THE FUTURE OF FEDERAL SCREW WORKS, located in Chelsea for more than a half century, may be decided by the rank and file Thursday as members of UAW Local 437 vote to either reject or accept concessions deemed necessary to keep the local business in Chelsea.

Crucial Contract Bargaining Sessions Now Underway

In 1913, M. J. Dunkel, an automatic machine expert first affiliated with the Grant-Wood Manufacturing Co., came to Chelsea with an authorized capital of $18,000 and organized the Chelsea Screw Co. As president of the new company, Dunkel's associates included P. G. Girbach, vice-president, and Conrad Lehman, secretary-treasurer.

The first factory was located in the present Longworth Plating Building. By 1915, additional space was deemed necessary and the company erected the first unit (40 x 100 ft.) of a new factory building on S. Main St. The rapid growth of Chelsea Screw Co. necessitated recapitalization in 1916 to $50,000; the election of Edward Vogel as vice-president followed.

In 1928, the company was purchased by Federal Screw Works, which is currently undergoing contract negotiations with its Chelsea work force. After reaching a series of concessions that appeared fair to both union workers and the Federal Screw administration, both active workers and those laid off will gather Thursday, March 4 to vote on whether or not to accept the Federal Screw-requested contract concessions.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION: Reuben Lesser is congratulated by Chelsea Kiwanis Club President John Morris after receiving a special commendation from the Michigan Legislature, signed by Michigan Gov. Six Seeking Three Village Trustee Posts In Monday's Election

With an end to the caucus system of selecting political candidates and a petition drive that ended last month with a total of 11 persons (six incumbents) announcing their candidacy, Chelsea voters will take to the polls Monday, March 8 to select those persons deemed most capable to carry on the duties of village government.

Seeking the unopposed position of Village President is John W. Merkel, a lifetime resident of the community and president of Merkel Bros., Inc. Merkel is a member of St. Mary's church and a library board trustee, a position he will resign upon taking office as president. He also serves as a member of the board of directors of both Hospice of Washtenaw and Chelsea State Bank. Merkel is a past president of the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce.

At last week's Chamber of Commerce-sponsored "Candidates Night," interested electors heard Merkel explain that Chelsea's most prevalent problem is the economy. Encouraging economic growth was explained as the best way to deal with this problem. Secondly, Merkel cited the outdated wastewater facilities of the village; outdated five years ago in his opinion. The future of the village, according to Merkel is dependent on the active search for a broader economic base while maintaining jobs for residents. Nevertheless, should Chelsea become a "bedroom community," that may not prove to be detrimental. The possibilities of high technology industries in the area is good.

The role of downtown Chelsea in the village's total development requires that revitalization takes place. Downtown's appearance must be improved and a strong merchant's association must be organized. Controlled growth is necessary, according to Merkel.

When questioned about how Chelsea will evolve as affected by the collapse of the auto industry, Merkel explained that would depend on the village and the industry's ability to compete with Japanese counterparts. If no competitive base is reached, the local auto-related industries will diminish.

Six candidates will vye for three positions as village trustees. Three of these candidates, Stephanie Kanten, Loren Keezer and Joseph Merkel are incumbents seeking their second terms in this capacity. Kanten is a lifetime resident of Chelsea and a graduate of Chelsea High school and Olivet College. She has taught elementary school in Dexter and has served as a teacher representative in negotiations, served as a representative liaison to administration and has conducted in-service training for her colleagues. She is married to Wynn Kanten. She did not attend Candidates Night.

Loren Keezer is a 1959 graduate of Chelsea High school and a lifelong village resident. He attended Michigan State University and served in the U. S. Navy, honorably discharged in 1967.

Keezer has served as Chelsea Village Clerk (1972 and 1973) and has served as Post Commander of the American Legion Post No. 31.

He is employed at Chelsea Milling Co. and he and his wife, Nancy, have two children.

At Candidates Night, Keezer cited the possibilities of losing all local industries as the basic problem facing the village as well as the outdated sewer and water services. Chelsea's evolution will be based on the recovery and enlargement of the tax base.

According to Keezer, the role of downtown should continue to be maintained as the center of activity and energy problems pose little threat to the village while the area is extremely dependent on the auto industry.

The third incumbent candidate seeking his second term as village trustee is Joseph Merkel, an active businessman and lifetime resident of Chelsea.

Merkel has served on the Chelsea Community Fair Board for a number of years and is a member of the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club, American Legion Post No. 31, Loyal Order of Moose Lodge No. 1253, and the Knights of Columbus Council.

Sewer and water treatment and management was cited by Merkel as the most prevalent problem facing the village as far as the possibilities of expansion and growth are concerned. The future of the village is dependent on finding a way to keep local residents from moving elsewhere while pooling resources and offering employees benefits that will keep them here.

High technology development should be considered as should the possibilities of a research park in the immediate area. The business district (downtown Chelsea) should provide additional parking in order to attract additional patronage.

After trying unsuccessfully last year to secure a position as trustee, Ishmael Picklesimer has lived in Chelsea for 35 years and he and his wife, Mae, have seven children. After 35 years of employment, Picklesimer retired from his position at Rockwell International last May.

While at Rockwell, Picklesimer was active in UAW Local 437 and is a member of the Chelsea Planning Commission where he has played an active part. He served in the U. S. Navy and is a member of the Chelsea Fire Department, the Michigan Firefighters Association, the Masonic Lodge and the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club.

He is not dissatisfied with the current village government but explains that it is his civil duty to serve the community. Being retired, Picklesimer explains that he has the time to devote to community interests and the welfare of the village.

Herman Radloff has lived in and around this area for most of his life. He and his wife, Margaret, moved to Chelsea three years ago.

Radloff has been employed at Killins Concrete Co. in Ann Arbor for 12 years, where he serves as sales manager and quality control. He is a member of the First United Methodist church of Chelsea where he is a member of the board of trustees. He is on the finance committee and is also in charge of the grounds committee at the church.

Currently obtaining membership in the Chelsea Kiwanis Club, Radloff has always been a very active person in the community.

At the recent Candidates Night, Radloff left early, complaining of chest pains and after a few days of hospitalization was diagnosed to be fine and fully capable to seek the office of village trustee.

Jeanene Riemenschneider is the sixth candidate seeking election as village trustee. A lifetime resident of Chelsea, Riemenschneider has taken a real interest in community affairs as evidenced by her past involvement in many community organizations. She has served on the United Way board and part of that term found her in the position of vice-president. She has been on St. Mary's Parish Council and has been a CCD teacher for three years.

Since 1978, she has been on the board of the Friends of the Chelsea Players and is holding a second term as treasurer. She is very involved in the Chelsea Community Hospital Auxiliary and has been a past vice-president of finance. For the past 11 years, she has been extremely active in Modern Mothers Child Study Club, holding several offices on the executive board, including its presidency.

Stating a desire to become involved in local politics, Riemenschneider believes that her past organizational and

The Sunday opening will be on an experimental basis for the first few months and is designed for leisurely browsing. No office staff will be present.

"More than 60 percent of our customers drive here from Ann Arbor," said Merkel. "The increasing majority are single professionals or couples with working wives."

While at U. of D., Ernst was awarded the American Student Dental Association award for preventive dentistry and was affiliated with the Delta Sigma Delta dental fraternity. He served as co-chairman of the fraternity-sponsored Blind Children's Clinic for two years and served as an officer in several fraternity positions.

Prior to the purchase of the Burns' practice, Dr. Ernst was associated with two separate dental practices in the city of Warren.

Supreme Court Takes Jurisdiction of Reapportionment
The state Supreme Court has agreed to hear arguments regarding legislative reapportionment which will determine the state Senate and House districts for the next 10 years beginning with the 1982 election.

The court, in Reapportionment of the Michigan Legislature -1982, will begin the hearing process to consider various plans, hear arguments on what authority the court has to adopt a plan and, if a majority of the court is unable to adopt a specific plan, what the consequences will be.

The Commission on Legislative Apportionment, unable to agree to a plan, notified the court who, in turn, accepted the case.

Separate motions were filed by Democrats and Republicans asking the court to adopt guidelines for finalizing a plan.

A. Robert Kleiner, the Democratic co-chair of the commission, said he believes the court will receive all proposed plans and take jurisdiction over additional proposals and assume auditing by the secretary of state and other procedures to adopt a final plan.

The reapportionment commission, composed of four Democratic and four Republican members had been considering plans for the past few months and had officially reached a stalemate. At the point, the plans went to the Court for final determination.

With the politically sensitive issue of reapportionment, neither party is assured a majority of the court.

Three members of the court were elected after being nominated by the Republican party, two were elected after being nominated by the Democratic party. Two others had originally been in the Democratic party but won election to their current terms without being nominated by the party.

Mortgage Money Made Available From Pension Funds

Loren Monroe, state treasurer, announced that the state will commit $50 million from state administered pension funds to mortgage funds in an effort to stimulate Michigan's home building industry.

