Cagers Drub J. C. Western In 78-51 Win

Bounce Back With Vengeance After Initial Loss to Brighton

Playing excellent offensive and defensive basketball and bouncing back from a season-opening loss to Brighton last week, Chelsea's varsity cagers recorded a 33-point third quarter on their way to a 78-51 drubbing of Jackson County Western Tuesday night.

Chelsea and JC Western were the first two SEC teams to meet this season, so the Bulldogs are temporarily on top in the league.

According to Coach Robin Raymond: "Our game objective after the loss to Brighton was to play a more aggressive defense, and we certainly did that."

The Bulldogs made about 45 percent of their shots in the first half, bucketing 16 in 35 attempts to lead the opposition, 37-23 at the half. Western was limited to just 23 shots in the entire half by Chelsea's fired-up defense.

In the third quarter, according to Raymond, Chelsea "came out and blitzed them." The Bulldogs recorded 18 points to Western's two in the first four minutes of the quarter and ended the period with 33 points to Western's 12.

Bulldogs slacked off a bit defensively in the final quarter, with Western taking the scoring edge, 16-8, but Chelsea still took a decisive win.

Individually, John Dunn was high scorer with 17 points, followed by Jeff Dils with 11; Don Schrotenboer, 10; Brad Knickerbocker, 8; Carl Albrecht, 7; Mike Killelea, 6; Jeff Price, 6; Sean Peterson, 6; Dan McGill, 4; Jon Riemenschneider, 2; and Mark Steinaway, 1.

"Everyone scored and got a lot of play time," said Coach Raymond. "We gave the juniors a chance to play and for the most part they did well. There were some problems in the fourth quarter, but we came back in the final two minutes."

One facet of the game that disappointed Raymond was the Bulldog's rebounding figure, equal to the Western total of 44. "Chelsea had the size advantage and should have dominated the boards," he insisted.

Schrotenboer led with 14 rebounds, followed by Dils with six and Killelea with five.

Key to the victory, Raymond said, was Chelsea's over-all emphasis on defense. At one point in the third quarter, the Bulldogs led their opponents 62-28, a tribute to defensive excellence.

Importantly, Chelsea never trailed in the contest. "That's important," emphasized Raymond. "When you're ahead you can take chances."

In spite of the fact that Chelsea's varsity cagers dropped a contest to Brighton Friday night that should have been the Bulldogs' all the way, Coach Robin Raymond isn't overly upset. The way he sees it, the experience wasn't all bad.

Leading for much of the evening, the Bulldogs managed to throw away their season opener in overtime, 70-64. The experience, however, says Raymond, may help them avoid such losses further on in their schedule.

"Playing on the road for an opening game is difficult," he said. "Brighton had a large crowd and a pep band and showed a lot of spirit. Our players were rattled and didn't handle the pressure well."

"I think we learned a lot from it. It's hard to say that you can learn from a loss, but the next time we have a game close in the final seconds, we'll handle ourselves differently because we've been through it."

Up until the beginning of the fourth quarter Friday night, fans would have been hard pressed to pick Brighton as the evening's victor. Led by 6'7" senior center Don Schrotenboer, the Bulldogs galloped out to a 57-47 lead at the end of the third quarter.

The Bulldogs went out quickly, scoring the first six points of the contest and handling Brighton's one-two-two zone well. Jeff Dils managed nine points and Schrotenboer four in the first period.

Scoring was even, 18-18, by the two squads in the second period, but Chelsea managed to hold the lead at the half, 33-31. Schrotenboer bucketed six points and Carl Albrecht came off the bench to turn in a strong performance and score six points.

When the action resumed, Chelsea found that their opponents had switched to a two-three zone in an effort to stop the momentum. Playing their never-varying man-to-man defense, the Bulldogs bucketed 24 points to the opposition's 16, and led 57-47 going into the final quarter. Schrotenboer got 10 of the points himself and Mike Killelea scored six.

Then, however, the tables turned and Brighton took the scoring into its own hands. Brighton players scored the first eight points of the period, having shifted back to their one-two-two zone. With just eight seconds in the contest left to go, Brighton held a 62-61 edge. Jeff Dils tossed in a free throw to tie the score and

Blood Bank Clinic Set Saturday

Christmas season is a season of travel, and, more often than we would like to remember, travel ends in highway accidents and injury.

Because of the increase in highway accidents at this time of the year, there are often widespread shortages of blood for transfusions and operations.

In the spirit of helping others through the busy holiday season, Chelsea Jaycees are sponsoring their annual Red Cross Blood Drive Saturday, Dec. 15, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Mary's school on Congdon St.

Drive chairman Wendell Wagner asks Chelsea residents to note that the location for this year's drive is not the Chelsea fairgrounds as it has always been in the past.

Blood from the drive will go to the American Red Cross to be distributed throughout the area as need demands.

McKune Library Will Close Before Holidays

Jo Ann Walter, head librarian at McKune Memorial Library, has announced that the library will be closed all day on Dec. 24 and 25, and again on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

'Christmas Carol' Offered Saturday

Saturday, Dec. 15 is the date Chelsea residents should remember, because it will be their only chance to see the Chelsea High school drama class production of "A Christmas Carol."

The production, which will begin at 8 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium, is a delightful journey back in time to the London of the 1800's. The audience will have the opportunity to see the story of Ebenezer Scrooge as told by 30 Chelsea High school students in the cast and crew.

It is to be a family-style evening, filled with ghosts, strange noises and exciting surprises.

An experienced cast is headed by Brian Kruger as Scrooge, Mark Stevenson as Bob Cratchit and ghosts Adon Staebler, Michal Benedict, Mike Ward and Gina Van Riper.

Costumes of the times, the cast members and a unique set come together under the direction of Bill Coelius and Jan Feldkamp to bring the world of Dickens alive for an all-too-brief period of time.

Tickets for this one holiday performance are available at Chelsea Pharmacy.

Machnik Involved In Fatal I-94 Crash

Investigators for the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department plan to bring charges this week against a Chelsea man for his part in an automobile fatality which occurred last Friday morning on I-94 near Zeeb Rd.

According to sheriff's traffic investigator James Abram, the department hopes to have its case together by today and bring charges against James S. Machnik, 24, 522 Wilkinson St., for his involvement in the death of Kenneth C. Kunsch, 33, of Strongsville, O.

Sheriff's reports indicate that the fatal crash occurred shortly before 4 a.m. Friday, Dec. 7, as Machnik traveled the wrong way on westbound I-94. The two vehicles collided at 40 to 50 mph, police said, and Kunsch was taken to University of Michigan Hospital where he was pronounced dead after undergoing surgery for internal injuries.

According to investigator Abram, drinking was "definitely a factor in the accident."

Machnik was also taken to University Hospital, treated, and then released Monday evening, a hospital spokesperson said. She would not comment on the extent or type of injuries for which he had been treated.

According to Abram, unverified reports from truck drivers operating citizen band radios indicated that Machnik may have driven as far as 20 miles headed in the wrong direction on the freeway.

Abram termed it "a miracle" that no one was hit sooner.

Debaters All Experience Perfect Day

It was a perfect day for all Chelsea debaters last Thursday as both the varsity and novice squads went undefeated and held onto first place in their respective divisions.

For the varsity, Dave Waldyke, Drew Sprague, Sara Merkel and Theresa Merkel went 4-0 to bring their over-all record to 8-0.

Celeste Arbogast, Katie Ullman, Molly Bacon and Alicia Noah went 4-0 for the novices in the Ypsilanti League.

Chris Kvarnberg and Sara Ullman filled in for missing team members on one of the Ypsilanti teams and went 2-0 in the process.

Illegal Alien Gypsy Band Robs Dancer's

Some six to eight people, later described by one of the group as gypsies, were involved in the theft of some $540 from Dancer's Store on Main St., Friday night, Dec. 7, around 7:30 p.m.

Two of the people were apprehended by Chelsea police and questioned, but later released because of insufficient evidence.

The incident began at about 7:20 p.m. when a crowd of six or more oddly dressed women entered Dancer's store and began to look at merchandise. According to police reports, the women split into four groups and attempted to monopolize all of the sales personnel.

