

Industrial Plant Tours Arranged for Michigan Week

As a part of annual Michigan Week activities, Chelsea will feature a trio of industrial tours for persons interested in learning more about key businesses in and around the village.

On Wednesday, May 19, a tour of Dana Corp., will take place, followed by a tour of Federal Screw on Thursday. On Friday, May 21, Chelsea's industrial tours will end with a tour of BookCrafters. The tours will be held between the hours of 1:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Chelsea's Dana facility has an interesting history with its beginning in the 1940s when a group of investors broke away from Central Fibre and, with R. W. Wagner, formed Chelsea Products. Dana Corp. purchased Chelsea Products in 1959 and in the mid-60s built the Sibley Rd. facility and operated in dual facilities. In 1973, all Dana power take-off operations were moved into the Sibley Rd. plant.

Chelsea's highest Dana employment was in 1979 when a total of 421 workers were employed. Currently, a total of 350 employees work at the Dana facility, 81 of whom are on lay-off.

Chelsea's Dana plant is a major supplier of power take-offs throughout the world. Power take-offs are mini power supplies mounted on truck transmissions in order to operate all hydraulic and electrical units such as motorized fire truck ladders. Up to 40,000 units per month have been built by Chelsea Dana though the average is 25,000 units and current figures are approximately 15,000 per month.

Dana's corporate offices are located in Toledo, O., and there are 300 plus Dana locations world-wide, seven of which are in Michigan.

The Dana tour will feature a complete manufacturing demonstration from raw material to assembly and shipping. The general tour will also feature the R. W. Wagner research laboratory, dedicated in 1973.

Federal Screw got its start in the early 1900s as Chelsea Screw. In the 1930s it was purchased by Federal Screw and has remained in its present location since that time.

Federal Screw maintains 140 employees and is currently operating one full shift and a half-strength second shift daily. The operation performed at Federal Screw is that of an automated screw machine job shop where production is based on customer specifications.

Markets tapped by Federal Screw include refrigeration, hydraulics, heavy trucks, automobiles and light parts for home appliances and the like. All parts are made from bar stock and range from one-sixteenth to two and five-eighths inches in diameter and up to 15 inches in length.

The plant tour will consist of a typical day at Federal Screw from start to finish, ranging from the loading of bar steel into machines to achieve a specific product to drilling and grinding to a customer's specifications, from inspection to shipping.

BookCrafters moved to Chelsea from Ann Arbor in the fall of 1977 and has been in operation in Michigan and Virginia since September, 1985.

In Chelsea, BookCrafters operates three shifts and employs approximately 200 people.

As a book manufacturer, they serve customers locally and nationally, ranging from the Smithsonian Institute to colleges. Books produced range from religious to educational to library stock.

The tour will provide those participating with a general introduction to book manufacturing ranging from the planning stages to composition, photo work and binding.

During these tours it is required that persons attending do not wear sandals or tennis shoes as a precautionary measure. Instead, basic leather shoes, such as loafers, should be worn and are mandatory.

These tours feature three businesses which do not typically provide tours of their facilities to the public. Nevertheless, some area industries offer tours frequently. Included among those offering regular tours in Chelsea Milling Co.

CHS Symphony Band Receives Top Rating in State Music Festival

Competing in the State Band Festival Saturday, May 1, Chelsea's symphony band earned straight I's for the sixth consecutive year. The orchestra earned an over-all rating of I as well while the freshman band, criticized for selecting difficult music, earned straight II's for their performance. The festival was held at Jackson Community College in what band director Bill Gourley considered a fantastic site with marvelous acoustics.

Chelsea's music students left the village at 7 a.m. and returned for dinner at Beach Middle school at 6 p.m. Thereafter, the groups performed a concert for the Festival of the Arts presentation to cap an over-all terrific day.

While the bands were busy in Jackson, the Beach choir traveled to Clague Junior High school in Ann Arbor for the annual District Choral Festival.

The 65-member choir proved to be one of the most well-behaved and courteous groups participating. Their two selections were sung for three judges who evaluated them on their intonation, tone quality, interpretation, appearance and accuracy. The choir received a II rating for their performance which is equivalent to a B in grading.

Beach choir also had to sight-read several rhythmic and melodic exercises to receive a rating. The hard work and excellent effort in class throughout the year helped the choir to receive a I, the highest rating possible.

Director Tamara Barbret commented that the choir is one of the most enjoyable groups she has worked with yet. "Everyone was very serious about festival and this showed throughout their performance," she explained.

Beach Choir wraps up its school year with a final concert on June 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the Beach Middle school cafeteria. This concert will feature solos, small ensembles and larger groups of students singing popular songs which they will be

Civic Foundation Formed

The Civic Foundation of Chelsea has been formed in order to benefit the greater Chelsea area.

During the past several months, a number of community leaders have met with the hope that a Chelsea community foundation could be formed to raise funds to finance community projects which are now not fundable by existing sources.

The Civic Foundation of Chelsea is established as a community trust which will seek, receive, and administer gifts, grants, and bequests from individuals, corporations and foundations, and manage and distribute them under community control for charitable purposes.

A temporary committee has been formed to recruit 100 or more "founding members" of the Foundation. These founding members will elect officers and a Board of Trustees. The temporary committee consists of Art Dils, chairman; Jackie Rogers, Ray Van Meer, Will Johnson, Jim Brown, Helen Lancaster, the Rev. John Morris, Marilyn Chastee, Joan Wolf, Ron Olmsted, Robert Merkel, George Palmer, Tom Eisele, Paul Mann and Shirley Schaible.

A campaign will begin in the near future to recruit 100 or more founding members. Founding membership contributions are $50.

According to the Civic Foundation by-laws, contributed funds will be used exclusively within the geographical boundaries of the Chelsea School District. Funds will be used for charitable, social, economic and educational purposes. No grants will be made to individuals or for endowments or research.

The Civic Foundation of Chelsea is a non-profit organization and contributions are tax deductible.

Interested persons should contact any member of the Committee or Art Dils, 994-3904.

'My Fair Lady' Auditions Slated

Auditions for the Chelsea Area Players' summer production of "My Fair Lady" will be held at Chelsea High school's auditorium on Friday, May 14 from 7-11:30 p.m. and on again on Saturday, May 15, from 1-4 p.m. Callbacks will be from 1-4 p.m. on Sunday, May 16 only and will also be held in the Chelsea High school auditorium.

"My Fair Lady," the Alan Jay Lerner-Frederick Loewe musical that was based on Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion," is the story of Henry Higgins, a charming but arrogant phonetics professor and Eliza Doolittle, the dirty ragamuffin he turns into a high-toned lady. The play, which will be presented by the Players on July 15, 16, 17 and 18, has a cast of approximately 50 people including roles for all ages, from children to senior citizens. There are several excellent speaking parts as well as the singing and dancing roles and many male and female chorus parts.

"My Fair Lady" has the largest collection of song favorites of any show in modern times, including such famous tunes as "The Rain in Spain," "I Could Have Danced All Night," "On the Street Where You Live," and "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face."

Scripts and scores are still available on a check-out basis from June Warren at 475-8409, evenings. Anyone interested in obtaining further audition information may call Joan Wolf at 475-9576.

New Swim Coach Joins CHS Faculty

Chelsea Aquatic Club and girls varsity swim team have a new coach as of approximately three weeks ago when Von Acker joined up with Larry Reed as the replacement for Dave Johnson who took a job in Texas earlier this year.

Acker, 30, is currently studying business education at Eastern Michigan University where he is minoring in physical education. Prior to the move to Chelsea, Acker coached at Willow Run for four years as well as operating pool facilities in the Washtenaw county area.