The mortgages will be made available at a 14.78 percent interest rate which, when discount points are added, will net the pension funds a return of 15.9 percent.

Mortgage rates from commercial lenders are hovering around 17 percent.

Monroe explained that the program will earn a fair rate of return for the pension funds, put some building employees back to work and provide lower cost

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night convinced themselves that good common sense and intelligence is like the east and west that never meet. Zeke Grubb's actual motion was that there ain't room in one head for both, and it passed unanimously. Zeke said he has took note that intellectuals are pets of the papers, and: ever time you read where they said or done somepun it is half baked or full blown crazy.

Fer instant, Zeke went on, we saw recent where everybody in Poland but the intellectuals is mad at the United States fer holding back grain shipments. The papers said the intellectuals believe this move will force the authorities to lift martial law. Without going into the question of how many intellectuals the reporters talked to, Zeke said, it is safe to say that in Poland or anywhere if the intellectuals like it you better take a hard look at it.

Practical speaking, Bug Hookum said, it must take more common sense than he's got to spot an intellectual. He said he saw a feller talking on television recent, and he wonders now if he was one. He was claiming that handgun control that started a few weeks ago in the Chicago suburb of Morton Grove is going to save this country from self-destruction. That very same night, Bug went on, another feller that was dressed like intellectuals you see pictured in the papers said on TV that what is happening in Poland can happen in any country that has strict gun control laws, and that only the right of Americans to bear arms saves us from a fate worse than Warsaw. Bug said that no man with any common sense thinks a Saturday night special in ever pocket is just what Solidarity needs to scare them tanks away. And who in his right mind will say taking guns away from everybody but crooks and police will put an end to crime, Bug wanted to know. He pegged both of them fellers fer intellectuals.

Zeke wanted to know if there is a test fer intellectual, like fer TB, and that's what got Ed Doolittle started. Ed said there is, but they're not foolproof. A feller that teaches agriculture to students planning to teach agriculture is a intellectual farmer fer sure, Ed said, and a intellectual economist is one that uses the same questions and changes the answers with ever consumer price index. Usual, Ed went on, a intellectual politician has run fer the same office three times and lost with fewer votes ever time, but this is not a sure sign. Onct in a while the system fails and he wins. Any bureaucrat that can write 150 or more pages of instruction fer using the office duplicating machine earns the right to be called a intellectual, Ed allowed.

Final, Clem Webster said two fellers that recent worked out a way to tell in seconds if numbers with as many as 100 digits are prime and can't be divided by any other numbers but one and themselves have to be intellectuals, cause who else cares. Mister Editor, if we spot a intelligent looking type out this way we'll hold him long enough fer you to git out here and run some tests.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

ABWA Members Hear Panel Discuss Criminal Sexual Assault

Preceding the meeting, 19 Chelsea Charter Chapter American Business Women's Association members and eight guests enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner at the Wolverine Lounge Tuesday, Feb. 23.

Guest speakers Chelsea Police Chief Aeillo, Ken Arney, Director of Social Services at Chelsea Community Hospital and William Delhey, Washtenaw County Prosecuting Attorney, conducted a panel discussion concerning criminal sexual conduct on women and children. Other guests included Mrs. Aeillo, Mary Gaken, Kathy Powers, Paula Blieske and Holly Porter.

Speaker Delhey explained the definition of statutory rape and what determines the degree of the crime under which the crime is charged. He gave examples of what is involved in a first, second, third and fourth degree criminal sexual offense. First degree statutory rape, if found guilty, carries a life sentence. Second, third and fourth degrees carry a 15-year sentence, if found guilty. In all cases it is important that the crime is reported immediately—do not destroy evidence.

Delhey said that many times by the time the crime has been reported much of the evidence has been destroyed by changing clothes, taking a bath and the like. One of the crimes it is hard to prosecute is domestic violence in that the victim remains silent many times, and without the evidence, cannot be prosecuted.

Police Chief Aeillo gave a very interesting outline of the work done by his department once a complaint is received in a sexual assault. He said that it is very important to report the crime at once, also reiterating what Delhey had said about the destruction of evidence. He also told the women that only one out of five such crimes is reported, especially domestic violence.

After receiving work from the hospital where the victim has gone for treatment, the officers interview the victim and follow it up with investigation from the information gathered, using physical evidence. An examination is given to the victim to determine if any injury has been done.

Usually there is great emotional strain but victims are asked to try to remember everything about the person committing the crime. More emotional strain will follow since the victim has to testify and because of delays, hearings and testimony this also adds to the strain.

Aeillo commended the County Sheriff's Department, especially the female officers in their co-operation and their interrogation of the women and children involved. It is easier for a child or woman to talk to a woman officer and disclosing the evidence.

Ken Arney, Director of Social Services at Chelsea Community Hospital, is involved also in the questioning and treatment of the victims when they are brought to the hospital. He also indicated that domestic violence is a silent crime. He will help the victim by having someone from the crisis center personnel come to the hospital to talk to them. It has been found that rape victims will speak freely with someone from the Adult Crisis Center. Many women think they do not have a right to protect themselves and the person from the crisis center can point out to them what their rights are. Ken said they co-operate with the law enforcement agencies in that they immediately notify the officers when a victim is brought into the hospital for treatment. He said he is often called in the night when a victim is brought in to the hospital. He also praised the Chelsea Police Department in the handling of assault victims.

Following the discussion a question and answer period followed which was appreciated by the women. The women were also told that classes for self-protection against assault are given about every six months. Check with the police or sheriff's department for date and place.

At the close of the meeting, President Judy Moisan announced that March is Enrollment Event and chairman of the event is Mickey Quackenbush, assisted by Jan Brown and Jeannie Atkinson. Special events chairman Shirley Schneider and her committee, Fran Zatorsky and Shirley Case are planning a Bridal Luncheon Flower Show to be held April 14 at 1 p.m. in the Chelsea High school cafeteria. Tickets for the event will be available from Chapter members soon at a cost of $5 each.

Katie Chapman gave the invocation and Geraldine Sullivan gave the benediction.

March 23 is the date of the next meeting. Guest speaker will be Chuck Jennings of Old Kent Bank, Grand Rapids. His topic will be "Is Affirmative Action Working for You?" Guests are always welcome.

NOW Chapter Plans Discussion of Work On Peace Issues

Ann Arbor-Washtenaw chapter of the National Organization for Women will be holding its monthly general meeting on Tuesday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m. at the Unitarian church, 1917 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor.

Topic for the evening will be "Should Peace be a Feminist Issue?"

Following a slide presentation, guest speaker Margorie Lansing, Professor of Political Science at Eastern Michigan University, will discuss her research on men's and women's attitudes toward the issue of peace. An open forum discussion will follow.

Given the present population trends, the future available work force will not be adequate. In fact, if current labor market trends continue, by 2020 there will be three workers for every 10 retirees of unemployed older persons.

Half-Day of School Scheduled March 18

On March 18, school will be dismissed for students at 11:30 a.m. However, in the afternoon, instructional staff will be going back to the classroom. Victor Verchereau Heads Farm Bureau Young Farmers

Victor J. Verchereau, 22, formerly of Chelsea, has been named manager of the Young Farmer Department of the Michigan Farm Bureau. He has served as Michigan Farm Bureau regional representative in the southwest area of the state since November 1980.

Verchereau took on the new responsibilities in early January but continued to work in the five-county Southwest Region until a replacement was named. He moved to Lansing at the end of January.

Jim Luginbill, who was regional representative in the Northwest Region, moved into the Mendon area in February. He will work with leaders from Berrien, Cass, St. Joseph, Van Buren and Kalamazoo County Farm Bureaus as MFB regional representative.

Verchereau brings many leadership experiences to his new job, including having served as a former state president of the Future Farmers of America. In working with the Young Farmer program, he hopes to tie the organizations more closely together.

He says that while FFA teaches young men and women to look ahead, to set goals and to dream of reaching their highest potential, Farm Bureau's Young Farmer program is the mode of transportation to reach those goals and potential and to continue leadership growth begun in FFA.

Verchereau was raised in the Chelsea area where he attended Chelsea High school and became active in the local FFA chapter. After attending Washtenaw Community College, he became Michigan FFA's national officer candidate before being hired by Michigan Farm Bureau.

Beach Swimmers Take 2nd at Milan Meet

Beach Middle school swimmers finished second to rival Milan in the state's largest junior high invitational. Chelsea scored 276 points, Monroe 189, Erl-Mason 179, Dundee 46 and Flat Rock 37.

The swimmers had many best times and improved their places from where they were seeded to where they finished consistently. "No one went down in seeds, they stayed the same or improved," commented Coach Larry Reed.

In the first event, Beach placed its "A" medley relay team of Craig Miller, Paula Kuzon, Darrin Girard and Mark Westoven third, and their "B" relay of Jennifer Colvin, Kim Clutter, Jeff Mason and Sue Schmunk, sixth.

