FIRE DESTROYED THE HOME of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Lyndon township last Tuesday after it began in the chimney and spread through the rest of the house located on Cassidy Lake Rd. Chelsea and Dexter firefighters battled the blaze from just after 8 a.m. until nearly noon before it was brought under control. Despite the efforts of 22 firemen, approximately $85,000 damage was done to the house and its contents.

Fire Destroys J. Miller Home

Early Tuesday morning, Jan. 12, a fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of 17376 Cassidy Lake Rd. broke out in the chimney area and spread to the rest of the two-story wood frame farm house resulting in an estimated $85,000 in damage to the house and its contents. No injuries were reported.

The house is located between Roe and Waterloo Rds. in Lyndon township approximately seven miles northwest of Chelsea. A total of 22 firefighters from both the Chelsea and Dexter Fire Departments, battled the blaze for about four hours before bringing it under control. Seven pieces of equipment were used in the firefighting attempt.

In another fire on Tuesday evening, a Scio township horsebarn was leveled and three horses destroyed though Dexter firemen were able to save a larger barn that was attached to the one that was destroyed. Four other horses were also saved. Located on Marshall Rd. and owned by John Mersereau, Jr., the three horses killed in the barn fire included two registered thoroughbreds and a registered quarter horse.

ICE, SMOKE AND RUBBLE surround what was left at the John Miller residence on Cassidy Lake Rd. following what began as a chimney fire and spread through the two-story wood frame farm house Tuesday, Jan. 12. Losses were estimated at approximately $85,000 though no injuries were reported as a result of the blaze that took more than 20 Chelsea and Dexter firemen nearly four hours to bring under control.

Two More Charges Filed Against Harden

Two additional complaints of sexual molestation of young girls were made to Chelsea Police last week and, on Friday, Jan. 15, John Harden was arraigned before Judge Kenneth Bronson of 14th District Court on two separate counts of first degree criminal sexual conduct stemming from the complaints filed by the parents of a four-year-old girl and a seven-year-old girl.

Upon arraignment, bond was set at $3,000 per charge. If eventually convicted of the sex charges, Harden could face a maximum sentence of life imprisonment per charge.

According to Chelsea Police Chief Robert Aello, following Harden's initial arraignment on similar charges Thursday, Jan. 7, parents of children who had been babysitting charges of the Hardens questioned their youngsters regarding any incident of possible sexual misconduct. Two complaints were later filed by the Chelsea families. The alleged crimes were reported to have been committed over a period of four months.

An investigation ensued and, because of the sex and age of the children involved, Chelsea Police went to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department and retained the help of a female deputy to interview and secure statements from the alleged victims. A three-page report was submitted to the Chelsea Police who notified Harden's attorney, William Rademacher, of the additional charges.

A preliminary examination on all three counts of first degree criminal sexual conduct will be held Tuesday, Jan. 26 at 1:30 p.m. at 14th District Court.

The community is invited to peruse the collection. There is no admission charge.

Symphony Orchestra Asked to 'M' Conference

Chelsea High school symphony orchestra has been selected to perform at this year's Mid-West Conference on School Vocal and Instrumental Music held each January at the University of Michigan.

The conference brings music teachers from all over the state together for clinics, seminars, workshops and performances by some of the state's best vocal and instrumental ensembles.

The Chelsea orchestra is one of only two high school orchestras in Michigan invited to perform at this year's conference. Regarding the selection, Kevin Miller the orchestra's director stated, "This is a tremendous honor for the high school orchestra and a tribute to the phenomenal growth it has made. It reflects well on the quality of the entire music department and the support for a strong music program in the Chelsea schools."

The orchestra will perform on Saturday, Jan. 23 at Hill Auditorium, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Performing with the orchestra as a guest soloist will be Ann Ourada, a violinist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. She will be featured in Mozart's Violin Concerto No. 5.

Also on the program will be works by Beethoven, Tchaikovsky, Dvorak, Vaughan-Williams, and Saint-Saens.

Last Saturday, the CHS symphony orchestra performed a preliminary concert at Eastern Michigan's Pease Auditorium for the enjoyment of students and professors.

Bitter Cold Weather, High Winds Combined Make Living Difficult

For the second week-end in succession the Mid-west was blanketed in a shroud of bitter cold, snow and wind chills up to 58 degrees below zero.

For those of us in Chelsea, the weather was no better as winds drifted snow across roads, sheeting the pavement with ice and blocking many back roads thereby making them impassable.

Mother Nature dropped a couple new inches of snow on the area and high winds caused near blizzard conditions for much of the week-end. Travelers' advisories attempted to keep drivers off the icy roads and strong gusts of wind did a good job of blowing pedestrians into the streets and motorists onto the road shoulders and into ditches along the roadside.

Short-circuited electric blankets, multiple pairs of wool socks, hot drinks, Kleenex, and over-worked furnaces did what they could to minimize the westerly wind that found its way through even the most protected windows and doors. Cookie-baking, soup-making and snuggling close to the fireplace with a good book were some of the "warm" things to do while persons who ventured outdoors were greeted by skin-chapping and bone-piercing Arctic air that was scheduled to subside for the time being by Monday.

New record lows were reported throughout the state as Detroit set a record low for Jan. 17 with a temperature of minus 17 in the early morning hours. Outlying areas were hit with even more severe temperatures.

Crime was reported to be down while traffic accidents were up, both because of the frigid weather. Still, with over-worked furnaces and fireplaces in use to maximize warmth, house fires were fairly prevalent during this latest cold spell.

So, for the second consecutive week-end, rest, relaxation and keeping warm were the activities of the day and night.

Nominating Petitions Ready For Candidates

Nominating petitions for the village offices to be vacated this March are available to all qualified electors in the Village of Chelsea desiring to qualify for any of the elective offices.

Petitions may be obtained at the village offices, 104 E. Middle St., and must be signed by at least 15 and not more than 50 registered voters in the village. When complete, the petitions must be submitted to Village Clerk Evelyn Rosentreter no later than 4 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 1.

The March 8 non-partisan regular general village election will place in office a village president, a village treasurer, a village assessor, three village trustees and two library board trustees. Each position carries a two year term with the exception of the library board positions which carry terms of three years.

Pair Charged With Sexual Misconduct

Before Judge Kenneth Bronson in 14th District Court, Saline, Tuesday, Philip and Mark Robson, the father and son accused of raping a 7-year-old retarded woman under their care at a Dexter foster care home, waived their right to a district court preliminary examination during which time prosecution would be forced to prove that a crime was committed and produce evidence to show reason to believe that the person(s) charged committed the offense.

The Robsons, ages 51 and 17, respectively, have been charged with first degree criminal sexual conduct in the alleged assault of the woman residing in the Great Oaks foster care home where the pair served as houseparents. They were arrested last week following investigation by the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, resulting from a report given to them by the woman's mother.

The Great Oaks home, located on Wyllie Rd., is operated by Kinship Homes, Inc.

The Robsons have been bound over for arraignment in circuit court on Jan. 26. Both are free on $1,000 bail each.