A native of Ypsilanti, Acker swam for Oakland University for one year. He and his wife and one-year-old daughter have just moved to Chelsea.

According to Acker, when he was contacted regarding the Chelsea position, he showed an interest in the fine swimming program. He was "ready for a change" and Chelsea seemed a good place to start.

In addition to his coaching duties within the Chelsea School District, Acker will assist pool director and boys varsity swim coach Larry Reed in any ways necessary. He will also do his student teaching in business at Chelsea High school this fall.

Harden Released On $100,000 Bond

On Tuesday, May 4, John Harden of Chelsea was arraigned in Washtenaw County Circuit Court on a series of charges of first-degree criminal sexual conduct in Washtenaw County Circuit Court.

During the arraignment, bond was set at $100,000 pending his trial date as yet unknown. Harden was released from Washtenaw County Jail, where he has been held since early this year, following the posting of $10,000 cash bond.

Area Industry Survey Completed By C. of C.

A comprehensive survey of Chelsea area industry has been completed by the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce.

Results of the survey were presented to area industry leaders at a breakfast on May 5 at Chelsea Community Hospital.

The Economic Development Committee of the Chamber conducted the survey. Members of the committee are Sandy Zeeb, chairperson, Dave Rowe, Bill Ackley, Bill Rademacher, Bill Bott, Sam Johnson and Paul Frisinger.

Twenty-two companies were surveyed. Sixteen had sites suitable for expansion; 20 had sites suitable for present use; and eight had future expansion plans. The 22 firms have a total of 1,629 employees, down from a peak of 2,665. These figures do not include the Chelsea Community Hospital with 475 employees and the Chelsea School District with 285 employees, nor do they include job lost due to plant closings.

Respondents were asked if they had any special problems with the Chelsea area. Fourteen responded stated they had no special problems. The remaining eight identified several problems which they felt should be addressed in the future. They include zoning, high property taxes, road conditions, water and sewer problems, high labor costs and high workmen compensation rates.

Financial Problems Remain As Senate Defeats Income Tax Hike

The governor and members of the Legislature will have to begin looking at alternative ways of solving the state's $611 million deficit following a resounding Senate defeat of a temporary income tax increase.

Although the Senate rejected the six-month tax hike of 1 percent, the issue is not dead as the state's money woes remain real and the state is in jeopardy of a downgraded bonding rate in New York.

The proposed tax increase, after the Senate's second rejection, will go to a six-member Senate/House conference committee and could come back before the Legislature for another vote.

Legislative leaders, however, did not hold out much hope that the conferees could find a plan that would be saleable in both houses.

The House was able to pass the bill only after a grueling all-night session; the voting board was kept open 37 minutes to allow intensive lobbying on the floor to round up the necessary majority.

Governor William G. Milliken, who proposed the six-month tax increase as a way to pump new revenues into the state's sagging money supply, said the Senate defeat was a "major setback for the state" and added that "sooner or later the Senate will have to face up to the realities of life and this state and this Capitol."

Milliken reiterated that the income tax must be the cornerstone of the efforts to solve the state's problems as it is the one source which can supply adequate revenues.

Following the Senate vote, Senate Majority Leader William Faust of Westland said he was unable to convince members there really was a severe financial crisis. He added that local community leaders back home did not fully emphasize the point that additional revenues were needed to avoid local cuts.

Faust said he felt it would be almost impossible to achieve an income increase under the current climate.

That "climate" includes the fact that 1982 is an election year for all 148 seats in the Michigan Legislature as well as the every 10-year reapportionment plan that will ultimately pit incumbents with other incumbents in the same newly redrawn districts.

With the uncertainty of not knowing the outlines of legislative districts and who may or may not be opposing one another, Senate members were just unwilling to vote to a tax hike in an election year.

Senate Minority Leader Robert VanderLaan of Kentwood said the conferees will have to come back with a plan virtually unchanged from the defeated income tax plan but added, "I don't think there's much chance of it passing."

Meanwhile, the governor is working on a contingency plan which could consist of other measures for revenue augmentation and additional cuts. Already more than $300 million has been cut out of the current year budget.

Senate members are also looking at alternative plans.

These include accounting changes, welfare benefit cuts, a new tax on radio, television and newspaper advertising and additional program cuts.

While all of this is happening in Lansing, New York bonding companies are watching carefully as the state is going to the market for $100 million now and another $500 million in the fall. The state's budget picture will determine an interest rate and the marketability of the bonds.

Whatever plan now comes to the forefront, decisive action needs to be taken—politics aside.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

What you do, it says here, is send just $45 to this outfit and you get back a list of places that will pay your way through college. It's called the Financial Aid Finder Program, and it sounds like more ways to skin the cat that Clem Webster brought up recent at the country store. This ad claims the program knows 3,000 sources that give $14.4 billion every year in help with college costs. It seems the Social Security Administration closed one hole and 3,000 more opened up.

I took the ad to the session Saturday night, and Ed Doolittle said it didn't surprise him. As quick as the door was shut on grants and loans that students never pay back, he said, somebody would be ready to make big bucks figuring ways to get over, under and around the door. For instant, Ed went on, no sooner did Social Security announce the May deadline to get benefits for college than high school seniors worked a way to go to college before they graduate from high school. Where there's a will there's a way, Ed allowed, and when it comes to getting Government help for the asking there's allus lots of ways.

Clem Webster was strong disagreed with Ed, as usual. Clem said he was foursquare fer making doctors, lawyers and the rest pay back money they borrowed for their education, but helping poor kids go to college that wouldn't be able to without help is a good investment in the country and the kids. He said statics show that college graduates make a third more than high school graduates, and that means they pay more taxes unless they learn how to build tax shelters in college.

General speaking, the fellers was with Clem, but Zeke Grubb said he would amend his motion to note it ain't allus easy to tell where a right stops and a privilege starts. Fer instant, he said, he had saw where cable TV is now being pushed as a right, like education. Zeke had a clipping where cable TV stamps soon may be give out like food stamps. The thinking is, he declared, that it ain't fair to deny poor folks cable TV services and protection. These cables can be tied to fire alarms and used in classrooms, and the televisions even can be two-way where shut-ins can vote and shop. This country is not about to deny equal education and opportunity on a base of poor.

Furthermore, Zeke went on, since cable TV is run by private companies out to make a profit, and since poor folks can't pay fer cable TV as easy as rich folks it looks like we got another welfare issue. Towns that give cable TV franchises can force companies to offer service to everybody in town, but they can't make the companies give it any more than they can make folks buy it.

Incidental, I saw where a court put a Cincinnati bar in the welfare business. The judge found the bar guilty of overcrowding and ordered it to give $1,000 of beer to a rest home. Wonder if the old folks had to drink it to satisfy the court.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

Historical Society Receives Lesson on Fabric Painting

Chelsea Historical Society met with 27 members present Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bosel on N. Delhi Rd. Also present at the regular monthly meeting was Dorothy Abbott who told the group about painting on fabric. Fran and Dorothy met while both were attending classes in stenciling tinware.

Stenciling has been used in all civilizations. In the late 1700's stenciling was used to decorate walls, floor cloths (a forerunner of conglomerae carpeting used in the home). One of the reasons this type of decorating was used to decorate the walls was an attempt to copy expensive wallpaper imported from France. Patterns were very gaudy at first. Often the patterns were symbolic of the way of life. They were explained by Fran Bosel.