Meanwhile, reports said, four of the women walked up the stairway to the upstairs, going past the office door in the process. Store manager Mark Hurst later told police that he realized that the women were in the area of the office and that he attempted to get closer to the group.

Hurst told police that he then heard the door of the office safe, which had been open, slam shut and the four women attempted to run down the stairs past him. Police said Hurst attempted to stop them, and in the process tumbled down the stairs while fighting with two women in the group. Hurst said he lost hold of one woman, and the other yelled "Run" at the others and they fled.

One of the Dancer's employees saw the people disappear into two cars with Illinois license plates on Main St. and drive off southbound.

Chelsea police did a quick check and found one of the cars parked by Merkel's on Main St. They took the man inside the car into custody, together with the woman apprehended by Hurst.

Police Chief Aeillo said Chelsea police made a check and discovered that neither of the pair were wanted on charges anywhere. The man was found with a large sum of money, but the hundred-dollar bills didn't match the currency missing from Dancer's safe.

According to Chief Aeillo, the woman spoke no English, but the man explained to police that he and the rest of the group were gypsies from Yugoslavia. He told police that they had left Yugoslavia illegally six years ago, and had since traveled to Rome, Mexico, Arizona and Chicago.

Learning from the man that the two were illegal aliens, Chelsea police contacted the U. S. Immigration Office in Detroit, which declined to send anyone down.

According to Chief Aeillo, the Immigration official explained that it is difficult to deport such aliens because there are usually no records on gypsies in Yugoslavia and therefore no way to prove that they are Yugoslavian citizens. The official also explained that many gypsies file countersuit to deportation orders and as a result remain here while their cases languish in court.

Because of a lack of hard evidence in the theft and no action on the part of immigration officials, Chelsea police released the pair Friday night.

Christmas Band Concert Scheduled

Chelsea Bands' annual Sounds of Christmas concert will take place Monday, Dec. 17, 7:30 p.m. in the CHS auditorium.

A new group, the Wind Ensemble, will play before 7:30 as a prelude to the concert as the audience is seated in the auditorium.

First to play will be the 7th and 8th bands with a bell concert, featuring Karen Wilson as the Big Bell, Tom Schumann; as Bert the Bell Polisher, Amy Wolter as Jingle and Julie Koch as Jangle.

The 9th grade and Symphony Bands will follow with the program's finish.

All groups will feature traditional and contemporary Christmas music to aid in ushering in the holiday season.

JOHN PRESTON was a bright spot for Chelsea last week-end at the Chelsea Invitational wrestling tournament, as he took first place in the 145 weight class, winning 10-0 over Hudson of Jackson Northwest. Here Preston pins his opponent with a double chicken wing.

Matmen Are 6th In Their Tourney

Grapplers from seven area schools gathered in Chelsea last Saturday to participate in an invitational wrestling meet hosted by the Bulldogs. Chelsea finished in sixth place with 79 points, beating out teams from Albion and Lyndon.

Taking the tournament was the team from South Lyon with 145 points, followed by Stockbridge, 111; Lake Fenton, 109; Jackson Northwest, 107; Dexter, 101½; Chelsea, 79; Lyndon, 61½; and Albion, 52½.

John Preston of Chelsea, wrestling at 145, made it to the finals and took first place in the weight class, winning 10-0 over Hudson of Jackson Northwest.

Also grappling in the finals were Adrian Saarinen at 98 pounds, taking second place to Meloy of Jackson Northwest, and Jim Cobb at 119, taking second after losing to Metcalf of Lake Fenton.

Two Bulldogs made it as far as the consolation rounds, taking third place in their categories. Jeff Ostentoski was third at 112 and Rick Poljan beat Miller of Lake Fenton to take third at 167.

Last Thursday evening, the Chelsea team took a beating at the hands of Pinckney, 54-13.

Bright spots were Adrian Saarinen, who beat a senior to win the 98 category; John Preston who tied, 2-2, at 145; and Rick Poljan, a sophomore, who pinned a senior, Steve Saylor, in the second period.

Junior varsity wrestlers, who compete as individuals rather

Michigan Creates Refugee Relief Fund

Following a trip to Southeast Asia, Governor William G. Milliken has become the main force behind the establishment of a Michigan Refugee Relief Fund.

The fund was formed for general relief efforts to raise funds for food, medical supplies and other needed items for refugees in camps in Southeast Asia.

As part of a delegation of U.S. governors visiting the refugee camps, Milliken saw first hand the suffering which prompted the action upon his return to the states.

Milliken said business, labor and community leaders are needed to help in the effort to relieve conditions where people are dying.

"I cannot" overstate the urgency of the situation. It is a situation where hours can make the difference between life and death, where very rapid and urgent action is called for," Milliken said.

The governor said the fund would be able to send food and medicine to the needy most directly without "much of the bureaucratic red tape which has slowed ongoing assistance efforts."

The fund's office is located in Detroit. Fund officials have applied for a tax-deductible status though it has not yet been approved.

School Prayer Bill Clears House

Michigan schools will be required to set aside time to allow students to pray or meditate under legislation passed recently by the House of Representatives.

The measure amends current state law which allows school districts to set aside time for silent meditation, by requiring schools to hold time for voluntary prayer or meditation.

If approved by the Senate and signed into law by the governor, it will undoubtedly face a court challenge on its constitutionality. Rep. Ethel Terrell (D-Highland Park), sponsor of the bill, said she believed permitting prayer in school will help restore morality within the schools.

Tax Shift Plan Revised

Although earlier declared dead, tax shift plans are beginning to resurface for legislative consideration and possible action.

A new Senate plan would increase property tax benefits while increasing the state sale tax and a plan in the House would increase the property tax benefits and increase the state income tax.

Both would provide tax shifts in excess of $400 million and require voter approval in the 1980 general election.

These are only two of a number of plans that could be pushed in the legislature as the 1980 election draws near as pledges to improve property tax benefits become popular.

Tax shifts were highly touted in 1978, partially as a way of offsetting the threatened property tax cuts outlined in a proposed constitutional amendment. That amendment, however, was defeated in the 1978 election.

Legislative leaders continued to promise a tax shift would be enacted as 1979 began but cooled slightly when other political and labor leaders indicated an income tax increase would be unpopular.

99th BIRTHDAY HONORED: A few family members gathered at the Chelsea Methodist Home Friday, Dec. 7, to celebrate the 99th birthday of Marion Martin, a resident of the home for the past seven years. Born in Ontario, Canada, Mrs. Martin lived for a number of years in Ann Arbor and was a Chelsea resident for some time before entering the home. Her daughter said they have lost track of Mrs. Martin's grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Marion Martin Observes 99th Birthday

Friday, Dec. 7 was a chilly, damp day in Chelsea, but a warm glow could easily be detected coming from a third floor room at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home.

In a room on that floor, Marion Martin, with cake and ice cream, quietly celebrated her 99th birthday with a few family members on hand.

Born in Guelph, Ont., Canada,

Mrs. Martin lived for many years in Ann Arbor and Chelsea before coming to the Methodist Home some seven years ago.

Her family had come from Scotland originally, and Mrs. Martin's daughter, Bertha Sayer of Ann Arbor, remembers that the Scottish flavor was something that her mother never lost.

"I remember," said Mrs. Sayer, "that, for instance, when she'd see one of her grandchildren playing in the sandbox outside, she wouldn't use those words. She'd say something like 'the wee one's in the sand-pit'."

Mrs. Sayer said that the family has honestly lost track of the actual number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren that Mrs. Martin has. Her six children, however, all live close to their mother.

Mrs. Martin's son David Martin and a daughter, Jean Scripser, are both residents of Cavanaugh Lake. Doris Schauers lives in Waterloo and Bertha Sayer, Kenneth Martin and Margaret Tichnor live in Ann Arbor.

Waterloo Methodist Women Meet Friday

Waterloo Village United Methodist Church Women met Nov. 7 at Evelyn Hondrick's with six present. Three members read from "God Bless My Kitchen." All were asked to send Helen Beeman a birthday card. The group voted to send a plant and Kleenex to shut-ins.

