NAPOLEON RESIDENT Sue Ann Cowling was killed last Saturday night after she lost control of her automobile on M-52 and was hit broadside by an oncoming vehicle. Cowling was on her way to work at Chelsea Milling Co. Police said she might be alive today had she been wearing her seat belt.

RELATIVELY MINOR DAMAGE was sustained by this Oldsmobile driven by Eric R. Raby, of Norvell, when it hit a car broadside on M-52 last Saturday night. The driver of the other car, Sue Ann Cowling, was killed in the accident. Raby was treated and released at Chelsea Community Hospital. Police said that unlike Cowling, Raby was wearing a seat belt. Blood tests for alcohol or drug use by either driver were negative, police said.

Milling Co. Employee Dies Saturday in Crash on M-52

A Chelsea Milling Co. employee was killed last Saturday night after her car skidded out of control on an icy stretch of M-52 and was hit broadside by another vehicle traveling in the opposite direction.

Sue Ann Cowling, 31, of 324 Austin Rd., Napoleon, was pronounced dead at Chelsea Community Hospital at 11:53 p.m., an hour after the accident. The other driver, Eric Randall Raby, 25, of 204 Sweezy Lake Rd., Norvell, was not injured, according to the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

Cowling was northbound on her way to work, according to Deputy Joseph Yekulis, when the accident occurred just north of Lehman Rd. He said Cowling's vehicle apparently began to leave the roadway to the right. When she tried to turn back onto the road, she lost control of her car, causing the vehicle to skid into the path of the southbound vehicle. Her car was struck on the passenger's side.

Yekulis said Cowling was not wearing a seat belt. However, he said Raby was wearing a seat belt, which "probably prevented serious injuries."

Chelsea Fire Department was called to the scene at 10:50 p.m. The "jaws of life," eventually had to be used to remove Cowling from her vehicle, Yekulis said.

'Wealth of Health' Day Underway

Health topics ranging from teen suicide to self hypnosis are being explored today at Chelsea High school at the second annual "Wealth of Health" day.

High school students are spending the morning attending the wide range of lectures given by Chelsea and Ann Arbor experts. Each student is attending three lectures of his or her choosing from among the 35 lectures offered. Topics cover almost any health topic you can think of, including substance abuse, exercise and fitness, careers in biomedical communications, sports nutrition, gun safety, and headaches and chronic pain, to name a few.

The purpose of the program is "to provide health information and health promotion activities to all 800 students in grades nine through 12," according to the Pat Kubany, director of public relations at Chelsea Community Hospital.

The lectures were planned and sponsored by Chelsea Community Hospital. Experts from Chelsea Family Practice, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor Police Department, and Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, and several area organizations are participating. The lectures are being offered in place of morning classes.

Michigan Week Mayor Exchange Pairings Drawn

Chelsea and Brighton officials will spend a day in each others towns on Mayor Exchange Day, Monday, May 19.

Communities of similar size were matched in random drawing in Lansing. Names were drawn by Grand Haven Mayor Marjorie A. Boon, Michigan Municipal League president; Lansing Mayor Terry McKane; Ernest C. Browne, Jr., president, Greater Michigan Foundation; and Hans Schuler, 1986 Michigan Week chairman.

Merkel, Boham, Bentley Named to Council, Sewer Plant Bonds Okayed

In one of the heaviest voter turnouts in Chelsea history, Jerry Satterthwaite was elected to a second consecutive two-year term as village president.

Satterthwaite topped former president Charles Ritter in the voting, 378-271, as a total of 668 village residents went to the polls on Monday, despite hard rain much of the late afternoon and evening.

Evidence of the substantial turnout came early as 80 residents had voted by 8 a.m., and nearly 300 by noon. Last year, only 109 people punched their ballots as every position was unopposed. Satterthwaite becomes the first mayor to serve more than one term since Don Wood from 1976-80.

The general obligation bond issue proposal for the planned $4.7 million wastewater treatment plant also passed by a wide margin, 444-164, perhaps reflecting the heavy public relations effort put forth by the village council and other supporters in recent weeks.

Incumbent Joe Merkel, and political newcomers Phil Boham and Gary Bentley, were elected to two-year terms as village trustees. Merkel will begin his fourth term, while Boham and Bentley fill the seats vacated by Jim Finch and Mac Fuls, who decided not to seek re-election.

Merkel received the highest number of votes of any opposed candidate for any office, 399. Boham was second in the voting for trustees with 349 votes, and Bentley was third with 305 votes. Dennis Petsch was not far behind in fourth place with 286 votes, followed by Rosemary Harook with 275 votes, and Rick Monier with 150 votes.

Kathleen Chapman ousted William Storey from the village treasurer's spot, 361-267.

Running unopposed for McKune Memorial Library trustee positions were incumbents Daphne Hodder, with 505 votes, and Gary Zenz, with 164 votes.

There were no write in votes for the assessor's position.

"I'd like to thank all the people who worked so hard for my re-election," Satterthwaite said. "Of course, I'd also like to thank the people who voted for me. I guarantee I'll give the best possible government I can give."

Satterthwaite, 423 McKinley St., is the owner of J&M Oil Co. of Chelsea.

Merkel, 743 Taylor St., is owner of the Wolverine Food & Spirits.

Boham, 122 S. East St., is director of personnel at Chelsea Community Hospital.

Ex-Chelsea Resident Dies In Robbery

Thomas M. Schaff, 19, a former Chelsea resident, was shot and killed last Wednesday morning in an armed robbery in an Athens, Ga. convenience store.

Schaff was a clerk at the store, and was shot at 12:40 a.m. Two of Schaff's friends were also wounded.

According to Athens police, two men who are suspects in the crime match the descriptions of suspects in several other similar recent robberies in the area.

Schaff was born in Ann Arbor, and was the son of Fred and Paula Schaff, who moved to Athens in 1981. He graduated from Cedar Shoals High school last June.

He is survived by his parents, a brother, grandparents Fred and Mavis Schaff of Stockbridge.

Proposed Village Budget Approved

The general fund budget for the village of Chelsea was unanimously approved by the village council last week after a poorly attended public hearing.

The proposed budget falls just short of the $1 million mark, at $992,000. That's $27,000 more than the 1985-86 amended budget, but $2,051 short of what was actually spent.

As usual, the budget for the police department is the largest item in the budget, with proposed expenditures of $260,000. Public works is next in line at $196,000. The two departments taken together account for 46 percent of the entire budget. "Other functions," which includes administrative salaries, among other items, accounts for $162,200.

On the revenue side, money from real and personal property taxes is expected to account for $429,000, up from $410,211 actually collected last year. State shared taxes are projected to provide $257,000, up from last year's revenues of $239,972. Those two sources are expected to provide 69 percent of revenues.

Over-all, there were no dramatic changes in any budget item.

IT WAS A LONG DAY for village clerk Evelyn Rosentreter, left, and Vera Briston on Monday, as they, and many others, worked from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the polls set up for the village election at Sylvan Town Hall. After the polls had closed, Rosentreter had to take the ballots to the county courthouse for computer tabulation. She informed candidates and reporters of the results around 11 p.m.

Smith Releases Results of Inmate Survey
 Senator Nick Smith (R-Adison) recently released results of a recent inmate survey which he said supports his contention that there is a lack of discipline and security within the corrections facilities.

Smith, whose Senate district includes the Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson and chairman of a Senate Safe Streets subcommittee studying corrections facilities and policies, suggested the survey results show that drug and alcohol use is not discouraged as usage is believed to be a "pacifier" for prisoners.

Gail Light, spokesperson for the Department of Correction, said the department had not seen the study, but it appears that it is not scientifically developed by persons involved in polling.

Survey questionnaires were also sent to 300 corrections employees and 300 persons recently released from a parole program. Results of the responses from the correctional employees are being tallied.