In the 200 freestyle, Joe Eassa improved his time by 39 seconds to finish 12th, Paul Robbins had a best time and finished ninth, Laura Stephens improved to third and Paula Colombo was the highest finishing girl with a second place award.

In the 100 IM, Beth Paddock dropped her time 10 seconds to finish 13th, Darrin Girard improved to ninth place, Jennifer Colvin dropped her time six seconds to finish eighth, and Scott Pryor improved by three seconds and was third.

In the 50 freestyle, Doug Jankuski improved an amazing six seconds in the 50 freestyle. Also swimming well in the 50 free were Paula Kuzon, ninth; Mark Westoven, seventh; and Danny Degener was first.

In diving, Chelsea was ninth with Mark Westoven's performance, followed by Danny Dent who placed 12th.

The 50-yard butterfly proved to be Chelsea's next best event with Paula Colombo second, Scott Pryor third, Darrin Girard sixth and Jeff Mason eighth.

In the 100 free, Matt Ryan dropped his time seven seconds, and Paul Robbins was 12th, Laura Stephens fourth, and Danny Degener second.

In the 100 backstroke, there were some closely contested races with surprises for Chelsea. Craig Miller swam a great race and was second, Jennifer Colvin improved her time to finish sixth, and Danny Dent swam well to finish eighth. Cherie Alexander improved to place 12th.

The breaststroke race has been weak for Chelsea all year but the swimmers in this event improved Saturday to move close to first place. They were Mark Ahrens, Drew Hubal, Kim Clutter and Paula Kuzon who finished sixth.

Chelsea's depth showed in the freestyle relays as Scott Pryor, Laura Stephens, Paul Robbins and Paula Colombo finished second and Craig Miller, Jeff Mason, Sue Schmunk and Danny Degener finished third.

Over-all this has to be one of Chelsea's best junior high performances. "We would have liked to have won, but we swam and raced well and if that can't get you first, then you can't worry about it," concluded Reed.

Farm exports—about $45 billion in 1981—are the single most positive factor in the agricultural trade.

Good Things Growing In Michigan

By Margaret G. McCall
Michigan apples are as much a staple of my kitchen as potatoes, cheese, beans and bacon. It's easy to praise the versatile apple, one of the many good things growing in Michigan.

According to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, unfavorable spring weather hurt Michigan's 1981 apple crop, which dropped 28 percent to a total of 640 million pounds. But you'll still find a plentiful supply at your local grocery, thanks to modern controlled atmosphere storage which keeps apples fresh all through the winter months.

Apples are a nutritious, healthful food, good for snacks, desserts, salads, casseroles, and along with meats. For example, baked apples make breakfast a special meal, provide a delicious finale to dinner, or surround a pork roast elegantly. They can be made ahead at your convenience, refrigerated and then reheated when needed.

Here's a delightfully different apple pie recipe, using such good Michigan products as eggs, cream, sugar and butter, as well as apples.

Thinly slice about 3 cups peeled Michigan apples, and sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of lemon juice to retain color. Place in a 9-inch pie shell, which you have partially pre-baked (this insures a flaky, crisp crust). Beat 2 large eggs, add 1 cup heavy cream, ¾ cup sugar, and 2 tablespoons melted butter. Mix thoroughly, pour over the sliced apples. Sprinkle about a half-teaspoon cinnamon or nutmeg over the top. Bake the pie at 450 degrees for 15 minutes, reduce oven heat to 325 degrees and continue baking until filling is set (about half an hour). Serve warm with a wedge of Michigan cheddar cheese.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Dear Sir:

I came across this article in the Atlanta, Ga. Constitution on Feb. 15, and ask that you print it in its entirety. The column was written by Ron Hudspeth, a journalist on the Constitution's staff and brings to a new level of consciousness the hurts and concerns of family members of the accused.

CHILD DESCRIBES DAY HER DADDY JAILED

We hear and read about crime and we cry for vengeance. Much of the lawlessness seems to have little rhyme or reason other than pure meanness and insanity.

When a scoundrel is caught and sentenced to jail we cheer and breathe a sigh of relief. Maybe, after all, our society isn't hellbent for destruction because of the lawless among us.

But there is a flip side of this story.

Christy Ladson is an 8-year-old who lives in Waycross with her mother and brother and sister.

Christy's daddy was recently sentenced to a long prison term. Whether or not it was deserved is really not the question here.

The concern is the effect it is having on an 8-year-old who knows only that she loves her daddy very much and does not understand the ways of an adult world.

Christy has written a letter: "The Day My Daddy Went to Prison."

"I started to ask that our names be withheld, but to her that would be like admitting we're ashamed of who we are," says Christy's mother. "I'm very proud of her. This can't help her or her daddy other than giving her back some self-respect. But maybe it will help some other little girl."

Christy's story:

"One night my daddy went to jail. It was the saddest day of my entire life. I cried and cried, my heart was broken. No joy was in the house that day. I miss a lot about him like walks to the river. And walks in the woods. Wrestling with him. And a lot more things. Oh how I miss him."

"How would you feel if your daddy was in jail? I pray for him every night. It really feels bad for one of your loved ones to be in jail. We write letters to each other."

"Our car has broke down. Sherry is taking us to the bus stop. But she has to go to work. We have to stand out there and wait for the bus. Mother has to walk back home, which is about three miles from the bus stop. It is very hard for us. Sometimes I wish I was dead. If this happening to your family, what would you do? What if you were in jail?"

"When daddy went to jail, Mark, Sandy, mother and I cried our hearts out. I went to my room and laid on my bed and cried all day long. It was terrible. How would you feel if your child was dead?"

"I'm writing this letter to show you how I feel. I love my daddy very much. How do you feel about this? Well, I feel terrible. Well, that's the story of my daddy in jail. The end."

Sad, indeed. A child visibly torn by an adult world beyond her comprehension.

"Maybe," says the mother, "one judge will read it. Maybe he'll think before he passes down an overwhelmingly unnecessary sentence, and remember that more than one life is going to be affected by it."

"And maybe, just maybe, some other little girl somewhere won't have to go through what this one did. Maybe she won't feel that she is being punished. Then this letter will not have been in vain."

Rev. R.J. Ratcliff, Pastor Covenant Church

Dear Mr. Editor:

This letter should really be written to The Editor and Mrs. Warner, as she seems to be trying to take on his job of editorializing.

Mrs. Warner makes it sound as if these men who have been tried and convicted of offenses should be merely slapped on the wrist and say "poor boy, we understand, just don't do it again." Her tenure as Acting Catholic Chaplain at Cassidy Lake hardly makes her an expert on criminology. How would you feel, Mrs. Warner, if one of your children or grandchildren were one of the persons molested?

I would dare say you would not be so forgiving to the "alleged" criminals as you state in your numerous letters to the editor.

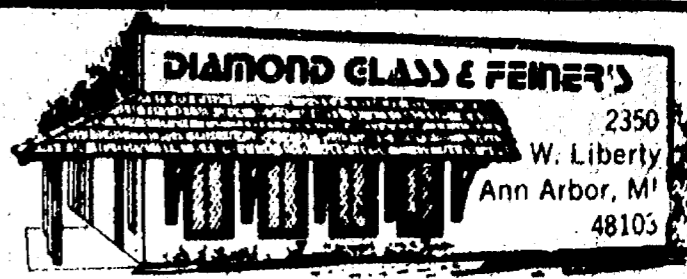

I too, like Mrs. Warner, feel for the families of the accused. I realized that these families have to live with what their relative has done, but it is not their fault. It is hardly the fault of Chelsea's accused molester's family, but why did someone break out the front windows of her house and turn off their gas? I feel for the wife and child of this man. They have to live here, but what about the man responsible? Is the court going to say "don't do it again" and let him go? I hope not as I have lived here for most of my life.

Also, Mrs. Warner, you wrote two letters. I will try to combine my answer in one. Ms. Fortner was making a very valid point in her letter. The matter of an abortion is a very personal choice. Myself, I do not believe in abortion except in a case of rape or incest. I could not live with myself if I ever had one, but I think it is a choice that each individual woman has to make and she has to live with herself whatever choice she has made.

I am sorry, Mrs. Warner, but I do not have the way with words you seem to have. I cannot sign my name to this letter as so many other mothers have not been able, as my child spent almost a year being taken care of in the alleged molester's home. I still have to live here too and I do not want to think that some day my child may be retaliated against in some way because I wrote a letter. So I will just sign myself,

A very concerned Mother of Five!

School Music Week Observed

The week of March 1 through March 6 is observed on a national basis as "Music in Our Schools." The question, "Why music?" is often asked in these pressing economic times. In a battle of balancing budgets and dwindling dollars, music programs face serious cutbacks, if not complete elimination.