The meeting closed with a benediction.

Fannie M. Richards, a Detroit woman, was that city's first black public school teacher, receiving her education in Toronto and at the Teacher Training School in Detroit. Richards was the first president of the Phyllis Wheatley Home for the aged, a residence for elderly black women incorporated in 1901, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

VFW Ladies Auxiliary Busy With Christmas Activities

The VFW Ladies Auxiliary monthly meeting was held Monday, Dec. 10, with eight members attending.

Lucy Platt reported on the activities at the VA Hospital in Ann Arbor, stating that a tree trimming event has been set for Saturday, Dec. 15 at noon. Volunteers for this event are needed, as the decorating is done inside and outside and on each ward.

A Christmas party sponsored by the VAVS is set for Dec. 19 at 7 p.m.

Eulahlee Packard reported on the local post and auxiliary Christmas party, held Dec. 8. A film was shown on the National Home to the 72 persons attending and Santa Claus made a stop to distribute the children's gifts.

National Home chairman Mary Erskine urged everyone to write our legislative representatives asking them to support bills 4841 and 4547 pertaining to the National Home. She also urged each Auxiliary member to make a donation toward the Christmas seals received in the mail. The money goes to support the VFW National Home and will help to keep it running.

Americanism chairman Eulahlee Packard reported on the presentation of 10 classroom flags to South Elementary school on Nov. 13. Community Service chairman Alexandra Ellenwood reported that 13 completed the CPR course held in November.

Five members attended the Sixth District meeting held in Monroe Dec. 2. Reports were given by Mary Erskine and Eulahlee Packard. Also attend-

Waterloo Village Society Holds Christmas Party

The Waterloo Village Society held a Christmas party Wednesday, Dec. 5 at the home of Eloise Schulz, with Spring Schulz as hostess. Seven members and seven guests were present for the pot-luck dinner.

A meeting was called to order by the vice-president, with roll calls from Bessie and Jessie, with little readings.

The group has seven shut-in members this month: Selma Rowe, Helen Beeman, Minnie Lesser, Ruth Stiva, Amanda Osterle, Luella Beeman and Helen Dawson.

A prayer closed the installation. The January meeting will be at the home of Darlene Vargo. The meeting ended with a benediction.

C. Wolter Wins Flute Scholarship

When Chelsea High school flutist Cindy Wolter traveled to Miami of Ohio University for an audition last week she never expected to come back with more than the flute in her hand. As things turned out, Cindy returned to Chelsea with a full in-state tuition scholarship and instant admission to the university.

Immediately after hearing the talented senior play, college officials granted her the scholarship and admission. "They didn't even know what her grades were," said Chelsea High school band director Steve Bergmann. "For all they cared, she could have been a D student (which she isn't). She was just that good."

Wolter's scholarship is renewable every year based upon her performance at yearly auditions. It pays full in-state tuition, but because Cindy will be an out-of-state student, she will have to pay the difference.

Cindy is the daughter of David Wolter, music co-ordinator of the Saline Area Schools and vice-president of the Chelsea Band Boosters, and Jean Wolter, who is employed at University Hospital in Ann Arbor. She has taken private flute lessons for the past five years and has studied under seven different teachers.

She has attended All-State Intermediate Orchestra for the past three years and National Music

Camp at Interlochen for two eight-week sessions. At Interlochen, she was first chair in the concert band one year and stayed within the top four chairs in the symphony band.

For five years she has played solo, receiving top ratings of 1 at the District level every year but her first. At the State Competition last year she received a 97 percent proficiency II rating, the highest given in her section that day.

She has attended the State Festival as a soloist for three years and received a division I rating each year. At both district and state levels she has earned I ratings in every ensemble she has participated in since 7th grade.

A member of the Michigan Youth Symphony for two years, Cindy has given flute lessons to some 15 students in both Chelsea and Saline schools. She was featured soloist with the Chelsea Symphony Band last year and has performed many major works in the flute repertoire which are considered advanced for the college level.

She has been first chair for four years, has been in the CHS orchestra for three years and has performed in the pit orchestra for a number of high school musicals.

Steve Bergmann summed it up: "I think Cindy is one of the finest musicians I've ever had in my 12 years of teaching."

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

Attention of Chelsea homeowners: This is written especially for those of you who own older homes and are living on retirement pay, Social Security or limited income.

Did you know that we will all be responsible for any sewer trouble we may have, even if the blockage is from the sidewalk to the center of the street where the main sewer line runs, if an Amendment to Section 25.146 of the Village of Chelsea Compiled Ordinance—General Code is passed by the Village Council?

Personally, I have been through a harrowing experience and I hope none of you will have to go through what I did to get my sewer cleared from the sidewalk to the main sewer.

For over two years I have had to hire a professional sewer service come several times to clear the sewer lines. Finally, in desperation, I had new sewer lines installed at a big expense to me, hiring a bulldozing company and plumber. All of this was done while I was in the hospital convalescing from a heart attack.

Shortly after my return home from the hospital I had the same trouble with the sewer. I did call Mr. Weber, our Village Administrator, but he was unavailable at the time; I left a message for him to call me back, but did not hear from him. This is the second time I have left a message, and he has not had the courtesy to respond; perhaps he never got my messages, but I doubt that.

Knowing that Mr. Petsch handled this type of problem for the Village, I phoned him at his home. He informed me that the Village was no longer responsible for this, that the property owners were to take care of their own sewers to the main sewer which runs to the middle of the street. When I asked him when this Ordinance was passed, he said, "Oh, about a year ago." I realize he said this under strict orders from his superiors. (So please, Fred, don't think I'm angry with you personally.) The trouble stemmed from a tree growing directly over the sewer line between the sidewalk and the curb.

With the help of my family and friends, this matter was investigated, only to discover the Amendment to the old Ordinance was not yet in effect. After much pressure they did clear it for me.

If those of us who are interested in not having this Amendment pass write to the Village Council members, Attention of Mr. Don Woods, Pres., or attend the next Council meeting (which I think is Dec. 18) and protest, it should help our cause. Having property owners sign a petition against this Amendment would also be effective.

Physically, I am unable to circulate a petition, but so far three people have volunteered to do it for me—all of them being opposed to this amendment. I am going to write a letter to the Council.

I felt it only fair that homeowners be informed what our Village Council's plans are. A Concerned Senior Citizen.

Dear Editor:

SALT II, the Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty, if approved, would advertise to the world that the U. S. would be willing to capitulate to a tyrannical USSR. As General MacArthur said: "Those who have greater strength and power shall bear rule over those who have less."

In spite of President Carter's advocacy of the ill-conceived and dangerous SALT II, a preponderance of retired military officers are speaking out loud and clear against it. On Sept. 6, Adm. Thomas Moorer delivered a letter to the Senate signed by 1,678 retired military officers which stated: "... we strongly urge you to reject SALT II as injurious to the security interests of the United States and its allies."

The SALT II treaty is a symbol of phased surrender and must be rejected by the Senate with a resounding "NYET" that the Russian commissars cannot fail to understand! We must tell our senators to stop unilaterally disarming the U. S. SALT II is a prescription for catastrophe!

To the Editor:

"Let every heart prepare Him room..." a line from "Joy to the World." And there was joy this past Thursday when 10 of the boys from St. Louis school with Father Fortunato, and Rita Resse, a counselor, came to Cassidy Lake Technical School to share a dinner with 12 Big Brothers. So what about it?

This: the dinner given that night is being paid for by the men who were Big Brothers, men from the "Jesus Christ Christian Club," and the Jaycee group from within the prison. They are part of the 250 inmates in this minimal security prison. This whole affair was their idea; they wanted to reach out.

There is much red tape in transferring any amount of money inside the prison operation, so in order to reach the dinner date time, we asked the Knights of Columbus to borrow enough money to prepare a dinner. They gave us the vote of confidence these men needed. The groceries were shopped for by myself and all preparations were made. When I got to the prison at about 4 p.m. the men were decorating a tree in the visiting room. They all came out to help carry things inside to set up. The place was set up and swept clean and they all went back to their "shacks" to clean up. It was time for Father and the boys to arrive.