Thirty-five inmates said they believed over 60 percent of all corrections facility residents use illegal drugs with 29 stating that 40-60 percent are users. Some 79 said they believed the drugs entered the prison mostly through employees (79 responses) and through visitors (67 responses).

Smith, in releasing the survey to which 160 of 300 prisoners responded, said the emphasis has switched from protecting the public to including the prisoner.

He said the survey also shows that the threat of prison is not a "significant" deterrent to those who have served time, but it is a deterrent to those who have not been sentenced to prison.

The survey indicated that 134 of the respondents said they were concerned for their own physical safety with about an even split between the belief the threat is from other inmates and guards.

However, only 56 said they had been assaulted when in prison with only six indicating the assault was sexual in nature.

As a method of reducing the chances of committing another crime after release, 126 survey respondents said it was important to improve work and job skills while incarcerated.

Of the total 164 said they would be willing to repay part of the educational costs within five years of release. A like number, however, said they should not be required to pay part of the costs relative to their imprisonment.

Other results of the survey show that 92 of the 160 responding believe some inmates being placed in the community residential programs are too dangerous to be so released to those programs.

The inmates said first-time offenders should have priority over repeat offenders for educational/vocational training, counseling and trustee status.

Ninety-eight respondents said the parole board process should be eliminated and standard guidelines substituted. Some 103 said hearings officers do not understand prison environment while 93 said the hearings process was not fair. Another 103 respondents said penalties imposed by hearings officers do not deter additional misconducts or help maintain order in the institution.

Governor Proposes Revitalization Plans for Lansing

Governor James J. Blanchard has unveiled a plan to work with Lansing city officials to help revitalize the area of downtown Lansing surrounding the State Capitol Building and other state office buildings.

Addressing a recent meeting of Lansing City Council, Blanchard urged that the state and city work together to "enhance the image" of the capital city.

He announced that Robert L. Mitchell, deputy director of the Department of Transportation and co-ordinator of public investment of infrastructure, will serve as the state's liaison for the revitalization of the city.

Initiatives outlined by the governor included updating the 30-year-old Capitol Complex Master Plan; dedicating the Capitol complex as a public park to improve the city's major downtown tourist attraction; enhancing entranceways to the Capitol complex; evaluating the feasibility of acquiring the Lansing Civic Center and convert it to a tourist center; and improving landscaping, lighting and security in the downtown area around the Capitol complex.

Ed Doolittle opened the session at the county store Saturday night with a gripe that to much of the news is like a halftone score. He ask the fellers what they had heard lately about the magazine for street people in Boston. At last report two months back, Ed said, all 10,000 copies of the first issue was still at the printers because the publisher didn't have money to rent a truck to haul em around to giveaway points.

You got to wonder how a story like that ends, Ed said, you got to wonder about a feller that starts a magazine like that, and you got to wonder about what kind of reader a advertiser in a magazine like that is hoping to reach. That's just one of the recent cases where the reader keeps waiting fer the next chapter that never comes.

Another one, Ed went on, is the cure fer the common cold that was announced recent. It's somepun called Interferon that you squirt up your nose to keep from catching cold.

Ed said he read that to mean that if Interferon works the company that makes it will be in better shape than if it had a monopoly on air. Everybody will have to walk around with a snootful of Interferon to keep from catching a cold from everybody else. Ed noted that the spray won't cure a cold, just prevent it. This gives it the same advantage you get from carrying a good luck charm, was Ed's words, if you don't have bad luck it works.

Practical speaking, Bug Hookum said, the news is partial scores because the game never ends. Bug had saw where a scientist said future civilizations will be able to chart this one by the kinds of containers we leave fer it. Fer instant, when the water shifts and they dig in our river bottoms they can write their histories from bottles and cans. Whats gone since fishermen switched from glass to tin to steel to aluminum? They can date the cans from the triangle holes to the pull rings that come off and choked the fish to the pop tops that stay on to whatever comes next, was Bug's words.

The fellers was general agreed nobody will be around to report or read the final score, but Zeke Grubb, fer one, said some news does have a stopping place. Fer instant, he had saw where this magazine sports writer ask why he had give more copies of his car racing book to race drivers and sports writers than was sold at race tracks and checkout counters. The next week in the same magazine a reader come with the anser. People that like car racing, the reader wrote, don't like books.

Furthermore, Zeke said, news of some starts don't need stops. You don't have to ask where the story of the toothpaste pump will end, he allowed, it will go the way of the videophone. If the old mousetrap is better than your new one folks ain't going to beat a path to your door, was Zeke's words. But he allowed the jury is still out on the new $15.95 book that has 500 letters to fit all events and occasions. You might think that people that don't write letters don't read books, but then you wouldn't think it would take six writers to tell one President how to anser one question at a news conference.

Personal, I can write this end to the story of the woman that beat one in 17 trillion odds to win two New Jersey state lotteries. If I'm ever caught in a burning building she's in, she's the one I'm going to follow out.

Yours truly,
 Uncle Lew.

A VIEW from the CLOCK TOWER

By Will Connelly

Because I have been writing this column for the past six months, some people believe that I am an employee of The Chelsea Standard. This is not so. Walt Leonard, the publisher, offers me the use of this column so that, as a local writer and editorial observer, I will have a public forum.

In the five years since retiring from business at the end of 1980, I have had an earned income of $1,100 doing several odd jobs for old clients. Other than that, my wife and I have lived comfortably on income from investments and Social Security. Nevertheless, we continue to work, averaging at least 60 hours a week as unpaid volunteer workers for civic enterprises and public affairs including The Clock Tower, Chelsea United Way, the Chelsea Sesquicentennial, the Chelsea Area Historical Society, the Civic Foundation of Chelsea, the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club and the re-election of Judge Kenneth Bronson. More recently we have been involved in the campaign to re-elect village president Jerry Satterthwaite and to encourage passage of the sewer bond issue. In addition we have worked on public affairs projects involving high school and public aquatics, the Chelsea Girl Scouts 50th anniversary, the Wolverine Boy Scout Council and other local causes.

Our only bills to these civic clients are for reimbursement for approved printing, postage, out-of-town car mileage, long distance phone calls and office or photo materials.

In addition to the above I have written four books since moving from Ann Arbor to Chelsea in 1970. These include two novels which are now being reviewed by literary agents.

Why am I writing all this about myself? Because I am involved in so many public affairs that I continually find myself in positions of too much visibility. To avoid so much publicity, I could give up all these activities and go hide under the bed. There, with nothing to do, I would quickly die.

Having gotten this far, let me add some background. My father was a writer. My mother was a journalist and novelist. While other kids were in kindergarten I was kept at home to learn how to read, write and do simple arithmetic.

Upon entering Frances E. Willard Elementary school in Chicago, I spent one day in first grade before being transferred to second. When my father died at age 43 from a stroke brought on by having his fortune wiped out in the grain futures market, my mother took over the support of the family. She was hired by the Delphian Society to write hundreds of articles on various informational, intellectual subjects. Barely in my teens, I became her researcher, chasing to libraries seven days a week. My older sister Helen did the typing. We all did editing and proofreading.

As time went on, my mother became a daily newspaper reporter and feature writer. Helen went to the University of Illinois and, as an academic sideline, became a writer for the Daily Illini.

At age 16 I quit high school and obtained employment as a janitor, press feeder, ad taker and news writer for a small weekly newspaper, followed by employment on the Miami Herald and the New York American. By 1932 I was vice-president of a public relations firm on LaSalle St. in Chicago—married and with a family. Also with no money in the bank and a boss who was thousands of dollars delinquent with my paychecks. On Jan. 2, 1934, dead broke, I established The Connelly Company at 30 N. LaSalle, as a public relations consultant. I was given a year's office rent by the McCormick estates in exchange for services to publicize rental opportunities in their buildings. The phone company gave me credit because I had never been late in a payment. A printer provided me with business cards, letterheads and envelopes in exchange for sales promotion copy.