The benefits of a fine school music program go far beyond adding excitement to athletic events, graduations and community gatherings. They extend further than the pride gained in first place ratings and thrilling audiences. There is more to music than the discipline and responsibilities of a group seeking a blue ribbon.

The benefits lie in enriching an individual's life through participation in art. As a musician, the individual is a part of the creation of art. The music on paper is a part of that creation as the musician brings it to life for listeners.

Civilization and culture are not defined in terms of numbers, weapons or big business deals. When we think of the Greeks, we marvel at their music, drama and art. Through the art, we discover what the people of that era felt about the world, its future and hopes. The performance of music allows us to better appreciate the mind of the classical composer as it allows the 18th century man's emotion to speak to the 20th century violinist. Music helps the student express himself through performance of music of Palestrina to Chuck Mangione. Music speaks to the performer and allows the performer to release his soul through melody to the world.

Imagine a world void of music. It is inescapable. Music is in our cars, movies, elevators, stores, athletic events, coronations, weddings, it welcomes heroes and proclaims births and deaths. When we sent examples of our world into outer space, Beethoven's Fifth Symphony was included. With music, 100 musicians can be assembled from all over the world and they can all deliver the message of the composer to any audience.

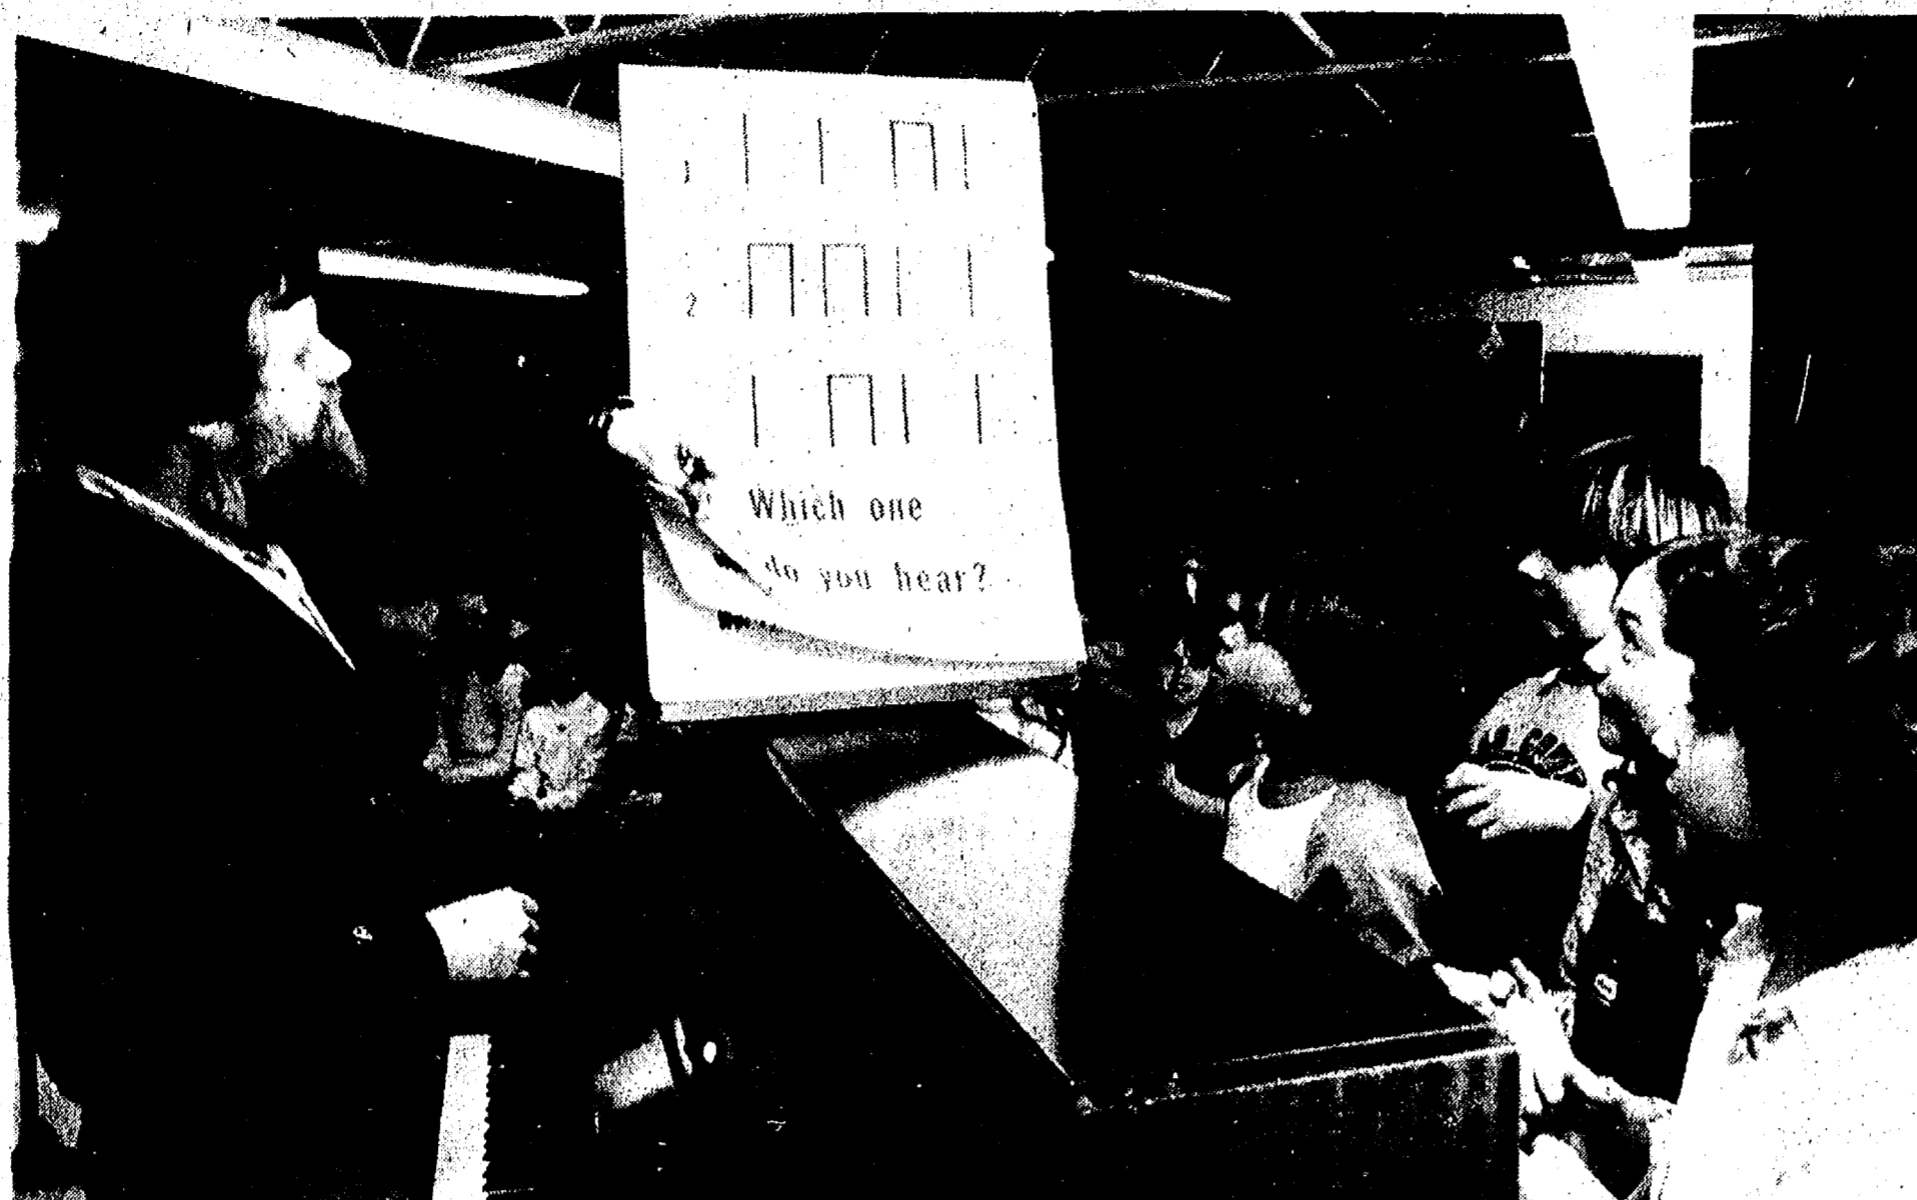

Music is a medium through which our children can express themselves. It allows them the opportunity to enjoy a rich life and to better understand their fellow man both in the past and present. Music goes beyond the shiny new instruments and cheering crowds. It allows us to better understand ourselves, express ourselves and makes us part of civilization and culture, the very heart of human existence.

John Adams said his "generation fights for freedom so his children could study the sciences, and allow his grandchildren to understand humanity through the arts." Unfortunately we have not yet realized Adams' dreams but we still try in the pursuit of music.