When the station wagon was sighted, the Big Brothers went out to meet them. There was repayment for the expectations of the men: joy on the faces of all.

There was grace and the meal of chicken, salad, Jell-O, relishes, cakes, Kool-Aid and all. Even Snoopy in a miniature sleigh surrounded by candy canes graced the table. After dinner, the 10 ornaments that had been left off the tree were placed there by the retarded boys. When the room was placed back in order, we all walked over to the chapel where Fr. Fortunato offered Mass. The walk over was a chance for each of the Big Brothers to ask questions of their little brothers, and a chance to know each other a little bit more.

At the Mass there were three altar boys, two from St. Louis school and one of the inmates, and they were terrific. After the Mass, at which Father spoke of Christmas being not just now but

Tax Refund Checks Wait For Owners

The Internal Revenue Service is holding 1,530 tax refund checks, totaling over $600,000, for Michigan taxpayers. The checks represent tax refunds for 1978, and some prior years, mailed to addresses shown on tax returns, but sent back as "undeliverable" by the U. S. Postal Service.

IRS believes the checks, in most instances, could not be delivered because taxpayers had moved and left no forwarding addresses. The agency recommends that any taxpayer who is still expecting a refund for 1978, or earlier, contact the agency's Problem Resolution Program of office (PRP).

PRP gives specialized personal assistance to taxpayers who cannot get their problems solved by other IRS assistance means. The specialized office deals with such problems as missing refunds, incorrect billings, and the status of audits. IRS says call the toll-free number listed in the local telephone directory and ask for a problem resolution officer.

The PRP office handles most complaints within five days. If a delay is unavoidable, the RPR office will give the taxpayer a status report and a projected completion date. Refund checks, however, can unusually be reprocessed and in the taxpayer's mailbox in about three weeks, IRS says.

NOTICE

You may be aware that on Tuesday, November 20, 1979 the Jackson Citizen Patriot stated, in an article on the Chrysler Corporation situation, that I was "not in favor of the loan guarantee." I had been contacted by a person who was testing citizen response to the legislation then, and now, under consideration. The statement attributed to me is neither true, complete nor representative of my feelings.

I commented at that time that it was unfortunate that Chrysler should find itself in its present financial position and that government should be called upon to become further involved in the free enterprise process. However, I noted that it must have been evident to Congress and the administration that the impact of anti-pollution and energy-conserving legislation would be greater on Chrysler than on the other auto manufacturers who were, at that time, farther along in the transition to smaller engines and lighter vehicles. Few people welcome greater governmental involvement; most consider it already too pervasive.

It is my feeling, however, that the government exists not just to govern but to serve as well. It must, or should, do both responsibly. In the case of Chrysler, government has contributed to the problem; it must now be part of the solution.

Most importantly of all, the future and well being of the employees and families of Chrysler Corporation, many of whom are my friends, is a far greater concern to me than any philosophical problems I may have with the solution. I regret deeply the implication from the newspaper article that I was insensitive to so many human beings. I would hope that those who know me would reject that as being unworthy.

I support the loan guarantee. In a world of vanishing institutions let us preserve this old friend. Long may Chrysler live and soon may she prosper.

JV Cagers Drop First Two Games

Opening game of the season for Chelsea's junior varsity cagers turned out to be a disappointment for the team, as they lost to Brighton, 45-40.

According to Coach Jon Schaffner, the game was close up until the middle of the third quarter when the Brighton team went to a zone defense and "shut us right down."

The Bulldogs were led on offense by Darin Pierson with 12 points, followed by Jeff Shaw with 10, Jeff Lantis and Mike Bareis with four each, Todd Sprague and Gary Van Meer with three each, and Toby Boyd and Bob Trevino with two apiece.

Darryl Keezer was the rebound leader with eight. Behind him were Boyd, 7; Shaw, 6; Trevino, 5; and Sprague, 4.

Trevino had seven steals and three assists, Lantis had five assists and Pierson managed four steals.

Tuesday night the luck was against Chelsea, as the JV managed to sink only 12 of 62 shots for an abysmal 19 percent average and fell to Jackson County Western, 43-39.

"The ball just wouldn't drop in," said Coach Schaffner. "Most of the shots were lay-ups or from no more than three feet away, but the ball just bounced around and wouldn't go in."

Leading scorers for Chelsea in the contest with Western were Lantis, 9; Keezer, 8; Pierson, 7; Boyd, 5; Shaw, 4; Sprague, 2; Bareis, 2; and Trevino, 2.

Chelsea led in rebounding by a decisive 49-30 margin and took 62 shots to Western's 43, but the low shooting percentage doomed the Bulldogs.

"The team has really worked hard," said Coach Schaffner of the performance. "We played pretty well. I can see where we will improve and we should improve. We'll be ok."

Next contest for the JV is Saturday evening, 6:30, at home against South Lyon.

Wrestling . . .

than for team standings, turned in some excellent performances against Pinckney. Mark Bulick and Steve Snyder, both at 98, took victories, as did Dave Harrison at 132 and Tim Pennington at 106. All but Snyder's victory came on pins.

How To Donate Body or Organs Told in Booklet

Modern science has made life possible where there was little hope before. Operations like kidney transplants and cornea transplants enable some very ill people to lead new lives. If you've ever thought about donating your body or a part of your body to someone who needs a transplant after your death, you'll want to know the facts first. A free booklet from the National Institutes of Health explains what you must do and includes donor cards you may fill out. For your free copy of "How to Donate the Body or Its Organs," just send a post-card to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 580G, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

According to the National Institutes of Health, in most states the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act governs how you can become a donor. Usually, after discussing your wishes with your family, you fill out, sign, and carry with you a Uniform Donor Card. You can find out from your state department of motor vehicles if there is a place on your driver's license to designate that you are an organ donor.

But just filling out a card does not mean that you will automatically become a donor. Medical personnel are hesitant to proceed unless your next of kin agrees as well. So it makes sense to let your close relatives know about your decision, perhaps even in writing.

You may want to find a specialist or hospital that will accept your donation. You can start by asking your own doctor for a referral, or call the Surgery Department at the nearest medical school or hospital. For donating the entire body, contact the Anatomy Department at a medical or dental school.

Remember, you don't need to have perfect eyes or perfect health to be a donor. And for helping scientists discover new ways to save lives in the future, an elderly person is as valuable a donor as a younger person.

Now, how can you get a Uniform Donor Card? Two cards are included in the free booklet from the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 580G, Pueblo, Colo. 81009. When you order a copy of "How to Donate the Body or Its Organs" (free), you'll also receive a copy of the free "Consumer Information Catalog." It lists more than 200 selected free or low-cost publications from the federal government. The Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration.

Cager of the Week

DON SCHROTTENBOER, 6' 7" center for Chelsea's varsity cagers, scored 20 points and grabbed 11 rebounds in the Bulldogs' opening-season loss to Brighton. He was the one bright spot for Chelsea in that 70-64 loss Friday night. The entire team looked better and Schrottenboer continued to contribute Tuesday night, as he tossed in 10 points and had 14 rebounds in the Bulldog victory over Jackson County Western, 78-51.

Cagers Lose First

Brighton missed a 12-foot jump shot to send the proceedings into overtime.

According to Coach Raymond, his team's demise can be blamed on a conservative approach in the final quarter of regulation play.

"We got our lead by the fast break and getting the ball to the inside," he explained. "We then became passive and conservative, trying to preserve our lead instead of playing the way that got us the lead."

A dismal statistic tells the story of the overtime period: Brighton took three shots and made all three; Chelsea took four shots and missed them all. Final score was 70-64, Brighton.

Individually, Chelsea was led by Schrottenboer with 20 points and 11 rebounds, followed by Killelea with 14 and 4, Dils with 14 and four, Albrecht with six and six, John Dunn with six points and Brad Knickerbocker with four and seven.

As a team the Bulldogs connected for 27 shots in 64 attempts for a 42 percent average. Brighton made 28 for 58 for a 48 percent average. The Bulldogs made 71 percent of their freethrows compared with Brighton's 64 percent.