At 3:37 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 13, a shed fire was reported at a residence on North Lake Rd. off Hankard Rd.

A refrigerator coil caught fire at a residence on Wilkinson St. on Thursday. This call was reported at 3:50 p.m. while, at 7 p.m., another house fire was reported at a Clear Lake Rd. residence.

On Sunday, Jan. 17, at 5:15 p.m., a house fire was reported on Hoppe Rd.

On Monday, Jan. 11, Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department investigated two residential break-ins. The first incident occurred at 8:51 p.m. in the 7700 block of Werkner Rd., in Dexter township. Upon gaining entry, person or persons unknown fled with assorted jewelry, savings passbooks and watches.

Then, at 9:57 p.m., a second breaking and entering was reported to have taken place in the 5700 block of Stofer Rd., near North Territorial Rd. Belongings similar to those taken from the (Continued on page six)

Push for Economic Recovery

To Continue in Legislature
Legislative agendas for 1982 will continue to push for legislation aiding the state's economic climate in order to make the state more attractive to business and industry.

Governor William G. Milliken believes the state's recovery is so important, that his running for re-election or for the U.S. Senate could hamper any efforts and has decided not to seek any elective office so he could concentrate fully on the problems facing Michigan.

House Speaker Bobby Crim of Davison also may not seek re-election (he earlier announced he would not be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor) and he too, would be free to work solely for economic recovery without possible charges of politics surfacing during deliberations.

Senate Majority Leader William Faust of Westland, although expected to seek re-election to the Senate, has been able to work well with the governor and other legislative leaders to forge legislation for the betterment of the state.

And House Minority Leader William Bryant of Grosse Pointe Park, said completing the state's recovery package—including changes in unemployment compensation and the single business tax—will be the main priority for legislative action in 1982.

Bryant, however, said working on some of those issues may prove difficult to get the backing of the so-called "dissident" Democrats, who helped Republicans pass the major portion of the worker's compensation reform package last year.

He said especially sensitive to Democrats will be the governor's proposal that unemployed worker wait a week before receiving benefits.

Such a proposal could save business and industry as much as $115 million each year.

He noted that earlier reforms in unemployment compensation enacted in 1980 are sunsetted for 1983 (will expire unless re-enacted) at which time benefit levels would be rolled back to the pre-1980 levels.

Bryant said with the sunset approaching, it may be possible to negotiate some agreement with the Democrats on cutting compensation cost to business.

Bryant said another priority for the year will be the continuing search for a property tax reform proposal.

He suggested the public likely will not agree with Governor Milliken's veto of legislation providing an additional $150 million in property tax cuts.

Bryant said it would be difficult this year to consider any tax increase designed to prevent further state budget cuts.

If any tax increases are considered, however, it would be politically easier to increase nuisance taxes such as the cigarette tax, but he added almost any other tax increase would have to be tied to a property tax cut.

Everyone agrees. Economic recovery issues remain the most important for the Legislature to address with the opening of the 1982 session.

With enactment of the tough worker's compensation reform package, labor Democrats have proven they can work with business oriented Republicans putting together a coalition to make some hard decisions to better the state, keeping it a viable place to live and do business in the future.

No Selective Grain Embargo on Russia Promised by Reagan

President Reagan told Farm Bureau officials Jan. 8 that he would not consider imposing a selective grain embargo on the Soviet Union because of the Soviet role in Poland's martial law.

American Farm Bureau President Robert Delano said Reagan told him that a total embargo on all exports to Russia remains one of his last resorts in dealing with the situation.

"I don't think there will be an embargo," Delano said following the White House meeting. "There certainly will not be a selective agricultural embargo. If there is an embargo, it will be an across-the-board embargo."

Delano reminded Reagan that since agricultural exports to Russia in 1981 accounted for nearly three-fourths of total U. S. exports to the Soviet Union, a total embargo would still place a heavier burden on agriculture than on other industries.

Delegates to the American Farm Bureau Federation annual meeting, scheduled for Jan. 10-14 in San Diego, Calif., are expected to determine policy on this issue for the nation's largest farm organization.

Vietnam-Era Vets Given More Time on GI Bill

As many as 39,000 Vietnam-era veterans are expected to take advantage of a one-time, two-year extension of their GI delimiting date, the Veterans Administration estimates.

Extended eligibility for certain training programs was included in the Veterans' Health Care, Training and Small Business Loan Act of 1981 signed into law by the President Nov. 3. The extension period, which opened Jan. 1 and runs through Dec. 31, applies to educationally disadvantaged or unskilled Vietnam-era veterans who allowed their 10-year delimiting date to expire before using all their entitlement for educational training.

Eligible veterans may use their remaining entitlement to obtain a high school diploma, or its equivalent, or pursue a program of apprenticeship, other on-the-job training or a program with a vocational objective.

Enrollment in college degree, flight or correspondence courses is not included in the extension. Veterans who have already earned college degrees are ineligible for the extension.

VA is urging all potentially eligible veterans to get complete information on this program at VA offices and through organization service officers.

ing defeat to the visiting Jackson Lumen Christi Titans. Chelsea is now 3-3 in the Southeastern Conference race, in the middle of the league standings.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I recently joined with two other Michigan legislators in proposing that Michigan convert its 110-member House of Representatives and 38-member Senate into one compact and more efficient 72-member unicameral Legislature. There are at least five strong arguments in favor of this proposal which I will outline below. Most important is the common-sense reality that governmental structures, like businesses, must change from time to time if they are to keep pace with the demands of modern society. A great deal of citizen discontent with the Legislature could be addressed through some structural changes in the way we do business.

First, there are so many "choke points" in the present lawmaking system that it's easy for lobbyists to prevent the passage of needed legislation. A bill must survive the following hurdles: 1) After introduction, it must be approved by a subject-matter committee (for example, the Judiciary Committee for Friend of the Court reform). 2) It must then be passed by the full house. 3) It is then sent to the other chamber, where it must be approved by yet another subject-matter committee. 4) If it survives that second committee, it must be passed by the full second chamber. 5) Since most bills get changed as they pass through this maze, a conference committee made up of legislators from both houses must put together a compromise bill. 6) The compromise bill must then be passed, in exactly the same form, by both chambers. 7) The bill must be signed by the Governor.

At any of these points, a much-needed bill can be sidetracked by lobbyists who have the ear of just one or two sympathetic legislators. Sometimes, even when legislators of both parties and the Governor are in basic agreement, nothing will happen on a measure because it's so easy for pressure groups to gum up the works.

One case in point would be the popular "auto lemon law" which was enacted into law only after eight years of opposition from the automobile dealers' association. The previous sponsors had given up hope.

Another example: Michigan's very popular "bottle law" approved as a ballot proposal, was originally a legislative idea. It never had a chance in the Legislature, there were too many of those "choke points."

Second, a lot of time and effort would be saved if there were only one legislative chamber. In the 1979-80 session of the Michigan Legislature, for example, there were 2,159 bills introduced in the State House of Representatives; 477, or just 22 percent, became law. There were 1,333 bills introduced in the State Senate; 287, or 20 percent, became law. When four out of five bills die, the lawmaking process needs streamlining.

