric. Cornhusks will be made into dolls and wreaths in the Cornhusk Family Workshop on Nov. 29, and bread dough ornaments will be made in the Bread Dough Family Workshop on Dec. 8. Also on Dec. 8, the Clothespin Doll Workshop will show how to make delightful dolls using clothespins and leftover scraps. Those interested in joining Guild members in the old fashioned custom of creating their own gifts and ornaments are invited to 428-7238 during the evening.

"Over the River and Through the Woods: A Visit to Grandmother's" will run from Nov. 23 through Dec. 23. Along with the special dates mentioned above, the Manchester Art Gallery will be open on Tuesdays and Saturdays, 10-2 p.m.; Fridays and Saturdays, 7:30-9 p.m.; and Sundays 3-6 p.m. Special arrangements for visiting the Gallery may be made by calling 428-7927. The Manchester Art Gallery is located at 138 E. Main St., Manchester.

The Bible-The Light from Heaven

Places a responsibility on the hearer of the word. In Luke 8:18, Jesus said, "Take heed therefore how ye hear." The parable of the sower illustrates four kinds hearers. (Luke 8:4-15; Matthew 13:3-9, 18-23). (1) The wayside-hearer - satan snatches the word out of his heart. (2) The rocky-ground hearer - this heart is checked by external influences. (3) The thorny-ground hearer - is checked by internal influences. (4) The good-ground hearer is a productive listener. Jesus stated in Matthew 13:8-9, "But other (seed) fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold. Who hath ears to hear let him hear." Some examples in God's word after one sermon. The Jews on Pentecost (Acts 2): Cornelius the gentile (Acts 10). The Eunuch in Acts 8, and the Philippian jailor (Acts 16). The Lord desires a good honest heart!

NEW APARTMENT COMPLEX: Construction is progressing on these new village apartments, located off Wilkinson St. near W.

Middle. Owned by Chelsea Associates, the 33 two-bedroom units are expected to be ready for renters by early spring.

33-Unit Apartment Complex Underway off Wilkinson

Construction is progressing on a new apartment complex in Chelsea intended to meet the demand for more rental housing within the village limits.

Located off Wilkinson St. near W. Middle, the 33 two-bedroom apartments are slated for completion in early spring of next year.

Conceived and owned by Chelsea Associates, some of the units will comprise two stories of the building, in effect giving the apartment dwellers an upstairs and a downstairs.

One of the Chelsea Associates, Robert Kendall, said the new housing was planned because of a perceived shortage of apartments in the village.

The nearby apartments, also owned by Chelsea Associates, have long been booked solid and renters waiting a unit there have been faced with a long waiting list, said Kendall. He and the Chelsea Associates hope that the new housing will remove some of the burden from the few apartment buildings here in the village.

Kendall said there have already been a number of inquiries regarding the new housing, and speculated that renters may be accepted for the building in "the near future."

Michigan initiated steam powered navigation 20 years before the advent of steam powered ocean vessels. The "Walk in the Water" was the first Great Lakes steamer making its way north from Lake Erie then Lake Huron and into Lake Michigan in 1818, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

Arthritis Induced Mental Problems To Be Discussed

Joan Brown, R.N. and Denise Sisher, O.T.R., both from Chelsea Community Hospital will be guest speakers at an educational program presented by the Washtenaw County Volunteer Unit of the Arthritis Foundation, Michigan Chapter, a United Way Agency.

Because arthritis can produce immobilizing amounts of depression and defeat, unmanageable anxiety levels, loss of confidence and isolation, Brown and Sisher's talks will be aimed at how arthritis sufferers can better cope with problems that arthritis has caused them.

This program will be held at the Chelsea Community Hospital, in Chelsea in the dining room on Wednesday, Nov. 28 at 7 p.m.

Wendy Reuter, chairperson of the Washtenaw County Volunteer Unit, states that the program is open to the public, without charge and that free educational literature on arthritis will be available as a community service of the Arthritis Foundation, Michigan Chapter.

Postal Service Offers Christmas Gift Items

Postmaster Richard Schaules today reminded holiday shoppers that the Chelsea post office is offering several stamp collecting items suitable for Christmas gifts.

Postmaster Schaules said that the post office has the latest edition of "Stamps and Stories," the popular U.S. Postal Service guide to stamp collecting, as well as the 1979 Mint Set, which contains all 30 commemorative and special stamps issued during the year.

The 256-page "Stamps and Stories," priced at $3.50, relates more than 100 stories about U.S. stamps and is designed to introduce non-collectors to stamp collecting as well as to provide interesting philatelic information such as current market values to both novice and experienced collectors.

Postmaster Schaules said that many of the stories in the new edition are new or have been substantially changed since the fifth edition appeared last year.

The 1979 Mint Set, priced at $5.25, is the latest in a series of annual sets of commemorative and special stamps released by the post office each year prior to Christmas. The cover of the colorful set features a montage of artwork related to the stamps inside and dramatically wraps around all three sides of the folder. Acetate strips on the inside provide spaces in which the enclosed stamps may be mounted and displayed.

In addition to these two items, the post office also has a number of popular topical stamp collecting kits available for beginning collectors. The kits have topics ranging from "The World of Sports" to "Birds and Butterflies" and "Diamonds and Triangles." Each of the $2 kits also includes a small 20-page album, mounting hinges, insert sheets for additional stamps and a 32-page booklet entitled "The ABCs of Stamp Collecting."

