Children's Theatre Workshop Crew Producing 4 Plays

Once again, the Children's Theater Workshop, in conjunction with United Artists, a division of the TransAmerica Corp., proudly presents "Four Plays" with special emphasis on "Voices Towering Over the Mudshark Club." Phil Powers' latest masterwork which has been auditioned for Broadway next fall.

Well, in all honesty, Children's Theater Workshop has nothing to do with United Artists and "Mudshark" hasn't really been auditioned for Broadway. Nonetheless, it is with great pride that the Children's Theater Workshop presents "Four Plays" on Friday, July 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the Chelsea High school auditorium. Admission is 50 cents per person.

One of the plays to be presented on July 9 is called "Crosstown Challenge." The story revolves around two groups. An overconfident girls squad proposes a duel to the death on the soccer field. Will the boys be forced to take up their positions among the ranks of the "sissies"? Come and find out!

The show "005 Old Creek Drive," directed and written by Brian R. Myers, will be performed at 7:30 p.m. and consists of many talented students from the Children's Theater Workshop, sponsored by the Chelsea Area Players. The production involves two old ladies and a mad scientist who are producing robots to reduce the work at "005 Creek Drive."

"Nobody Listens" is a play written and directed by Michael Smith, involving a young boy's problems in finding someone to listen to him. Feeling rejected after both his family and friends shut him out, he goes out for a walk and hears something that people will have to listen to.

Tickets for this quartet of plays may be purchased from Theater Workshop participants as well as at the door the night of the performance.

'My Fair Lady' Tickets Available

Ticket information has been completed for the upcoming Chelsea Area Players' July 15-18 production of "My Fair Lady" and tickets are now on sale at Chelsea Cleaners, 113 Park St. All seats will be reserved at the four performances. Tickets for the July 15, 16 and 17, 8 p.m. performances are $5 and the 1 p.m. July 18 matinee tickets are $3.50.

The Afterglow party following the Thursday, July 15 opening night show will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Rosenberg, 14215 Riker Rd., Chelsea. There are 150 Afterglow tickets available this year; these tickets are $10 each and include the reserved seat for the July 15 performance as well as the party afterward. The Chelsea Area Players are making a special effort this year to inform the public that, as in the past years, all opening night theatergoers are invited to attend the Afterglow with the purchase of an Afterglow ticket.

"My Fair Lady" tickets may also be ordered from cast members. Further ticket information may be obtained by calling Chelsea Cleaners (ticket headquarters) at 475-1133 or from ticket chairman Bob Merkel at 475-8621 or 475-8787.

Chelsea Hospital Seeks Host Families for Visiting Chinese Nurse

Host families are being sought for the Chinese nurse executive who will be visiting Chelsea this summer and fall.

Chelsea Community Hospital has invited a senior nurse executive from the People's Republic of China to spend four months in Chelsea. The Chinese nurse will work closely with the Department of Nursing at the hospital and will be involved in a variety of activities which will give her insight into over-all planning, co-ordination and evaluation of American nursing methods. She will also participate in activities and educational experiences which will facilitate her understanding the role of nursing and how nursing care is delivered in the United States.

This educational nursing project is the first of its kind between the United States and the People's Republic of China. A senior Chinese nurse executive has never participated in a program of this nature.

While here, the Chinese nurse will live with host families in Chelsea in order to enhance her understanding of the American way of life. She will also participate in local civic and service organization programs.

The hospital auxiliary and the local committee planning the Chinese nurse's visit are seeking area families who would be interested in hosting her.

Courtroom Outburst Costs Extra 30 Days

Three days in jail and an additional two days in lieu of paying $150 in fines and costs following sentencing for driving with a suspended license was enough to send a Pinckney man into a bizarre outburst Monday at 14th District Court.

John Pratt, 20, was given the sentence early Monday morning and almost instantly began battling officers after receiving his mandatory sentence by Judge Kenneth Bronson.

Protesting that he would not be able to spend time in jail, Pratt began screaming obscenities and pounded Court Bailiff Charles Dickerson on the chest with his fists, sending the bailiff over a desk and into a blackboard. With Dickerson's help, Deputy Tim White was able to subdue Pratt, moving him into a waiting room. Judge Bronson added an additional 30 days to his original sentence for contempt of court.

Once inside the room, Pratt managed to break away and run to a corner of the room. Probation Officer Marty Authier arrived on the scene with WCSD Deputies Thomas Spiess and Larry Thayer. Also on the scene

Michigan Bell Closes Chelsea Repair Office

After more than 35 years with a location in Chelsea, Michigan Bell Telephone has closed the Chelsea repair office, located on Park St. Chelsea's Michigan Bell office serviced the Chelsea and Manchester areas in recent years.

The office closed at the end of the business day Friday, June 25, sending Bell's seven Chelsea-based employees to Ann Arbor. Those employees, working under the supervision of Jack Wellnitz while in Chelsea, will now report to different supervisors and all have opted to work in the Ann Arbor area after being given the choice of heading to Ann Arbor each day to pick up repair trucks and service the Chelsea area or work directly in Ann Arbor.

The decision to close the Chelsea office emerged about a month ago and was an Ann Arbor office decision. All Chelsea area repairs and installation services will now be handled through the Ann Arbor office.

Since the news of this closure reached the Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce, a special breakfast meeting of the Chamber's Board of Directors and eight of the major telephone users in the immediate Chelsea area has been called for Thursday, July 8. Topics to be discussed and reviewed are this recent change in service staffing and Bell's plans for the central office.

Chelsea Area Chamber of Commerce seeks a transition in equipment so that push button systems may be installed in Chelsea, to replace the antiquated switching and dialing systems. Modern communication equipment is an important factor in possibly attracting business and industry to the area.

Following the breakfast meeting, it is anticipated that the Chamber will make direct representation to Michigan Bell in hopes of re-instating the Chelsea office and updating of the present limited telephone service in the area.

Supt. Van Meer Named to MASA Executive Board

Raymond Van Meer, Superintendent, Chelsea Public Schools, has been elected to the Executive Board of the Michigan Association of School Administrators. As one of seven members on the Executive Board, Van Meer will help to set and carry out policies developed by the membership.

Van Meer has been superintendent of Chelsea schools since 1978. He has previous experience as a teacher, assistant principal, principal and assistant superintendent for Jackson Public Schools.

He received his bachelor's degree from Simpson College, Ia., and his master's degree from Michigan State University.

Van Meer has previously served M.A.S.A. as a member of the Council, Conference Planning Committee chairman and as speaker at state and national conventions.

OPEN FOR THE HOLIDAY: Cavanaugh Lake Store re-opened Tuesday, June 22, following nearly one year of non-existence after a fire destroyed the original facility in July, 1981. But now, $140,000 and a lot of elbow grease later, co-owners Tom Wingrove and Jim Nye have opened their doors once again to feature their original products including beer, wine, liquor, groceries and bait.

Cavanaugh Lake Store Opens

Nearly one year after the interior of the historic Cavanaugh Lake Store was gutted by fire and $140,000 later, the new Cavanaugh Lake Store, built directly on the site of the destroyed facility, was officially re-opened for business Tuesday, June 22 by co-owners Tom Wingrove and Jim Nye.

The new facility is slightly larger than its predecessor and was constructed, for the most part, by the partners. Nevertheless, some of the block work, etc., was sub-contracted. Still, however, pavement needs to be laid and other minor finishing touches must be added.

Just in time for the Fourth of July holiday, the re-opened Cavanaugh Lake Store will carry the same stock as the former store, consisting of beer, wine, liquor, groceries and bait and hours of operation are 8 a.m. to 11 p.m., seven days a week.

The former Cavanaugh Lake Store burned Monday, Aug. 3, 1981 and, after much investigation, the cause was determined to be (most probably) an electrical over-load.

The Pub, as it was known more than five years ago, may soon be opening its doors to the public, contingent upon the expected approval of the State of Michigan Liquor Control Commission, according to its former owner, Donald McKinley.

Second Utility Question To Be On November Ballot
The Legislature, rejecting charges they were attempting to confuse the voters, approved its own ballot proposal prohibiting automatic pass-throughs to consumers, the higher costs of fuel or purchased power.

Legislation, approved by both houses of the Legislature and if signed by the governor, is designed to go on the November ballot opposite an initiative proposal backed by the Michigan Citizens Lobby and Attorney General Frank J. Kelley.