With all philosophies aside, "Why music?" For the simple pleasure it brings.

Music in Chelsea reaches to all ages, beginning in the elementary schools. Ron Harris serves as director of music in the elementary grades and travels between North and South Elementary schools preparing and involving students in all forms of music.

From the elementary schools, music students may progress to the Beach Middle school band, under the direction of Warren Mayer. The sixth to eighth grades are the foundation building years for young band students. Both Mayer and Bill Gourley begin instructing students in the summer preceding entrance into the sixth grade. Then, the students enjoy class lessons every other day during the school year and develop a great deal of discipline while learning to enjoy music.

RON HARRIS, director of music at the elementary school level, drills children on discerning various musical notes and sounds. Taking

At the seventh and eighth grade levels, students prepare for five parades and five concerts each year.

High school band involvement is the next step in the development of Chelsea's fine musicians. The Chelsea High school bands are called the "Pride of Chelsea," not only a descriptive name given them by the community but also an action phrase, a result of the following: Practice, Responsibility, Improvement, Discipline and Excellence.

Practicing music not only makes the fingers work faster but give a sense of personal accomplishment when a piece is mastered. Showing responsibility includes all areas of life. Being on time, showing leadership and being trustworthy are also qualities involved in the band program. Consistent improvement is also a top priority to a bandsman and discipline not only includes obeying the rules but also showing maturity, a good attitude and using good judgment. Excellence in every area is a requirement.

The pride that Chelsea has for the band has always been well-deserved and the band, itself, works to maintain with confidence, the title it has received.

Under the direction of Bill Gourley, the CHS marching band takes to the football field to entertain the crowd with its talents of marching and music each September and October. The band marches 104 members strong.

Countless hours are spent on drilling and practicing the show, including "band camp" which is held late in August. This hard work culminates in performances at home football games, community parades and District 12 marching band festival. For the past two years, the marching band has received a Division I rating at festival. Other band activities have included performances at the U-M Marching Band Competition, Adrian College, "Band Day" at the University of Michigan and Michigan State University and twice at Eastern Michigan football games.

Another part of the band program is the CHS colorguard, directed by Phil Jones and consisting of 16 female band members. This group is selected at try-outs held in the spring and practices throughout the summer and fall.

In a large organization such as the Chelsea High school band, administration is a necessity and much of this is done by a group of students called the Band Council, with elections made by fellow band members.

This year's members include Tracy Bohlender, president; Marie Sullivan, vice-president; Bethel Snyder, secretary; Bob Benedict, treasurer; Jeff Hagar, Ken Roskowski, Thad Bell, Jeff Martin, Lisa Von Wald, Mark Henson and David Bareis, class representatives, selected to voice their class' opinions and ideas to the Band Council.

The Band Council has many odd jobs to fulfill. Its major function, however, includes organizing social functions, supervising publicity, handling finances and representing band students.

For some people, the jump from one athletic event to the next would be too much to handle; not so for the CHS pep band which plays in front of the home team crowd at both football and basketball games, cheering Chelsea to victory. The pep band also plays at CHS' pep rallies.

Directed by Phil Powers, the pep band has progressed to the point of marching on the basketball court during half-time as well as playing as the teams warm up.

The Chelsea orchestra, directed by Kevin Miller, has grown immensely since its beginning nine years ago. It is highlighted by several public concerts each season as well as participation at Okemos High school, Eastern Michigan University and the University of Michigan. Last year alone, the orchestra presented a total of 14 performances.

Other activities in which the group participates include the Michigan State Band and Orchestra Association Solo and Ensemble Festival and Orchestra Festival. This year, the orchestra was invited to perform at the Midwestern Conference at Hill Auditorium.

One of the lesser-known groups in the Chelsea band program is the jazz band. Organized three years ago when the school's symphony band travelled to Mexico, the jazz band has shown marked improvement.

The group meets one or two times weekly and is composed of persons in the band, orchestra and non-music programs and is directed by CHS senior Zack Smith who has co-ordinated the group since its inception.

In addition to learning to play a new style of music, the jazz band members also improve their all-around techniques at each rehearsal.

When Tamara Barbret took over the position of choir director in Chelsea five years ago, there was one high school choir involving 30 students. Today, there are five choral groups that, when combined, consist of 250 students. These groups are the Beach Middle school choir and the Beach small ensemble, the high school SATB (70 students) and SSA (50 students) choirs and the Contemporaries (15 students).

The choirs perform four public concerts each year and perform many out-of-school activities including the Michigan School Vocal Association Solo and Ensemble Festival and the MSVA Choir Festival.

Another aspect of the choral department is the CHS musical which is produced each spring. Although auditions for the musical are open to the entire schools, approximately 70 percent of the cast members are members of one of the choirs.

their chances are, foreground, Julie Tobias, Cory Tremper, Tommy Meshard and Casey Ruthenberg, background.

When asked to comment on the choirs and their contributions to the music department, Mrs. Barbret explained, "I'm really amazed at the way the choirs have grown over the past few years. A choir involves a lot of team-work and because of the responsibility involved, it really helps to build the participants' characters and to give them confidence in the groups and in themselves. It's really great working with such a dedicated group and in a community where music is so greatly supported. It seems to be important to a great number of people."

In addition to the performance organization of the Chelsea schools, the Music Boosters enhance the total program of the district. This organization is comprised of band and orchestra parents and will include parents of choral students next year.

A music booster may be found selling snow cones in the summer, feeding students at band camp, passing out uniforms, selling fruit cakes, attending performances, chauffeuring children to countless rehearsals, assisting in fund raisers and so forth.

This group of dedicated parents is invaluable to a successful music program in the schools and their support and hard work has enabled the music programs to reach their present success.

According to Chelsea Superintendent of Schools, Ray Van Meer, "I am very pleased with the student participation and the level of competency as exhibited by our music instructors. I am also very appreciative of the parental support of the music program, and the organized support of the music boosters."

"The Chelsea schools have reason to be proud of the accomplishments of the music students, partially measured by their festival ratings and by their individual growth and development," concludes Van Meer.

Popular Salad Bar

Approximately 600 Chelsea High school students build their own salad weekly at the cafeteria's salad bar.

Government Classes Form Mock Congress

Two parties have been formed for a mock United States Congress by Chelsea High school seniors in their U. S. government classes. Presiding officers of this simulation activity as Speakers of the House are Cinda Thornton and Zack Smith while Presidents of the Senate are Dan Kleis and Tim Whitesall.

Floor leaders for the Democrats are Missi Arnett, Amy Eisenbeiser, Jim Heaton and Ross Murphy. The Republican floor leaders are Cathy Boomus, Mike Bareis, Jeff Hager and Dave Mason.

The party Whips are Chuck Dalton, Rick Eder, Molly Feeney and Nancy Hastings, Ken Roskowski, Jeff Rowe, Paul Schumann and Wendy Smith.

Chairmen of the various committees are Marie Gordon, Craig Wirtz, Parker Thomas, Jennifer Casterline, Lee Redding, Duane Robbins, Paivid Pato, Ann Carlson, Roberto Castillo, Dave Cooley, Jim Herter, Will Rosentretter and Lisa Vandegriff. These committees include defense, government affairs, foreign relations and economics.

Each "Representative" and "Senator" will write his own bill to introduce to Congress and the legislative process will be followed. Hearings will be held on the various bills by the committees and experts will be called to testify on the wisdom or folly of the bills under consideration.

Following committee action, the bills surviving will be debated and voted on by the entire House and Senate. Debates will be held on topics such as U. S. export of technology, Reagan's proposed budget, U. S. policy toward El Salvador, Poland and Mexico, the U. S. NATO policy, revision of the Clean Air Act, control of genetic engineering, the new Federalism and nuclear waste disposal.

Any bills that are passed by the Congress will be sent to John Williams, playing the part of the President, who may sign the bill into law and/or veto it. This class activity will be the basis for a term paper assignment to be made later in the semester.

Through this activity, the students will be involved in the legislative process followed in Congress. This social studies department at Chelsea High school uses such activities to give the students more insight and a more thorough understanding of how our society operates.

WEST SIDE STORY: Rehearsals are currently underway for this year's spring musical production to be held March 18, 19 and 20 at Chelsea High school. Keeping their eyes on stars Amy Wolter and Phil Powers, alias Maria and Tony, center foreground, are, left to right,

Chosen for Miss TEEN Competition

Sixteen-year-old Trina Mindykowski, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Crawford of 14700 Jerusalem Rd., Chelsea, has been selected to compete in the 1982 Michigan Miss T.E.E.N. (Teens Encouraging Excellence Nationally) Pageant to be held at the Hilton Inn, Kalamazoo.