It was the depth of the Great Depression. All enterprises were desperate for business. Sales for them could result from written and printed marketing efforts and publicity and I soon found clients. They included the Olson Rug Co., the Wieboldt Department Stores, even Ed Kelly, the Democratic Mayor of Chicago who knew I was a Republican.

The business prospered but I limited its growth to a staff of five. It had the potential for 500 employees but I refused to solicit ongoing agency relationships with big corporations. They were offered but I was willing to work only on special assignments. My feeling about life was that I was a writer, not an executive or administrator, and I have always kept it that way. Nevertheless, my earnings were as much or more than many of the highly placed executives I worked for.

My public relations clients included Shell Petroleum, Ford, GM, Chrysler, General Electric, Goodyear, Piper Aircraft, Beech Aircraft and 23 banks including Citibank of New York, National Bank of Detroit and National Bank and Trust of Ann Arbor.

Somehow I got into the writing of scripts for documentary films, often with a corporate client footing the bill for a government agency. I wrote "Don't Let Your Car Become a Criminal" for the FBI and Ford Motor Co., "Bombproof" for the Civil Defense Administration and "VD—Stopping the Spread" for the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Public Health Service. The Atomic Energy Commission invited me to write a film on atomic power—what it is and how it works. They asked me what qualifications I had for writing a film on the subject. I replied, "Absolutely nothing. My prime qualification is my ignorance. If you have anyone who can make me understand what it is about, I can tell it to the world." My finished film was presented to a Geneva convention of atomic scientists with sound recordings in seven languages.

During World War II I served as Chief Operations Analyst of the Third Air Force with a staff of 120,000. We trained fighter pilots and bomber crews for overseas deployment and were responsible for the air defense of the U.S. South Atlantic sea frontier.

After the war, I moved to Michigan to be nearer my automotive clients, residing in Bloomfield Hills, Ann Arbor and, finally, Chelsea.

Well, there you have it. After living in this 152-year-old community only since 1970, I still feel like the new kid on the block. But, boy, am I glad to be here!

P.S. For my younger readers. Nowadays business careers rarely begin at 16. They die there. Get your college degree.

THIS WEEK'S THOUGHT

By Donald Cole

WHY DOES ANY ONE STAY AWAY FROM CHURCH?
Because you are POOR? ... Admission is free ... Because you are RICH? ... You can remedy that ... Because it RAINS? ... You go to work in the rain ... Because it is HOT? ... So is the golf course ... Because it is COLD? ... It is warm and friendly here ... Because of HYPOCRITES? ... You associate with them every day ... Because of the COMPANY? ... They will admire your loyalty; bring them along ... Because of CLOTHES? ... The church is not a fashion show ... Because of CHURCH STANDARDS? ... Take a look at the Bible standards if you think ours are high ... Because the church asks for money? ... So does the grocer ... Because of EMOTIONALISM in religion? ... How about the baseball game or your favorite sport? ... Because you intend to attend LATER? ... Isn't that presumptuous? How can you be sure? COLE-BURGHARDT CHELSEA CHAPEL, 214 East Middle St., Chelsea, Mich. Phone 475-1551.

Village Expects To Save $4.7 Million in Power Plant Bond Refinancing

The Village of Chelsea may save nearly $5 million in electrical costs over the next 32 years due to a refinancing of bonds for the Belle River Power Plant.

The Michigan Public Power Agency (MPPA), of which Chelsea is a member, issued $500 million of Belle River revenue bonds in 1983 at an interest rate of 10.8 percent to purchase 242,650 kilowatts of capacity in the power plant. The plant is being constructed by Detroit Edison Co. at St. Clair.

The refunding revenue bonds sold have an average interest rate of 7.48 percent, according to the MPPA. The bonds will be used to "replace a portion of the higher priced bonds of 1983 and will lower the over-all debt service of MPPA and its 11 participating members in the Belle River project," according to Tim Morawski, general manager of the Board of Public Works at Holland and chairman of MPPA. Total savings to the MPPA is expected to be $50 million.

Chelsea, which is buying a capacity of 3,250 kilowatts, is projected to save $4.7 million, according to village manager Fritz Weber.

Other members of MPPA include Bay City, Charlevoix, Crosswell, Grand Haven, Harbor Springs, Hart, Holland, Lansing, Lowell, Niles, Paw Paw, Petoskey, Portland, St. Louis, Sebawaing, Traverse City and Zeeland.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES MOURNED the loss of Dan Murphy's first five decades last Monday by dressing in black, and forcing him to wear a demeaning sign declaring him, "over the hill." Murphy, who said he suspected something was cooking for his 50th birthday, had numerous events planned for him. His friends will tell you, though, he's definitely NOT over the hill. The women in black, from left, are Shirley Chapman, Cathy Moore, Dawn Smith, Jill Seitz, Karen Guenther and Lisa Headrick.

A survey by a Jackson engineering firm has turned up 56 buildings in Chelsea, including the entire Main street area, which might be used as community fall-out shelters in the event of a national emergency. The local list is part of a county-wide list which pinpointed 359 suitable buildings.
Gambles advertised to be among the first in this area to offer replicas of the "President's Rocker," which Dr. Travell, Kennedy's doctor, acquired for the president's back ailment. The dark oak version was offered for $34.98.

Electronic chimes for the Hammond electric organ at the Salem Grove Methodist church were dedicated at special services held at the church Sunday evening.

Dr. Frank Fitch of Ann Arbor, district superintendent, preached the dedicatory sermon, and Mrs. Vern Panzer played three special numbers on the chimes.

Colds and the flu have made heavy inroads on school attendance the past two weeks, 95 students in grades 7 through 12 having been absent March 4.

A total of 89 ballots were cast in Monday's village election. Elected to office were unopposed People's party candidates: Anton Nielsen, president; Robert B. Devine, clerk; David Strieter, treasurer; trustees for two-year terms, George Atkinson, Joseph Dryer, Claude Spiegelberg; trustee for one year, Walter Gage; Edwin Keusch, assessor; Library Board trustees Jean Eaton and Armin Schneider.

At the father and son banquet held at St. Paul's church, Fred Sager, 84, was honored as the oldest father present with a son. His son, Herbert, of Ann Arbor, and Herbert's twin sons, attended with him. The father with the youngest son was Howard Flintoff, present with his three boys, Peter, Jeffrey and Kim.

To Ronald Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Clark, 422 Madison St., goes this year's honor of being the first person to report to The Standard that a "first robin" of the season had been spotted.

VOTING WAS A FAMILY AFFAIR last Monday as this bright-eyed little youngster helps this unidentified Chelsea voter make his selections in the village elections. It was the largest turnout for a village election in recent memory, as the sewage plant bonding issue, and the mayoral election, helped boost the numbers.

High School Scheduling To Start Monday

During the week of March 17, students at Chelsea High school will be requested to make their course requests for the 1986-87 school year. This is an extremely important time because the master schedule for next year will be built upon these course requests. This means that resources at the high school, both human and financial, will be allocated based upon what the students need and want to take.

Principal John Williams requests the assistance of parents in this procedure. He says that it is very important that the parents are aware of their students' career directions and select courses accordingly. Beginning on Monday, March 17, counselors at the high school will begin entering classes to explain the procedure and explain the information to all students. This information includes the Course Description Booklet and an appropriate course request sheet, a different sheet for each grade.

Along with the counselors at Beach Middle school, high school counselors Sue Carter, Gene LaFave and Chris Dimanin will also visit the eighth grade classes on Thursday, March 20. There will be an assembly at Beach at the end of that day for representatives of high school programs to explain their courses to the eighth graders.

As part of this entire process, there has been a meeting scheduled on Monday, March 24 at 7 p.m. in the Beach School Cafeteria to which all eighth graders and their parents are invited. There will be representatives from each of the high school programs present to describe the procedure and provide further information to make the best choice possible.