In Nebraska, on the other hand, which has a one-house Legislature, about two-thirds of the bills introduced often make it into the statute books.

Third, the original reasons for having a two-house Legislature no longer exist. The Michigan Legislature was patterned after the U.S. Congress with its two chambers. Those familiar with American history know that the federal Congress was given two chambers (with the Senate having two Senators from each state without regard to size or population) as a compromise between the interests of the populous states such as New York and the smaller states like Rhode Island.

If these arguments were ever applicable to Michigan, then the situation was changed by the Supreme Court's "one person, one vote" decision in Baker v. Carr and Reynolds v. Sims. All citizens are now equally represented in Congress and in state legislatures, regardless of where they live. Two chambers are thus a historical anachronism.

Fourth, we should consider the monetary savings. Having one house of just 72 members would save millions of dollars per year in legislators' salaries and staff salaries. Perhaps 40 percent could be saved, without degrading the professionalism of the Legislature, and in these times every dollar counts.

Finally, we have to recognize that, like private organizations, government must be restructured from time to time to keep up with modern realities. There is no reason to believe that a cumbersome two-chamber system established 200 years ago is adequate to meet the needs of modern society.

Long ago, before chemical pollution threatened our lives, before technology changed at a rapid pace, and when social institutions changed only over centuries rather than decades, a legislative process that was slow and cumbersome was appropriate. But slow, incremental change is no longer the norm—it is the exception. We must have governmental structures that can adapt to that change. Converting to a unicameral legislature would be one step in the right direction.

Beach 8th, 9th Grade Cagers Both Lose

Chelsea's eighth grade cagers suffered a disappointing loss Wednesday at the hands of the Saline Hornets. Final score in the contest was 43-30.

Pacing the team were Kevin Maynard with 10 points followed by Mark Mull and Ken Martin with eight and six points, respectively. Rebounding was handled well by Maynard with 15, Mull with eight and Rob Beckwith with seven.

According to Coach Jim Tallman, the game was played sloppily and his charges were out of condition while the Hornets had practiced consistently over the Christmas-New Year holidays.

Still, his team has a good overall attitude and provided what hustle it could. The biggest factor contributing to the loss was the fact that Saline jumped out to a quick early lead.

The eighth grade Bulldogs are now 1-3 on the season.

Chelsea's ninth grade cagers fared as well, dropping a contest

Lead Roles Filled For High School March Musical

Tryouts for this year's high school musical, "West Side Story," were held Jan. 5, 6 and 7, with the results posted on Friday, Jan. 8.

Portraying the part of Tony, the male lead, will be senior Phil Powers who has had much experience performing on Chelsea's stage. Freshman Amy Wolters will be playing the part of Maria, the female lead. This will be her debut musical performance.

Rehearsals began last week, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and on Thursday after school. Because of the extremely difficult dances in "West Side Story," some extra dance rehearsals may also be necessary.

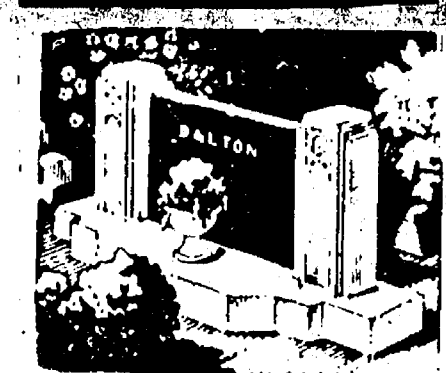

Performance dates are set for March 18, 19 and 20.

Cong. Dunn Posts 99% Voting Record On Roll Calls

Congressman Jim Dunn (Mich-6) had one of the highest voter participation records during the first session of the 97th Congress, registering a vote on 99 percent of all roll calls, according to the Jan. 9 issue of Congressional Quarterly.

Only seven House members recorded a vote on all roll calls during the first session of the present Congress, according to CQ, a weekly report on Congressional activities.

Voter participation, as defined by CQ, is the percentage of recorded votes on which a member votes "yea" or "nay." Voting participation is the closest approach to an attendance record, according to Congressional Quarterly.

Members of Congress on average voted on 92 percent of the votes taken, the highest score since CQ began keeping such records in 1951. The previous high was 91 percent, established in 1975.

As is traditional, according to CQ, Republicans voted more often than Democrats last year.

Sweet Adelines Seek Members

"Harmonize the World" is the motto of Sweet Adelines, Inc., an international organization of women who enjoy singing, barbershop style—in four-part harmony. First organized 36 years ago, there are now more than 33,000 members in 745 chapters in the United States, Canada, Europe and the Orient.

The Ann Arbor Chapter, composed of members from all the surrounding communities, is directed by Jack Herr, a member of the Music Education Department of C. S. Mott High School, Warren. Jack brings an impressive musical background to the Ann Arbor chorus and is enthusiastically sharing his knowledge with the members.

Few hobbies can equal the pleasure derived from making music, and the four-part harmony of barbershop singing provides a unique musical experience. Because barbershop is sung without accompaniment, it can be enjoyed whenever at least four singers get together, anytime, anywhere.

The Ann Arbor Chapter was chartered in July 1978 with 27 members and presented its first annual show, "Back in 1910," that same year. In 1981, 62 members were on stage for "Don't Touch That Dial," a musical history of the years from 1940 to the present. In addition to the annual show, the chorus performs for many civic and professional groups, hospitals and nursing homes.

Sweet Adelines, Inc., is an educational organization. Each year the chorus is judged in a regional competition and receives its "report card." Since its first year of competition, the Ann Arbor Chapter has been progressing steadily from sixth place in 1979 to second place in 1981. This year's contest will be held in Lansing, and the chorus is putting forth an all-out effort, with the help of its director, to once again be the most improved chorus and, perhaps, bring home the first-place medal.

Sweet Adelines membership is open to any woman, 18 or over, who can carry a tune and loves to sing. Formal musical training is not necessary, the music is learned at rehearsals. The chorus meets each Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Glacier Way United Methodist church, 1001 Green Rd., Ann Arbor. A special Open House will be held at the church Tuesday evening, Jan. 26, for all interested guests. For more information about rehearsals, the Open House or membership, please call Carol Flintoft, 475-1236 or Lois Garman, 475-7595.

All of the Sweet Adelines hope you'll make this the year to "Harmonize Your World."

A WINNING EFFORT was put forth by Chelsea diver Craig Wirtz, shown here attempting a forward one and one-half somersault with a twist, during the Ann Arbor Huron-Chelsea swim meet last week. Chelsea won its 28th consecutive meet, 87-85, following a first and third place finish in the final event.

JV Cagers Lose Two This Week

Chelsea's junior varsity basketball team suffered its first loss Tuesday against Howell, dropping the contest, 64-37. According to Coach Wayne Welton, the team didn't play very well and the game looked to be over early.

The JV Highlanders applied a very effective defensive strategy which put a damper on the Bulldog efforts.