This pageant is the official state-wide finals for the Miss T.E.E.N. National Pageant to be held in Albuquerque, N. M., in December. Contestants are between the ages of 14 to 18 and must maintain at least a "B" average in school. They are requested to participate in the volunteer service program of Miss T.E.E.N. Through this program many young ladies become involved in community activities by contributing at least 12 hours of time to some worthwhile charity or civic work. Throughout the country, each state realizes more than 5,000 hours of volunteer service in the program.

Among the prizes the winner of the Michigan Miss T.E.E.N. Pageant will receive is an all-expense paid trip to compete in the national finals at the Convention Center, Albuquerque, N. M., and a $750 cash scholarship to the school of her choice. More than $25,000 in cash scholarships will be awarded at the national pageant in December.

Contestants will be judged on the basis of scholastic achievement, volunteer service, formal presentation, poise, personality and choice of patriotic speech or talent. No swimsuit competition is required.

Trina is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. David Pastor, owners of Edwards Jewelers, Saline and Ann Arbor; Wolterine Bar and Lounge; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Simerson and Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Crawford.

Her hobbies include cheerleading, reading, gymnastics and playing the clarinet.

Village Election . . .

business experience will be a solid contribution to the decision making process on the local level.

Riemenschneider is an associate broker and business manager for Pierson and Riemenschneider, Inc., a local real estate firm. She resides in Chelsea with her husband and two children.

Though not present at the Candidates Night, Riemenschneider sent a letter regarding her views toward the village and its future. The basic problem facing the village is the prevalence of vacant buildings as business leave the community. The future of Chelsea requires that it continues to be a progressive and growing community.

High tech offers for the surrounding area are appealing to Riemenschneider and the role of downtown, in her opinion, requires that it remain the hub of activity while additional parking is developed.

Seeking her second term as village treasurer is Mary Harris, currently also serving as Sylvan Township Clerk. Also a lifetime resident of Chelsea, Harris is a notary public and has served as treasurer at the Chelsea Methodist church.

Harris is married to Fred Harris and is the mother of two children.

Charles B. Winans, II, is seeking his second term as assessor and is running unopposed in this capacity. For the past four years, Winans also holds the position of assistant village administrator. A Chelsea native, Winans is a graduate of Chelsea High school and Eastern Michigan University.

He and his wife, Wilma, have one child.

Since the beginning of the McKune Memorial Library, Jean L. Eaton has served as a library board trustee. She is seeking another term in this capacity and is running unopposed for the position.

Newcomer John A. Groesser is also running unopposed for the second library board opening. A native of Traverse City, Groesser and his wife, Sarah, have lived in Chelsea for five years. They have two sons.

Groesser has taught English at Chelsea High school for six years and seeks the library board position for the purpose of promoting public usage of its facilities. He is a member of the First United Methodist church.

Winter Enrollment Up Slightly at WCC

Enrollment increased slightly at Washtenaw Community College in Winter semester with 8,357 students registered for credit courses.

The total number of credit hours were down 1,143 from a year ago to 60,546.

"The decrease in credit hours appears to be due in part to the decrease in the number of TRA (Trade Readjustment Act) students enrolled this winter," according to Dr. Larry Hackney, Dean of Student Services. "In Winter 1981 there were 541 TRA students enrolled full-time. Today there are 10 enrolled. Federal funding of the TRA program, which provided financial support to unemployed auto workers who were preparing for new careers, has been virtually eliminated by the Federal Government," he said.

Prior to the mid 1970's no effective treatment was known for small cell lung cancer. Now with appropriate radiation and chemotherapy, as many as 25 percent of patients with this disease are alive and well at two years after diagnosis. If you need information on cancer call the Cancer Information Service housed at the Michigan Cancer Foundation. Call 1-800-462-9191.

'West Side Story' Has Talented Cast

In the old days, all that you needed to successfully perform a Broadway musical was a barn and a couple of very talented kids—usually Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland. Well, today you usually need more than a barn, but you still need those talented kids and, when it comes to that department, Chelsea High school has just what the doctor ordered.

The cast for this year's production, "West Side Story," has the talent, and they're all looking forward to opening night so they can show the public just exactly what kind of show a high school can do.

The part of Tony is being played by Phil Powers, who is no stranger to the Chelsea stage. Phil was seen as Mac in last year's "Me and Juliet," and as Stewpot in the Chelsea Players' production of "South Pacific" last July. Not limiting himself to the work in front of the audience, Phil directed the Chelsea High drama class production of "Teahouse of the August Moon," last-December.

Dave Lange, a senior at CHS and a newcomer to the stage, is playing the part of Riff, Tony's best friend and the leader of the American gang, the Jets. Although "West Side Story" is Dave's stage debut, he was a member of the Chelsea High forensics team last year.

Riff's Puerto Rican counterpart, Bernardo, is being portrayed by Jim Herter. Audiences will remember Jim from his performance in "You Can't Take It with You," and as Larry in "Me and Juliet."

Maria, Bernardo's younger sister, is being played by Amy Wolter. Amy, who is a freshman, is also making her stage debut. She plays trumpet in both the high school band and orchestra.

Maria's confidant, Anita, who is also Bernardo's girlfriend, is being brought to life by Celeste Arbogast. Celeste first appeared on the CHS stage two years ago as Mrs. Mullin in "Carousel." She was also a dancer in "Me and Juliet."

Because of the high cost of royalties required to perform "West Side Story," tickets will cost $4, up slightly from last year. They will go on sale at Chelsea Pharmacy, beginning March 1.

"West Side Story" will be performed March 18, 19 and 20 in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

These are difficult times for everyone, including Chelsea. We need to keep the jobs we have in Chelsea and get back the ones we have lost.

To accomplish this, we need responsive and enlightened village leadership to guide Chelsea for the next two years.

We believe Jack Merkel, who is unopposed, will serve Chelsea well as Village President.

There are six candidates for three open Village Trustee positions.

We believe two Village Trustee incumbents, Loren Keezer and Joseph Merkel, have demonstrated their dedication to Chelsea and to the above-mentioned principles. We also believe that Jeanene Riemenschneider will meet the challenges facing Chelsea.

eight points each while Marty Steinhauer added seven, Ken Nadeau six, Carl Pate four, and Toby Boyd, Matt Villemure and Darren Pierson each chipped in with two points.

According to Coach Robin Raymond, it was a good non-league win and everyone saw a great deal of playing time and utilized it well. The team is now 10-8 overall.

SEC ROUND-UP:

Dexter Downs Western To Clinch SEC Championship

Chelsea 85, South Lyon 65

Chelsea took on South Lyon Tuesday and soundly defeated the visitors, 85-65, while hanging on to and building up a commanding lead in the second half. A total of 49 Bulldog points came in the final two quarters.

Pacing the Bulldogs was David Wojcicki with 24 points, followed by David Kiel with 13 and Mike Bareis with 10.

Leading South Lyon and all scorers was Steve Case with 25 points, followed by Hank Linton with 13 points.

Inkster 82, Lincoln 56

Tuesday night found the Lincoln Railsplitters pitted against a phenomenally quick Inkster team, dropping the non-league contest, 82-52.

Though the final score is decisive, it is not a true indication of the game as Lincoln was behind by just 12 points with six minutes to go. Still, Inkster capitalized on every mistake and scored an important victory.

Pacing the Railsplitters was senior guard Dan Johnson with 17 points.

Milan 73,

New Boston Huron 63

The Big Reds lifted their season slate to 10-6 Tuesday with an important non-league win over New Boston Huron. A final score of 73-63 for the home team was highlighted by the Mom's Night crowd.

Pacing the Big Reds was Scotty Harrison with 24 points, five rebounds and four assists. Bernie Saja chipped in with 16 points as did Brad Collar while Ron Dingman contributed 12 points for the winners.

Pacing the losers was Dennis Edmonds with 19 points.

Dexter 55, Western 39

Before an enthusiastic home crowd, the Dexter Dreadnaughts clinched their first Southeastern Conference crown in 11 years Friday, defeating the lowly cellar-dwelling Jackson County Western Panthers, 55-39.

In a relatively close first half, Dexter led, 22-14, going into the third stanza. It was then that the game and the team and the crowd came alive.

Pacing the Dreadnaughts was Rob Ianni with 16 points, followed by Ralph Finley with 11 and Eric Sing with 10.

Lincoln 62, Tecumseh 60

In a second match-up the Lincoln Railsplitters, for the second time, bested the Tecumseh Indians Friday at Tecumseh, taking a stubborn and hard-fought 62-60 win over their hosts.

The win put Lincoln in a tie for second place in the Southeastern Conference title race by upping its record to 7-4 in the league and 10-7 over-all.

Though Tecumseh led throughout much of the game, the Railsplitters ran the energy out of the Indians in the final stanza to take home their important win.

Pacing the Railsplitters was Dave Stasiak with 16, Dan Johnson with 15, Mark Kedroske with 14 and Eric Kedroske with 14 points.

Pacing the Indians was Mark McLoughlin with 22 points while Scott McDonald had 12 and Craig Clark and Jeff Corley added 11 points apiece.