The patterns were often drafted on the premises by a "journeyman" who would make the designs on the wall in the attic for viewing by the family and a selection was made, which was then stenciled on the walls. Improvements were made in the way the stenciling was done up to the present time. Mylar material is preferred over artists linen because mylar has a tendency to stay in place. A different stencil is used for each color used. To make the stencils, the design is traced on the mylar with India ink and then cut out with a sharp knife or scissors.

Floor cloths are made on canvas. The first ones were made in England. Usually these were used in the area where the most traffic occurred, the purpose was to save the rugs.

Therum painting (usually done on velvet) started around the 1800's. After you study the pattern, stencils are made on artists linen. This type of painting is done with the ball of the finger with wool wrapped around it. Only transparent colors are used. Young ladies were taught this art in boarding schools and it was popular about 25 years ago. Dorothy Abbott explained the art of therum painting and had several examples to show.

The women explained the difference between country painted tinware and stenciled painting on tin. Stenciling is really tile-ware where the design is drawn on the tin and then painting is done or it could be a design which is applied and usually finished off by varnishing. A primer is applied to the tin before painting.

After the discussions, the guests were invited to stroll through the house and view the many unusual furnishings.

Coffee and cookies were served at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Weiss of Sun City, Ariz. were guests at the meeting.

Chelsea Charms Earn 19 Hospital Week Medals at Temperance

Eleven twirlers from the Chelsea Charms baton twirling corps ventured to Temperance on Saturday, May 1 for an NBTA open baton twirling contest. The girls returned to Chelsea with 19 trophies and numerous ribbons and "place" awards.

Christine Dunlap, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dunlap, gained her most contest achievements to date by bringing home three of the trophies, including two first place awards in military strut and basic twirl. Winning first in basic twirl allowed her to compete against a field of 16 contestants in the final twirl-off for the baton camp scholarship for ages 0-10. Chrissy placed second and just missed the top award by two-tenths of a point. She also won the third place trophy in the novice solo and competed well in basic strut.

Michelle Graflund continued her fine performances with a first place trophy in basic strut against a group of 19 girls. In modelling, she took the second place trophy and in military strut she captured a fifth place trophy against heavy competition. In both fancy strut and novice solo, she gave an excellent showing. Michelle is the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Graflund.

Five-year-old Nicole Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Schultz, continued her winning streak by taking the first place trophy in military strut, the second place trophy in basic strut and by capturing her first award in the modeling category in the 0-6 age group. In modeling she won a fifth place ribbon.

The only first place in the very difficult novice division was won by 5-year-old Kori White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary White. Kori also placed second in military strut and fifth in basic strut. In modeling, Kori captured a sixth place while in the basic twirl twirl-off of all previous first place winners for the past two years, Kori placed fifth from a field of 16 twirlers.

Amy Scibor, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Scibor, scored exceptionally high in every category she entered. In special beginner solo, Amy won the second place trophy and in modeling, basic strut and military strut, she earned third place awards.

Capturing three fourth place awards, Kristin Clark, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark, scored well in all of her events. She placed in special beginners solo, novice solo and in basic twirl finals for the scholarship. In both basic strut and military strut she made excellent showings.

Amy Weir, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weir, excelled in the basic twirl finals and took the third place award. Amy also placed fourth in military strut and made an excellent showing in both basic strut and special beginner solo.

In the more difficult older age group, Susan Schmunk, drum major of the Charms and assistant baton teacher, placed fourth in the basic twirl finals for the 10-16 age group. Susan, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmunk, also made excellent showings in basic strut, novice solo and military strut. Susan's little sister, Betsy Schmunk, competing only in basic strut, strutted exceedingly well for a beginning 5-year-old new to the contest circuit.

Liz Maurer, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Maurer, took the third place award in the difficult twirl-off for basic twirl. She earned the award among a field of 22 twirlers. She also competed well in both basic strut and special beginner solo.

In her second contest, Minta van Reesema, 12-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick van Reesema, took the fifth place award in basic strut from a field of 19 marchers. Minta also scored high in basic twirl solo, military strut and novice solo.

Preparing for future contest participation were Chelsea Charms' twirlers Becky Kern with her mother Vicky Kern, Laurie Honbaum, Kate Steele and her mother Sarah Steele.

Other Chelsea observers at the contest were Jill Dunlap and daughter Amy, Sue Scibor and son Jason, Linda White, Becky Schultz, Barbara Clark, Sandy Schmunk, Norma Graflund, Dale and Eleanor Maurer and son Timothy, Debbie Evison, Lisa Grammatico, Tany Grammatico, and Chelsea Charms teacher and coach, Rita Wilson-Howard.

Bikers, Joggers Create Night-Time Traffic Hazard

Chelsea Police Department reports that with the onset of spring-like weather, numerous complaints regarding joggers and bicyclists in the roadway have been brought to their attention.
 According to Chief Aeillo, Chelsea Police have been informed of joggers wearing dark clothing in addition to no reflective strips for night-time jogging and are frequently unconcerned with moving for oncoming traffic. Much the same is true for bicyclists.
 Should they be observed by Chelsea Police, joggers and bicyclists could be cited for impeding the flow of traffic. "Still," according to Chief Aeillo, "despite the fact that we could issue citations for slowing traffic, our basic concern is for the health and well-being of these people."

Key Club Group Attends Convention

During the first week-end in May, four Chelsea High school students attended the State Key Club Convention held in Flint. More than 40 Key Clubs from across the state were represented there by 280 students and their advisors.
 At the three-day convention, the students took part in seminars on leadership and being involved, participated in essay and achievement contests and shared ideas with other clubs on projects in the community. The convention concluded with the election and installation of new State Key Club officers.
 Representing Chelsea High school there were Wendy Smith, Sandy Young, Rob Bentley and Tom Nemeth. The group was accompanied by its advisor, Sam Vogel and his wife, Cheryl.
 Key Club is a community/school service comprised of high school students and the organization is sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club. Chelsea's Key Club is presently the only Key Club in Washtenaw County. It was announced by Kiwanis Governor Paul Tomshay of Dexter that his local school was starting a Key Club to serve the community and schools in Dexter.

Projects that the Chelsea Key Club has undertaken during the past year include refurbishing the Chelsea High school sign, fixing leaks in overhead walkways, and ordering new directional signs to Chelsea High school. Also, club members have assisted the Kiwanis Club with their children's Christmas party and with the Farmer's Night banquet.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I would like to publicly thank Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murphy for their contribution towards making it possible to purchase the sod for our Chelsea High school baseball teams. For the first time in many years our baseball field is something to be proud of.

There are many other thanks to give: John Elsenbeiser for use of his equipment, the Booster Club for the electronic scoreboard, Coach Welton for many hours of hard work and many others who spent many hours.

Chelsea baseball could use your support at the baseball games as well as the football and basketball games. Come and see our beautiful field and help our baseball program. My thanks.

A Fan.

Dear Mr. Editor,

I would very much like to share with you some goodness that rubbed off on me, in my life. Being a Senior Citizen, I have lived a fair number of years now, and my faith in people has been a bit shaken from time to time. Recently the young people of our community have once more revitalized my belief in them. Having been a school teacher for many years, I love and understand young people. They're just about my most favorite kind of folks.

St. Mary's Catholic church has a nursery every Sunday at the 10 a.m. Mass. While adults supervise, young girls volunteer their time to help keep the nursery a nice place to be in. I am so proud of these girls I would like them to have some public praise.

In a recent Chelsea Senior Citizen newsletter a young man advertised he would like to help any Senior Citizen by doing chores for them. I called this young man and he came. Did terrific work and would not take a cent for his time. He has a job in town, and does not need the money, he just wanted to be of help to someone. Bob McKenney is his name. How nice it is to know him.