Providing his best effort of the season, Frank Waller scored 12 points while Jay Marshall had 10 points, Jeff Martin eight and Eric Schaffner six.

On Friday, the JV's luck had not changed as they lost a second game, this time to Jackson Lumen Christi. Final score in the game, 68-47.

Despite the score, the game was much closer than it appears. In fact, it was a two-point game late in the third quarter when the Lumen Christi cagers began to use a zone defense which bothered the junior Bulldogs.

Pacing Chelsea was Eric Schaffner with 14 points while Chuck Hager and Jeff Martin had eight points apiece. Frank Waller added seven while Jay Marshall had six points for the Bulldog effort.

Chelsea's JV team is now 7-2 on the season and faces Jackson County Western on Friday.

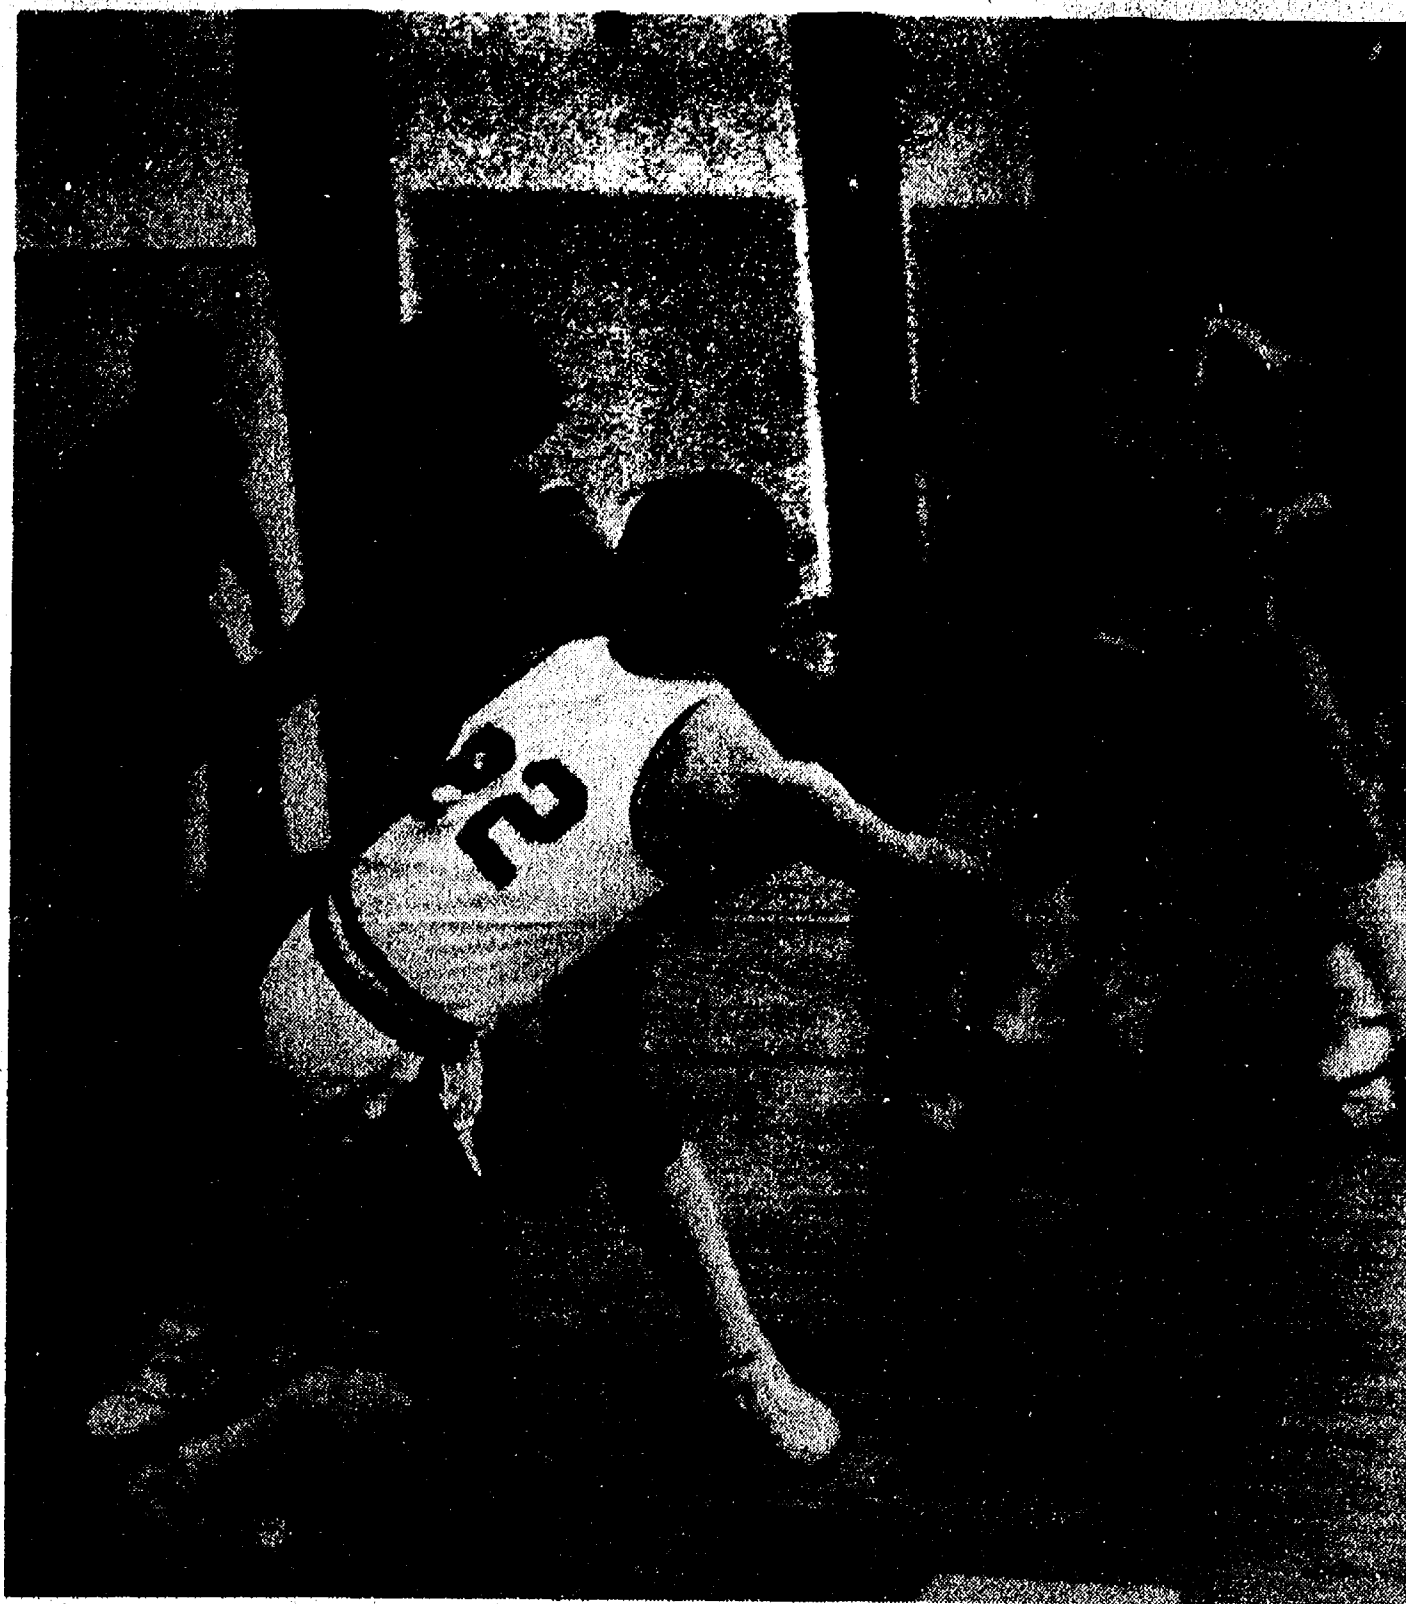

Mercywood Outreach Center Moving to Maple Medical Center

A proposal to relocate the Mercywood Outreach Center to Maple Medical Center in Ann Arbor has been given state approval.

On Dec. 29, the State Health Director, Dr. Ballus Walker, Jr., granted a certificate of need to the $679,000 project, which will be financed by facility reserves.

Mercywood Outreach Center, now located at 4015 Jackson Rd., will move to the Maple Medical Center, 501 N. Maple, where it will be housed in a new 10,000 square foot addition. The center is a satellite of Ann Arbor's St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and used the outpatient mental health programs of Mercywood Neuro-Psychiatric Hospital. Both Mercywood and St. Joseph Mercy Hospitals are owned by the Sisters of Mercy Health Corp.

The director's decision to approve the project followed the recommendation of the Comprehensive Health Planning Council of Southeastern Michigan.

GETTING RID OF THE BALL to teammate David Kiel is David Wojcik (22) while a Titan guard makes a play for the pass. In assisting his teammate, Wojcik set up a seemingly easy basket for the 6' 4" forward. Despite victories over Lincoln and Howell earlier in the week, the Bulldogs were unable to stave off the Lumen Christi Titans Friday night, dropping the contest, 81-82.

For People Who Want To Quit Working Someday

ANN ARBOR TRUST'S DESIRABLE RETIREMENT PLAN

Everyone should be able to enter retirement with sufficient financial resources to enjoy this very special part of their life. But every day we hear of elderly persons whose savings have been gobbled up by inflation and taxes, and who can barely scrape by on their Social Security and limited pension benefits. Recent legislation now makes it possible for everyone who works to acquire a meaningful retirement fund through an Individual Retirement Account (IRA).

Our DESIRABLE Retirement Plan allows you to contribute up to $2,000 each year to your IRA and deduct the entire contribution from your current taxable income. If you were able to contribute $2,000 each year for 20 years and earned 12% interest, you would accumulate over $160,000.

If you've been wanting to save for retirement, but just can't seem to get started, you'll like our Floating Rate Account that allows you to make regular contributions of $25 or more after an opening deposit of just $100. You'll earn an attractively higher rate than the current 6-month Treasury Bill auction rate*, and the rate will be adjusted quarterly.

If you find it more convenient to make a deposit of $1,000 or more, you may prefer our Fixed Rate Account where the rate in effect when you make your opening deposit remains constant during the term of the deposit. Both of these plans offer terms of deposit ranging from 18 to 60 months. Interest is compounded quarterly, and each account is insured to $100,000. How's that for safety, convenience, and flexibility?

Need more information? Just complete the form and we'll send you all the details. Don't delay taking this step towards a secure financial future.