IF YOU WENT DOWNTOWN TO VOTE or shop last Monday, it was hard to miss all the "Happy Birthday Dan Murphy" signs, as the congenial, long-time pharmacist at Chelsea Pharmacy celebrated his 50th on Monday. Another big sign graced the front of The Village Bakery across the street. The occasion was made even more festive by his friends, who had numerous events planned for the occasion. Incidentally, that man to the left is former village president Charles Ritter, who passed out campaign materials much of the day.

Symphony, Freshman Bands Receive Top Ratings in District

Chelsea High school bands were once again one of the top bands to play at the District Band Festival at Saline High school last Friday evening.

Both the symphony band and the freshman band received straight "1" ratings, the highest possible, in every category.

According to band director Bill Gourley, this makes the 11th straight year Chelsea bands have received straight 1 marks.

The bands were not ranked against each other.

"We had an enthusiastic turnout of family and other supporters," Gourley said. "I can't remember when we've had so many people turn out for the festival. When the symphony band was done they gave us a standing ovation. It was like a crowd getting behind the football team in the fourth quarter."

One of the four judges at the festival was Bruce Galbraith, band director at Chelsea High school in the 1960's, and former assistant principal.

"Bruce's comment about the band was, 'I'm glad you chose such tough works. Your courage is admirable,'" Gourley said.

The symphony band played music in the "AA" category, the most difficult category, usually chosen by much larger high schools and even colleges. Their numbers included, "Pineapple Poll," by Gilbert and Sullivan; "Washington Post March," by John Phillip Sousa; and "Mar-rakech Bazaar," by Stan Applebaum.

There was also a sight-reading section in which the band was given a march and a concert selection, given seven minutes to study it (without playing it), then asked to play them.

"The judges said the band had a tremendous level of ability and potential," Gourley said.

"One of them said 'what made this exciting to me was the excitement you generate with your style and interpretation of these pieces."

The freshman band, one of the few purely freshman bands at the festival, also drew rave reviews. They competed in a division that included bands with upperclassmen. Their three selections were "Monterey March," by Carl King; "Theme and Montage," by Mike Leckrone; and "Variations on an English Folk Song," by Claude Smith. The selections were from the "B" category, also substantially more difficult than what most freshman bands attempt to play.

The freshmen also impressed the judges with their sight-reading abilities.

"One of the judges said he admired, 'the technical facility of your (freshmen)'," Gourley said.

Getting Down to Business for $9 a Month.

Citizens Trust Business Checking.

Average Available Business Checking Balance	Monthly Service Charge
$5000 or more	$0
$1 to $4999	$9

How much are you paying for a business checking account at your bank? As much as $20 some months? Thirty? Fifty?

If you open an account at Citizens Trust, you'll pay no more than $9 a month. Any month. And you could, with ease, maintain your account for free.

You see, we charge you only if your available balance falls below $5000.

If you keep an average available monthly balance of between $1 and $4999 in your account, you pay just $9 a month service fee. And a balance of $5000 or more in your account means you pay no service charges at all.

That's a welcome change from the policies of some area banks who charge you for each deposit you make, every check you write, and a monthly service fee to boot.

Next month, when your monthly statement arrives, sit down and figure out how much your account is costing your business. Then move your money to Citizens Trust. Because getting down to business shouldn't cost more than $9 a month.

Bulldog Cagers Bow Out of District Tourney In 46-44 Loss to Dexter

Chelsea Bulldogs bowed out of the 1985-86 basketball season with their seventh consecutive loss, and third in a row to the Dexter Dreadnaughts, 46-44, in the first round of the district tournament last Tuesday at Jackson Lumen Christi.

The game, according to both Chelsea coach Rahn Rosentreter and Dexter coach Jim McCormack, featured tentative play by both teams, although both teams shot 45 percent from the field.

Once again, the Bulldogs had their chances to pull the game out in the final seconds. At the :38 mark, and Chelsea down by one point, Dexter's Jeff Bishop went to the foul line for a one-and-one opportunity. After he missed the shot, Scott Magnuson, the Dexter center, rebounded the miss and put it back in for a three-point Dreadnaught lead.

At the :12 mark, the Bulldogs were down by two points after a field goal by Chelsea and a free throw by Dexter.

"We got off a couple of shots at the end, but they were very deep," Rosentreter said.

"We lost the game because of the same thing that's been hampering us all year. We just don't seem to have any intensity after the first quarter."

Rosentreter tempered his remark by saying that the intensity of senior guard Ray Spencer, "was keeping us in the game the second half," and that senior guard Ken Martin played, "his best game of the year."

The lack of intensity, or, perhaps, lack of concentration, showed up in two key statistics. Chelsea shot a dismal 6-15 from the free throw line (40 percent), and gave the ball away 23 times on turnovers. They made 1-5 attempts in the first half, with 12 turnovers. Those 12 turnovers yielded the Dreadnaughts 19 points.

Chelsea missed three one-and-one attempts in the second half.

The Bulldogs took an early 11-6 lead, but eight unanswered points gave Dexter a lead they would never relinquish. By the end of the first half, the Dreadnaughts had a 25-19 lead.

Junior Mark Bareis led both teams with 13 points. Martin had 10 points, all on field goals. Todd Starkey followed with seven points, Dan Bellus and Spencer each had six, and Jeff Harvey finished with two.

The Bulldogs wound up with a 7-14 over-all record.

Varsity Swim Team 11th in State Meet

Chelsea varsity swim team finished 11th at the class B state swim meet in Grand Rapids last week-end.

52 teams competed.

All-state honors went to the 200-yard medley relay team of Craig Miller, Matt Doan, Scott Pryor and Jeff Nemeth as they took fourth place.

Pryor had the highest individual finish, with a seventh place in the 100-yard butterfly.

Also scoring was Tyler Lewis, with an 11th place in the diving; Nemeth, with a 10th place in the 100-yard backstroke; and Miller, with an 11th place in the 100-yard backstroke.

The 400-yard freestyle relay team finished in ninth place. Team members were Nemeth, Doan, Dan Degener, and Pryor.

"Although we swam as hard as we could, the team and I felt we could have done better," said Chelsea coach Mike Keeler.

"I was pleased with the results of the medley relay. Over-all, the meet itself was generally slow, and we did have some kids sick."

"Looking to next year, we will have to replace some valuable people in Craig Miller, Scott Pryor, Dan Degener and Mark Westhoven. They've done a lot for Chelsea swimming and they'll be missed."

Dates Set For Soccer Registration

Chelsea youth soccer program begins April 19 for children 6-16.

Registration for the program will be held from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday, March 22 at the Community Education Office at Chelsea High school.

If that time is inconvenient, you may also register at the community education office during regular week-day hours prior to March 22. Registration will also be accepted for one week after March 22.

For the age 6-12 league, cost is $10 for participants from Sylvan, Dexter, Lyndon and Lima townships. For all others, the fee is $15.

For the age 13-16 league, fees are $15 for Sylvan, Lima, Dexter and Lyndon township residents, and $20 for all others.

The league will run for six weeks, ending on May 26. Games will be played Saturday mornings at 10, on the soccer field next to St. Mary's Catholic church on Old US-12.

"Duck Extravaganza" Outing Set Saturday At Independence Lake

The "Duck, Extravaganza," will be the subject of an outing at Independence Lake Saturday, March 23.

Each year thousands of ducks make a stop at Independence Lake. Parks naturalist Matt Heumann can teach you to identify them by their color, shape and habits.

Heumann urges participants to bring a bird book, binoculars, and/or a telescope. Warm dress for standing in place for long periods is advised.

The outing will begin at 10 a.m.

dorf, Scott Salamin, Mike Kushmaul, Jeff Marshall, Mark Larson, David White, Loren Keezer, David Adams, and manager Jason Adams.