Neighbors are a blessing too. During the deep snow of this past winter, Louis and Doney Joseph cleared our walk and driveway. God Bless you all, you make this world a better place to be in. I asked another friend of mine to write this letter for me, and Millie Warner did just that.

Mrs. Ruth Zeeb.

Dear Editor,

I am looking for the man and woman who were downtown walking with their daughter last Wednesday evening, May 5th, 8:30 p.m., and saw a dog being thrown out of a second story window on Main St. These people were concerned enough to go to the Chelsea Police Department to place a report, however, the dispatcher failed to take their name and address. Since they were eye-witnesses to the incident, their report is necessary before any further action can be taken. Action needs to be taken against this type of person. Personally, I think it is very tragic to witness such a deliberate act of cruelty to a defenseless animal. So please contact the Chelsea Police Department as soon as possible. Knowing the type of person we are dealing with, I am reluctant to add my name.

School Board Briefs

Present for a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, May 3 were Feeney, Schumann, Comeau, Grau, Heller, Superintendent Van Meer, Assistant Superintendent Mills, Principals Williams, Conklin, Wojcicki, Benedict, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by President Ann Feeney.

Board approved the minutes of the April 19 meeting.

The Board was apprised that Chelsea High School has been fully accredited by the North Central Association.

The Board designated Saturday, May 15, 9 a.m. for the 1982-83 Board Goals Workshop. Attending the workshop will be board members, administrators, and representatives of the Chelsea Education Association, secretaries, maintenance/custodial employees, bus drivers, and cafeteria workers.

The Board approved a second year of leave of absence without pay for Susan Miller.

The Board approved a Summa Cum Laude designation which will honor all graduating seniors who have achieved 10.5 (A to A-) grade point average through the last semester. The honored students will be recognized during commencement exercises by naming those who qualify for this top honor.

The Board approved two regular meeting dates in June. The Board will meet June 7 in the Administration Building, and June 14 at the Beach Middle school. The Board will certify the results of the Annual Election at the June 14 meeting.

The Board heard the following informational reports:

Superintendent Van Meer indicated that although the Board has previously eliminated agriculture, an agriculture offering would be made to 9th and 10th grade students through the consortium by hiring a traveling teacher to serve Saline, Manchester and Chelsea. The agriculture program will be totally revised to reflect today's agricultural needs. Agriculture is still a viable portion of these three communities. The Chelsea administration has gone on record to have Chelsea be the district of record, and has sent a recommendation that Karen Jane Wilson be given strong consideration for the position.

Principal Conklin gave a report on the findings of the Science Committee. This K-12 Science Committee has been addressing the science needs in the district during the past two years. The Board viewed very favorably the work of the teachers on the committee.

The Board was informed that expedited bargaining had collapsed. Conventional bargaining will resume in the near future.

The Board was apprised that the art show and Saturday's concert were well reviewed, and that the Symphony Band and Orchestra received II ratings at State Festival; the 9th grade Concert Band received a II rating while competing against Class C and D schools whose members were in grades 9 through 12.

North school faculty members are currently involved in an in-service project in co-operation with Eastern Michigan University. Their project has been identified as "Communications in the Building."

The 6th grade camp program begins the week of May 10 at Mill Lake.

Burghardt-Cole Chosen By Order of Golden Rule

For the fourth consecutive year, Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Funeral Chapel has secured membership in the International Order of the Golden Rule. This decision was based on recommendations made by members of the community.

Executive director Dale L. Rollings commented on the membership by saying, "Before any member is accepted into our organization, it is carefully evaluated in order to determine its standing in the community. Once membership is granted, the firm must continue to follow a high standard of conduct in order to maintain membership."

The organization accepts members from all over the world and brings them together at regularly scheduled conferences and seminars. At these times, they are brought up to date on changes taking place within the profession, including consumer attitudes on funeral service.

"The information our members receive at the meetings helps them find ways of improving their service for the benefit of all the families they assist," Rollings said. "It is important to keep a good rapport between the funeral directors and the public. It's what OGR is based on, and we feel Burghardt-Cole Chelsea Chapel is dedicated to supporting this."

CHS Track Idled By Poor Condition

Chelsea High school's track, despite efforts to maintain it for the track season, is in a dire need of repair or replacement and therefore going unused this track and field season.

According to Athletic Director Ron Nemeth, Chelsea's track was one of the first synthetic rubberized tracks built in Michigan in the early 1960s. Being top dressed and resurfaced a number of years ago, it is still used for some practice sessions though usage has been cut down significantly because of its extremely hard surface laden with cracks and crevices.

With Dexter's track in its second year and the good working relationship between the Chelsea and Dexter School Districts, Chelsea's track problems have been alleviated.

The Chelsea track and its repair or replacement falls under the general maintenance fund and its fate is determined in relationship to a listing of district-wide priorities and their immediate importance as relating to the entire school district population as compared to a minority of students.

Still, the future of Chelsea's track is not too grim. It is anticipated that it's problems will be remedied in the not too distant future.

Chelsea's tennis team held its first annual Parent's Night Thursday as the Bulldog netters took on Pinckney's tennis squad.

Both Chelsea's and Pinckney's number one doubles teams were undefeated until Thursday evening when Chelsea maintained the winning record of its top-seeded doubles team. The team of Mark and Worthing, now 7-0, managed to upset Novak and Graf of Pinckney, 6-3, 6-2, in keeping their winning streak intact.

Chelsea's number two doubles team also defeated a very good Pinckney team. Schumann and Eisenbeiser won over Haak and Zargecki, 6-2, 6-3. They have four wins this season over Novi, Saline, Pinckney and Jackson Northwest.

Both teams are playing exceptionally well though Chelsea's third doubles team of Hinz and Markle lost a tough match to Kolb and Hochstetle, 6-4, 3-6, 6-2. Nonetheless, the number three team has four wins this season.

All three doubles teams won at Novi this week though the singles did not fare as well. Chelsea lost to Novi, 3-4.

Rod & Gun Club Crew Plants 800 Scotch Pines

Saturday, May 8, a select crew of members of the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club planted 800 trees in a valley on the club's land. The seedlings were a variety of Scotch pine which was developed in France.

In the future, most of the pines will adorn the club's land but some will be given to charities at Christmas time, beginning in the late 1990's.

Joe Torres led the detail of planters in their work. As one of the men placed a tender seedling in the soil, he commented, "When they get big enough to be Christmas trees, they're so beautiful you hate to cut them down."

Chelsea's girls thinclads scored 26 points in the Mason Kiwanis Invitational Friday, April 30, finishing seventh in the 10-team field. Mason won the event easily with 97 points while St. Johns was second.

Tracy Bohlender had an excellent night, figuring in more than half the Bulldogs' points. Bohlender finished fifth in the high jump with a leap of 4' 11". She also finished third in both hurdle races, running the 110 hurdles at :16.1, her best time ever in that race. In the 220's, she completed the event at :31.6, despite hitting a hurdle and stumbling. Bohlender also led off the mile relay where she combined with Lisa Vandegrift, Wendy Wolfgang and Carol Warren to finish fifth with a time of 4:24.5.

The Bulldogs' strength in the distances also showed as Sandra Frame was second in the two-mile at 12:12.2 and Kristin Thomas was fifth in 12:38.5. Frame also ran a good mile, finishing in 5:43.6 but was edged for sixth place by Kirky Atlee of Haslett who ran 5:43.5. Lisa Vandegrift easily won her heat of the 880 in 2:34.6 but was two seconds out of the final scoring spot.