*6-month Treasury Bill auction rate plus 25 basis points. Withdrawals from an IRA prior to age 59½ are subject to substantial tax penalties. If certificates of deposit are used, added penalties may also apply. Withdrawals must begin and no contributions may be made past age 70½.

At 4:45 p.m. Friday, Jan. 15, a property damage accident was reported at the intersection of Pierce Rd. and Old US-12 in Sylvan township.

According to Sheriff's Department reports, a car, driven by Penny Trinkle, 20, of Chelsea, was traveling west-bound on Old US-12 while a car, driven by Henry Risner, 23, of Grass Lake, was heading south-bound on Pierce Rd. Risner stopped at a sign though failed to yield to the right of way of Trinkle's vehicle while attempting to turn east-bound onto Old US-12. Trinkle attempted to avoid striking Risner's vehicle but was unable to stop and struck the right front section of his auto.

Risner, who received minor injuries, was cited for failing to stop and driving with a suspended license. Both cars were considerably damaged and were towed to Smith's.

* The Sacred Entitlements ...

During the past several months, we've been hearing a lot about federal "entitlement" programs. They are so sacred in the minds of many in Congress and so loaded with political dynamite, that it takes a special brand of courage to suggest that they need to be cut back as part of the effort to bring federal spending under control and the budget into balance.

The so-called entitlements are various kinds of social benefits that have been adopted by Congress over the years, that people have come to think of as guaranteed by our Founding Fathers shortly after the signing of the Declaration of Independence. They include such things as full indexation of federal employee pensions—something no one in the private sector can even dream about. They include early retirement for federal workers and for those who want to draw Social Security before reaching 65, and they include all kinds of social and welfare programs, sometimes called "transfer payments," many of which are indexed to inflation.

A letter to the Washington Post recently, written by a sophomore in an affluent Virginia suburb, complained bitterly about the fact that President Reagan had cut the size of his school lunch and local school officials had increased the cost from 70 cents to $1.25. Said this sophomore: "The school system is supposed to provide us with a nutritious meal once a day, and the meal they give us is not good enough for growing teenagers."

Where is there written in the National Archives that taxpayers are supposed to provide a free or subsidized meal to school children? And who has decreed that it must be a hot meal? Whatever happened to the brown bag or lunch bucket carried from home?

A lot of us taxpayers who still carry those brown bags wonder about those "entitlement" programs.

Varsity Cagers Win Two Before Falling To Lumen Christi

Chelsea managed to continue its winning streak to two games Tuesday, defeating the Howell Highlanders, 59-56. In game plan, the team played exactly as it had against Lincoln Saturday, controlling the tempo and leading the entire second half.

The major factor in the win was the combination of David Wojcicki and John Welton, who provided excellent leadership and scored 17 points each.

According to Coach Robin Raymond, the Bulldogs exhibited excellent guard play and good inside play to pace the team to its second consecutive win. Bareis, Steinhauer, Kiel and Pate provided a good combination of inside and outside play in controlling the tall Howell cagers.

The necessary combination of good scoring, good rebounding and good defense was there as the Bulldogs won the non-league contest.

To compensate for their weaknesses, the Chelsea team played a half-court zone defense in combination with a man-to-man and full court zone press to keep the opposition off guard.