Aquatic Club Swims to Season's Best Effort

Chelsea Aquatic Club put together its best effort of the season for their final dual meet, but still came up short to the always powerful Ann Arbor YMCA. The final score was 394 to 317.

Coaches Jon Oesterle and Dave Brinklow were pleased with the team's performance.

"This was the closest we have come to Ann Arbor in a long time," said Brinklow.

"We were stronger in the older age groups and they were stronger in the younger ones. It just came out in their favor at the end."

Swimming for Chelsea were: 8-and-under boys: Paul Monti, Chad Brown, Matt McVittie, Raymond Hatch, Thomas Paine, and Steven Thiel.

8-and-under girls: Dena Walker, Betsy Schumuk, Carey Schiller, Christie Lonsky, Nicki Lane, Amy Herrst, Christina Gibson, Shalet Renaud.

9-and-10 boys: Joe Cesarz, Dana Schumuk, Jason McVittie, Colby Skelton, Steven Brock, Matt Montange, Casey Schiller, Corey Brown, Matt Fischer, Bryndon Skelton, Scott Dale, Kevin Lane, Chris Gibson, Andy

11-and-12 boys: Rob Clero, Jody Huetternan, Tom Poulter, Alan Hower, Fernando Hermsillo, Greg Garen.

13-and-14 boys: Von Acker, Jim Alford, Chris Birtles, Brian Brock, Holden Harris, Mike Haly, David Osterle, Brett Paddock, Todd Redding, Rob Northrup, Wally Schmid, Scott Marsh, Garth Girard.

13-and-14 girls: Jill Nowatzke, Charita Strong, Debbie Webb, Deanna Bolanowski, Nicole Fletcher, Melissa Johnson.

PATRICK TAYLOR, an eighth grader at Beach Middle school, who wrestles in the Dexter Wrestling Club, won a first-place medal in the 105-pound weight class at the Capitol City Classic Wrestling Tournament in Lansing March 8. Patrick pinned all five of his opponents.

Wrestling Club Members Compete In Lansing Meet

Eleven wrestlers from the Chelsea Wrestling Club competed last week-end at Lansing-Sexton High school.

First-place medals were won by Jeremy Feldkamp, John Bobo and Matt Powell.

Bryndon Skelton won a second-place medal.

Eric Hanna took a third-place medal.

Dean Sutherland finished with a fourth-place medal.

Other participants included Alan Hanna, Jeff Stump, Colby Skelton, Craig McCalla and Kevin McCalla.

This week-end the team will travel to Parma-Western.

The team is coached by Howard McCalla, and is sponsored by the Chelsea Recreation Department.

Charlie Waller Named 1985 State Coach of the Year

Charles Waller, teacher and girls softball coach at Chelsea High school, will be honored as the High School Coaches Association 1985 Coach of the Year.

The Chelsea girls softball team were 1985 Class B State champions. This is the second time that Waller has received this award. He was Coach of the Year in 1982, when his softball team were 1982 Class B State champions.

Waller is a social studies teacher at Chelsea High school, and has taught in the Chelsea schools since 1969.

SCOTT MAGNUSON, the Dexter center, (shown above in an earlier game with the Bulldogs) grabbed an offensive rebound from a missed free throw and hit a short jumper with :38 to go for one of the key plays in Dexter's win over the Bulldogs in the first round of the district tournament. The score was 46-44. It was the third straight loss for the Bulldogs at the hands of the Dreadnaughts this season.

A ROCK-A-THON to raise money for senior scholarships was held last Friday and Saturday from noon 'til noon at Chelsea High school, sponsored by the National Honor Society. Amateur Radio Emergency Volunteers Serve County

By proclamation of Meri Lou Murray, who chairs the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners, March 9-15 has been declared Amateur Radio Emergency Services Week.

Washtenaw county is fortunate to have a dedicated group of volunteers who service the community in time of need.

Washtenaw County Office of Emergency Management has 420 amateur radio operators in the county registered with the WCEM office. Each of the 420 operators has passed strict Federal Communications Commission tests to obtain his or her license.

Of the 420, 86 have taken additional training to become members of the Amateur Radio Emergency Services (ARES). Amateur Radio Emergency Services specifically co-ordinates and assists communities with special projects and Washtenaw county government in times of emergency.

ARES has provided a valuable assist to public safety in spotting and reporting severe weather phenomena.

Of the 86 ARES members, 36 have also taken a test administered by WCEM and validated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, attended additional local training and have sworn to serve in times of national emergency, thereby becoming a Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Services (RACES) member.

During times of national emergency, only RACES members are permitted to use the Amateur Radio Communications air-waves.

All RACES members in this county carry identification co-signed by Michigan's Governor James Blanchard and by Daniel R. Harsh, director of WCEM.

This identification exhibits the high level of dedication and service of the RACES member to the community.

The training and skills of amateur radio operators makes them a national resource in times of need. They may be called on by our government to help in any communications emergency. Amateur radio operators, however, don't wait for emergencies to get involved in their communities. Many individual amateur radio organizations work on a regular basis with a variety of community organizations.

In Washtenaw county, they serve requests by local communities for special event communications functions.

ARES includes licensed amateurs who have voluntarily registered their qualifications and equipment for communications duty of public service when an emergency condition or community need arises.

Local emergency co-ordinator for both ARES and RACES is Robert Kramer of Ypsilanti. His assistants are Robert Schantz, Chelsea; Thomas Blethen, Dexter (who also serves as state deputy director for RACES); Adam Paul Banner and David Rasche, Ann Arbor; Richard Hill, Plymouth.

Countless hours of volunteer service are provided by ARES/RACES personnel, both in planning and preparation for emergencies and actual activations each year, and the ARES/RACES group has 100-percent participation. They also have a 100-percent participation rating in all annual tests and exercises that evaluate readiness potential.

Commemorative Bucks Seeks Trophy Deer Entries

Commemorative Bucks of Michigan's official measurers are reporting that many Michigan deer hunters took trophy bucks in the 1985 Michigan deer seasons. An example of this is the beautiful 12-point typical buck that scores 179.4 Boone and Crockett points. The animal was taken Nov. 8 by Mitch Rompola of Traverse City with a bow and arrow. Based upon this score, this trophy could be a new state record for typical bucks taken by an archer. Confirmation of this will be made later this spring.

All hunters who took trophy bucks in the 1985 Michigan deer seasons should have them scored by an official Commemorative Bucks of Michigan measurer. Bucks that attain C.B.M. minimum scores will be entered in C.B.M.'s big buck awards program conducted in co-operation with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

All hunters with qualifying entries receive a certificate recognizing their trophy buck. First- and second-place awards will be made to the hunters who took the largest bucks in 18 categories. There is no charge to have a deer scored and entered in the big buck awards program.

All scoring must be completed by March 15, 1986. Hunters who took large bear or heavy antlered elk in the 1985 Michigan seasons should have them scored and entered in C.B.M.'s competition for these animals.

For more information on these programs and Commemorative Bucks of Michigan, Inc., a non-profit corporation, contact: C.B.M., Inc., 4365 S. Commerce Rd., Union Lake 48085, phone (313) 363-8620.

ROCK IN THE NIGHT AWAY were members of Chelsea High school's chapter of the National Honor Society, and some of their friends, as the students raised money for scholarships for the seniors. Students solicited pledges of money for every hour they rocked, and many of the students planned to rock all night. The event went from noon Friday to noon Saturday. The conditions weren't too spartan, however, as the students had plenty of munchies, video movies to watch, and music to appreciate.

The EPA will soon conduct a nation-wide survey of homes for radon—a dangerous gas emitted from uranium deposits in the earth that seeps up into homes. National Wildlife magazine reports that up to a million homes may have "significant" levels of radon gas, which is known to cause cancer among uranium miners. Extremely high concentrations have already been found in southeastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York.

Arrested After Fight on South St.

A Napoleon man was arrested March 7 after Chelsea police broke up a fight involving him and three other men.