Both the measures would prohibit the practice of utilities automatically increasing rates to cover the costs of fuel and power.

Both require hearings and approval by the Public Service Commission, but a critical difference between the two proposals is that the Citizens Lobby proposal requires that only one rate hearing be held at a time, while the legislative proposal permits several rate hearings from one utility simultaneously.

Joseph Tuchinsky, executive director of the Citizens Lobby, said multiple hearings would only guarantee that the utility rate hike requests would go through, because consumer advocates would be unable to effectively challenge them.

However, Representative Thomas Anderson (D-Southgate), chairman of a legislative utility task force, said the utilities need the ability to hold simultaneous hearings so they can recover any sudden increased costs.

Charges were levied during the legislative discussions that the proposal was only being put on the ballot opposite the Citizens Lobby one to confuse the voters, which often leads voters to vote "no" on everything.

Regardless of those charges, legislators opted for the alternate proposal and it will be on the November ballot beside the initiated one.

State May Enter Suit Against U.S. Department of Education

Through the efforts of Attorney General Kelley, the state has petitioned the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to enter into a suit pending before the court to force the federal Department of Education to use 1980 census data in allocating funds to the states, a move that will gain $18.4 million in federal school aid.

Kelley is seeking to intervene in a case currently before the court testing the legality of the department's decision to use 1970 census data rather than the updated 1980 census.

At issue is $2.4 billion in funds appropriated under the Education Consolidation and Improvement Act of 1981.

The attorney general noted that the state was notified that it will receive approximately $93.6 million for the next school year. He predicted that if 1980 census figures are used, the state would be eligible for about $112 million.

The intervention is necessary because the New York suit only seeks relief for the states already involved in the court fight.

Kelley noted that Michigan's legal claim is identical to that of the other states involved.

If allowed to intervene, Kelley said he will argue the Department of Education failed to calculate aid payments as prescribed by the law which mandates use of "the most recent satisfactory data available from the Department of Commerce."

The 1980 census shows Michigan having 263,508 eligible children compared to 1970 date of 220,485.

"It is wholesale nonsense to conduct the census every 10 years and not use it," Kelley concluded.

Steven Marriott Escapes Crash With Minor Cuts, Bruises

On Saturday, June 19, at 7:08 a.m., a one-car accident occurred on Old US-12, one-half mile from Fahrner Rd. in Sylvan township.

According to Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department reports, Steven M. Marriott, 22, of 16843 Kilmer Rd., Grass Lake, was traveling east-bound on Old US-12 in a 1978 Ford pickup truck when he apparently fell asleep. The vehicle struck two fence posts and an electrical pole and Marriott was thrown from the truck. He landed in a depression in a ditch and the truck rolled over him, causing minor cuts and bruises.

Dep. Anderson Brown did not issue any citations.

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

It must be, declared Bug Hookum, that all the town boards in the world have run out of business that ain't been took care of by higher Government, and they are filling their agendas with anything that comes to mind. For instant, Bug told the fellers at the country store Saturday night, he had saw where this little town in Georgia said all God's children gotta fish.

What actual happened, Bug said, was the Town Board passed a law saying ever household had to have a fishing pole. This can be took so many ways, Bug went on, til he didn't know where to start. If everybody has got to own a fishing pole it follers that everybody's got to fish, so everybody's got to have a place to fish, and pritty soon you're right back with the old problem of more services than a small town can stand. Suppose, Bug said, the fishing pole town has a trout stream and the law proves so popular that the town 10 mile up the road passes a law saying ever household has got to have a set of golf clubs. But suppose this town don't have a golf course. Bug said these layouts don't come cheap, and they ain't much use fer the Town Board to appeal to a higher Government cause Washington has gone out of the golf course building business.

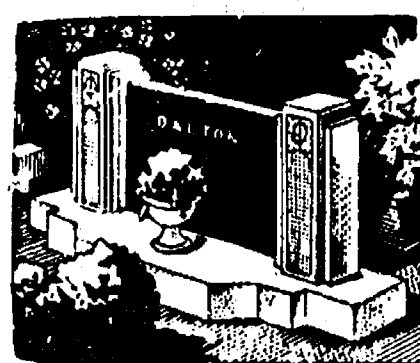

For all the ways of looking at the fishing pole law, Bug said he ruther look at the little town in Italy where they passed a law to keep ugly wimmen from going naked on the beach. Bug said the town fathers got heat from all the wimmen that figgered they meant them, and the law was took off the books. But the point was made, Bug said, that the town Government set itself up as a judge of what's beautiful and what ain't, and that's moving in a new area of service. Bug said it allus has been his feeling that beauty was skin deep and ugly is all the way to the bone, and he didn't need a law to tell him the difference.

Practical speaking, Clem Webster said, the trouble with laws is competition. If one town's got a new one, ever town wants one. Clem recalled no sooner did a Illinois town pass a law outlawing guns than a town in Georgia passed one saying everybody had to have a gun. For sure, Clem declared, some town in Italy is working on a law to keep beautiful naked wimmen off the beach with the idee that they take the men's minds off fishing and golf and whatever else other laws say they ought to be doing. And then the next town will say all wimmen got to cover up equal, and the fun will be over for everybody, was Clem's words.

Ed Doltile said laws is a puzzlement to him. He said he can't figger why a law that calls fer equal rights regardless of sex can't pass when a "lemon law" giving more rights to new car buyers breezes through the state legislature in Connecticut. Maybe, Ed said, it's because you wouldn't need a lawyer to understand one, but the other one will keep all the lawyers busy. After the new car smell wears off Solomon himself can't tell which a owner really is worrying about, the car or the payments, was Ed's words.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Tour Days Slated For Saline Valley Tillage Plots

Crop production under conservation and conventional cropping methods will be compared on a tour of Saline Valley Project tillage plots July 7 and 8. The plots consist of corn and soybeans grown in adjacent strips of moldboard plowed, chisel plowed and no-till planted ground. All other factors, such as seed variety and fertilizer have been kept constant within plots so differences in crop growth between tillage methods may be seen.

The Saline Valley Project, part of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Rural Clean Water Program, is promoting chisel plowing and no-till planting because of their ability to control soil erosion. These methods, unlike moldboard plowing, leave a portion of crop residue on the soil surface which provides protection from the erosive forces of wind and rain. Less cropland erosion results in less soil and fertilizer run-off into lakes and streams and improved water quality—the goal of the Saline Valley Project.

"Farmers are interested in improved soil conservation and clean water, but they also have to be sure the cropping methods they use will result in a net farm profit," commented Ron Struss, Saline Valley Project coordinator. "These plots are designed to demonstrate that conservation farming can be as profitable or more profitable than conventional farming on both the long and short run," he continued.

The tours will include discussions from Co-operative Extension and Soil Conservation Service personnel, herbicide company representatives and the farmers who prepared the plots.

On Wednesday, July 7, the tour will be in the Dexter-Ann Arbor area and start at 7 p.m. at Charles Trinkle's corn plot on Easton Rd., west of Steinhach Rd.

Following Trinkle's plot the tour will continue to Elmer Dible's soybean plot on Parker Rd. 1 mile south of Jackson Rd.

On Thursday, July 8, the tour will be in the Saline-Milan area and starts at 9:30 a.m. at Ernie Griebach's corn plot on Arkona Rd., 1 mile west of Jordan Rd., and continue to Duane Sheat's corn plot on Plank Rd., north of Bunce Rd.

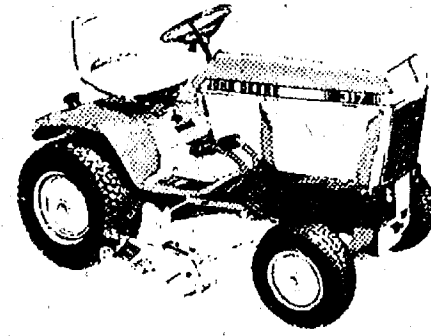

Following Sheat's corn plot, the tour will move to a soybean plot on the corner of Corn and Bunce Rds., also planted by Sheats.

According to Struss, the plots are well marked and are open to informal inspections at any time.

To control improper payments, the U.S. Labor Department's Unemployment Insurance Service carried out a pilot random audit program in five state employment security agencies during the 1981 fiscal year, according to the Labor Department's annual report.