From the floor, Chelsea was 26 for 55 for 48 percent while at the free throw line, the Bulldogs completed 7 of 11 for a 64 percent rate. Howell, on the other hand, was 24 of 52 for 46 percent from the floor while, at the line, the Highlanders managed eight of 19 for 42 percent.

Scoring for the Bulldogs, in addition to Welton and Wojcicki, were Kiel and Pate with eight points each while Bareis added seven points and Steinhauer added two.

On the boards, Chelsea and Howell were matched evenly at 29 each.

Pacing Chelsea was Bareis with nine following a fine all-around game. Pate pulled down seven rebounds in a good outing while Kiel had six rebounds and Steinhauer had four. Bareis and Wojcicki had four and three assists, respectively.

Turnover-wise, both teams had 20 though Chelsea's positive factors far outweighed their weaknesses in the contest.

Handling the pressure well and providing good leadership was the key to the win.

Following two important victories during the week, Chelsea hosted Jackson Lumen Christi Friday and lost, 61-62.

According to Coach Robin Raymond, this was the best team they've played this season with good quickness, good shooting, and aggressive, experienced players.

By the end of the first quarter, Lumen Christi was ahead, 17-8, and at the half, led 42-17.

In the third quarter, Chelsea came back to outscore the opposition, 27-20 but to no avail. At the end of four, the score found Lumen Christi winning by 21 points.

Still, the Bulldogs played much better in the second half, holding their own while 11 of Chelsea's 12 players scored.

Individually, Mike Bareis played his best game of the season, scoring 13 points and pulling down 12 rebounds while holding his own close to the basket. Others scoring were Kiel and Wojcicki with eight points apiece while Matt Villemure and David Mass came off the bench to contribute eight points each as well. Toby Boyd scored six points while Marty Steinhauer had four and John Welton, Carl Pate and Randy Krichbaum had two points each.

Chelsea out-rebounded Lumen Christi, 34-33. At the free throw line, Chelsea was 23 for 36 for 64 percent while Lumen Christi was 12 for 19 for 63 percent.

From the floor, Chelsea hit on 35 percent, 19 for 55, while the opposition earned a percentage of 51 for scoring on 35 of 68 attempts. In turnovers, Chelsea had 28 while Lumen Christi had 24. Only seven Bulldog assists were made while Lumen Christi had 18.

Chelsea takes on Jackson County Western Friday at Western.

Wrestlers 4th in Parma Tournament

Chelsea wrestlers took third place in a field of 18 at a tournament at Jackson Parma last Saturday. Winning the tough tournament was Holt with 191 points while Jackson Parkside was second with 142 points followed by Chelsea with 137 and Mason, fourth, with 103.

Place finishes for Chelsea found Ernie Bristle, at 98 lbs., placing second while, at 105 lbs., Bill Hanna won 12-0 with an outstanding match in the finals.

Steve Snyder ended the day in fourth place at 119 lbs. while Travis Rudd, at 128 lbs., also placed fourth. John Preston, at 155 lbs., was fifth for the day and, at 185 lbs., Todd Sprague was fourth.

At 198 lbs., Rick Poljan won his division, pinning all opponents. In the finals, Poljan took his man down at 5:53.

A low point in the tournament was during the third match. Chelsea's Bill Lamb, wrestling at 145 lbs., broke a leg in a freak accident against a Coldwater wrestler and will undoubtedly be out for the remainder of the season.

SEC ROUND-UP:

Milan Defeats Saline As Dexter Takes League Lead

Chelsea 59, Howell 56

Tough defense and strong foul shooting led the Chelsea Bulldogs to a necessary victory Tuesday as they defeated Howell, 59-56.

Taking advantage of the Highlanders' mistakes, Chelsea was able to pace David Wojcicki and John Welton to 17 and 15 points each, respectively.

With the results of the contest, Chelsea and Howell evened their records, 4-4 for the Bulldogs and 3-3 for the Highlanders.

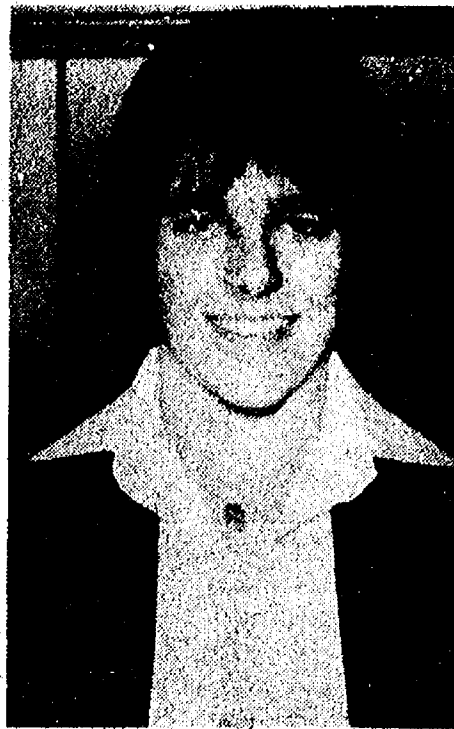

Lincoln 80, Erie Mason 50

Managing to rack up a 45-20 half-time lead, the Railsplitters achieved a very respectable victory Tuesday over Erie Mason. Final score of the game, 80-50.

From the floor, the Railsplitters managed to tally 61 percent of their field goal attempts to raise their record to 5-3.

A total of seven team members scored eight or more points, led by Rod Turrentine and Carl Fulton with 11 points each.

Pacing Erie Mason was Charlie Reau with 12 points to lead all scorers.

Freshman Cagers Lose to Pinckney

Chelsea's freshman basketball team continued their hard luck, dropping their fourth game to Pinckney Thursday, 35-39.

Chelsea's major problem came at the free throw line as the Pirates managed nine while Chelsea could muster only five free throws.

Quarter scores found Pinckney outscoring the Chelsea team by one point each quarter though Dave Steinhauer and Mark Hintzen paced the Bulldogs with 11 and 10 points each, respectively.

Wrestlers of the Week

FEATURED WRESTLERS THIS WEEK are John Preston and Steve Grau. Preston, wrestling at the 155-lb. weight category, is currently 17-2 and has placed first at a number of important matches including Chelsea and Dexter's invitational. He ended his day in fifth place at Jackson County Western while finishing second in his classification at the Washtenaw County meet held last Saturday in Ann Arbor. Grau is 10-5 on the season and placed second at the Dexter Invitational while competing in the 167-lb. weight class. On Saturday, he ended his day in fifth place at the county meet. According to Coach Tom Fletche, both Preston and Grau provide the team with great senior leadership.

Grapplers Win Over Dexter, 44-18

At 98 lbs., Ernie Bristle pinned Dan Ray at 1:44 while Bill Hanna pinned Quoc Truong at :52, in the 105-lb. weight classification.

At 112, Jeff Morgan defeated Tim Klapperich, 6-4, while Steve Snyder, at 119, won on a superior decision over Josh Vandermark, 18-3.

Scott Hollister defeated Scott Dault at 126, by a score of 7-5 and Travis Rudd defeated Ryan Dolezky, 7-6, at 132.