Dennis Dale Buck, 23, of 8753 Cady Rd., Napoleon, was taken into custody for violation of probation and civil bench warrant that had been issued. Officer Frank Kornel was called to the front of a residence at 226 South St. to break up a fight involving three other men, none of whom was a Chelsea resident. Police did not give a reason for the disagreement.

A routine background check of Buck turned up the violation and warrant. He was turned over to Jackson county police.

Halley's Comet 1910 Visit Remembered

"It looked like a big, orangish circle, and it had rings, the way the moon does on a clear night. And, I remember, it had a long red tail."

That's the way Alice Atkinson recalls the time she saw Halley's comet as a four-year-old girl in 1910 while living on Dexter-Chelsea Rd.

"I remember, I heard a commotion out of doors," Alice recalled. "I was in bed. But I got up, looked out the door, and saw a lot of grown-ups outside looking at the sky. I decided to go outside, but someone said, 'one of your children is out of bed.'"

"My father said, 'that's all right,' and he picked me up, held me in his arms and took me to the west side of the house. I remember he held me close because it was chilly outside. I don't remember all the people who were there, but they were some of our neighbors. What I remember most was that big, long red tail, and having my father hold me in his arms."

Alice, who at that time was Alice Schantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schantz, says she hopes to see the comet again this year, but might have some problems with the trees at her Glazier Rd. home.

Any other Chelsea senior citizens who have memories of seeing Halley's comet are urged to call The Chelsea Standard office at 475-1371.

The first women's labor organization was one of maid servants in New York City in 1734, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Low Commodity Prices Fall Lower

It's a good thing February only had 28 days or farmers would have lost even more money last month. Farm prices fell 2.4%, following a 3.1% drop in January. Prices were 10% below a year ago. Most of the decline from January was caused by lower prices for tomatoes, cattle, lettuce, wheat, eggs, chickens, hogs, oranges and corn.

Farmer costs were down less than 1% from February, 1985.

Pioneer Craft Fair Slated Saturday at Dexter High

Get Ready! Get Set! Go! Go where? Why to the 13th annual Dexter Pioneer Craft Fair that is being presented this Saturday, March 15, at the Dexter High school.

If you have missed this in the past, you have missed a fun filled, informative and delightful day. Make it a point not to miss this one. Hours will again be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is only $1.50 for adults, 50¢ for grades 1-12.

Scherenschnitte literally means "scissors-snips in German—the language of the colonists who brought this lovely art to America. Paper cutting is as old as paper itself. How many children have snipped out snowflakes? Appearing this year at the fair and sharing this delicate craft will be the Rev. Don Fothergill of Toledo, O. His work is unusual and very dainty.

paper mache. Papier mache is simply pulverized paper and glue, sometimes mixed with other ingredients.

To show their respect and devotion, people began to construct elaborate villages complete with all the people and animals that might live there; everything from the birds, sheep, burros, on to the peasants and up to the high officials.

Working with papier mache and demonstrating how the creche were made will be Sunny Smith of Reform. Mrs. Smith will show how the figures are cast, painted and then draped with cloth to make their clothes. This is a new craft to be demonstrated at the Fair.

There will again be glass etching, lace making, stenciling, yarn spinning and dyeing to mention only a few of the some 50 crafts being demonstrated. Teddy bears continue to be popular, as well as dolls, both porcelain and cloth. There will also be tinware, oil painting, and ink etching. There is something that is bound to appeal to each and every attendee.

Door prizes this year are an exhibit at the following locations in Dexter: the corn husk doll is at Great Lakes Federal; the wooden train is in the window of the Village Frame Shop, and the wooden weathervane is in the window of Smith-Village Insurance. Tickets for these prizes will be on sale the day of the Craft Fair.

Baked goods, a great seller, will be on sale. This is always sold out rapidly, so don't hesitate about buying something. Cookies will be sold individually for munching while visiting the various booths. Luncheon will be served by the Dexter Heritage Guild.

Since the Rev. Fothergill has very large hands, it was impossible to find scissors he could use for this extremely delicate work. Instead, he uses an Xacto knife, which makes his work that much more incredible. It will be a real treat to watch plain paper turn into lovely works of art.

It is not known when the first creches appeared, but they are documented from the year 1181. First owned solely by the church, the crib and figures of the Holy Family moved slowly into convents and then into private homes. Made of many different materials such as wax and wood, the figures surrounding the cribs gradually came to be made of

Severe Weather Seminar Slated

The Eighth Annual Sky Warn Weather Seminar is offering free admission to Dexter, Chelsea and Manchester area residents this month.

Western Washtenaw county citizens are invited to attend a National Weather Meeting to be held Tuesday, March 25, at the UAW Local 1284 Hall, located at 2795 South M-52, Chelsea.

The meeting will begin promptly at 7 p.m. and will feature Dan Harsh, director of the Washtenaw County Office of Emergency Management, and Robert Snider, meteorologist with the National Weather Service.

Harsh will show a film and slides, and discuss severe weather conditions, including tornadoes and weather forecasting.

"Please plan to attend this educational meeting and familiarize yourself with the signs, warnings, precautions and emergency procedures necessary in the event of severe weather," urge local, county and national officials.

Last year, 92 people died in the wake of tornadoes occurring in the United States.

The Chelsea Communications Club and UAW Local 1284 consider it a privilege to host the meeting and to have Dan Harsh and Robert Snider give the informative presentations. Both organizations urge citizen participation.

Any questions may be addressed to Robert Schantz, director of the Chelsea Communications Club, or to John M. Harook, financial secretary for UAW Local 1284.

Think Positive— The Bottom Is at Hand

John Marten, economist for Farm Journal magazine, said that December, 1985, was the turning point toward farm prosperity. His analysis in the mid-January 1986 issue said "it has been 10 years since inflation, interest rates, the dollar, the deficit, energy prices, production costs and farm policy have all been positive. So expect increasing exports, lower deficits, stabilized farm prices, lower costs, higher incomes and (in 1986) the bottom of the land market. Think positive—the bottom is at hand."

Farmers hope he's right!

OUTSTANDING COMEDY is being presented at True Grist Dinner Theatre in Homer with their production of "The Owl and the Pussycat." Bobb James and Sharon Horsch keep their patrons in laughter throughout the performance. Matinees are offered on Wednesday and Sunday with evening performances on Thursday, Friday and Saturday for the next two weeks.

True Grist Presents Gem in 'The Owl and the Pussycat'

By Russ Ogden
Free Lance Drama Critic
and Professor at EMU

Two brilliant professionals on the True Grist Theatre's dinner stage in the form of Bobb James and Sharon Horsch illuminated bundles of humor and warmth in their rendition of "The Owl and the Pussycat" on Saturday evening to an appreciative full house of patrons.

However, playwright Bill Manoff and his play are really the unseen stars and line after line of touching . . . vicious . . . understated humor abound from the actor's lips. Manoff's script is adroitly penned not just with witty lines, but meaningfully honed ones for shared "belly laughter" during the entire evening performance.

sitivity again in this True Grist gem of a production.

A sad note about the very fine comedic evening was somewhat overshadowed by the slipping of the quality of food and the service which was strictly third class at this production. The fact that it was almost a full house should not have interefered with the usual positive amiability of the supporting staff. It is hoped that this was a one night slip and that food and service will be promptly returned to its usual high level.

The not-to-be-missed comedy of "The Owl and the Pussycat" runs for two more weeks at the smaller dinner theatre with matinees on Wednesday and Sunday, evening performances on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

To run concurrently with "The Owl and the Pussycat," the main stage at the True Grist opens with a musical production "Godspell" on March 13, Thursday evening. And for the real theatre addict, "Chorus Line" looms just over the spring horizon.

Information about tickets may be had by calling True Grist Dinner Theatre at 1-517-568-4151.