'Vaudeville' Comes To Black Sheep For 3-Week Run

Black Sheep Theatre of Manchester announces the return of "Vaudeville," its annual salute to the musical entertainment of days past. Originally scheduled to run the first three weeks of October, "Vaudeville!" has been moved up to July to accommodate summer patrons and provide a complete musical season for the warm weather months.

"Vaudeville!" performances will be Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evening at 8:15 and Sunday afternoon at 4, July 9 through Aug. 1.

Numerous vaudeville shows have played this theatre since it was first opened in 1867. At that time, Manchester was a crossroads for rail traffic and a very popular recreation spot. The Black Sheep Theatre carries on the tradition. "Vaudeville!" offers the songs, dances, and fancy patter that entertained generations past and will delight modern audiences. Thrill to the incredible Flying Zucchini Brothers, cheer to hero and hiss the villain in a classic melodrama, and call for the hook if an act isn't up to snuff. Will Dick the Floor Sweep return with his impromptu between-the-acts merriment?

Telephone reservations are accepted at the box office between noon and six, Tuesday through Sunday. Call (313) 428-9280.

Farm Products Exports Jump in '81

During fiscal year 1981, Michigan farmers exported more agricultural products than ever before, according to Dean Pridgeon, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Exports totalled $943.6 million, an increase of $256 million or 27 percent above a previous record of $687.3 million set in fiscal 1980. "Shipments of corn, dry edible beans, wheat and soybeans accounted for nearly $240 million or 94 percent of the increase," Pridgeon said.

"By finding appropriate overseas markets for our farm surpluses, both the farmer and the state benefit," Pridgeon added.

Feed grains and products led Michigan farm commodity exports, accounting for 43 percent of the total. Approximately one-third of Michigan's corn crop, valued at $406.5 million, was sold to foreign countries.

Vegetables and dry edible beans accounted for $154.5 million—an 85 percent increase over last year's level. Two-thirds of Michigan's wheat crop, and half of the soybean crop were also sold to overseas markets.

Chelsea Students Receive Scholarships For Interlochen Study

The Michigan Youth Symphony Parents Organization has awarded partial scholarships to Chelsea High school students Bill Merkel, string bassist, and Carolyn Chandler, who plays French horn. They will attend the two-week All-State orchestra session at Interlochen where they will receive in-depth study in sight reading, repertoire building and techniques related to their particular instruments.

Seventeen scholarships were awarded by the Parents' Organization to students who have been involved in the regular season in 1981 and 1982. The Michigan Youth Symphony is sponsored by the University of Michigan School of Music. The orchestra is conducted by Dr. Robert Culver, professor at the School of Music. Rehearsals are held weekly at the University of Michigan campus and sectionals are run by the U-M faculty. The students perform throughout the state and range in age from 11 to 18.

The 1982-83 season will open Sept. 18 with an open rehearsal to begin at 9:30 a.m. in the rehearsal hall in the School of Music. All interested musicians are urged to attend this open rehearsal. This is not an audition. Information may be obtained by calling (313) 349-0036 or (517) 784-6627.

THE SUPERINSE TOILET is assembled at Thetford Corporation's Jackson Rd. plant near Dexter. Each unit is carefully tested to ensure the high quality of performance that is associated with the Thetford name.

Thetford Solves Many Drainfield Problems

With summer here, Michigan's lake residents become aware of their septic tank and drainfield problems; problems they conveniently boarded up when winterizing their cottages last fall.

Many lake lots have small drainfields and can't handle summer demands. A new product from an Ann Arbor company can solve those problems.

The season brings more people out to enjoy the lake, increasing the demand for household water which produces extra wastewater.

In an effort to avoid the drainfield problems, people may flush their toilet just once each day. It is an unpleasant and unsanitary answer but it does decrease the volume of wastewater going out to the field.

It is this type of wastewater dilemma that Thetford Corporation's new one gallon flush toilet can solve. Thetford's new "Superinse" toilet accomplishes the objective of lowered water usage without this unpleasantness.

A conventional commode uses up to seven gallons of water per flush. Superinse uses just one gallon per flush. That means less wastewater besides the added benefit of water savings too. Water conservation also means less strain on well pumps with fewer filter replacements.

Bathrooms are not unfamiliar territory for Thetford. The company, founded in Michigan 20 years ago, is probably best known for its recreational vehicle (RV) toilets and its Porta Potti, a hand-carried portable toilet.

"We've been hit hard over the past couple of years with the downturn in the RV industry and the general economic conditions throughout Michigan and the United States," James R. Drenning, Thetford's vice-president said. "But we see our Superinse toilet offering real value and savings to the consumer as well as representing new technology for Michigan."

"We're as optimistic about Thetford's future as we are about Michigan's," he added.

Since introducing the new system, Thetford has received inquiries and orders from government, builders and plumbing contractors all over the United States.

"Because of our special interest in Michigan we will sell our toilet to anyone in this state for $350, plus shipping," Drenning promised, "that's $200 less than the retail price."

"We all have a lot going for us in this state and, being a company born and raised here, we are saying 'yes' to Michigan," Drenning said.

Thetford, on Jackson Rd. in Ann Arbor, began manufacturing the Superinse toilet in February and already has them installed and operating in 11 states.

"We've had nothing but good reports on its performance," he said.

"One company in Kentucky installed Superinse in its factory because they were on a holding tank and wanted to reduce frequency of pump-outs," Drenning said. "They told us they have gone three times as long between expensive pump-outs by installing our Superinse."

Today, with sales of $35 million, Thetford Corp. is the nation's leader in wastewater control for recreational, commercial, industrial and residential use.

The Porta Potti people aren't just providing for campers anymore.

Farm Stored Reserve Grain May Be Rotated

Earl Doletzky, chairman of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, said farm stored grain placed in the farmer-held reserve may be rotated as new crops are harvested. He explained that rotation will help maintain the quality of reserve grain.

One method of rotating farm stored reserve grain is for the farmer with sufficient storage capacity to store his most recent harvest on his farm, and then obtain authorization from the county ASC committee to release the older crop(s) from the other bin(s).

If a farmer does not have sufficient storage space, upon approval of the county office committee, reserve grain can also be released to the farmer up to 30 days before the farmer expects to have the new grain harvested. The grain can then be removed from the bin and sold or fed.

A third method is for the producer to get permission from the county committee about 90 days before harvest, to release the reserve grain which is then placed in a licensed warehouse. "We will hold the warehouse receipt until 30 days before harvest," Doletzky said.

To help strengthen grain prices, many farmers placed their crops in the reserve program. The reserve isolates grain from the market up to three years or until market prices reach stated levels. Farmers participating in the program receive annual storage payments in advance, and also profit from increased grain prices.

Laura Koepele Attends Music Seminar at BGSU

Nearly 70 junior and senior high school students from Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Pennsylvania attended summer music camps last week at Bowling Green State University.

Three camps, including a high school flute camp, a keyboard institute and a woodwind camp, opened Sunday, June 20 at the Moore Musical Arts Center on campus. Each is part of an annual Summer Music Institute for young musicians offered by the University's College of Musical Arts.

The fourth annual High School Flute Camp, which has 25 students enrolled, offers instruction by University music faculty in the fundamentals of solo and ensemble performance, as well as an opportunity for students to perform in recital.

About 27 junior and senior high school piano students are enrolled in the third annual Keyboard Institute, co-sponsored by the University's Creative Arts Program. The institute features studio classes and private lessons in addition to master classes in piano. Students attending the institute also give recitals on the final two days of the program.

Summer Winds, a new camp for high school clarinetists, saxophonists, oboists and bassoonists, gives the 14 students enrolled a chance to study chamber music with University faculty. The woodwind students, like those enrolled in other music camps also give recitals.

Each of the week-long camps concluded on Friday, June 25. Among those students taking part in the camp was Laura Koepele, 15, of Chelsea. Attending the flute camp at BGSU, Laura is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Koepele, 14020 Waters Rd.

As of June 22, 1982, Washtenaw county farmers had placed 747,345 bushels of wheat and feed grains into the reserve.

For further clarification on rotating reserve grain, contact the local ASCS office.

Cong. Dunn Honored By Seniors

Congressman Jim Dunn (Mich.-6) has been recognized by the National Alliance of Senior Citizens for his outstanding record on issues of critical interest to our nation's elderly.

Congressman Dunn received an 80 percent rating in the eighth annual "Golden Age Index" compiled by NASC, which has a membership of a half million people nationwide, making it the country's second largest senior organization.