THE ULTIMATE COMPUTER VIDEO GAME SYSTEM By MAGNAVOX

its only limitation is your own imagination!

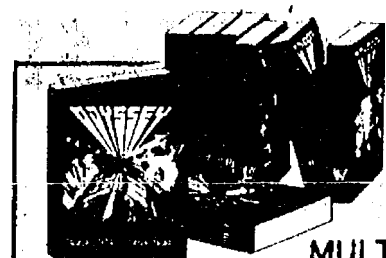

Two Action-Packed Arcade Games and One Mental Block Buster Included: Spin Out, Speedway and Crypto-Logic.

This computer is the heart of this new kind of electronic video game system. Its capabilities are infinitely more sophisticated than the conventional electronic games found in homes. An ALPHA-NUMERIC KEYBOARD translates English into the electronic language of the microprocessor. The application of state-of-the-art technology permits Odyssey² to simulate reality to a truly remarkable degree.

MULTI-LEVEL PLAY CAPABILITY! At their peak, Odyssey² games present a most serious strategy challenge to the most seasoned players. But if you tell the computer you're a beginner, then things are different. The speed and action is slowed down.

ON-SCREEN DIGITAL READOUTS! Scoring! Real time! Elapsed time! Lap counters! Even photo-finish freeze action at the end of racing events!

ODYSSEY² IS A SERIOUS EDUCATIONAL TOOL! For children, games like MATH-A-MAGIC make addition, subtraction, multiplication and division fun to practice. Games like BUZZWORD and CRYPTO-LOGIC reinforce basic spelling skills. Odyssey² is equally valuable as a learning device for teenagers and adults.

Choose from a wide variety of action-packed arcade... challenging sports... and educational games.

MULTI-MODE CARTRIDGE LIBRARY! Many of the Odyssey² game cartridges contain two or more generic games playable at different strategic levels. This makes a widely varied collection of games much more economical to acquire. Many other Odyssey² games are available now including FOOTBALL, BASEBALL, BOWLING, BASKETBALL, LAS VEGAS BLACKJACK, ARMORED ENCOUNTER, SUBCHASE, MATH-A-MAGIC, ECHO, MATCHMAKER, LOGIX, BUZZWORD, COMPUTER GOLF AND COSMIC CONFLICT! New games will always be on the way.

FLAG PRESENTATION: Senior Lady Girl Scout Troop 777 of the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home received an American Flag last Thursday from Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary, Post 13, represented by Lula Grove, second from right. Mrs. Grove, patriotic instructor for the post told the troop about the flag's importance to the DAV, and then presented it to Emily Finch, second from left, flanked by color guards Violet Merriall, left, and Bulah Jones. Florence Hubard closed the ceremony with the reading, "What the Flag Means." Troop 777, in its third year, is sponsored by leaders Connie Amick, Sandra Rogers and Barbara Von Garder.

SCARLET (AND GRAY) FEVER: A bet for the losing side in Saturday's Michigan-Ohio State contest has doomed Chelsea Hospital Administrator and U-M alumnus Will Johnson to wear the hated Buckeye sign all this week. The bet was made with Pam White, Johnson's secretary, who attended OSU.

A study of New York dairy farms shows farm energy costs soaring. The average cost per farm in 1977 was $2,775 for gasoline and oil, $1,515 for electricity. Last year, costs rose to $3,293 for gas and oil, $1,877 for electricity. And this year, the average annual costs are $5,269 for gas and oil, $2,159 for electricity. The conclusion: energy costs, previously five percent of milk selling price, have risen to 6.4 percent for the farms studied.

Demand for Food Likely To Exceed Production in 80's

Luther Tweeten, regents professor at Oklahoma State University, says total demand for U. S. food and fiber in the 1980's will probably exceed, by about 2% annually, the ability of the U. S. to increase its production. Tweeten, speaking at the recent U. S. Agricultural Outlook Conference in Washington D. C., said there might be times when U. S. production slightly exceeds domestic and export demand, but that average demand will increase faster than supply. Tweeten also says that export demand for U. S. farm products will grow by about 5% annually in the 1980's, and domestic demands will increase by about 1% per year.

Bootleggers Would Love It

A rather inventive gentleman presented the patent office with an unusual artifact in an application filed Nov. 4, 1892. The device was a combination clothes brush, hidden flask and drinking cup. The base of the brush contained the hidden flask and its cap doubled as a good stiff shot glass when pouring. The booze-brush was patented Jan. 31, 1893 but saw little use. Hundreds of equally unusual but far more practical inventions are on exhibit in the eight-acre Hall of Technology of Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn.

Rehearsals Begin for Drama Club Production

Rehearsals have begun for the Chelsea High school drama class production of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol."

Directing the upcoming dramatization of the Dickens classic is CHS speech, drama and debate teacher, William Coelius, III.

Coelius, known to cast and crew as "Mr. C," has been involved in speech and dramatic arts for some time. Extremely active in Chelsea Players, he has appeared in "Oklahoma!" "Hello Dolly," and "Harvey."

In addition to his experience on stage, Coelius served as debate coach for 10 years before retiring in 1977. He has also been the only forensics coach in the high school's history.

"Mr. C's" success as the drama director is attributed by his students to his ability to work with and relate to them.

Although "A Christmas Carol" is Coelius' first directing experience, cast and crew believe that his style and determination will provide a unique evening's entertainment when the curtain rises at CHS on Dec. 15.