Two School Board Positions Available

Nominating petitions are due at 4 p.m. on Monday, April 7 for two Chelsea School Board positions that will be up for grabs in the June 9 school elections.

The two four-year positions are currently held by board president Dale Schumann, and Ann Feeney.

Both Schumann and Feeney told The Chelsea Standard that they will not seek re-election. Schumann has served on the board for the past eight years, while Feeney has served for 10 years, including two years as president.

"The only thing that might make me change my mind is if nobody else picked up a petition," Feeney said. "I'm leaving because I think the board can use a new person with new ideas. I told Ray (Van Meer, superintendent) that I wouldn't leave the board in a bind if no one else decided to run."

Each board position pays $5 per meeting. Each nominating petition requires the signatures of 20 registered voters within the school district. Candidates must also live within the district, and must be at least 18 years old.

The Chelsea school district includes all of Sylvan township and parts of Lima, Lyndon, Dexter, Freedom, and Sharon townships in Washtenaw county, and parts of Waterloo and Grass Lake townships in Jackson county.

As of last Friday, no one had picked up a petition, according to assistant superintendent Fred Mills, who was recently appointed election administrator by the school board.

Anyone registered to vote in general elections in those townships is also registered to vote in school elections provided that person also lives within the district.

Deadline for new voter registrations is 5 p.m. Monday, May 12. Potential voters may sign up with their township clerks or at any secretary of state branch office. (There is one at 102 S. Main St. in Chelsea.)

Absentee ballots will be available on Tuesday, May 20 at the Chelsea High school office. The election will be held at Beach Middle school, from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Congressman Pursell To Appear on Biznet

Congressman Carl D. Pursell, R-Mich., will appear on the American Business Network (BizNet) Friday, March 14.

Pursell will be a guest on the network's live "Ask Washington" program. The talk show is a public affairs program which regularly features guests from the public and private sector.

Persons living in the Second Congressional District can see the program which airs starting at 9 a.m., on Channel 31, WIHT-TV. The show is produced at network studios in the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Building in Washington, D.C.

Do you have PMS?

Recent research indicates that pre-menstrual syndrome may be the most common medical condition in the world. Forty percent of all women suffer from it occasionally, and ten percent of them have such a serious combination of symptoms that they require medical treatment.

What is PMS?
PMS is a hormone disorder that originates in the brain, not in the reproductive organs, so it can affect women of all ages. Symptoms include headaches, fatigue, depression, anxiety, eating binges, and mood swings, but the symptoms can be as diverse as women themselves. The common denominator and the key to diagnosis is the cyclical occurrence of the symptoms.

What is The Michigan PMS Program?
The Michigan PMS Program is part of the new Women's Health Center at Chelsea Community Hospital. At The Michigan PMS Program, you will never be told that there is nothing wrong with you or that your symptoms are your fault. Your symptoms will be carefully evaluated, and an individualized treatment program will be designed to relieve your specific condition.

Contact The Michigan PMS Program for more information at (313) 475-1311, ext. 196. The Women's Health Center would like to know about your interests and needs for future services. Call us with your ideas and suggestions.

Sen. Riegle Pushes Historic Place Listing For Chelsea Depot

U. S. Senator Donald S. Riegle, Jr., has taken action to support the Chelsea Depot Association in its efforts to obtain federal recognition of the depot in the National Register of Historic Places. Since all such applications must first be approved by state historical authorities, Riegle has addressed a letter to Robert Christensen, historic preservation co-ordinator for the State of Michigan. In his letter, Senator Riegle said:

"I would like to call your attention to an application submitted to your office by the Chelsea Depot Association, Inc., nominating Chelsea's depot for the National Register of Historic Places.

"This depot is worthy of designation for many reasons. The citizens of Chelsea plan to make this landmark a living symbol of their community. I support their efforts to preserve a small part of Chelsea's early history. Those who visit the renovated depot will gain a greater understanding of the role the railroad played in the development of their community and the Midwest. Therefore, I urge you to provide this application with your full consideration.

"I would appreciate being notified of your decision in this matter and request that you forward all information about their application to my Community Development Assistant, Jim Jones, in my Central Regional Office in Lansing.

"Thank you for your time and assistance."

Don Riegle also sent a copy of his Christensen letter to the Chelsea Depot Association, saying, "Please be assured that we will do all we can to be of assistance in this matter."

U. S. Senator Carl Levin initiated the historic recognition process in 1985 by urging Christensen to send application forms to the Chelsea Depot Association.

"Representative Carl Pursell will always be gratefully remembered," a Depot Association officer stated, "for his assistance in encouraging Amtrak to make an outright sale of the depot to the Chelsea community."

North Lake Church Sets Date For Egg Supper

North Lake United Methodist church will be holding its 110th annual Egg Supper on Friday, March 21, from 5 to 7 p.m.

This Easter season custom at the local church dates back to 1876 when the first supper was held at a member's house. The event switched to different members' homes each year after that. In recent years the public has been invited to the Egg Supper which is now held in the Church Fellowship Hall.

This year the Egg Supper, as well as all other North Lake church activities, will have an extra meaning to them as it is the church's sesquicentennial year. The Chelsea area's oldest church was founded in 1836 by families in the North Lake area. Decendents of these early founding families are members of the church today.

The present church building was constructed in 1866, 10 years before the first Egg Supper.

The Rev. Sondra Willabee invites everyone to stop by for a delicious meal, visit the historic church and help ring in its 150th year.

PROFESSIONAL REPAINTING OF THE DEPOT is expected to start in April, beginning with a thorough removal of paint layers applied from 1880 to 1984. Researchers believe that the original colors for all Michigan Central stations was gray with a forest green trim. The expert paint removal process will tell.

Depot Restoration Will Start As Soon As Weather Permits

Plans for the restoration of the Chelsea rail depot provide for the beginning of work on the exterior as soon as weather permits in April.

Repairs of woodwork and the southeast corner of its foundation will be completed and roof repairs will also be made as needed. Doors will be refinished and rehung with new hardware. All windows will be reglazed with panels of double pane insulating glass.

The outside paint will be chemically or mechanically removed; then, starting from the bare wood, the building will be repainted in its original Michigan Central colors.

Enough money is on hand, or pledged, to see that this long desired civic ambition—a restored exterior—is realized before the end of the summer. These actions were described by Will Connelly, president of the Chelsea Depot Association, in a report to the Chelsea Historical Society at its March meeting. "Each day we receive additional contribution checks in the mail. If they just keep coming in during the next few weeks, restoration of the exterior becomes a certainty. That is our first goal and we will possess an attractive and distinctive monument to the passenger railroad history of our community."

"Rehabilitating the interior," Connelly continued, "is still in the planning stage by a joint committee of the depot association and the historical society. This involves the decor of the two principal rooms—one a historical museum and the other a public meeting place—plus a stationmaster's office which may include a kitchen counter at the rear. Also involved will be installation of a new electrical system, flooring, heating, cooling and plumbing."

Two or three local contractors for various phases of the reconstruction have been invited to submit bids. When the bids are in, the depot association will be able to establish a schedule of priorities for work phases and step-by-step schedules for additional fund raising.

"By December 1987, I believe we can plan to hold a gala community Christmas party in a beautiful, warm and lovable depot," Connelly concluded.

Girl Scouts Delivering Cookies

If you have a sweet tooth, this is probably one of your favorite times of the year.

That's because Chelsea's 131 girl scouts are distributing their cookies in the area this week. The 13 troops picked up the cookies last Thursday.

The girls will also be conducting direct sales this Saturday at the main office of Chelsea State Bank, and at Polly's Market, beginning at 9 a.m.

"People are usually pretty generous at those direct sales," said Linda Dyer, who's coordinating the Chelsea distribution. "Usually when someone sees the girls in their uniforms, they'll buy at least a box."