Curt Clinkscales, national director of NASC, said: "We're proud of Jim and his excellent service to the senior community of the Sixth Congressional District in Michigan."

Congressman Dunn has been presented with a certificate which reads: "This high honor is reserved for those who by their actions have demonstrated concern, compassion, and understanding of the unique problems of America's senior community."

During his introduction to the "Golden Age Hall of Fame," Congressman Dunn said that he was proud of the honor and pleased that his work on behalf of senior citizens has been recognized.

"America owes a great deal to its elderly community for the contributions it has made throughout the years," he said. "We must commit ourselves to providing the best possible care and attention to seniors everywhere."

NASC scored Congressmen on 10 issues considered of major importance to the well-being of senior citizens.

Farmers Urged To File Report on Planted Acreage

Farmers, who have not done so, are urged by Barbara Cranson, district director, Federal Crop Insurance Corp., to report to their agent as soon as possible the insured acreage they have planted. The Acreage Report establishes the amount of acreage that will be insured under an "All Risk" Crop Insurance policy.

The amount of acreage insured by the Federal Crop Insurance Corp. in 1982 exceeds previous records. This has created a burden for insurance agents in securing the many Acreage Reports. Cranson requests that insured farmers call their agent as soon as possible to report planted acreage.

Timely and accurate acreage reports benefit the farmer in assuring a correct premium billing and prompt handling of a crop loss.

In ancient Rome, unmarried girls were prohibited by law from wearing pearls. Instead, the pearls were worn by young men, who placed the pearls in tiny bells which, hanging from their ears, tinkled gaily.

K. Ullman, D. Kleis Awarded National Merit Scholarships

Katharine S. Ullman of 20931 Island Lake Rd. and Daniel R. Kleis, 19070 Ivey Rd., have been named as winners of college-sponsored four-year merit scholarships by National Merit Scholarship Corp. of Evanston, Ill.

Approximately 185 U.S. four-year institutions of higher education are sponsoring some 2,000 Merit Scholarships this year. Recipients must enroll for undergraduate study at the college or university financing the Merit Scholarships, worth between $1,000 and $8,000 over four years. College sponsors have committed about $8 million for this year's winners to attend their institutions.

Of more than 1 million students who entered the 27th annual Merit Program, only those who qualified as semifinalists and then advanced to finalist standing were considered for Merit Scholarships. The 15,000 semifinalists, identified publicly in the fall of 1981, represented the top half of one percent of graduating seniors in their respective states; of these students, 13,500 became finalists in 1982 and competed for some 5,300 Merit Scholarships worth more than $17 million.

Katharine Ullman has won a Northwestern University Merit Scholarship. At Chelsea High school, she was a member of the symphony orchestra for four years. A member of the National Honor Society for two years, Ullman also participated in the Michigan Youth Symphony one year. She played in the pit orchestra, for four musicals and was a member of the forensics team, debate team and yearbook staff for one year.

Northwestern University is a major teaching and research institution whose undergraduate campus is located in Evanston, Ill. Its full-time undergraduate enrollment includes 8,500 students pursuing programs of study in the arts and sciences as well as the specific professional schools of education, engineering, journalism, music and speech.

Daniel Kleis was a member of the National Honor Society for two years while at Chelsea High school. A Michigan Math Test finalist for two years, Kleis was both psychology award winner and opinion editor of the Chelsea High school newspaper. He has won a Michigan State University Merit Scholarship.

MSU, the nation's pioneer land-grant university, offers approximately 200 different undergraduate programs and provides special opportunities for superior students through its distinctive, invitational honors college. Walter Hamilton Seeks District Court Judgeship

Walter K. Hamilton, an Ypsilanti attorney, has announced his candidacy for the position of judge of the 14th District Court.

In announcing his candidacy, Hamilton made the following statement, "No one owns the title of Judge. It is lent to him by the people he is elected to serve, and he is, and ought to be, accountable for the character and quality of the justice in his court. I believe that this year provides an opportunity to improve the quality and responsiveness of the 14th District Court serving Ypsilanti."

"Each case coming before a District Judge should be resolved fairly and with equal individual, unprejudiced attention. No litigant should ever feel that his matter has been predetermined by the judge's attitude toward a kind of person or a kind of case."

WALTER K. HAMILTON

We have adequate judicial resources in this community to provide efficient and prompt justice without haste and without communicating to individuals before the court that they do not have the right to take up the judge's time. A judge can by his manner and deportment and his respect for the system and the human beings involved convey the very real impression that this court is an expression and agent of a truly civilized society.

Hamilton, 37, was raised in Flint and received a bachelor's degree in history with highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1966. He is a 1969 graduate of the University of Michigan Law School with cum laude honors. Following his graduation from law school, he served as a law clerk to now Supreme Court Justice Charles Levin and Federal Court Judge Thaddeus Machrowitz. He has lived in Washtenaw county since 1966 and entered the practice of law here in 1970.

He began practicing law in Ypsilanti with the law offices of Kenneth Bronson and Ronald Egnor and in 1975 became a partner in the firm of Egnor, Hamilton & Muth, where he is at present engaged in the general practice of law. He has served as City Prosecutor and Assistant City Attorney for the City of Ypsilanti for a period of some eight years.

Hamilton has been admitted to practice before all Michigan Courts and the United States District Courts for Michigan and is a member of the American Bar Association, Michigan Bar Association and Local Trial Lawyers Association. He is vice-chair of the Legislation Committee of the Family Law Section of the State Bar.

Hamilton is a member of various community organizations and has been since 1975 a member of the Washtenaw County Community Mental Health Board, holding both the offices of treasurer and vice-chair.

He resides with his wife, Nancy, and two children on Edison St. in Ypsilanti township.

Good Things Growing in Michigan

By Margaret G. McCall
Celebrate the Fourth of July this year with a traditional American event, a pork barbecue. Or "a pig pickin'," as people in the Carolinas say.

A friend phoned last week seeking advice on roasting a whole pig. Despite a collection of several hundred cookbooks, I was unable to help, since my outdoor barbecue books are out on loan. Perhaps one of you readers could supply instructions.

For a smaller crowd, you can barbecue one or two whole pork loins on a rotisserie, and feed from 20 to 35 people. Figure about three servings per pound, and one or two six-pound boneless pork loins. Ask your butcher to remove the bones and tie the roasts. (Save the bones for spareribs.)

Insert a rotisserie rod through center of roast, and test for balance on the spit before you begin operations. It's a good idea to use a meat thermometer, which should not touch bone or rest in fat. Roast on the spit until well done (170 degrees), at a low temperature. Allow about 2½ hours total cooking time. Baste with barbecue sauce during the last 45 minutes. If you have only one rotisserie, you can prepare one loin roast ahead and keep warm in a low oven (basting occasionally) while the other cooks.

Here's my favorite barbecue sauce for pork. It was given to me back in 1968 by a friend from Alabama who used to barbecue whole hogs a couple of times a year, and it's really delicious.

Combine the following ingredients, heat and use to baste meat. Have plenty of extra in a bowl for dipping or to ladle over portions at the table.

One gallon apple cider vinegar, 1 pound brown sugar, 1 pint lemon juice, 12 oz. bottle Worcestershire, 1 pint prepared mustard, 1 to 2 tablespoons salt, 1 quart catsup, and Tabasco to taste (I use about ½ teaspoonful). Keeps well refrigerated.

BEWARE SPEEDERS: Operation C.A.R.E./Skyguard, a co-operative spotting system between the Army National Guard and the Michigan State Police, will be in full force this week-end in hopes of curbing traffic-related fatalities and accidents.

Helicopters Will Watch for Holiday Week-End Speeders

The Michigan Army National Guard has been ordered to active duty to assist the Michigan State Police in Operation C.A.R.E./Sky Guard during the upcoming July 4th Holiday week-end in an effort to reduce the loss of lives on Michigan's highways.

Lt. Governor James Brickley has signed an executive order which will allow six (6) Army National Guard helicopters to work in conjunction with State Police aircraft monitoring major trunkline highways. Each helicopter will be carrying a state police officer who will be conducting air speed timing to insure compliance with the 55 mph speed limit, as well as watching for traffic accidents and stranded motorists. Lt. Governor Brickley cited the loss of 22 lives during the 1981 July 4th holiday weekend as the basis for his action.

Colonel Gerald L. Hough, Director of the State Police, advised that this is the first time that Army National Guard aircraft have assisted the State Police Operation C.A.R.E. Program and, it is hoped that their support will be the catalyst for a decrease in holiday week-end death and injuries.