Milan 69, Saline 58

The Big Reds were able to slip past a hosting Saline team Friday night to earn their second important victory in as many games. Milan won, 69-58.

Pacing the winners were Scotty Harrison with 18 points, Brad Collar with 15, Bernie Saja with 14 and John Rife with 12. The Hornets were led by Mark Veal and George Tilt with 14 and 10 points, respectively.

The win lifts the Big Reds to an 11-6 over-all record while the Hornets dropped to 6-8 on the season.

Cager of the Week

9th Grade Cagers Lose Final Contest

Chelsea's ninth grade basketball team lost its final game of the season, 30-49, falling to Lincoln Monday, Feb. 22.

According to Coach Ken Sullins, the game was played poorly with the only highlight coming with Chelsea's three-point deficit at the end of the first quarter.

Lincoln was up, 13-10, at the end of the first quarter, followed by a 10-point lead at the half, 25-15. Chelsea was down, 22-38, at the end of three, unable to penetrate the Railsplitters' zone defense.

"We just couldn't get the ball through the net," explained Sullins. Still, the ninth graders ended their season on a sour note with a 4-8 record, losing a number of close games to contribute to the 33 percent win rate.

On the season Mark Henson led the team with a total of 108 points, making 46 field goals and 16 of 28.

JV Cagers Lose Out in 4th Quarter

In a disappointing junior varsity contest Tuesday night, the JV Bulldogs dropped a game to South Lyon, 56-64.

Chelsea was up 21-7 at the end of one quarter and led, 34-24, at the half in a well-played offensive game. By the end of the third quarter, the junior Bulldogs were up, 45-41, but the South Lyon visitors worked harder and outplayed and outscored the hosts in the fourth quarter to wear down the Chelsea team.

For the third game in the last four, Frank Waller paced Chelsea with 20 points, including 10 of 12 from the foul line. He also pulled down seven rebounds.

Jeff Martin added 12 points and eight rebounds while Eric Schaffner contributed nine points. In his best effort all year, Jerry Hamerschmidt came off the bench to add seven points.

According to Coach Wayne Welton, "This was a game we should have won." The JV Bulldogs, now 12-6, will take on Jackson Parkside Tuesday and Milan Friday as they wrap up the season.

free throw attempts. Keith Neibauer was the team's second leading scorer with 92 points, including 39 field goals and 13 of 37 free throws attempted. Rounding out the top three was David Steinhauer with a total of 88 points on 37 free throws and 14 of 29 free throws.

"The meet could have been close but the people we got ready for this meet swam great and suddenly, it wasn't close," Coach Larry Reed explained.

The team will take the following swimmers and divers to the state meet: John Robbins, Dave Mason, Craig Wirtz, Mike Coffman, Ted Merkel, Dave Nicola, Kirk Hawks, John Drew, Steve Ramsey, Sean Oxner, Kraig Leach, John Hoffman, Kent Noll, Wayne Smith and Paul Schumann.

THIS WEEK'S FEATURED CAGER is senior Darrin Pierson, a first year varsity player. At 5' 11", Pierson is a good defensive player at the guard position. He is a tremendously hard worker in practice who provides a great deal of verbal support off the bench and pushes the starters at practice. According to Coach Robin Raymond, Darrin is a great addition to the team this year and has aided in the motivation of the team as a whole.

The use of worker's compensation (one indicator of on-the-job accidents) declines with age. This suggests that older workers sustain fewer injuries and cost employers less. In fact, Banker's Life and Casualty Co. of Chicago found their older workers have less than one-third the frequency of compensable and time-loss accidents of the regular work force.

Bullard Will Seek Seat in Congress

State Representative Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor) has announced that he will seek election to Congress in Michigan's emerging Sixth Congressional District. That district, under a congressional reapportionment plan to be considered by the Michigan Legislature, includes East Lansing, part of the City of Lansing, Jackson, Ann Arbor, and part of Clinton county. The seat is currently held by Lansing Republican Jim Dunn.

Bullard, a nine-year veteran of the Michigan Legislature, said his campaign will focus on "the need to reverse Reagan policies that send Michigan's tax dollars to the southern states, rob Michigan workers of their jobs, and provide tax give-aways for the rich. These policies," stated Bullard, "hurt the elderly and poor and have thrown the nation's budget into disarray."

"Our priorities in Washington must change," said Bullard. "We have to worry first about jobs and a decent standard of living for every American, especially in economically distressed states like Michigan. We need to get the federal budget in order, and that can't be accomplished by huge tax give-aways that only benefit the rich."

Representative Bullard has built a reputation as a hard-working lawmaker during his nine years in Lansing. Among his legislative accomplishments are Michigan's Freedom of Information Act, the consumer-oriented "Auto Lemon Law," and reforms of the Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Act.

PERRY BULLARD

(MIOSHA). Bullard has also sponsored laws to provide financial assistance to the parents of college students and to give employees the right to see their personnel files. Solar tax credits, the repeal of "price-fixing" laws, and milk freshness labeling are also among Bullard's legislative initiatives.

Bullard is a graduate of Harvard University and the University of Michigan Law School. He served in the U. S. Navy from 1964 through 1968 and was awarded 13 air medals in Vietnam. He is currently chair of the House Judiciary Committee and has received "Legislator of the Year" awards from the Police Officers Association of Michigan and from the American Association of University Professors.

Historical Society Hears Plans of Webster Group

Twenty-four members and guests of the Chelsea Historical Society met at the Methodist church Tuesday evening, Feb. 9 at 6:30 p.m.

Ben Bower, a vice-president of the Chelsea Historical Society, introduced guest speaker, Jim Parker, president of the year-old Webster Township Historical Society. Parker showed slides of the Webster Historic Area while describing goals that the Webster Historical Society has set. Some of the goals include the restoration of historic buildings, establishing a Historic District, identifying and registering scenic roads for preservation and registering specific buildings with the National Registry. Parker explained that both the Webster church (built in 1834) and the May Mast home, "Cottonwood Farm" (built in 1832) are being submitted to the National Registry as historic buildings.

One further goal that the Webster Historical Society would like to achieve is the establishing of a farm museum, according to Parker. He said that the Scadin farm, where the Webster church is located, would be the most ideal location. Parker said that the society is interested in the second floor of the barn and a small parcel of land. The land, he explained, would be used as a new location of reclaimed blacksmith shop the society plans to move from its present location. The blacksmith shop, built in 1840, cannot be maintained where it is now, Parker explained.

Parker said that the goals set by the society might take a while to attain. But he described the members of the Webster Historical Society as an enthusiastic group of people, not afraid to say "yes" when approached with a new project or asked to serve on a committee.

At the close of the meeting, which was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. William Storey, Bower presented Parker with a water color painting. The painting, an original by Bower, was wrapped in a 1931 newspaper.

Membership in the Chelsea Historical Society is open to anyone interested in the history of the Chelsea area. Membership chairwoman is Mrs. Glen Wiseman of Dancer Rd., Chelsea.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Storey, 216 Jefferson St., at 7:30 p.m., the second Monday of the month.

Farm Bureau Supports Reagan's Economic Program

The head of the state's largest farm organization commended President Reagan for his "State of the Union" address delivered to congress on Jan. 26 and assured him that farmers continue to support his economic recovery program.

In a letter to Reagan, Elton R. Smith, president of the Michigan Farm Bureau and recently elected vice-president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said members of the organization were especially pleased with his decision not to impose new taxes. "We prefer to see the budget balanced by further reduction in federal spending," Smith told the President.

"As you move forward in implementing the various phases of your economic recovery program, I urge you to reduce the growth in entitlement programs. The uncontrollable expenditures being made for entitlement programs must be reduced if the federal budget is to be balanced," the farm leader said.

Earlier this month at the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau, delegates called on congress and the executive branch to "immediately address the problem of burgeoning growth in federal entitlement programs and transfer payments to individuals." Liberal program eligibility has resulted in almost three-quarters of annual federal outlays being out of control and delegates said.

Bob Merkel Decorates Hermitage House Room

Chelsea's Bob Merkel is one of the interior designers represented in the U. of M. School of Art Hermitage House Designer Showcase.

The 28-room mansion, located at 1808 Hermitage Rd., in Ann Arbor, has been redecorated by the talents of the area's interior experts and is currently open to the public.

Merkel's room is an intimate sitting-dressing niche aptly dubbed "Private Lives." It draws its earthy colorations from the brick fireplace wall. According to Bob Merkel, the room was envisioned as a place of ultimate comfort for the master and mistress of the mansion. It's for robe and slippers, quiet conversation, breakfast for two, nocturnal reading, and sipping sherry by firelight.

All the rooms are filled with inspiration and ideas to help a visitor in decorating his own home. The "Arts and Flowers" Showcase contains many flowering plants, paintings and works of art. Refreshments are available in a solarium cafe. Live music is heard daily.