Funeral Directors Offer Active Speakers Bureau

What is a pre-arrangement? How much does a funeral cost? why are you a funeral director? Can we donate certain organs of our body and still have an open casket? "These are just a few of the many questions asked of our speaker's bureau members," comments John W. Mitchell of the Staffan Funeral Home.

Several years ago, the Michigan Funeral Directors Association developed a speaker's bureau and funeral directors across the state have been trained in public speaking and have been provided with data and materials on a regular basis in order to keep the public informed.

Chelsea now has a member of the speaker's bureau, John W. Mitchell, owner of Staffan Funeral Home, 124 Park St. After completing the required course in 1974, John became a spokesperson for MFDA, providing information regarding death, dying and funeral service.

As a member of the speaker's bureau, John has given talks to many elementary and secondary public schools as well as lecturing at Michigan State University, Lansing Community College, Oakland University and Justin Morrell Honors College. In addition, he has conducted several death and dying seminars for churches and senior citizens groups.

A licensed funeral director since 1965, John graduated from the Wisconsin Institute of Mortuary Science and is a member of Mu Sigma Alpha Mortuary Honorary fraternity. He received the restorative art award from the institute for his expertise.

In a fast changing society, the Michigan Funeral Directors Association, through its speakers bureau, will be keeping the public informed and knowledgeable about funeral service. Church groups, clubs and other organizations interested in an informative and open discussion regarding death, dying and funeral service, should call John Mitchell at 475-1444 to arrange a date. This service is provided by the MFDA and the Staffan Funeral Home without cost or obligation.

VOCABULARY EXPANSION AND CONCEPTUAL LANGUAGE such as same versus different are studied at North school by Larry Alexander, Jeff Craig and Amy Ledford with the assistance of speech and language pathologist Lynn Davis.

Better Speech, Hearing Month Being Observed

This is the second in a series of four weekly articles dealing with speech, language and hearing impairments in children. This article will focus on elementary school children who may have disorders of articulation (the ability to say speech sounds correctly), fluency (the ability to speak fluently, without repetition and hesitations), voice (use of proper pitch, volume, resonance and quality), and language (the ability to understand and use spoken and written messages).

The focus of this article will be on language disorders in elementary school children. The following is a description of a day in the life of a language impaired child. Tommy Burden is not a real child but his problems represent a composite of those seen in language impaired children.

Tommy Burden, an eight-year-old boy, with normal intelligence, was in the third grade. Today was a special day for Tommy because he was going to his friend Billy's home after school.

After Tommy dressed for school, he rushed to his mother and asked, as he had for the last five days, "Today, I go Billy's?" (Tommy has difficulty forming grammatically correct sentences.) His mother replied, "Yes," and she gave him a note to explain to his teacher. Mrs. Burden then asked Tommy what kind of cereal he would like. Tommy could not seem to remember the name, "Uh, uh, the kind, that one, you know . . . it goes 'Snap, Crackle, Pop' ". (Often Tommy has trouble naming things even though he can describe them in detail.)

As Tommy ran out of the door for the bus, his father called, "Tommy, do you have your lunch box and play clothes for Billy's?" "Oh, I forgot," answered Tommy. He rushed back in the house, grabbed the clothes, and still forgot the lunch box. Tommy's dad had to run out after him. (Tommy has difficulty remembering a series of instructions.)

At school, Tommy gave his note to the teacher. She was aware that he had trouble sequencing days of the week so she asked him what he was going to do after school that day. Tommy responded by asking "Is today, I go Billy's?" "Yes," replied the teacher, "how are you getting to Billy's house?" Tommy answered, "After school." (Tommy did not understand the difference between how and when.)

When the bell rang, the teacher called the class to order, "Okay, I want you to get out your spelling book and your pencil and paper." Tommy took out his pencil and paper and wrote his name. The teacher questioned, "Tommy, where is your spelling book?" The children looked at him and giggled as he quickly found his book.

As recess time approached, the teacher asked the children to line up. Tommy was told to be third in line but he rushed to the front of the line and argued, "I'm here." (Tommy did not know what third meant.) The rest of the morning progressed nicely. Tommy was good at math computation and completed his assignments.

At lunch, Tommy tried to get rid of his raisins by giving them to friends. One little girl pointed to the boy next to her and complained, "Tommy, how come I got less than he did?" Tommy, confused about the meaning of "less" took some raisins away from her and gave them to someone else. (Language impaired children frequently have difficulty with concepts of quantity such as more, less and equal.)

For the social studies lesson, the teacher pulled down the wall map and asked the children to identify the state above Illinois. Tommy replied "Tennessee" because he confused the concepts "above" and "below." At the end of the day the teacher got ready to flip the day on the calendar and said, "Today is Monday. When I see you tomorrow, it will be what day?" Tommy called out "Satur-

Girls Track Team Nearly Gets Win

Chelsea's girls varsity track team went into last week with high hopes of ending its losing streak but still couldn't catch that elusive victory.

Fowlerville defeated the girls on Tuesday, 78-45. Sandra Frame was a double winner in that meet, leading Bulldog sweeps of the 1600 and 3200 runs. Wendy Wolfgang was second and Kristin Thomas third in the 1600 and Thomas was second and Mary Ann Richardson third in the 3200.

Senior Lisa Vandegrift, who is establishing herself as a good middle distance runner won the 800 with Wolfgang second. The Bulldogs just missed a sweep as Rachel Schmell was narrowly edged for third. Vandegrift added a second in the long jump.

Tracy Bohlender gave Chelsea its only win in the short races as she won the 200 hurdles. Bohlender also finished second in the high jump and third in both the 100 hurdles and 100 dash. Pam Spayd was third in the high jump, Sue Young third in the long jump, Nora Morseau, in spite of an ankle injury, was third in the shot put, and Cinda Thornton, third in the discus. Carolyn Chandler was third in the 400 and Carol Warren third in the 200 to round out the scoring.

"We didn't run well Tuesday," said Coach Bill Bainton, "A lot of our nagging injuries seemed to catch up with us."

The Bulldogs came back Thursday and took Lincoln right down to the wire before bowing, 64-59. Lincoln built a big early lead, then hung on as Chelsea clawed away at it. Chelsea was down, 28-10, after the field events in spite of Tracy Bohlender winning the high jump with a school record of 5' 3/4". This was the first school record for the girls this season. Nora Morseau threw a personal best, 28' 10", for a second in the shot put. Chris Sommer was third in the high jump and Lisa Vandegrift third in the long jump.

Bohlender started the running events with a win in the 100 hurdles in a good :16.2 but Lincoln pushed the lead to 38-18 by going 1-2 in the 100 and winning the 800 relay. Sue Young was third in the 100. Then the Bulldogs came on strong.

Sandra Frame led a sweep of the mile with a 5:45.8. Kristin Thomas was second, Mary Ann Richardson third. Bohlender won a fast 400 in 1:04.2 with Wendy Wolfgang edging Carolyn Chandler for third. Both were timed in 1:05.3. Bohlender then won the 200 hurdles in :32.9, her fourth win of the day. Wolfgang came back to finish second to Lisa Vandegrift in the 800. Vandegrift was timed in 2:33.4. Wolfgang in 2:34.5.

Chelsea needed two places in the 200 to stay alive but despite season's bests from Sue Young, Carolyn Chandler and Lisa Hurd, managed only a third from Carol Warren in :28.3. The Bulldogs didn't die, however, as Sandra Frame completed a double with a win in the 3200 in 12:25.6. Kristin Thomas was second and Mary Ann Richardson, running the 1600, 3200 double for the first time got her second third of the day. Chelsea also got a win in the 1600 relay from a team of Lisa Vandegrift, Carolyn Chandler, Carol Warren and Wendy Wolfgang as Lincoln was disqualified.