Rabies Becoming Problem

Wildlife rabies is increasing and along with it is an increasing risk to people and their pets, according to the Michigan Veterinary Medical Association.

Last summer a young girl in Dearborn was bitten by her own dog. The dog was confirmed as having rabies and the girl was successfully treated.

A Tucson, Ariz., man was less fortunate. The same summer he was bitten by his dog, but testing for rabies on the dog's brain was negative. The man did not undergo treatment. Subsequently, he developed rabies and died. The Center for Disease Control in Atlanta reports the incidence of confirmed rabies has increased from 3,298 in 1978 to more than 7,000 in 1981.

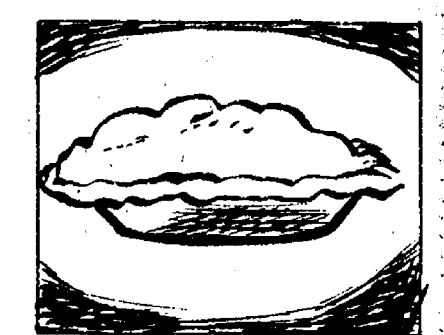

Last year rabies was more common in cats than in dogs. Part of the problem is that most areas do not require cats to be vaccinated. The most common source of exposure is the growing skunk population. Other high risk wild animals are foxes, bats, and raccoons.

What happens if your dog or cat is bitten by a confirmed rabid animal? If your pet isn't currently vaccinated against rabies, you can choose between a six-months locked-enclosure quarantine or humane euthanasia. If your pet is currently vaccinated against rabies, a three-months quarantine is required. Your pet will be vaccinated at the beginning and the end of the quarantine.

You can protect yourself and your pets by: (1) keeping your pet's vaccinations current, (2) avoiding wild animal contact by not letting your pet run free, (3) avoiding skunks, raccoons, bats, and foxes—these are not recommended pets, and (4) knowing that rabies vaccination is available to people but is generally only given to people who are at high risk.

Kathryn Waldyke Grant Scholarship By Calvin College

Calvin College in Grand Rapids, has awarded an $850 Freshman Honor Scholarship to Kathryn Waldyke of 555 Chandler St., Chelsea. Kathryn has been accepted into Calvin's freshman class for September 1982.

Calvin College awards these scholarships to freshmen for superior academic achievement and potential. Kathryn is a 1982 graduate of Chelsea High school.

Established in 1876, Calvin is a Christian, four-year liberal arts college owned and operated by the Christian Reformed Church in North America.

WCC Trustees Adopt Tight Budget for '83

Washtenaw Community College Trustees approved a "hold the line" budget for 1982-83 of $16,945,200, an 8.8 percent increase.

"The budget increase is expected to cover the inflationary increases next year, but will provide minimal growth in programs," Gunder A. Myran, president, said.

Revenue from state aid is expected to decrease by $256,000, a decline of 6.5 percent. Tuition for next year was increased in March and should produce $904,900 more in revenue. Tuition was increased by $5.50 per credit hour to $24. An increase of 8 percent in property tax revenue is expected; there is no change in the College tax levy of 2.25 mills for operations. The College will use $635,300 from fund balance to complete the revenue side of the budget.

Expenses have been reduced during the current year through a concentrated program of close review of costs, Dr. Myran said. This will continue next year and is reflected in budgeted increases of 5 percent for utilities and non-personnel expenses. Personnel expense will increase by 9.9 percent principally reflecting bargaining agreement costs and no increase in staff positions.

"We anticipate a very tight budget year allowing for very little growth. Program changes during the year will come from a reallocation of resources or outside funding," Dr. Myran said.

Chelsea Social Service In 51st Year of Helping Area

Chelsea Social Services was begun 51 years ago by the Chelsea Child Study Club, now known as the Woman's Club of Chelsea. As an outgrowth of the Social Service Committee, Chelsea Social Service evolved in 1951 with Mrs. Paul Schaible serving as the first chairman.

The aim of the organization was to help families in emergencies or to give assistance until such time as regular help from welfare agencies could be established. Their experience during the first year, when they worked with only $100 from club funds, was limited to a comparatively few families. Nevertheless, they served a total of 82 persons during the first Christmas.

When the Chelsea Community Chest (United Way) was formed in 1954, the Committee petitioned for Chest funds and received an initial grant of $300, which enabled them to expand their activities. The Chest was willing to support their efforts for they knew this money would all be expended locally. The Community Chest continued to support the activities of the Committee with a larger grant after a year's experience demonstrated the need for this type of agency in the community.

On Jan. 22, 1956, the Chelsea Social Service, as it exists today, came into being with the securing of the part-time services of a social worker to operate the office under the supervision of a Board of Directors. It was at this time that Chelsea Social Service became a separate, tax-free entity primarily concerned with the long term well-being of the community.

Currently heading Chelsea Social Service are Linda Ormsby, who also co-ordinates the Saline Social Service program, and Jackie Riethmiller. The pair share office responsibilities for Chelsea Social Service, with office hours of 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each Thursday. The office is located on the second floor of the Municipal Building, near the Council chambers.

The functions of Chelsea Social Service include the giving of emergency assistance with food, fuel, clothing and medical care to needy persons; counseling with persons with problems and referring them to the appropriate professional agencies for help; and supervising community giving to the needy at holiday times in such a way as to prevent duplication and to insure that all those in need, particularly children, receive gifts of food, clothing and toys.

According to Ormsby, situations confronting Chelsea Social Service range from assisting an elderly resident with business problems (such as a missing Social Security check) to finding food, clothing and shelter for a hungry, homeless mother and her children. Typically, however, a day's work consists of providing informational and referral services. This may include developing work plans for assistance such as the location of temporary living quarters or employment. Usually, at the time someone visits Chelsea Social Service, he or she is confused; Ormsby and Riethmiller make every attempt to locate whatever these visitors require.

According to Ormsby, many changes have taken place at CSS within recent months. Many people have moved to the community and are in need of help and many other long-time residents also require assistance. But, for the most part, Chelsea's need is evidenced in just a few isolated cases.

Chelsea Social Service is still funded through the Chelsea United Way as well as individual and group contributions, especially at Christmas, Easter and Thanksgiving.

Though not affiliated with the Department of Social Services and not political in any way, Chelsea Social Service is able to work co-operatively with DSS in its search for the necessary assistance.

Big Boy Finally Handed First Loss

Chelsea Big Boy lost its first two league games last week, but still retain the league lead in the Ann Arbor fast pitch race. Prior to their two-game stumble, they had reeled off nine consecutive wins.

Omega Farms defeated Big Boy, 6-2, Tuesday night. Brewer's Gulf outscored Chelsea, 13-9, Thursday evening.

In the Omega game, Jim Bennett stifled Big Boy's hot bats and his teammates provided him with six runs, as Omega handed Big Boy its first league defeat. Craig Houle managed two hits, including a triple; Wayne Welton scored a run and drove in the other to cause Big Boy's only damage. Steve Bertson worked only two innings, getting relief help from Jim Strong who finished up. Bertson got the loss. His record is now 4-2.

In the Thursday night slugfest, Brewer's Gulf outscored Big Boy, 13-9. Chelsea fell behind early, allowing Brewer's to score three runs in the opening inning. Big Boy tallied three times in their own first inning, and scored three more runs in the second inning to take a 6-3 lead. The Brewer's got two back in the third inning and surged in front in the fourth, scoring five times and knocking John Strong from the mound. This made it 10-6. Big Boy came right back and closed the gap to 10-9 with three more runs in the fifth. But the Brewer's, led by former Chelsea player Jim Berra, added three more runs in the sixth inning and the final score read, 13-9, for the Brewer's. Berra had two singles and two home runs and drove in seven runs for the Brewer's to lead his team to the win.

Big Boy got three hits from Roger Bourne, including a triple and an RBI. Craig Houle had two hits with three RBIs. Wayne Welton had two hits with an RBI, and Bruce Wagner also had two hits, including a home run.

John Strong took his first league defeat. His over-all record is 10-3. Chelsea has two big games this week. Tonight they play Wolverine Supply and Thursday night they face second-place Central Cafe. All games are played at Vet's Park; nine games remain in league action.