Raymond still found bright spots in the contest in the playing of Don Schrottenboer and in Chelsea's offensive attack.

"Anytime you see over 40 percent shooting average in a high school game," he said, "it's good basketball."

Good Things Growing In Michigan

Good things growing in Michigan include 662,000 head of cattle and calves sold in 1978, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Meat from a single beef steer will make about 720 quarter-pound hamburger patties, enough for a family of four to have hamburgers each day for nearly six months.

Michigan's ground beef, hamburger and other comminuted meats, such as sausage, hot dogs and luncheon meats, are especially flavorful and wholesome because our state's standards for ground meats are the highest in the nation.

MDA meat inspection officials say only skeletal meat with no meat by-products can be manufactured into comminuted meats in state-inspected plants. Hamburger may contain up to 30 percent fat, ground beef 20 percent, and seasonings are not allowed except monosodium glutamate, if properly labeled on the package. Comminuted meats are routinely sampled at food markets by MDA food inspectors and tested for compliance with Michigan law.

Sausage must be made of only skeletal meat and contain at least 12 percent protein. Addition of water, vegetable protein, cereal vegetable or soya flours is not allowed. Up to four percent non-fat dry milk may be used as a binder, provided the product is not labeled "all meat."

Sausage products manufactured by federal regulations are permitted supplements such as vegetable protein and meat by-products like hearts, stomach and tongue. Federal standards have no minimum protein requirements.

To tell whether products you buy meet Michigan standards, read the label. A quick glance at the ingredient list will show contents.

Since early last week, the bell at the North Lake United Methodist church has rung daily at noon to demonstrate the church's concern for the Americans held hostage in the embassy in Iran.
The bell tolls once for every day the hostages have been held captive. Other area churches are encouraged to also toll their bells at noon in concern for the hostages.

The Bible—The Light from Heaven

Reveals that Christ is the answer to human problems. Man has many problems and needs assistance. He has the problem of guidance. It is not in man to direct his own steps. (Jeremiah 10:23). Jesus stated in the gospel of John chapter fourteen and verse six, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Man has the problem of human relations. Trouble comes from selfishness, covetousness, and failure to respect the rights of others. But life lived as Jesus directs is free of these basic causes of friction. (Matthew 5:38, 39, 43, 44; 7:12). Man has the problem of sin. Sin is of a universal nature. (Romans 3:23): The answer of this problem is found in the gospel. Salvation from sin is conditional. (John 8:24; Luke 13:3; Mark 16:16; Revelation 2:10). Jesus came into the world to save sinners. (Matthew 1:21; I Timothy 1:15; Hebrews 5:8, 9; Matthew 7:21). Man has the problem of living again. Christ is the answer. (John 11:25; I Corinthians 15:21-23; I Thessalonians 4:16-18).

If you're pregnant, think before you drink, says the March of Dimes. Scientists have found that many children born to women who drink excessively during pregnancy have a pattern of physical and mental birth defects called "fetal alcohol syndrome."

Assembly of God Youth Dept. Plans Christmas Play

The Youth Department of the First Assembly of God, Chelsea, will be presenting a Christmas play, "From Pit to Palace," by Marilyn Quigley and Allen R. Francis. A musical story of a boy named Joseph, the play tells how God worked a beautiful plan for his life.
The production, under the direction of Mary Lou Coury, will be performed Sunday, Dec. 16, 6 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church at 14900 Old US-12 East.
Pastor Richard Coury invites all members of the community to attend.

Farmers Thwart Government Project

When a group of farmers near Minot, N. D. learned that federal dam builders might put a $100 million dam across the Souris River, permanently flooding much of their land, they cut one of the proposed lake sites into 4,840 parcels, one square yard each. They've been selling the plots for $20 each to as many individuals as they can, hoping the government will become hog-tied in red tape trying to buy each parcel.

Real Estate

By PAUL FRISINGER

REALTOR

THE MAGIC FORMULA

The story goes that years ago a multi-millionaire wanted the ultimate answer to success in the stock market. So, he hired twenty of the top investment brokers in the world for a day and asked them to put their winning formulas into a computer. He knew that the final combined answer would be his ticket to unlimited wealth. Finally, the answer came spitting out. It read: "Buy low - sell high."

The same premise holds true for investing in property for future sale — buy low and sell high. Since, most well-purchased property normally increases in value with age (like good wine), the trick is to buy it at a lower price than it would normally sell for. How?

Remember that the real estate market has its peaks and valleys. If there is any chance of buying right it is during an ebb or lull in the market. Tight money and high interest rates normally create such lulls (or opportunities). This is a good time to buy, because after the ebb, when money becomes easier to borrow, competition for it increases and so do real estate values.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at FRISINGER REALTY CO., 935 S. Main St., Chelsea. Phone: 475-8681; evenings 475-2621. We're here to help!

Why Do
You Say
"Hello"
to People?

DONALD A. COLE
Director

Most of us say "hello" to others because it's a way to acknowledge their presence and their worth to us. It's just one of many simple, common courtesies which mean so much.

During bereavement, the importance of courtesy, combined with genuine concern, is uppermost. That's one reason why so many area families rely on Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel in their hour of need.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

Good things growing in Michigan make ideal gifts for Christmas, especially for people who seem to have everything! Michigan products may already be packaged in special gift boxes in some areas, and with some imagination, practical food gifts can be attractively displayed in many decorative settings.

Nearly 50 agricultural commodities are produced each year in our state, including meat and poultry products, vegetables, fruits and dairy products, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

A small glass sectioned serving dish can be accented with Michigan fruit jams, jellies and preserves; fresh Michigan apples can be presented in a useful wicker basket; fill decorative decanter jars with Michigan navy beans, popcorn, home-made butter or sugar cookies.

For the avid winter sports person, give Michigan soups, such as celery, onion, potato and vegetable, with soup mugs or a thermos.

For the pie maker on your list, canned Michigan cherries, blueberries and peaches are ideal additions to a pie serving or carrying dish.

Natural food enthusiasts will enjoy gifts of Michigan maple syrup and honey, two of nature's natural sweets. Addition of Michigan beet sugar makes it a sweet trio.

A juice pitcher with several cans of Michigan juices, such as apple, grape and tomato, makes a thoughtful family gift.

Holiday giving need not end with your Christmas list. Invite friends and relatives to an all-Michigan dinner. Or, serve a holiday brunch of cheese fondue, breads and ham or beef tidbits.

Michigan appetizer, dinner and sparkling wines are welcome gifts.

An excellent addition to anyone's stocking is "Michigan Country Carousel," a listing of more than 850 roadside markets and pick-your-own farms offering fresh fruits, vegetables and other commodities during Michigan's harvest season. For your free copies, write the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Communications Office, Lewis Cass building, P. O. Box 30017, Lansing 48909.

Ambulance Strikes Auto Haul-Away

A Horne-Vinson ambulance driver was slightly injured Tuesday afternoon after he scraped against a parked truck, lost control of his vehicle and slammed into a tree along M-52 near Village Motors.

According to Chelsea police reports, the driver, 19-year-old David Michael Hoag of Springfield, was proceeding north on M-52 when he made contact with a car-carrying trailer truck, just beginning to unload at Village Motors. Police say that the ambulance initially scraped the truck some seven feet back from the cab and that the right front tire of vehicle caught on the truck's left front hub, causing the driver to lose control of the ambulance.

The ambulance careened down the embankment and struck a tree with its left front fender. The driver was pinned inside the wreckage and required the assistance of the Chelsea Fire Department to free him.

According to a spokesperson at Chelsea Community Hospital, Hoag was treated and released from the hospital late Tuesday.

He was not involved in transporting patients at the time of the accident, nor was he on his way to the scene of a medical emergency.

According to Chelsea Police reports, the driver of the semi-truck was cited as being at fault for having the front wheel of the rig a foot onto the traveled portion of the roadway. He was not, however, issued a traffic violation.