"We had some very good and very courageous performances," said Coach Bill Bainton after the meet. "We did everything we could but just couldn't squeeze those extra two or three points."

New Coaches Start With Aquatic Club

Chelsea Aquatic Club seems to continually attract exciting new coaches who have excellent credentials. Von Acker and Mike Colter certainly are not exceptions. These are the two newest additions to the staff.

Acker is the new club swimming coach and Colter is the club's diving coach. They are presently working with team members as follows: 10 and under, Mondays and Wednesdays (advanced, 3:30-4:45) (novice, 4:45-6), junior high age, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:30-4:45. Divers are working out on Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays from 4-5:30.

Von Acker is a former Oakland University swimmer who has recently finished his studies at Eastern Michigan University. He has working in the Willow Run program most recently, coaching their club, junior high swimming and high school boys and girls. He also brings administrative experience to the coaching positions as he has worked as a pool director in the Ypsilanti Recreation Department.

Mike Colter, during the school seasons, is the boys and girls diving coach at Jackson Parkside High school. Mike has had numerous scorers and all-stars in Michigan high school diving.

He also has a strong background in competition as a diver, having placed in the National Junior College Championships twice and having participated on a U. S. team in the Asian Games. Mike has also had numerous successes as a swimming coach.

"Every time we have made coaching changes it has resulted in an improvement in staff. Based on credentials, experience and observation, these changes should prove not to be exceptions," pool director Larry Reed stated.

Girls Track Team Loses to Dexter, Milan

Chelsea's girls track team was completely dominated by Dexter, winning just one event in Tuesday's dual meet. The Bulldogs' lone first-place finish came from Sue Young who won the long jump at 14' 5". Carol Warren was the only Chelsea runner to score in more than one event as she finished second in both the 100 and 200 dashes and added a third in the 400 meters.

Nora Morseau finished second in the shot with a throw of 28-4. Lisa Vandegrift was second in the 800 and Kristin Thomas ran a strong 3200 to finish second. Cinda Thornton threw 75 feet in the discus for a third and Claudette Bucholz added a third in the high jump. The Bulldogs ran without Sandra Frame who was ill, and Tracy Bohlender, who was recovering from a foot injury.

Dexter's Linda Gardner was a triple winner, taking the high jump at 4' 10", the 100 hurdles in 15.8 and the 200 hurdles in 32.2. The 23-100 defeat was the worst the Bulldogs have suffered this year.

Thursday, Milan defeated Chelsea, 88-35. However, Chelsea's throwers provided some bright spots as they continued to perform well. Cinda Thornton threw 73' 9" and placed second in the discus and Nora Morseau hit a personal best of 27' 6 1/2", good for second place in the shot put. The Bulldogs also finished one-two in the high jump with Tracy Bohlender going 4' 10" and Claudette Bucholz, 4' 6". It was Chelsea's best over-all performance in the field events this season.

In a season short of records of any kind, Sandra Frame provided one Thursday as she won the two-mile in 12:16.1 for a new junior record in the event. Bohlender added a first in the 220 hurdles and a second in the 110 hurdles. Carol Warren was second in both the 400 and 200. Kristin Thomas and Wendy Wolfgang each had thirds, Thomas in the mile and Wolfgang in the 880.

Chelsea, which has met the three favorites for the Southeastern Conference championship, faces additional tough competition this week against Fowlerville and Lincoln.

Whitmore Lake Offers Softball Tournament

The Whitmore Lake Junior Baseball organization will sponsor a Class C double-elimination softball tournament Saturday and Sunday, May 22 and 23. An entry fee of $80 per team will be charged.

Further information regarding this tournament may be obtained by calling Steve Livingston at 665-6171 or 449-4987.

Sluggers Win Over JCW, Lose to Saline

Chelsea's varsity baseball team took on Jackson County Western Monday, May 3, defeating the conference team, 1-0, in a quick game.

Both pitchers were the key to the game with Chelsea's John Welton pitching a two-hit shut-out and posting a league record of 4-0 this season. He walked one and struck out seven.

The only score in the game came when Gary Van Meer hit a triple and scored on a single by Doug Pagliarini. This came in the fifth inning and Western never threatened to score.

On Wednesday, the Bulldogs lost a heartbreaker to Saline, 6-7, based on the Hornets' seven-run scoring attack in the first inning. Still, the Bulldogs never allowed another score.

Pitching for Chelsea was Steve Grau and the Bulldogs out-hit their opponents, 11-7, in the contest.

Friday's game against Tecumseh was rained out.

Chelsea's loss to Saline dropped the Bulldogs to a second-place tie with Dexter. Both teams have 5-2 SEC records while Tecumseh is alone in the lead at 6-1. No other league teams are remotely close to catching these three leaders who will vie for the league title this week.

Baseball Clinic Sponsored By Recreational Dept.