Indians Undefeated In Little League

Royals 13, Yankees 6

Stan Starkey's Royals took a commanding lead in the first two innings of Little League play last week to go on to defeat Phil Weis' Yankees, 13-6. The Royals' bats exploded early with B. Talbot, C. Starkey (2), J. Collins, J. Richardson, R. Nye and K. Plank all hitting singles. Hitting doubles were P. Spencer and K. Roth while R. Nye added a long home run.

B. Talbot was the fielding utility man, being everywhere the ball was. He and M. Hallo combined to make a great run-down put out between second and third.

The Yankees were not shut out completely. R. Thorne had two singles and B. Huetteman hit a single and a home run. Defensively, T. Messnard, D. Adams, M. Hodgson and R. Thorne did well. Pitching were M. Hubal, B. Huetteman and T. Ferry.

Indians 3, Blazers 2

Stan Morseau's Indians took a tough game away from Bruce Hansen's Blazers by a score of 3-2. Jr. Morseau pitched a fine game, striking out 13 batters. Rob Finch caught while N. Hatto did a great job at third base. For the Blazers, B. Paddock hit a single and C. Maynard hit a double. Defensively for the Blazers, B. Hansen, M. Forner and R. Lyerla were outstanding. C. Maynard and J. Patterson combined to hold the Indians to only one hit.

Angels 5, Blazers 3

Larry Nix's Angels played well enough to defeat Bruce Hansen's Blazers, 5-3. David Bable started an Angel rally in the first with a great single. Luman Strong followed with a single. L. Nix hit a homer in the third. B. Hansen did a fantastic job behind the plate, allowing only a couple of passed balls. M. Connell made a great catch to stop a Blazer rally while M. Thompson stopped a long hit ball to hold a Blazer runner to a double.

However, the Blazers' bats again were hot. Hitting singles were L. Beeman (2), C. Maynard, T. Draper and M. Connell. S. Marentay hit a home run. The pitchers were very tough all game long, holding the Angels to no runs in the fourth, fifth or sixth innings.

Indians 15, Tigers 7

Ken Larson's Tigers had a rough time against Stan Morseau's Indians. The Indians scored in every inning except the third. J. Schutte and R. Finch were the big hitters of the night. Each had a home run and had four RBIs.

The Tigers scored in all the innings but the third and fourth. The bats got hot in the fourth but a fine job by Jr. Morseau, J. Schutte, and R. Finch ended the rally with a double play. The Indians are now 3-0 for the season.

Blazers 6, Royals 2

Bruce Hansen's Blazers were hot again as they went on to defeat Stan Starkey's Royals, 6-2, Thursday. The game was a good pitching duel until the third inning, when C. Maynard, M. Mottliger, R. Lyerla and J. Patterson all hit singles to have a four-run rally for the Blazers. Then, in the fourth inning, J. Scripser hit a two-run single, M. Mottliger hit a triple.

S. Everett, for the Royals, made a great diving catch to end another Blazer attack in the fifth. In the sixth, the Royals bounced back when J. Marshall opened with a double and G. Clark hit a single to score the two runs. This win moves the Blazers to second place and the Royals are tied for third with the Angels.

Indians 10, Yankees 2

Phil Weis' Yankees continue to have a hard time, losing to Stan Morseau's hot Indians, 10-2. The Yankees hit the ball well but the Indians were very tough in the field. Hitting singles for the Yankees were D. Adams, M. Weis, B. Huetteman. J. Smith hit a double.

But, for the Indians, B. Paddock, Jr. Morseau, J. Beaver, B. Burg and E. Hammer each hit a single. R. Finch hit a double and J. Schutte hit a triple. R. Finch and J. Schutte combined to hold the Yanks to only two runs. S. Landrum didn't let a ball go by at first base and J. Beaver had a run saving a catch in the outfield. Doing a great job at defense was C. Salyer and B. Paddock. The Indians stay on top with an undefeated record of 4-0. The Yankees don't have a win but the season isn't over yet.

'SAFE BOATING TIPS'

From Ann Arbor Flotilla 17-03,
U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary

*Pleasure Boaters Should Be Weather Wise

Sudden summer storms can cause serious problems for the pleasure boater, according to Ann Arbor's Flotilla 17-03 of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, which provides the following safe boating tips.

Be "weather wise." Before departing on a boating trip, check official weather and water conditions. Carry a portable radio aboard, and keep it tuned to government weathercasts or local stations which broadcast weather news frequently. At the first sign of heavy weather, head for sheltered waters.

Dark clouds at low altitude—often approaching from the west or south—may signal a line squall, with high winds which are frequently followed by heavy rain. Many lives are lost needlessly each year by boaters who fail to find shelter in time.

If a red triangle is flying at your marina, stay at home. This means "small craft warnings." Pleasure craft should never venture out when the wind creates waves large enough to swamp or capsize them.

Learn more about weather and boat handling by taking a pleasure boating course from the Coast Guard Auxiliary. For information on classes, call Flotilla Commander Albert Chaffee at 813/994-4674, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

FOOD BUY-LINES

By Ada Shinabarger, Extension Food Marketing Specialist

★ Lower Retail Egg Prices This Summer . . .

Egg prices are down, even though production is below that of a year ago. Lower exports and the slow economy are two factors contributing to this bonanza for consumers. Prices are expected to rally this fall, but even then price increases will be modest.

Eggs are a good value anytime

but are especially attractive now, with meat prices strengthening.

Two large eggs are considered equal to a serving of meat. At today's egg prices, that makes the cost a mere 10 to 12 cents per serving.

Egg prices are determined by grade (measure of quality) and size (weight per dozen) in addition to supply and demand and other market behavior. The most common egg sizes sold in Michigan are extra large, large and medium.

The medium size is the best value. The total cost is less and the medium size is adequate for all recipes and mixes.

The other factor one considers when egg shopping is the grade.

If you have a choice between higher priced grade AA eggs and lower priced grade A eggs, choose the grade A. Store sampling shows little difference between the two grades.

Some people who really like eggs would eat more of them if it weren't for something called cholesterol. No general recommendation on dietary cholesterol has been made for the population

as a whole. Most experts agree, however, that everyone should avoid obviously high amounts of cholesterol.

For most people, an egg a day is not considered excessive. One must take into account, of course, that eggs are in many foods—lemon pie, noodles, etc.

Eggs from these sources must also be counted.

If you've been told by a physician that you have a problem with cholesterol, follow the doctor's advice. In many cases, that will be to limit egg consumption to two eggs per week. But you can sometimes have you cake and eat it, too, to a certain extent. All the cholesterol is in the yolk, so eat less of it, or use only one yolk with two egg whites. The taste is barely altered.

Dixboro Festival July 17 Features Varied Activities

The village of Dixboro will burst at the seams as hundreds of people converge on the village green for the sixth annual Dixboro Festival, Saturday, July 17. The day-long slate of activities is sponsored by the Dixboro United Methodist church, adjacent to the festival grounds on Plymouth Rd., three miles east of Ann Arbor.

Theme of the event is "People Helping People" as the proceeds go to the church's missions and other Christian humanitarian work outside the local church.

A 10-kilometer (6.2 miles) "Rural Run" and 2-mile fun run through the surrounding countryside begins the day's events at 8:15 a.m. Both races start near the village green and are open to men and women of all ages. Entrants may obtain a registration form by calling (313) 761-2791 after 5 p.m. or by reporting to the check-in desk the day of the races between 6:30 and 8 a.m.

At 1 p.m., an ice cream social and arts and crafts fair begin and assorted carnival game booths open for business.

Pieces of pies and cakes baked by church members will be served along with ice cream and various beverages. The arts and crafts fair includes over 25 displays of hand-made items ranging from woven articles to decorative pieces fashioned from metal.

Perhaps the highlight of the day will be rides on fully reconditioned antique fire trucks and in a colorful wagon pulled by a team of prize-winning Belgian horses. The former are owned by Dixboro residents Max Marken and Larry Martin and the latter are the property of fellow church member Zina Bolgos. Marken's unit is a 1920 Model T Ford Prospect DeLuge; Martin will drive a 1919 American LaFrance. Also on display will be an extensive collection of antique bicycles owned by Gary Woodward, another church member and part of the famous Michigan Wheelmen.

Between 3-8 p.m., barbecued chicken dinners cooked by parishioners will be served. Each dinner includes half a chicken (quarter size for children), cole slaw, an ear of sweet corn (grown locally) roll and butter plus beverage.