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, March 3 were Schumann, Dils, Grau, Comeau, Feeney, Redding, Satterthwaite, superintendent Van Meer, assistant superintendent Mills, principals Williams, Stielstra, Wescott, Benedict, assistant principal Larson, community education director Rogers, special education director DeYoung, athletic director Reed, curriculum director Bissell, guests.

Meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by president Schumann. Board approved the minutes of the Feb. 17 meeting.

The board received a communication from the Washtenaw Intermediate School District advising of their search for a new superintendent. At a later date they will solicit input from the local school boards.

Deacon Richard Cesarz, president of the Chelsea Ministerial Association, submitted a letter to the board expressing concerns regarding encroachment of school activities upon Wednesday nights, which have been reserved in the community for church activities. At the board meeting of April 21, board members will review the scheduling of activities on Wednesday nights.

Ralph Brier, transportation supervisor, was honored in general terms for his supervision of the transportation system that transports students on 30 runs approximately 1,800 miles per day. He was specifically cited by Dr. Henry DeYoung as being prominent in the consortium organization of transportation services for special education students.

Sally Rendell, a parent, spoke to the board and submitted a letter referring to the process of parental requests for certain teachers for their children. Some board members indicated that matter had been discussed in talks between board members and teachers. The board scheduled that topic for review in a work session at 7 p.m. on April 7.

Doug Dault and Peg Woerhle, of the Chelsea Community Hospital, discussed the CARE program, which is an Employee Assistance Program. They stressed the confidentiality of the program and indicated that they will be making a presentation at the various schools.

President Dale Schumann received forms for the annual evaluation of the superintendent. The president of the board will compile a composite evaluation.

Curriculum Director Laurie Bissell was present to update the board on the study skills. Using an overhead projector, she discussed certain component parts of the study skills program that have been completed to date. She expressed her appreciation for the work of the teachers.

Superintendent Van Meer discussed the legislative acts of certification for superintendents, principals and instructional administrators. He also discussed a possible change in a Senate Bill which will alter the 120-day substitute teacher law. The new bill indicates that a substitute teacher working for 120 days will have first option in that year and in the succeeding year for any vacancy in that district for which he/she holds certification.

Assistant superintendent Mills introduced a resolution to borrow approximately $3,000,000 in anticipation of operating tax collection.

The board accepted a donation of one 1986 Dodge 600 and one 1986 Dodge 600SE from Chrysler Corporation Proving Ground. These are prototype vehicles that cannot be used on the road, nor do they have a stated value. They will be used on the driver education range.

The board accepted, with regret, the resignation of Margaret L. Koch, effective June 12, 1986. Margaret is a sixth grade bloc teacher at Beach Middle school. She has served the district for 18½ years and was honored as exemplary employee in June, 1982.

The board appointed Fred Mills as election administrator for the June 9 annual school election.

The board approved an election resolution calling for the annual school election to be held June 9.

Board secretary Anne Comeau indicated that she was very impressed with the contributions of the Chelsea teachers in the area of curriculum development and review.

Building administrators updated the board on activities that were taking place in their

Grass Lake Choir Preparing Cantata

1986 marks the seventh year of the annual Grass Lake Community Cantata. The cantata, "Resurrection Day," by Don Wyrzten and Phil and Lynne Brower, will be presented Palm Sunday weekend.

The public's response to this musical inspiration necessitates two performances, which will be held at the Grass Lake United Methodist church, 449 E. Michigan Ave., in Grass Lake. The first performance will be held Saturday, March 22, at 7 p.m., and the second will be on Sunday, March 23, at 3 p.m.

The community choir is comprised of members of Grass Lake area churches, members of the Grass Lake school's junior and senior high choirs, and area residents who love the opportunity to participate in a mass choir.

Under new direction this year, the choir is benefitting from the teaching and conducting skills of Marge Farmer. Marge graduated from Western High school, Jackson Community College, and from Eastern Michigan University with a BS degree in music. She works at Johnston Music Co. in Jackson, where she teaches private lessons in flute, piano, organ, snare drum, and guitar. She is also the assistant director of the Jackson Cascades Chapter of the Sweet Adelines. She has performed with the Jackson Civic Theater as well as with the Clark Lake Players, her latest performance being part of the chorus in "Cinderella." Marge is also a voice and piano student of Monte Long. She brings to the chorus a rich and varied musical background.

Behind the scenes, faithfully and skillfully co-ordinating each year's cantata is Marlene Clark.

The community cantata has evolved to the point where it is now sponsored by the Grass Lake Ministerial Association. The Association will be taping each performance, and will be selling the tapes to those who would desire a copy. The proceeds will help to fund the cantata. A free-will offering will also be taken during each performance to serve as a reimbursement to the Ministerial Association. Any proceeds exceeding the actual cost, will be donated to the Grass Lake schools' music program.

The record for non-stop talking, held by Kapila Kumarasinghe in Sri Lanka, and set June 18 to 24, 1981, is 159 hours.

SIXTH GRADER Christina Taylor beat-out nine other finalists to win the school-wide Beach school spelling bee last week. Christina won on the word, "opaque." She had to spell nearly 10 words right to win the contest.

Senior Center Will Observe St. Patrick's Day

"Twill be the wearin' of the Green, singing of Irish tunes, and feasting on corned beef and cabbage, Monday, March 17, at the Senior Nutrition Site in Chelsea's North school. "Seniors wearin' their green are traditionally served lunch first," reminded site director Arlene Larson.

Leprechaun punch will be served at the St. Patrick's Day Party, and each senior attending will have a chance at the Leprechaun Pot-o-Gold.

"You can't eat a piece of chocolate and frown at the same time!"—Old chocolate saying.

Casanova used chocolate as an inducement for romance.

U. S. retail sales of passenger cars in 1984 totaled 10.4 million units—8 million domestic cars and 2.4 million imports. Total retail sales of commercial vehicles were 4.1 million units—up 31 percent from 1983's 3.1 million.

Traffic fatalities increased in 1984 to 45,880, up 1,400 from 1983. However, the death rate of 2.68 per 100 million vehicle miles was a record low.

THE DRIVER EDUCATION PROGRAM at Chelsea High school will be much richer this summer after the donation of two prototype 1986 Dodge 600 automobiles by the Chrysler Proving Grounds. Assistant Principal Ken Larson, who doubles as director of the driver education program, shows off the donation, worth about $10,000 each, according to Elmer Klei, one of the people who co-ordinated the gift at Chrysler. Because they are prototypes, they have no identification number and no title—so they can't be driven on the street. However, they can be driven on school property, on the driver education obstacle course, and they can be used in auto shop class. The proving grounds have donated 12 such automobiles this year, Klei said.

Air stored in telescopes and brass buttons for hundreds of years may help researchers understand the "greenhouse effect" by which the earth's temperature rises, reports International Wildlife magazine. Scientists hoped that by measuring the carbon dioxide level in the antique air, they can better understand how changing levels have influenced global warming over centuries.

Conventional wisdom holds that the African drought is caused by the whims of nature, yet International Wildlife magazine reports some climate experts believe that man may be the culprit. By rapidly destroying African rain forests and woodlands, water runoff has increased. This, in turn, reduces the chances for water evaporation which forms the clouds that bring rain.

Shade Trees Offered Free for Spring Planting

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving 10 free shade trees to people who join the non-profit Foundation during March, 1986.

A Sugar Maple, Weeping Willow, Red Oak, Green Ash, Thornless Honeylocust, Pin Oak, Silver Maple, Tuliptree, European Mountainash, and Red Maple tree will be given as part of the Foundation's campaign to encourage tree planting.

These trees were selected because they provide flowers, berries and nuts, in addition to shade and beauty, according to John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director.

The Foundation will give the 10 free trees to members contributing $10 during March. The six-to-twelve inch trees will be shipped this spring between March 1 and May 31 when conditions are right for planting. They will be sent with enclosed planting instructions, and are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free by the Foundation.