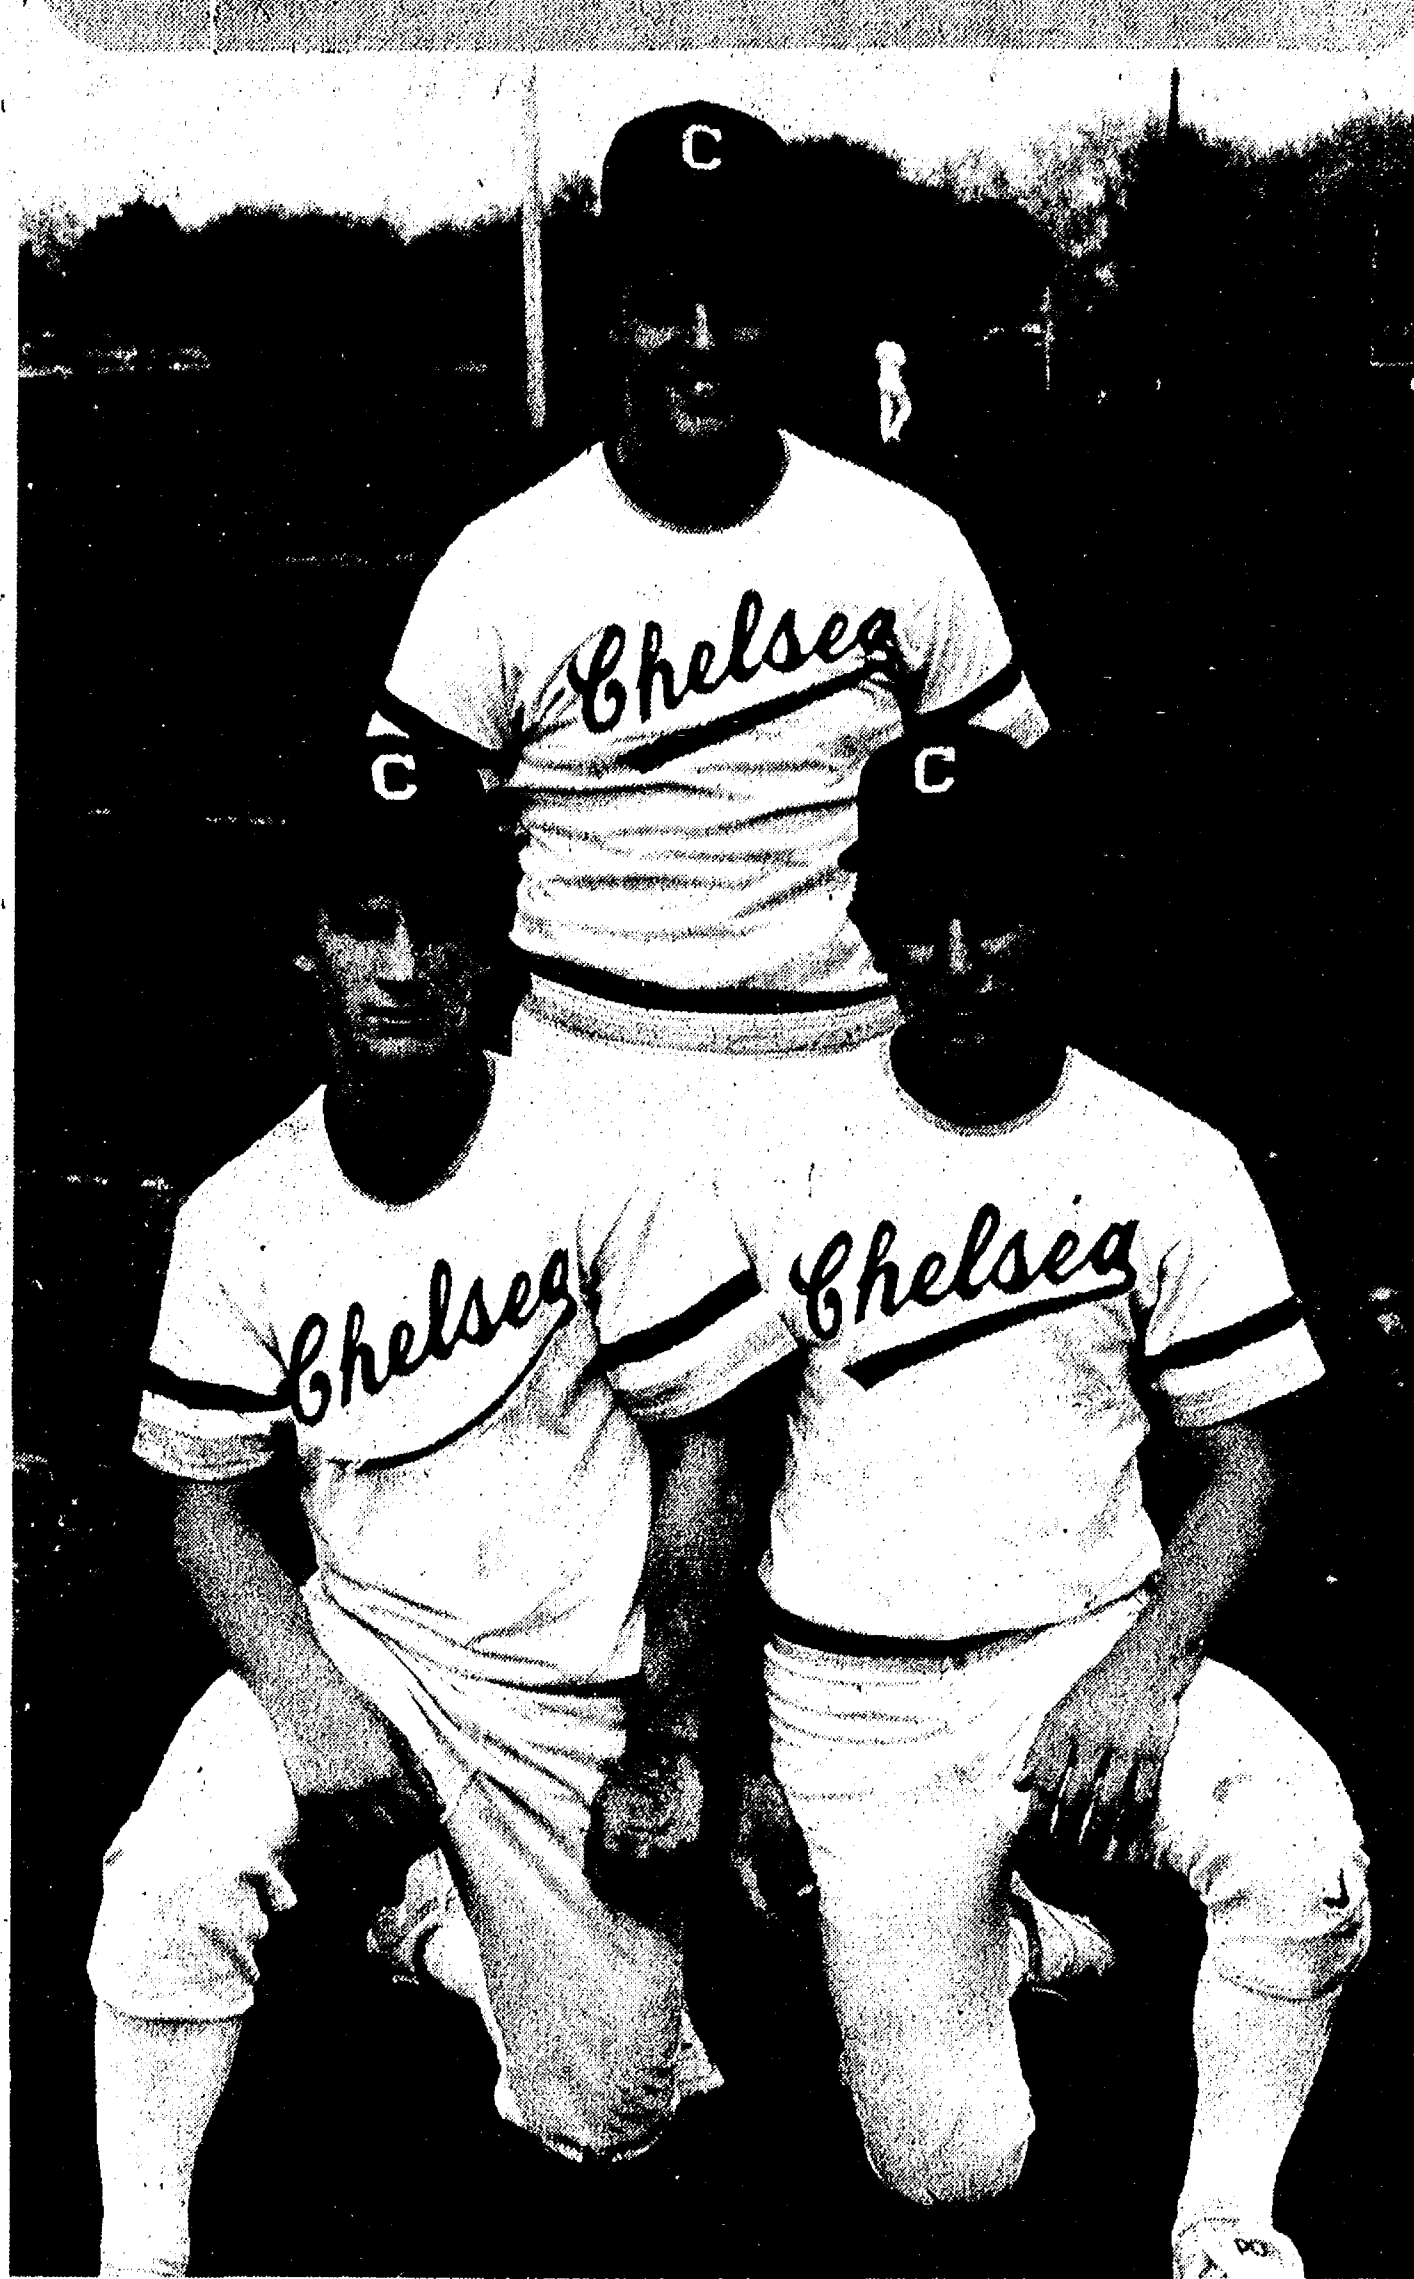

On Saturday, May 8 a youth baseball clinic was held on the Chelsea High school baseball field. Sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Council in conjunction with the Chelsea varsity baseball team, the baseball coaching staff and several former players.