GARDEN SPOT

By Roberta L. Lawrence, County Horticultural Agent

STILL TIME TO FERTILIZE LAWNS

Question: Can we safely fertilize our bluegrass lawn this late in the year? If it is possible, what type of fertilizer should we use?

Answer: The end of November is a good time to fertilize lawns. In many situations, a late fall fertilizer application is preferred over the traditional early spring application.

A spring application of nitrogen causes a sudden flush of new top growth with relatively little root development. Fertilizing in late fall, on the other hand, provides for a slow spring green-up and improved root and underground stem development. Fall fertilized turf is usually stronger and more disease-resistant than turf fertilized in early spring.

You can select either a slow-release formula such as urea formaldehyde (36-0-0) or IBDU (31-0-0), or a quick-release, high-nitrogen fertilizer such as urea or ammonium nitrate. A combination of one-half slow and one-half quick-release is preferred. Apply your fall fertilizer at a rate of 1 to 1½ pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet.

Shaded lawn areas planted in red fescue should also be fertilized now. Red fescue does not need the high nitrogen levels that bluegrass requires, so reduce the application rate to ¾ lbs. per 1,000 sq. ft. Fescue lawns fertilized now will not need fertilizer again until May.

Questions for Garden Spot may be sent to: Co-operative Extension Service, P. O. Box 8645, Ann Arbor 48107.

Swim Team Has Tough Schedule

Chelsea's boys high school swim team will open its season Thursday, Dec. 13, trying to match last year's outstanding 12-2 record against a much more demanding schedule of opponents.

Swimmers and divers will open at home this evening, 7 p.m. against Albion, then will host the Eastern Michigan University Relays this Saturday at 1 p.m.

The EMU meet will include former Class A state champion Dearborn and Class A powers Wayne Memorial and Southfield, together with Class B strongholds Milan and Willow Run.

Dual meet opponents this season for Chelsea include Class A teams Jackson, Adrian and Brighton, and two top ten Class B teams, Milan and Willow Run. Also on the schedule is last year's Class C state runner-up, Dundee.

The squad will be led by senior captain Scott Prohaska and junior captain Phil Hoffman. Both are excellent all-around swimmers who will be counted on heavily in the distance free-style races.

Leading the way in backstroke will be last year's state finalist Tom Gaunt, a powerful junior. Adding quality depth to the backstroke will be John Robbins, freshman record holder in the event. Both will also swim the individual medley with Dave Mason. Mason has switched from diving to swimming and is expected to dominate many meets in the 100 butterfly this year.

Mike Mason will supply much of Chelsea's power in the freestyle sprints and relays. Shawn Pierson and Dave Nicola will provide strength in the breaststroke along with the depth to be added by Kent Noll.

Also contributing in the sprint races this year will be senior Andy Weir and Craig Wirtz. Wirtz will also be the major power in Chelsea diving.

Paul Schumann, Sean Oxner and Steve Wolsek will provide support in all areas of freestyle racing. The team returns varsity record holders in 10 of 11 events.

"We would like to go at least 11-3 for our dual meet record and finish in the top 20 at the state meet," Coach Larry Reed said of his team's season goals. "We would also like to break all of our varsity and freshman records."

Sojourner Truth, born a slave sometime between 1779 and 1800, made Battle Creek her home until her death in 1883. An avid supporter of women's rights and the suffrage movement, Sojourner composed a battle hymn for Michigan's first regiment of black soldiers. The Soldiers and Sailors monument in Detroit paid tribute to Civil War heroes and included the figure of Sojourner Truth, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

FFA Chapter Hears Talk By State Officer

Committee members Peter Beaudoin, Karin Morgan, Anita Roderick, Patti Shoemaker and Rob Schulz planned the activity and carried it out.

Acquitted on Charge of Zoning Violation

Virgil Clark, 19103 M-52, was acquitted last week of a zoning violation, nearly two years after Judge Atkinson originally found him guilty in 14th District Court. Charged with raising animals on less than 10 acres of land, Clark took his case to the Washtenaw County Circuit Court on appeal, where it was finally decided in his favor earlier this month. According to Clark, it was decided that he had raised animals on the land before the zoning ordinance went into effect. Judge Kenneth Bronson entered the acquittal in 14th District Court on Dec. 3 to complete Clark's exoneration of the charges brought against him by Lyndon township.

Legislative Update

A Weekly Report from State Rep. Mary Keith Ballantine
State Capitol, Lansing 48909
Phone (517) 373-1775

Week of Dec. 10-17

NO SUNSET — The House has narrowly approved SB 75, which sets up a legislative oversight committee to review state agencies. However, all-important amendments to include specific "sunset" termination dates for agencies were rejected.

NO PRIVACY — The Senate on an initial vote failed to provide the required 2/3 majority for SJR "D", which would propose to Michigan voters an amendment to the state constitution guaranteeing an individual's right to privacy.

NO GILLS — Under a federal Appeals Court order, the state can now extend a gill-net fishing ban to all Michigan Indians. A prior ruling had said some Indians were exempt under treaties of 1836 and 1855; the state said this would deplete fish stocks.

JUVENILE CODE — Now before the full House are HB 4774-78, which together rewrite the state's juvenile code. Provisions include reduced jail use for juvenile offenders; adult trials for juveniles committing violent crimes; and revised procedures for dealing with runaways and other status offenders. However, there is concern this goes too far with "children's lib."

BLUES BILL — The Senate is now considering HB 4555, which would reorganize Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Michigan. Proponents say that it is needed to improve the composition of the Blues' Board of Directors and to institute cost-containment programs; opponents argue that it represents an unwarranted government intrusion into the private sector.

HEALTH HEARINGS — Public hearings to review the proposed State Health Plan will be held on Dec. 17 at 1 p.m. in the City-County Building in Detroit; Dec. 18, 7 p.m., Holiday Inn of Houghton Lake; Dec. 19, 7 p.m., WMU Student Center, Kalamazoo; Dec. 20, 6 p.m., NMU Brule Room, Marquette. Written comments may be sent to OHMS, P. O. Box 30026, Lansing 48909.

ITEM PRICING — Both houses have now approved SB 377, which would eliminate the January, 1981, termination date from the state law requiring individual retail item pricing. A court suit is challenging the process by which this bill was moved through the legislature.

SCHOOL SMOKING — Now in the House is SB 388, which would prohibit smoking on school property unless school boards exempt certain areas; presently, smoking is allowed unless posted signs say otherwise.

POLLUTION PHONE — The Pollution Emergency Alerting System (PEAS) has a new toll-free telephone number: 800-292-4706. This should be used for prompt reporting of oil spills, illegal toxic chemical waste disposal and other developments which threaten the environment.

The northern Lake county community of Idlewood, became a popular resort community for blacks during the mid 1900's. It was at one time one of the most important black resort areas in the U. S., attracting black celebrities such as boxer Joe Louis, actress Lena Horne and Cleveland author Charles W. Chestnutt, according to the Travel Bureau, Michigan Department of Commerce.

THE NORTH POLE and McDonaldland being right next door to each other, Santa Claus and Ronald McDonald had no problems renewing their friendship at the Kiwanis Christmas party Saturday. The children attending were equally delighted at seeing the pair together.

Cooking Classes Start With Chinese Cuisine

"A Culinary Collection" is a series of five cooking classes sponsored by the Chelsea Child Study Club which will begin Monday, Jan. 14. Chinese Cuisine by Christine Liu will be the first.

Christine Liu is the author of a popular book "Nutrition and Diet with Chinese Cooking," and has often been invited to conduct seminars and demonstrations on food and cooking.

For many years she has taught "Nutrition and Diet," "Chinese Cooking," and has coordinated an "International Gourmet Class" with the Department of Continuing Education in the Ann Arbor Public Schools.

Tickets for the cooking series are limited and may be purchased at Chelsea Hardware, Chelsea Bakery, or from any Chelsea Child Study Club member. Proceeds will benefit Spaulding for Children.