The Hermitage House itself is interesting from an architectural and historical viewpoint. Constructed in 1915, the home is a fine example of Georgian symmetry. It retains a dowager elegance despite its acreage having been submitted to subdivision and years spent as a fraternity house. Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon to 4 p.m. Sundays, through March 14. Admission is $5 ($2.50 for senior citizens, students and children).

Proceeds will provide an endowment for the Guy Palazzola Memorial Scholarship at the University of Michigan School of Art.

The home is best reached by taking Stadium Blvd. to Ferdon Rd. and then to Hermitage Rd.

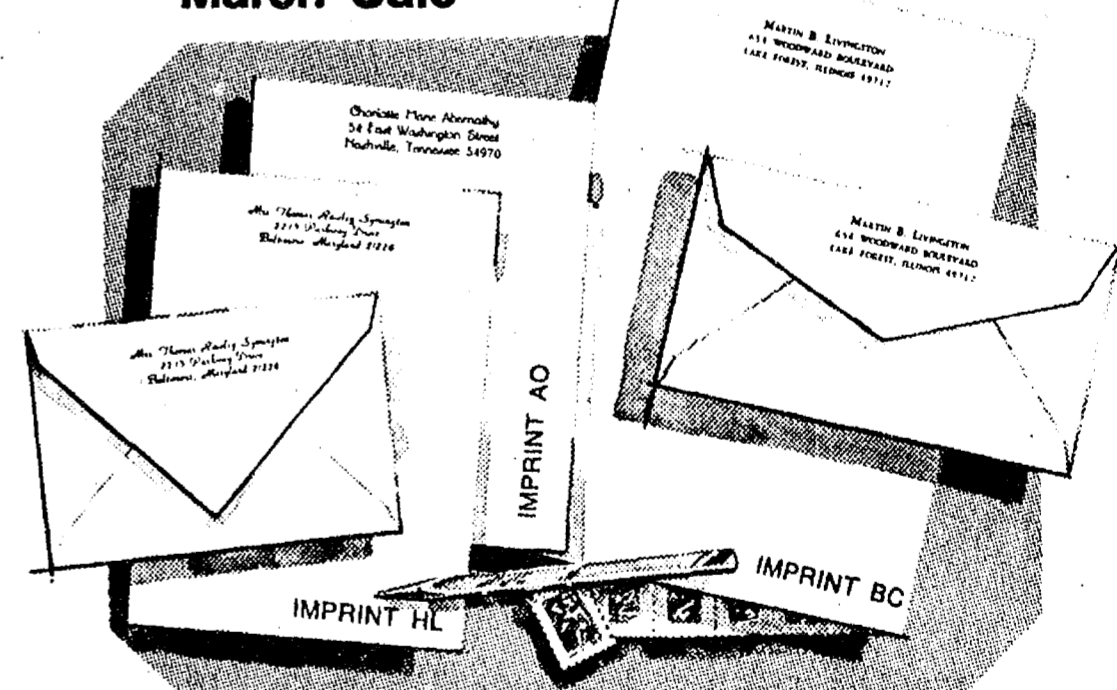

Girl Scout Troop Enjoys Ski Trip

Chelsea Cadette Girl Scout Troop No. 98 enjoyed a cross-country ski trip to Hofmaster State Park on Lake Michigan, near Spring Lake and Muskegon, on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 20 and 21. The trip, planned and organized by the troop, was characterized by a great deal of fun.

It was the first time that any of the girls had gone cross-country skiing and yet, they were able to negotiate the slopes like pros, on skis rented at substantially reduced rates from Bivouac, Ann Arbor. The trails were hilly and extensive and the weather was beautiful.

Home Meals Service Needs More Drivers

Chelsea Home Meals is in need of volunteer drivers to deliver hot meals to local persons on every other Monday, Tuesday and Saturday.

The meals delivered include a balanced hot meal, beverage and fruit and are often the only hot meal those participating in the program have each day.

All meals are picked up at the Methodist Home at 11:15 each day and approximately one hour is necessary to deliver the meals that are packed in lightweight insulated containers and dropped off to those persons who are elderly, incapacitated or otherwise handicapped and take part in the Home Meals program.

In addition to delivering the meals, the Home Meals program serves other purposes in that it provides a sort of "check-up" service, assuring the safety of those who are provided with meals.

Persons interested in volunteering their services should call Barb Branch at 475-7644.

World Day of Prayer To Be Observed Friday

World Day of Prayer, an international celebration sponsored in the United States by Church Women United, will be held March 5 at 9:30 a.m. at the First United Methodist church, 128 Park St., Chelsea. This annual service unites millions of people in prayer services occurring on six continents during a 24-hour period.

Rod Line, a student of the University of Michigan living here with his parents, Jim and Marilyn Line, will be the featured speaker at Chelsea's celebration, discussing the insights he experienced while studying in Ireland.

This year's theme is "The People of God: Gathered for Worship, Scattered for Service." The text was prepared by women of the Republic of Ireland and of Northern Ireland. They worked ecumenically at a Christian renewal center near the border of the two Irish states.

The Chelsea World Day of Prayer will also feature the White Breakfast again this year. All of the residents of the Chelsea area and neighboring towns are invited to attend. Babysitting will be provided for the day.

Persons needing transportation to this year's World Day of Prayer should contact Mary Degener at 475-2737 or Joy Stacey at 475-8323.

World Day of Prayer provides women in the United States with an occasion to participate in a nationwide offering which goes into Intercontinental Grants, the process by which Church Women United carries out its stewardship through grants to a wide variety of programs.

The film, "Christian Fathering," will be shown at Our Savior Lutheran church, 1515 S. Main St., next Sunday, March 7, at 4 p.m. and 6 p.m.

Sponsored by the Chelsea Ministerial Fellowship and the Community Education Department of the Chelsea School District, the film is a part of the Focus on the Family Series. Featuring Dr. James C. Dobson, a licensed psychologist and "America's leading Christian authority on the family," it will answer the questions, (1) How important is it that fathers spend time with their families? and (2) What evidence do you have that your children are picking up your values?

Originally scheduled for Jan. 31, its showing was postponed because of inclement weather. It has now been re-scheduled. Because of an earlier commitment for the use of the CHS auditorium, it will be shown at the church instead.

A brief discussion period will follow each showing for persons wishing to participate. There is no admission charge.

Quebec Visited In Travel Film

The Chelsea Kiwanis Club will present the fifth program of the "Travel and Adventure Series" on Saturday, March 6, "Quebec in the 80's," narrated by Howard and Barbara Pollard, will begin at 8 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

Montreal is a focal point on the St. Lawrence Seaway. Reel in some big speckled trout at one of Quebec's many beautiful Provincial Parks which are favorites with nature lovers. On to the Gaspé Peninsula where French Canada is seen at its very best.

Bill Rademacher will serve as host/emcee for the presentation while projectionists will include Jack Fowler, Warren McArthur, Jim Alford and Ron Walter. Ushering will be handled by Luke Kusterer, chairman, Sam Vogel, Erv Koch, Walt Leonard and Marty Kimbell.

Howard and Barbara Pollard both have backgrounds that are ideal for their adventurous life of travel filmmaking.

Howard, a native of the Midwest, studied engineering and filmmaking at Lawrence Tech and, after a stint as a cameraman in the U. S. Army, Pollard went into his own business of producing television commercials and short subjects. He has won many awards for his film work.

HOWARD & BARBARA POLLARD

Barbara has studied voice and drama at the Detroit Conservatory of Music and also at the famous Interlochen Music Camp. She attended the University of Miami where she majored in radio and television acting and theater. After graduation, her professional appearances included the Detroit Civic Light Opera, the Normandy Players and involvement in summer stock.

With their usual insight, Howard and Barbara Pollard have turned their talents to the province of Quebec. The Pollards are convinced that the best way to discover a country is through a knowledge of its people. This refreshing viewpoint gives audiences a deeper understanding of cultural differences and similarities. Montreal is the first stop on the itinerary. Sampling the fine restaurants, strolling the parks, visiting the shops and seeing magnificent architecture on churches and public buildings are on the agenda. Quebec's French origins are revived with the changing of the guard on St. Helen's Island and the Port of best. Peaceful fishing villages, colorful lighthouses, Perce Park, Bonaventure Island and the bird sanctuary are just a few of the many attractions.

In Quebec City, sidewalk artists are enjoyed as are fabulous foods and hospitable people. Get to know the French Canadian's story by spending time with ordinary people in an extraordinarily beautiful country with Howard and Barbara Pollard as congenial guides.

Marcia Warren Has Role in CMU Stage Production

Marcia Warren, a Central Michigan University freshman, from Chelsea, was a member of the cast of the University Theater's recent production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner." Written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, the comedy is based on a Midwestern family's attempts to cope with the crazy disruptions a radio personality brings to their home life. The play was performed Feb. 17-20 in CMU's Bush Theater.