Free parking is provided on the church grounds; there is no admission charge to the Dixboro Festival.

For further information, call Dale Leslie at (313) 663-9551.

N. Sharon Church Plans July 4th Old Fashioned Day

North Sharon Bible church will feature "Old Fashioned Day" Sunday, July 4, beginning at 10 a.m.

According to the Rev. Bill Ensten, Old Fashioned Day will be the day that participants hold up our country and the old fashioned religion that has made America great.

There will be old fashioned dress, singing, preaching, the presentation of colors, a flag-raising and old fashioned games such as tug of war, sack races, log sawing, nail driving, pie eating contests and a penny hunt for the little ones. Also, horseshoe pitching, and egg and balloon tosses will be featured.

Buggy rides, go-cart and motorcycle rides will also be featured along with an antique display in the church foyer. The public is invited to bring a dish to pass and join the congregation for the picnic following the service.

North Sharon Bible church is located at the corner of Sylvan and Washburne Rds., Grass Lake.

SEMTA Buses Save Commuters

Chelsea and Dexter area residents who work in Dearborn and ride the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA) Park and Ride bus service from Ann Arbor save more than $5,000 each year by using public transportation.

Michigan's automobile drivers are paying a record 37.2 cents per mile to own and operate a car, according to figures compiled by the Hertz Corp. The 1980 Michigan figure is 42 percent higher than in 1979 and is increasing as inflation and the cost of gasoline goes up.

"As a result, it costs the automotive commuter who travels the approximately 72 mile round-trip between Ann Arbor and Dearborn $28.78 per day for their work alone, or $6,427.20 for a 240 work-day year," said SEMTA General Manager Larry E. Salci.

"It costs the SEMTA commuter using SEMTA's 800 Ann Arbor-Dearborn Park and Ride service only $1,224 to travel the same distance for the same length of time," Salci pointed out. "This amounts to a cost savings of $5,203.20 per year for the SEMTA commuter. And, if that commuter takes advantage of SEMTA's monthly pass which discounts fares approximately 23 percent, the commuter can save up to $5,448 per year," Salci added.

The SEMTA 800 Ann Arbor-Dearborn Park and Ride service offers one round trip weekdays between Ann Arbor and Dearborn. Buses depart from the Pioneer High school parking lot at 6:53 a.m. for travel to Dearborn to the Ford Motor Company World Headquarters complex, Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum, Parklane Towers and the University of Michigan Dearborn campus. Afternoon trips leave the University of

July 4th Independence Day

It seems a pertinent question to ask these days, "What does the flag mean to you? Is it only a symbol? If so, of what? Our nation's independence? Of freedom and democracy? Something to salute occasionally (out of habit)? Is it just a piece of cloth to which a pledge is said? Or does it take center stage mainly at athletic events when a song is sung hurriedly to get a game underway? Is it identified only with a ritualistic habit?

What do the colors of red, white and blue mean? Do the number of stars mean only a union of separate states? Do the stars mean anything else? What do the red and white stripes represent? Does the color of red symbolize the blood shed by soldiers to gain independence for us? Does the white indicate hope, purity and cleanliness? Does the blue indicate the color of the sky and sea which in turn indicates reverence to God? ... It may mean some of these things to some people. But should it not mean, above everything else, a symbol of American Civilization, Enlightenment and Liberty; a reflection of patriotism at its finest?

★ Winning The Budget Education Fight

Two weeks ago, the U.S. House of Representatives passed a bipartisan compromise budget for the coming fiscal year. Passage of this budget was significant in many respects as it was the only proposed budget which carried a projected federal deficit of less than $100 billion and calls for a continued effort to reduce government spending. The budget also calls for significant increases in funding for education programs over what was initially proposed by President Reagan in February. I consider this not only a personal victory, but a victory for all of the members of the Coalition Against Reductions in Education (CARE), who fought hard in recent months to have much of the education funding restored.

In President Reagan's proposal for the 1983 budget, education funding was slated to be reduced to a figure of $9.9 billion, which would represent a decrease of 32 percent from the 1980 fiscal year. Several programs, including ones to provide education services to educationally deprived children and handicapped students, were scheduled for major reductions in funding. In higher education, the President's budget proposed an over-all decrease of 33 percent in funding, including the elimination of graduate students from the Guaranteed Student Loan program and a 40 percent reduction in the Pell Grant program for poor and lower-middle income college students.

After reviewing this proposal, I organized a group of 21 freshman Republican Members of Congress who shared my concern for education programs. The members of CARE wrote a letter to President Reagan outlining our concerns and expressing our opinion that education programs had taken a disproportionate share of cuts. We also voiced our concerns to House Minority Leader Bob Michel and Secretary of Education Terrell Bell. Our efforts have proved successful.

The total funding for education as part of the budget which has passed the House is some 53 percent higher than 1982 levels.

Higher education funding exceeds the President's request by 59 percent, and includes a 4 percent increase for the Pell Grant program over 1982 levels. Elementary and secondary education funding is 46 percent higher than the President's budget, including a 7 percent increase over 1982 levels for disadvantaged students.

Education must remain one of our country's highest priorities. It is truly satisfying to see that the House supported these increases over the President's request, even while continuing the push toward fiscal responsibility.

In Pony League action last week, Tom Kemp's Astros led their victory over Don Thibodeau's Royals with 12 hits. Hitting singles were M. Kemp, M. Ahrens, M. Monroe, S. Baker, M. Bohlender, R. England, B. Coy (2) and C. Romine (2).

R. Ferry had a double and M. Merkel had a home run and led the defense with five put outs in the infield and good catches in the outfield. Also playing well in the field were M. Ahrens and D. Girard.

Nevertheless, the Royals' bats were also hot. T. Anderson, S. Hitting and J. Hackworth each had a single. M. Doan hit a double and G. Johnson hit a home run. C. Clark, G. Boughton and S. Hitting did excellent jobs on defense for the Royals.

Pirates 2, Tigers 0

Dan Murphy's Pirates played a tough game against Jim Patterson's Tigers, winning 2-0. R. Spencer and T. Klink combined to pitch a two-hitter shut out. Getting hits were G. Haist with a single and R. Johnson with a double.

J. Steele did a great job playing infield for the Tigers. J. Marenay threw out a Pirate trying to steal second while playing catcher.

The Pirate's defense was strong all night with C. Murphy, R. McDowell and A. Box doing fine jobs. The Pirates remain tied with the Astros and Cardinals with two wins and no losses.

Astros 2, Pirates 2

Tom Kemp's Astros and Dan Murphy's Pirates played a good six innings to a 2-2 tie last week. Hitting singles for the Astros were M. Ahrens, S. Baker and M. Merkel. K. Lawton hit a double and M. Bohlender and M. Kemp did a fine job pitching for the Astros. Kemp came on in the fourth inning, striking out eight Pirates.

R. Spencer and T. Klink pitched great for the Pirates. M. Ahrens, while playing outfield, fielded a long ball. He then threw out the Pirate runner trying to score at home plate. B. Coy and C. Romine did a fine job defensively while M. Bohlender scored the tying run with great base running in the sixth inning. This game was called and will be continued at a later date to see who will win this great pitching duel.

Royals 4, Orioles 4

Don Thibodeau's Royals and Dennis Petsch's Orioles played a great nine inning curfew-called tie of 4-4. C. Hurd pitched the first three innings for the Orioles with M. Popovich pitching six scoreless innings. Hitting singles were J. Gray, M. Mitchell, J. Cattell and S. Gietzen. B. Sober hit a double. M. Poljan made a fantastic diving catch in the outfield to stop a Royal drive.

G. Boughton and T. Anderson combined for the Royals to strike out 10 Oriole batters. M. Doan did a great job catching. Hitting singles were M. Doan (2), C. Clark (3), K. Bell, E. Fleishmann and G. Johnson. The game was well-played and will be continued at a later date to decide a winner.

Cardinals 14, Tigers 4

Chan and Dave Lane's Cardinals went wild against Jim Patterson's Tigers, belting them 14-4 Thursday. The win is attributed to great pitching by B. Clouse, J. Jarvey and M. Westhoven followed by good fielding by S. Frisinger.

Hitting singles were T. Lewis, W. Beauchamp, J. Harvey, C. Zangara and B. Clouse. T. Starkey and J. Harvey hit doubles. J. Lane hit a triple and J. Harvey hit a long home run.