At 138, Pat Young overpowered Eric Stofflet and pinned him at 3:53 while Paul Petrich, at 145, defeated David Gipson, 11-6.

John Preston, at 155, pinned Todd Coy at 5:23 and Steve Grau defeated Jeff Ulrich, 4-3, in the 167-lb. weight category.

Todd Sprague pinned opponent Jeff Henes at :24 and Rick Poljan pinned Mark Whitley at :57.

At heavyweight, Charlie Wiseley pinned Bob Schleede at 3:21.

The varsity grapplers are now 5-0-1 on the season and 2-0 in the Southeastern Conference.

treter, Ed Brosnan, Tom Nemeth and Rick Cook, each of whom pinned their opponents while Ed Elsenbeiser defeated his opponent, 9-0.

George Washington devoted one of his Virginia farms exclusively to the growing of rye which he converted into whisky in a still at Mount Vernon.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

We are a number conscious society. Numbers make up our age. Hours we work. Hours given to sleep. Hours to education or recreation. Numbers, always numbers. So many make up the daily ups and downs of the stockmarket. Numbers add up on a cash register receipt as we pay for groceries or whatever. Numbers show up on our paychecks, or social security checks. We would all agree to this. There are some other serious numbers that we can share with each other right here.

We recall the deaths of the wars our country has lived through. Revolutionary War, 25,324; Civil War, 364,511; World War I, 116,708; World War II, 407,316; Korean War, 54,095; Vietnam War, 58,095. These remembered figures tally 1,022,000 lives. These men and women gave their very lives because they believed what our nation is built on. "We hold these truths as self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." (The Declaration of Independence.)

Where have we as a nation gone so wrong? Since 1973, Jan. 22nd, 11,600,000 babies have been aborted in the U.S.A. More lives than all our wars total, because the Supreme Court of our land, on Jan. 22, 1973 legalized abortion on demand. This unholy war waged on the unborn has reaped astronomical profits for doctors, institutions, and agencies performing abortions. This killing of the unborn babies is no longer a slow creeping disease in our society, but a malignant cancer that unless eliminated from existence has a prognosis of "terminal" for this present age, and man shall make himself, his own extinct species.

On this Jan. 22nd, maybe we could call or send a pretty card to someone we know who is pregnant and expecting a child. We could hug closer to us, our own children we love and share life with. Then each in his own way offer a prayer to God in memory of the 11,600,000 who will never know what it means to love or be loved.

From a seed New Life springs. Life, a rare jewel to behold; Yet far more precious than material things, A reflection of God, Himself, in each is told.

A Mother of Seven, Mrs. Millie Warner.

The first use of the prevailing wage concept (paying workers what the going rate is for the area) was for federal Navy yard workers in 1862, according to a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor, "Labor Firsts in America."

Dear Editor,

I am another "parent in this town," writing in response to a "Letter to the Editor" in the Jan. 12 issue of our local paper. I really felt a need to respond to "just one parent who lives in this town."

I have lived in Chelsea all my life, and I have always read our paper since I've been old enough to be interested. But, never felt the need to write a letter in response before. I don't believe that the editor should have even printed a letter of this nature.

I think that some people are speaking a little out of turn here. According to the way the article was written, this man was only charged, not convicted. However, too many people, like yourself, seem to bring judgment upon anybody whose name appears in our paper.

I don't think that you would have felt any more safe if this man would have been free on as much as $1,000,000. In fact, you would probably feel even more unsafe if you knew about some of the other, similar instances, that have happened locally, and yet never got to the police, and yet these men are out and about.

All too often, people are too quick to pass judgment. Usually, those are the ones that should be judged.

I'm sure that the judge has a better picture of what might have happened, better than you or I. I happen to have faith in the people running our town. We all pay these, more qualified, people to do this sort of work because that's what they were trained to do.

I certainly hope that this one person does not influence our whole town into being so quick to pass judgment. Instead, I would rather hope that the facts written in the article might open our eyes to take a second look around to be sure that we are all doing all that we possibly can to avoid any possible circumstances which could lead to this sort of situation.

My named is not important, only the facts are of importance, so you can sign me—

"Not the Judge."

NUTRITION SPOT CHECK: Co-operative Extension Service home economist Marian Prince has begun a project in the Chelsea School District whereby students in 9th grade requested to make a chart of a one-day dietary intake. Thereafter, the charts are computed and the findings analyzed. Upon completion of the analysis, Prince presents her findings to Chelsea High school students who have taken part in the class assignment. At this point, Prince explains that the girls participating in the study are eating poorly and there are serious concerns raised with their nutritional status. Boys, on the other hand, are taking in at least their minimum daily allowance of the 16 essential nutrients and some are even over-eating.

According to Prince, ninth graders are in a period of growth and consuming of the essential nutrients is crucial to future development.

★ Return of the Steam Locomotives
Most residents of rural America carry fond memories of the lonesome sound of locomotive whistles in the middle of the night. They were a part of the American way of life until the late 50s and early 60s when diesels replaced steam motive power on the rails.
As far as the public was concerned, the biggest problem with diesels was that they lacked the glamour and the visual impact of raw power projected by the steamers. And their sounds were unique as well; up close and at great distance. A steam whistle never has been successfully imitated.
Now there is the possibility that coal fired steam engines might return to the rails. The major reason is cost of fuel. When diesels were first introduced, fuel oil was cheap, but obviously that is no longer the case.
Now the economical fuel is coal, and American Coal Enterprises, Inc., of Akron, O., has a design on the drawing boards for a truly modern steam engine.
This one will not pollute like the old timers, no cinders and noxious gases in the exhaust, and it will recycle its water which will mean fewer stops. What is more, at today's fuel prices, it will be more efficient to operate than diesels.
The designers don't say what kind of whistle will be installed on the new machines, but where there's steam under pressure, it's always possible that sounds from the past may return to the countryside.

Swimmers Prepare for State Powers

The Chelsea High school-Adrian swimming meet scheduled to be held last week was postponed until Feb. 19 because of mechanical problems in the Maples' pool.

The swimmers tried to use the week for extra practices but their own pool difficulties at the end of the week forced the team out of the water.

Next week the swimmers will scrimmage Milan on Tuesday at 7 p.m. in a ninth and tenth grade meet. They will then swim against Lincoln on Thursday and Class B state power Fenton on Saturday.

The meet against Fenton could signal the end of Chelsea's 28-meet winning streak. "Fenton is as good or better than us on paper. They have four of the state's finest swimmers and two excellent divers. We will have to swim our best times of the year all the way down the line to hope to win," explained Coach Larry Reed.