Metro Park Authority Seeks Grant for Hiking-Biking Trail

Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA) has applied to the grants-in-aid section of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources for federal assistance from the U. S. Department of the Interior Heritage Conservation and Recreation Services to finance the development of a hiking-biking trail at Hudson Mills Metropark near Dexter. The trail to be developed will cover a three-mile loop within Hudson Mills Metropark, announced David O. Laidlaw, director for the Authority, who stated the total project will cost $157,000, wherein the grant requested would be for $58,000, or one-half of the cost of the Hike-Bike trail. ★ Right Under Our Feet . . .

The realization that most of America's oil and gas supplies remain largely untapped comes as a shock to many people.

The facts are simple. The oil and gas are there, right under our feet. Geologists have known for years that vast reservoirs of oil and gas remain to be sought out and developed, but the price hasn't been right.

About one third of discovered oil cannot be recovered without using costly techniques. Artificially low prices, mandated by Congress, have left billions of barrels of this kind of oil in the ground. One geologist believes that the old basins can yield as much oil and gas as have already been discovered. Frontier areas, at great distances from pipelines and markets, may also be developed with long-term investments in manpower and money.

In the Texas Gulf Coast, more than 100-trillion cubic feet of natural gas has been calculated, enough there to supply the needs of the entire United States for 200 or more years—were the markets right to allow the production incentives.

More than 20 years of price controls and political manipulation has caused about 98 percent of prospective oil and gas-bearing sediment in this country to remain untouched by drilling.

 Overzealous bureaucracy, encouraged by environmental enthusiasts, often make getting fuel to consumers almost impossible, and we're all paying for this.

There's little wrong with America's petroleum production that less government intervention couldn't quickly cure.

Your Auto-Owners agent wants you to get the policy that's right for you.

Even if it isn't from Auto-Owners

When you go to an insurance agent who represents only one company, he only has one company's policies to offer you. But an independent agent represents several companies. So if one company's insurance isn't right in price or coverage he'll tell you. He knows another one of his companies is. But the one-company agent? Do you think he'd tell you? So talk to your independent Auto-Owners agent. There's no telling how much he can help you.

Auto-Owners Insurance

You can't find a better name for all your insurance needs.

House Activities

By Mary Keith Ballantine
23rd District Representative

An amendment to add teeth to a so-called review bill was supported by State Representative Mary Keith Ballantine (R-Jackson) Wednesday in voting on the House floor.

At issue was an amendment to a program review bill to add termination dates to the bill. If the amendment had passed, each agency in state government would have been given a termination or death date on which it would cease to exist unless the legislature specifically acted to renew the agency or program.

"The termination amendment was key to making the program review bill a sunset bill and thereby giving the legislature the means to get at waste and inefficiency in state government," Rep. Ballantine commented after the vote.

The program review bill without the termination dates amendment was eventually passed on a vote of 64 to 38. Rep. Ballantine voted against the bill.

"Without termination dates, this bill is a meaningless exercise in futility. It will result in a new legislative committee, expensively staffed with no assurance that any in-depth review will actually be accomplished," Rep. Ballantine added.

"Termination dates are the catalysts that would make the legislature act. There are reams of evidence that unpopular or controversial decisions are put off until the last minute unless there are dates forcing the legislature to act," Rep. Ballantine continued.

The fight for termination took on shades of a power struggle between the outmaneuvered House Republicans and the majority Democrats who control the lower House by a 70-40 edge.

"It is indeed unfortunate that the real struggle over the issue of making a sunset bill actually sunset some agencies degenerated into a referendum on the Democratic Majority Leadership," Rep. Ballantine continued.

"It should have been a debate, as Common Cause has indicated, over the merits of whether or not the review the state government so desperately needs will ever be accomplished without termination dates, she added.

Common Cause in Michigan worked with Rep. Paul Hillegonds (R-Holland) to draft the termination dates amendment. The citizen lobby led the struggle for sunset bills in 34 other states in the union and for a sunset law for the federal government.

Severage Tax Increase

That which was foretold has come true.

No, this isn't a message appropriate to this time of the year, but it is a report of what happened to a bill to raise taxes in Michigan supposedly to support home heating assistance for the elderly and other low income families.

A few weeks ago the House passed a bill which would raise the taxes on oil and gas produced in Michigan. It was billed by its liberal sponsor State Rep. Perry Bullard, D-Ann Arbor, and the house Democratic Leadership as an anti-Big Oil bill to help those needy among Michigan citizens who may be forced to choose between "heating and eating."

At that time, a number of us in the House, noting that the Congress in Washington was working on a home heating assistance measure of its own for the same people, said that the bill would be unnecessary. We also said that Mr. Bullard and the House Democratic leadership were using elderly Michigan citizens and poor people as an excuse to pass a general tax increase.

Like the prophecies of old, it has all come true.

The Congress did enact a federal home heating assistance plan which makes the Michigan effort look like a throwback to the charity of the Scrooge era. Roughly, it doubles the amount of money available for paying home heating bills for the needy and it reaches more in more timely fashion than the Michigan system.

By the time Congress passed the federal version of home heating assistance, the tax increase bill was in the Michigan Senate. Knowing the Michigan tax was now unneeded for providing home heating aid, an important section of the tax increase bill was deleted.

The deleted section said that the money raised by the bill would have to go to the home heating assistance program. Even though there was some question whether that section could stand a court test, it was nonetheless at least a tacit nod to the home heating assistance program.

An interesting action took place in the Senate, however. While undergoing debate in that body, the section in the bill was removed so that the monies raised by the tax increase could be used for any part of the budget.

Therefore, the excuse for passing the tax in the first place was no longer true and rather than scrap the plans for increasing taxes the Legislative Democratic leadership decided to push ahead to gain more monies to spend.

The knowing deception in this action is that the sponsors are running around Lansing saying that it's a tax that won't hurt consumers.

A long time ago, I learned that the proverbial free lunch does not exist. Consumers will eventually pay for the tax increase—expected to raise between $30 and $40 million but it won't be as obvious as a general levy because it will be part of heating oil and natural gas bills.

Thus, the fraud of using the very real plight of older Michigan citizens and the poor to pass a tax increase has worked, at least so far.

The measure is now in joint House-Senate Conference Committee which must iron out the differences between versions passed by the two houses.

Of course, before it can become law it must be signed by Governor Milliken.

The entire episode is a telling lesson in the use of questionable tactics used to justify actions that, if known to the public before hand, would never see the light of day.

Juvenile Code

During the last five years, a usually quiet but important debate has been underway in the halls of the legislature over whether or not to reform the state's juvenile code, and, more importantly, what form the reform should take.

This past week the House Judiciary Committee reported a reform bill, but its forms has not met the approval of many probate judges, leading advocates of family oriented solutions to juvenile offender problems and others interested in the issue.

The bill reported from the committee was reported over a competing bill sponsored by my Republican colleague, State Rep. Connie Binsfeld, R-Maple City.

Her bill has the support of the Juvenile Law Committee of the Michigan State Bar Association, the probate judges and others who are involved in dealings with juveniles.

The chairman of the Kent County (Grand Rapids) Board of Commissioners aptly described the bill reported by the panel as the "children's lib bill."

It seriously weakens the authority of parents and school administrators over troubled juveniles.

Today's Investor

By Thomas E. O'Hara

Q. I asked my broker to recommend a good stock for me to buy that should continue to have good business even if we had a recession. He suggested that I buy Black & Decker Manufacturing Co. His explanation was that it was a company that made tools for home use or for the do-it-yourself market. He said that when business receded people tended to do more of their work themselves and consequently firms like Black & Decker continued to do well. Would you agree with him and do you feel that the company is a good investment?

A. I would agree both that the concept is sound and the company is a good choice.

Black & Decker makes a broad line of tools that are used by both the professional carpenter and the home craftsman. Also it has a world wide business with over 100,000 sales outlets. Over half of sales and earnings came from outside the United States. Hopefully weak business conditions in the U. S. will not coincide with similar conditions across the world. At home B & D has just completed an arrangement with Montgomery Ward which might add enough new business to counteract any other decline in U. S. sales.

The corporation has had an excellent record through the years. The professional investment community has a high regard for the company. Over 44% of its shares are owned by institutions. For the past 10 years, earnings per share have increased at an average 12% a year and sales have increased at 15% a year. Earnings on investment have averaged 17.5% a year.