G. Haist did a good job at pitching for the Tigers. He struck out five in three innings. J. Williams caught a deep fly ball to end the Cards' seven-run rally. O. Wilcox hit a single and P. Patterson hit a double. The Cards remain on top with three wins and no losses.

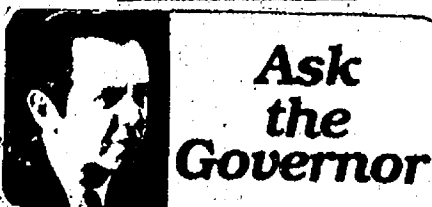

Royals 5, Pirates 4

Don Thibodeau's Royals do enjoy extra innings! They went seven innings to defeat Dan Murphy's Pirates by a score of 5-4. The Royals were extremely hot with Eric Bell going four for four. Also hitting singles were J. Stacey, G. Johnson, C. Johnson, T. Anderson and C. Clark with three. M. Doan had a two-run homer in the fifth. Great pitching by G. Boughton, E. Bell and C. Clark kept the Pirates from getting on base.

The Pirates tied the score in the fifth with some good hitting. R. Hailey, T. Klink, S. Lindsay, R. McDowell, T. Lewis, R. Spencer and B. Murphy hit singles while R. McDowell and R. Hafner each hit triples. The tie was broken in the seventh when T. Anderson singled and E. Bell hit a long single, allowing Anderson to score.

Question: Why is it that senior citizens always are forgotten in today's society? I'm 79 years old and still very active in my community, yet I feel that seniors are not getting the recognition they deserve.

Governor: I believe it is a widely recognized fact that the nation's older citizens have made valuable contributions to our society and continue to enrich our lives. There are more than 1.3 million residents in Michigan who are over 60 and they represent the fastest growing segment of our population.

Recently, I declared May as "Older Americans Month" in Michigan in connection with the national declaration. The activities of this month will help focus attention on the needs and contributions of Michigan's seniors.

As part of this observance, Congressman Claude Pepper, 81, and chair of the House Select Committee on Aging, will be the main speaker at Senior Power Day in Lansing on May 11. Senior Power Day is a day on which senior citizens meet state government representatives and communicate their needs, questions and suggestions.

The Michigan Office of Services to the Aging is sponsoring the event in Michigan by urging businesses, senior citizens' organizations and local governments to develop activities in their communities as a means of honoring older persons. It is a time to assure quality services to senior citizens who have contributed so much over the years. It is a time for government and the general public to reexamine their views toward the elderly.

Question: Now that the energy crisis seems to have lessened, does the state plan to continue its program to further energy development in Michigan?

Governor: The Michigan Energy Administration recently awarded $200,000 for inventions that will help save energy. The projects were selected for their potential to create new jobs, diversify existing industries and use energy more efficiently.

The finalists went through several stages of reviews that investigated the practicality of their projects, as well as commercial appeal. The three projects chosen involved improving insulation, reclaiming heat from waste water and developing a system to dry shelled corn more efficiently.

The projects will be built in Michigan when they are ready for production, which is expected to be within a year.

S.E. Michigan Travel Guidebook Available

The new Summerfun guidebook, produced by the Travel and Tourist Association of Southeast Michigan, is packed with information on close-to-home travel adventures.

Available now at the Association, the 72-page, four-color travel guide features most, if not all, of the major attractions in the 11 counties of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw, Lenawee, Livingston, Jackson, Hillsdale, St. Clair and Sanilac.

Summerfun provides helpful tips on where to camp, relax, fish, golf, sightsee, shop, swim, explore, canoe and enjoy fine dining in Southeast Michigan.

Included in this year's Summerfun, which took nearly six months to produce, is a special write-up on the recent Grand Prix Formula One race in Detroit—the first such race in the Midwest.

Travelers and tourists also find listings of numerous festivals and special events, including the Detroit ethnic festivals, Jackson County Fair, Port Huron-Mackinac sailboat race and the Ann Arbor Art Fair.

The colorful guidebook, with a county-by-county breakdown, contains fascinating facts on many historical attractions and communities in Southeast Michigan—providing an opportunity to learn while you relax on a close-to-home vacation this summer.

"This year, we are printing 100,000 copies of Summerfun—a record number—to accommodate the current tendency for people to enjoy their vacations closer to home," said Association President Sidney L. Baker.

To complement the Summerfun travel guide, the Association maintains Traveline, a 24 hour recording that lists information in sports, festivals, theatrical performances, concerts and other noteworthy events, Baker mentioned. Traveline may be reached by dialing (313) 585-7233.

Free copies of Summerfun may be obtained at Michigan and Ohio travel rack outlets, AAA offices, state travel information centers and other visitor information centers.

A copy of Summerfun also may be obtained by sending $1, to cover handling costs, to the Travel and Tourist Association of Southeast Michigan, P.O. Box 1590, Troy 48069-1590.

Longest Lunar Eclipse of Century Coming July 5-6

The longest lunar eclipse of the century will occur on the night of July 5-6, says University of Michigan astronomy Prof. Richard G. Teske.

"An eclipse of the moon occurs whenever it enters the shadow cast by Earth and the sunlight which usually illuminates the moon is cut off," Teske explains. "All of the phenomena of the coming event will be visible from Michigan."

"The main phase of the eclipse begins at 1:33 a.m. Eastern Daylight Time of July 6, when our satellite first touches the darkest part of Earth's shadow. At that time the moon will hang low in the sky south of us."

"Between 2:38 a.m. and 4:24 a.m. it will be completely engulfed in the shadow. When the moon has at last entirely emerged at 5:29 a.m., the main eclipse will end. By then the moon will be almost setting in the southwest," he says.

"During the eclipse, the moon moves eastward along its orbit through the shadow of our planet. This is from right to left for an observer watching the event. At the same time, our motion on the rotating Earth seems to carry the entire sky westward, and the orbiting moon along with it."

July's eclipse—with a total duration of one hour and 46 minutes—is the longest since the year 1859. Teske points out two reasons for its unusual length:

"First, the moon will pass almost exactly through the center of the Earth's circular shadow, and so it will have to cross the shadow's widest dimension.

"Second, at the time of the eclipse the moon is just about the farthest from Earth that it can ever get in its elliptical orbit. Because it moves more slowly as it swings farther from us, the moon will be moving at its slowest speed. Still, the speed will be well over 2,000 miles per hour."

"The darkened moon should not disappear entirely from view even during the deepest part of the eclipse," continues Teske. "Although the Earth is located between sun and moon and blocks sunlight from falling directly on our satellite, some sunlight reaches the moon after being bent and filtered through our atmosphere."

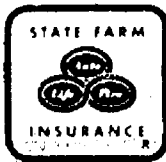

"The light is greatly reddened because it passes through thousands of miles of our air along its path. This is the same phenomenon that gives us red sunrises and sunsets, and it causes the eclipsed moon to have a dull red or rust color."

This lunar eclipse is the second of three taking place in 1982. "The one last Jan. 9 was not visible from the United States because it happened in the daytime when our continent was turned towards the Sun," says Teske. "On Dec. 30 we will have a chance to see only the beginning phases of the third eclipse before the moon sets in the west."

MODEL DH22-2W

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT DEHUMIDIFIERS:

No. 1 ENEMY IS DAMPNES! A dehumidifier should remove moisture from your home to insure the maximum amount of protection against mildew, mold, corrosion and rot.

COPPER TUBING-A MUST! Copper will not rust or corrode. Its use is the only practical way to avoid rusting out. Amana uses solid copper in both the condenser and evaporator section.

AIR MOVEMENT OVER COILS-ONE MEASURE OF PERFORMANCE. To be efficient the air in the area to be dehumidified must pass over the evaporator coil. Amana has 34 1/2 feet of evaporator coils. An air control shroud assures all air passing over the coils and avoids air leaks of moisture laden air back into the room.

WATER DISPOSAL MUST BE QUICK, EASY AND SURE. Amana gives you a choice of 3 ways to remove condensate. 1) a standard hose connection for direct to drain. 2) set unit directly over drain. 3) big condensate pan that holds more than 2 gallons of water.

AUTOMATIC OPERATION IS BEST! Amana Humidistat control automatically watches the humidity for you. Turns on and off as needed to maintain pre-selected humidity with a control ranging from 20% to 80% humidity.

OVERFLOW CONTROL! Amana overflow control switch automatically shuts off when condensate pan is full. Eliminates frequent checking on container.