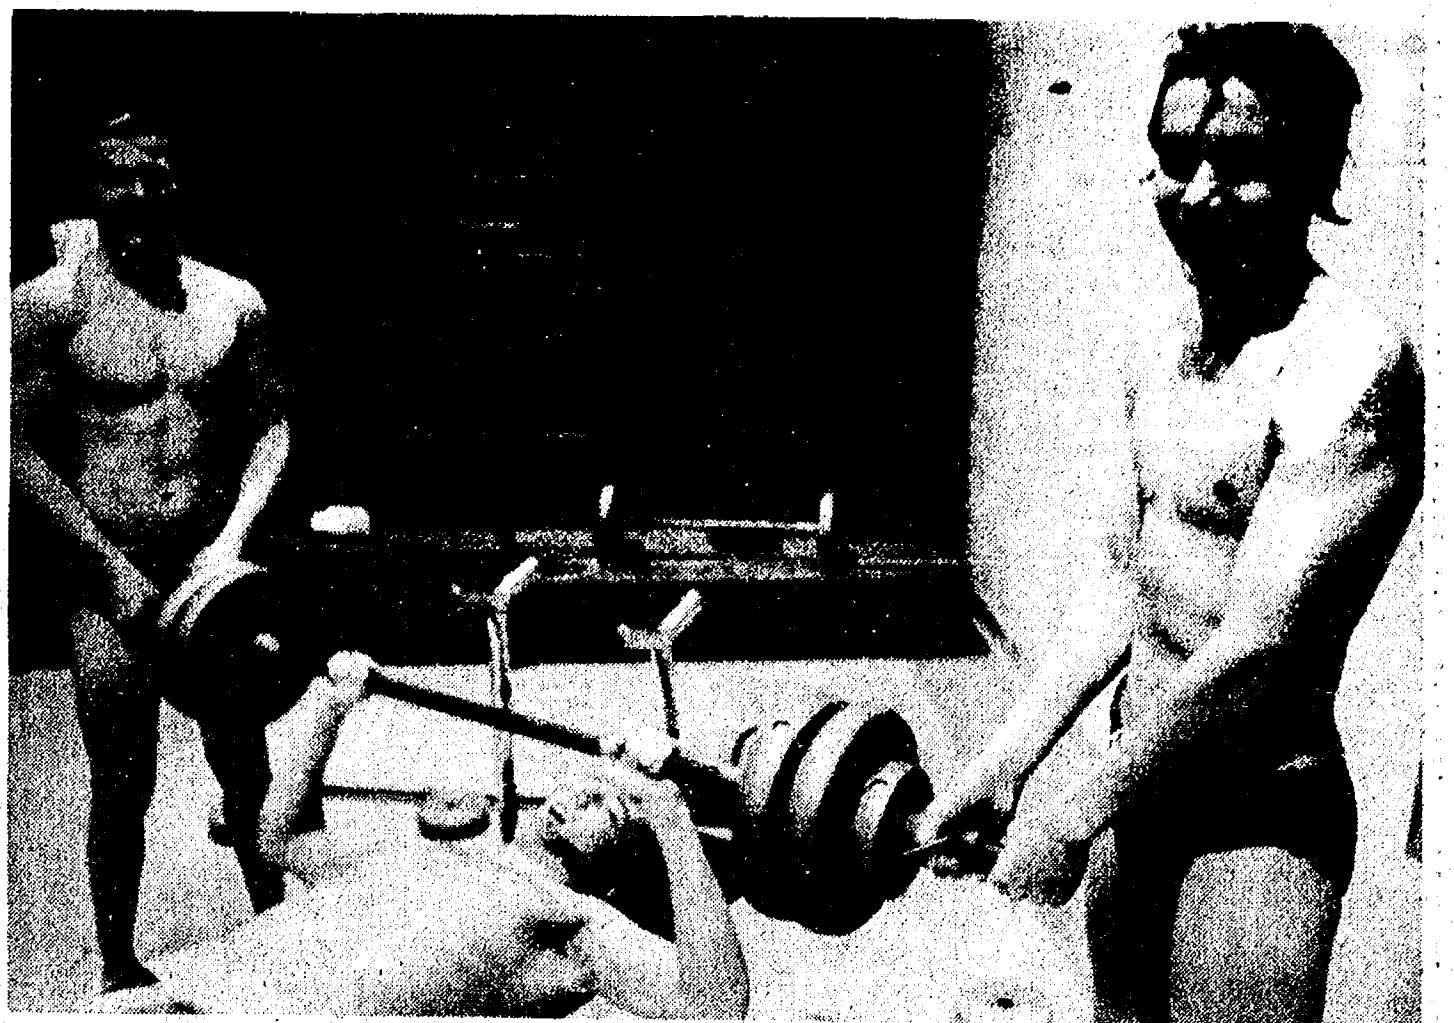

After that meet, Chelsea must face state powers Cherry Hill, Battle Creek Lakeview and Adrian.

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

The holidays are the downfall of many a dieter. At parties, one way to avoid piling up the calories is to substitute a tall glass of iced tea for rich egg-nogs, sweet cocktails or highballs. Iced tea has the big advantage of being practically calorie-free... so you can save over 100 calories per drink while still enjoying the party.

Swimmers of the Week

FEATURED SWIMMERS this week are, from left, Brent Bauer, Richard Merkel and Don Skiff. Skiff and Bauer are freshmen at Chelsea High school while Merkel is a sophomore. Skiff has steadily dropped his freestyle times in the 200, 100 and 50-yard events while Bauer has specialized in the butterfly event. Richard Merkel has dropped his times in the 200 and 100 freestyle and has also developed his butterfly and IM capabilities. "These three swimmers have to swim well if we are going to have a chance to win our freshmen, sophomore invitations later in the year," commented Coach Reed.

A 1978 graduate of Chelsea High school, he joined the Marine Corps in January 1979.

Cager of the Week

CARL PATE is this week's featured basketball player who performed his first starting role Tuesday against Howell where he turned in a performance of eight points and seven rebounds. As a junior, Pate is a 6'2" forward who, according to Coach Robin Raymond serves as a "garbage player" who picks up loose balls, offensive rebounds and all available points. "He's in the right place at the right time and provides the team with an added dimension. He's a self-made player who works hard," Raymond explained. In addition to basketball, Pate also plays football.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., DDS, P.C.

DOES PREGNANCY CAUSE TOOTH DECAY?

Once and for all, let's put the myth to rest. Pregnancy does NOT cause tooth decay. It is easy to see where certain factors may lead to this erroneous conclusion. During pregnancy, women tend to be busier preparing for the upcoming birth. Once the baby arrives, she is even busier. Instead of six months, it may be a year or more between visits. Obviously, more dental work will be discovered in a period of one or two years than in a six-month checkup.

Of course, women experience certain hormonal changes during pregnancy. These changes may produce a temporary condition of puffiness or bleeding of the gums. This condition is called "pregnancy gingivitis" and can be controlled by keeping the mouth "preventive clean" by the proper use of brushing and floss.

Equally false is the notion that baby robs the mother's teeth of calcium. The composition of adult teeth cannot be changed once fully formed. Babies may be responsible for stretch marks—but not dental decay.

If you have dental health questions you would like to see answered, please mail them to the address below.

A public service with the aim of promoting a better dental health environment. From the office of: ROBERT A. BURNS, JR., D.D.S., P.C., Chelsea Professional Building, 1200 S. Main St., Chelsea, Phone: 475-9124.