Ages 7 through 11 were present during the morning session, 9-11 a.m., while 12- through 16-year-olds took part in the afternoon session, between the hours of 12-3 p.m.

A presentation of the fundamentals of baseball was made by the coaching staff and players. Areas covered included hitting, throwing, running and fielding. Emphasis was placed on the mechanics involved in each skill and individual instruction was given to each participant.

Sluggers of the Week

ROBESON, COOMES AND VAN MEER are this week's featured baseball players. Rod Robeson is a junior catcher and a second-year letterman. According to Coach Wayne Welton, he has improved dramatically from one year ago and plays with confidence. He hits well, has a fine throwing arm and is a good leader. Sam Coomes is a senior catcher/outfielder/designated hitter who loves baseball. He is very successful as a contact hitter. Gary Van Meer, is a senior first-baseman who took over that position following Mike Bareis' broken arm. He has made definite, dramatic improvements and is currently playing very good baseball. This trio has assisted Chelsea in its 5-2 showing thus far this season.

Call Mr. Kosteky (612) 432-0676. x49	Card of Thanks 16 THANK YOU The Chelsea Lions Club would like to thank the citizens of our community for making our fifth annual Lions White Cane Drive an overwhelming success with over $1,000 being contributed this year, despite the harsh economic times being experienced by all of us. Chelsea has proven once again that it has a big heart in reaching out to help those less fortunate. 100% of the funds raised by our Lions community projects go toward the support of such programs as sight and hearing conservation as well as those involving other handicaps. In addition, we support citizenship development activities for the youth of our community. The success of our fund-raising project lies not so much with the Lions members who were accepting donations at various locations throughout Chelsea, but rather with the warm-hearted spirit in which contributions were offered and the support rendered by several local businesses in the conduct of our campaign. Thank you, Chelsea, for your generosity. David Quilter, President, Chelsea Lions Club.

DEXTER TOWNSHIP
will be
TUESDAY, MAY 11
at 7:00 p.m.
Dexter Township Hall, 680
ITEM TO BE DISCUSSED:
Water Quality.

At a meeting of concerned Washenaw county senior citizens held late last month at St. Francis School, Ann Arbor, Peggy Henshaw gave a rallying call to the seniors on issues that would be of vital concern to them.

At a meeting of concerned Washtenaw county senior citizens held late last month at St. Francis School, Ann Arbor, Peggy Henshaw gave a rallying call to the seniors on issues that would be of vital concern to them.

They were told that concerned senior citizens feel the need to help make the laws. The Young Americans For Freedom of the University of Michigan will and want to help. They will take area concerns to Washington.

According to Henshaw, 25,000 senior citizens died of hunger and cold this past winter. There is concern over the high taxes and utility bills. Senior citizens are not eating in an attempt to pay for them, she cited.

John Cahill, assistant prosecuting attorney for the State of Michigan attended this meeting. He is assistant to Frank Kelley who sent his regrets that he was unable to attend. According to Cahill, utility rates and Blue Cross have two of his main concerns.

Discussion continued regarding Newsweek magazine's story earlier in the year regarding how hard downriver Detroit has been hit. Detroit is gripped in a depression and a Credit Council Center said that one of its members said it is like sliding down a bannister that feels more like a razor blade.

He was three house payments behind in addition to unpaid phone, electric and heat bills. He has $222 per week in unemployment and must pay $208 per week on his mortgage or lose his home as well as paying a $315 gas bill, $118 water, sewer and refuse bill, and $100 in electricity.

Further information was given regarding the utilities, whose profits are up 28 percent. Consumers Power is raising their rates, yet the Midland plant which was to be finished in 1974 at $256 million might be finished in 1984 at $4 billion. Rates to customers are up 37 percent above the averages in other areas of the country.

The Goodyear Tire Co., recently joined the fight. Their rates are 27 percent higher than in any other state. The steel companies have also joined the fight against high costs and the utility companies' bill passed by the legislature will raised by the legislature without public hearings. They got the go-ahead to buy the most expensive and have no incentive to try to find a cheaper source. Algerian gas and oil are three times more expensive than anywhere else and the public has been told that there will be a 50 percent increase gradually climbing to 70 percent in 20 years.

The House of Representatives voted 7-4 not to let automatic adjustments come to the floor. Hopefully, it can be voted on in November to do away with them, it was explained.

Dan Winkler, an employee of Ford Motor Co., spoke on SOS (Save Our State). He brought petitions to be passed out and signed to limit welfare and to put a ceiling on it, also to stop people from moving across state lines and collecting more from the State of Michigan. He wants the five surrounding states to have a uniform rate. An October 1980 study showed Michigan paid $391.80 or 50 percent more than Ohio. The way the law is, a person can stay on it until a child is six years old. Winkler explained that his mother had had 10 children in 20 years so she could have made a good haul had she been on ADC.

Senior citizens were urged to write letters about their concerns and send them to Tim Dodd, Young Americans For Freedom, 1014 Vaughn, Ann Arbor, 48104. He is state executive political advisor, vice-chairman of U.M. His office phone number is 764-7151 while his home number is 761-6203.

day." (Language impaired children frequently have difficulty sequencing events, days of the week, months and seasons.)

As the children were lining up to go home, the teacher reminded them, "Be sure to wear your rain gear tomorrow because it's supposed to rain cats and dogs!" Everyone laughed except Tommy who questioned Billy, "How can it rain cats and dogs?" (Like many language impaired children, Tommy takes things literally and he did not understand the idiom "raining like cats and dogs.")

Tommy's difficulties represent a composite of language problems. It is unlikely that any one child would exhibit all of these difficulties. However, it is important to realize that any child without a language impairment could display some of these characteristics. However, when a clustering of characteristics occurs, it can be indicative of a language problem.

Chelsea School District has a speech and language pathologist who is available to deal with any child who is experiencing speech, language or hearing difficulties. For further information please contact Michele Johnson at 475-9131, ext. 65 or Lynn Davis, ext. 60.

All nations will be brought to judgment before the King of kings and sentenced or rewarded for their acts.

There will be no peace on earth until the Prince of peace reigns from Jerusalem.

There will be no national contentment till all unrighteous governments and power groups have been removed and the King of righteousness has established His reign the earth, "from the River (Euphrates) to the ends of the earth." (Zec. 9:10).

There will be no character of truth demonstrated by peoples and nations till He, who said, "I am the Truth" comes and sits enthroned and reigns as world sovereign.

Chelsea High school's forensics team, under the coaching of Bill Coelius, captured the 1982 Class B State Championship following its superb performance Saturday, May 8 at Ann Arbor.

Final standings in the tournament found Chelsea in first place followed by Saginaw Eisenhower, second and Birch Run third.

Individual placers, competing against students of Class A-D high schools, were Phil Powers, second in humorous reading; Kathy Waldyke, second in radio newscasting; Tom Mull, second in storytelling; Dave Moore, fifth in informative speaking; and,

Connie Dault, seventh in storytelling.

Also representing Chelsea were Hallie Schmidt, sales; and the multiple group, "Himself," made up of Matt, Lorenz, Carl Pate, Duane Branch and Rob Moore.

This state championship is Coach Bill Coelius' first in 15 years of coaching.