The stock has recently been selling at about $24 a share. That is about 12 times the last 12 months' earnings. Black & Decker is selling at almost twice as high a price earnings ratio as the average stock in the Dow-Jones averages, but it has traditionally sold at a very favorable ratio. This means there is some risk in the price.

The technician, Leonard Reiser, who writes for Better Investing commented on the company in his November article and said the stock was very favorably priced from the technical standpoint. I'm sending you a copy of his remarks and would be pleased to send a copy to any reader requesting it.

There is another stock listed on the American Exchange called Vermont American. It makes the blades and drills and other tool accessories that are used by the machines Black & Decker and all of its competitors produce. It covers the same concept, but gives you even broader and more basic coverage of the do-it-yourself market.

It seems to me that your broker has given you good advice.

Mr. O'Hara welcomes your questions, but will answer them only through this column. Readers who send in questions on a general investment subject or on a corporation with broad investor interest and whose questions are used, will receive a complimentary year's subscription to the investment magazine, Better Investing. We would be pleased to send a complimentary copy of Better Investing magazine or information about Investment Clubs to any reader requesting it. Ask THE GOVERNOR

by William G. Milliken

Question: What is the Governor's Task Force on School Vandalism and Violence and how can I learn more about what it is doing?

Governor: The task force is co-chaired by former State Representative Joseph F. Young, Sr., and Dr. Jack M. Bain of Michigan State University and is composed of a broad cross section of the state, including parents, community group representatives, students, school officials, state legislators, law enforcement officials, probate judges, PTA groups and youth advocacy groups. It was appointed in November, 1978.

I directed the task force to develop recommendations and guidelines to reduce the levels of violence and vandalism in the schools.

I have been concerned in recent years, as I know many Michigan residents have, that school districts across the nation are spending more on costs related to school vandalism than on textbooks. The threat of violence and vandalism is expensive—not just in terms of money, but, more importantly, in terms of human values and educational opportunities lost.

The dollar cost of vandalism represents funds diverted from educational services. The human cost of violence in the schools is incalculable.

The task force presented its recommendations to me last month and now is planning a state-wide conference, Dec. 10-12, in Southfield. The conference will provide a forum for discussing the task force findings and recommendations and the opportunity to exchange information concerning school vandalism and violence.

Special workshop sessions and general assemblies will cover such topics as training school security personnel, classroom management skills, parenting skills and student participation programs.

Information about the conference is available from the Office of the State-wide Task Force on School Vandalism and Violence, Second Floor, Cor Building, 300 E. Michigan, Lansing, Michigan 48909, (517) 373-1757.

Question: What is your position on the petition drive to reinstate the death penalty in Michigan?

Governor: I remain opposed to capital punishment. No reputable study has ever provided convincing evidence that capital punishment is a deterrent to crime.

In the past three years, the states of Florida, Utah and Nevada each have executed an individual. Yet, during that same time, the murder rate actually increased in both Florida and Utah while remaining the same in Nevada, which already has a murder rate twice the national average.

Killing, no matter who does it, is wrong.

Question: I heard recently that Michigan has done a lot to improve its rail system. I would like to know more about what the state is doing.

Governor: It is becoming increasingly apparent that Michigan's economic vitality is strongly affected by a safe and serviceable railway system. Whatever we in state government can do to improve the system, we intend to do.

The Federal Railroad Administration has called Michigan's inspection program one of the best railroad safety inspection programs in the nation.

Under the stepped up program, the Transportation Department's Railroad Safety Section increased its railroad crossing inspectors from five to eight and its railroad track inspectors from two to four.

Since June, 1978, the inspectors have reviewed 12,447 miles of trackage, discovering 13,630 defects. The total includes repeat inspections on Michigan's 6,500 miles of mainline track.

In addition, they have inspected 12,661 railroad freight cars, discovering 1,856 defects and inspected 324 railroad crossings on-site and conducted 1,094 studies of other crossings, resulting in formal orders of improvement for 189 crossings.

They have also investigated 104 complaints by railroad employees of hazardous conditions.

The state inspectors notify railroads of defects and order immediate repairs. If repairs are not made within a reasonable

Q. I'm trying to decide whether to enroll in the medical insurance part of Medicare. I'll be eligible for Medicare in a few months. I already have health insurance through my union, so I can't see paying a monthly premium for Medicare medical insurance if I don't need it. Can you give me any information to help me decide?

A. Many private health insurance companies point out that their policies for people entitled to Medicare are designed only to supplement Medicare. They recommend that their policyholders sign up for the medical insurance part of Medicare to get full protection. Your private insurance may not pay for some medical services that are covered by Medicare. You should contact your insurance agent or the office where you pay health insurance premiums to find out what your private insurance will cover after you become eligible for Medicare.

period, formal violation notices are submitted to the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA).

Of the 13,630 defects found in track inspections, 17 resulted in formal violations. Violations can bring fines, levied by the FRA, of $250 to $2,500 per day for each violation.

The FRA pays 50 percent of the cost for safety inspections.

Q: When I applied for SSI payments, the lady at the social security office mentioned something about a periodic redetermination. How does this work? Am I supposed to get in touch with social security at a certain time?

A: The SSI law requires that each beneficiary's case be periodically reviewed to make sure that the beneficiary is still eligible for SSI and that his or her payment amount is correct. In some instances, this redetermination can be conducted by telephone. But, in most cases, the beneficiary has to visit the social security office for an interview. The local social security office will notify you when it is time for your redetermination.

Q: I just got married a few weeks ago. Does my marriage have any effect on my SSI payments?

A: A change in your marital status could affect the amount of payments due you and your husband or wife. You should notify a social security office promptly.

EIGHT TINY REINDEER? Their names might confuse you, but the lack of antlers on these South school guinea pigs is a dead giveaway. The unusually large litter of six was born to parents Dasher and Dancer in Nancy Van Blaricum's kindergarten class last week. In the holiday spirit, the children dubbed the newcomers Prancer, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, Donner and Blitzen.

How To Donate Body or Organs Told in Booklet

Modern science has made life possible where there was little hope before. Operations like kidney transplants and cornea transplants enable some very ill people to lead new lives. If you've ever thought about donating your body or a part of your body to someone who needs a transplant after your death, you'll want to know the facts first. A free booklet from the National Institutes of Health explains what you must do and includes donor cards you may fill out. For your free copy of "How to Donate the Body or Its Organs," just send a post-card to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 580G, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

According to the National Institutes of Health, in most states the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act governs how you can become a donor. Usually, after discussing the donor with your family, you fill out, sign, and carry with you a Uniform Donor Card. You can find out from your state department of motor vehicles if there is a place on your driver's license to designate that you are an organ donor.

But just filling out a card does not mean that you will automatically become a donor. Medical personnel are hesitant to proceed unless your next of kin agrees as well. So it makes sense to let your close relatives know about your decision, perhaps even in writing.

You may want to find a specialist or hospital that will accept your donation. You can start by asking your own doctor for a referral, or call the Surgery Department at the nearest medical school or hospital. For donating the entire body, contact donor. Usually, after discussing the donor with your family, medical or dental school.

Remember, you don't need to have perfect eyes or perfect health to be a donor. And for helping scientists discover new ways to save lives in the future, an elderly person is as valuable a donor as a younger person.

Now, how can you get a Uniform Donor Card? Two cards are included in the free booklet from the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 580G, Pueblo, Colo. 81009. When you order a copy of "How to Donate the Body or Its Organs" (free), you'll also receive a copy of the free "Consumer Information Catalog." It lists more than 200 selected free or low-cost publications from the federal government. The Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration.

Business Cannot Keep Selling at Loss

"No business, including a family farm, can continue to produce and sell at a loss, or at best a break-even point. And a continued high rate of investment in such a business cannot be expected.

"If the farmer is to continue to invest in higher productivity, to assure our domestic food supply and alleviate our all-important balance of trade situation, ways must be found to give that farmer a reasonable return on his risk capital and his considerable labor. Otherwise, the American dollar will drown in a river of imported oil." —Massey Ferguson, Inc.
