Zoning Inspector To Propose Revised Village Fence Ordinance

A revised zoning ordinance to allow village residents to build fences in their front yards will be considered by the village planning commission at their regular meeting Tuesday, Nov. 19.

Zoning inspector Rosemary Harook, who is charged with enforcing the village's zoning ordinance, plans to propose the changes. The current ordinance, which allows no fences whatsoever in the front yard, has been one of the most problematic areas of the zoning ordinance for Harook. She has had to turn down numerous requests for such fences, wanted for a variety of reasons, and some residents have gone ahead and built them without permission. The ordinance is also open for interpretation because it deals with "ornamental fences" without precisely defining them.

Harook's proposed changes would allow picket, wrought iron, or split rail fences no more than 30 inches high that would be used primarily for landscaping purposes. They would have to be constructed so that a person can see through them, a provision designed so drivers at corners wouldn't have an obstructed view.

The fences could have gates, but the gates could not open over a sidewalk or other public property.

Current front-yard fences that do not meet the new specifications would require a zoning compliance permit before they can be repaired or replaced. That provision is designed to ensure that most non-conforming fences would either be torn down or replaced by another fence meeting the new criteria.

"Many other communities allow these fences," Harook said.

"I hope anyone who has ever wanted such a fence shows up at the meeting," Harook said there are probably 50 or more fences constructed in village front yards. She said either the matter would have to be addressed with a revised zoning ordinance, or the village would be forced to send owners of such fences a letter informing them the fences are illegal.

A fence is considered to be in a front yard when it extends beyond the front of a house. The situation becomes even more confusing with corner lots, which are considered to have two front yards.

The revision first has to be considered by the planning commission, but village council makes the final decision.

Lima Township Approves New Development off Old US-12

An eight-home development planned on 10 acres between Upland Hills and Harper Dr. in Lima township was given final approval by the township board last week.

The township was awaiting final word from the Washtenaw County Health Department on whether the land could handle septic tanks and wells. It is in an official water recharge area.

The development is proposed on a cul-de-sac off Old US-12. However, if landowner Bud Janich wants to build more than three homes in 10 years he would need approval for a subdivision or site condominium.

Final Public Hearing On Recycling Authority Raises Questions, Anger

Unless someone files a last-minute legal challenge, new recycling fees will go into effect for 8,728 residences in western Washtenaw county with the December property tax bills.

The second of two public hearings on the subject was held last Wednesday at Sylvan Town Hall. The purpose of the meeting was to firm up the final list of properties to be assessed. However, much of the night was devoted to explaining the program planned by the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority, as well as listening to complaints from residents who objected to the assessments as just another tax they don't want. Some questioned the legality of the assessments.

About 125 people jammed into the town hall, and about a dozen complained loudly about the proposed assessments.

The hearing illustrated the confusion surrounding the issue. The meeting was conducted by the Washtenaw County Department of Public Works. Yet some members of the authority were unaware of the purpose of the second hearing, believing it was another information session similar to a hearing held three weeks ago in Manchester township.

Members of the authority have told the county they are upset about the lack of information contained in the mailed notices of the hearings. Those notices made no mention of the recycling authority, making it appear the recycling program is a county project. It also made no mention of the fees involved, $17 for residences in Sylvan, Lyndon, Lima, Dexter, Sharon, Freedom, Manchester and Bridgewater townships and $30 for residences of the villages of Chelsea and Manchester. The higher fee, reflects the higher cost of curbside recycling.

"We felt a lot of the confusion could have been avoided," said authority vice-chair Frank Hammer.

Authority chair Ronald Mann said part of the blame belongs to the authority, which in his opinion did not adequately provide information to the public.

"Our publicity and information was not what it should have been," Mann said.

"The authority is all volunteers and that area didn't get as much attention as it should have. Dexter township is the only authority member with any experience in special assessments." Dexter township was involved in the highly controversial Portage Lake sewer system.

The primary obstacle to getting the recycling program off the ground is release of $330,000 in grant funds by the state. They are included in the new state budget, which has yet to be signed by Gov. John Engler. The grant will fund 75 percent of capital expenditures, which means the authority must raise $110,000, one of the primary purposes of the assessments.

"We're certain the money is coming, but we want to have a signed contract before we get started," Mann said.

Mann said the program would not take place without the state grant. The money is coming from an environmental bond program rather than state taxes.

For now the authority is laying the groundwork for the program. Prices of equipment are being investigated and site plans are being drawn up for the recycling center to be constructed at the Chelsea landfill, perhaps beginning this winter. The authority has put down a deposit on a truck, which will be used to service remote drop-off points in each township.

Village of Chelsea has loaned the Village of Manchester a number of its recycling buckets for curbside recycling, which will be returned once Manchester's bucket order is filled. Manchester has had one curbside pick-up, completed by Chelsea crews. Chelsea will be reimbursed by Manchester for labor and other expenses, Hammer said.

Hammer's facilities committee has completed a job description for a recycling director, and the job will be advertised locally, Hammer said.

County attorneys have told the county department of public works that the assessments are legal and are specifically exempt from provisions of the Headlee Amendment, said DPW director Dan Myers.

"We have said all along that if this is illegal, we want to know about it," Hammer said.

The authority believes it will be far cheaper in the long run for the western side of the county to operate its own recycling program rather than relying on the county. The authority may also eventually handle all solid waste disposal for the area.

"In the long run, it should save us a lot of grief," Hammer said.

"We will have control of the program and will be able to meet state and county requirements. We will also have control of the marketing and can negotiate the best prices for materials."

Sylvan Says No to Fire Dept. Until Landfill Pact Reached

Chelsea Fire Department's effort to build another fire station in Lyndon township has been handed at least a temporary setback as Sylvan township has decided not to consider the matter until the landfill issue is settled.

Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, and Dexter townships and the village are still trying to decide how to divide more than $700,000 in landfill closing and monitoring costs. Negotiations are continuing and the issue could be settled soon.

The fire department wants to build another station north of the village. Slow response times, plus continued residential growth in the area, make it practical to expand north, the department says.

Schoenberg suggested that Sylvan would "be interested in looking at a proposal, but we'd like to have more say into what is happening in the fire department." The townships are charged annually for the previous year's services, and they operate on three-year contracts. They have no control over policies or other matters.

"I think at the least we'd like to have a longer contract." Another, more extreme solution, he said, would be to set up an authority, similar to the Western Washtenaw Recycling Authority. That way, each unit of government would have representation on a board.

"However," he said, "I'm not sure we'd want to get into that."

Sylvan Decides Not To Fund Bus

Sylvan township has decided not contribute funds to the Chelsea-Ann Arbor bus route.

"I've only had one call from one person who rides the bus once a week," said township supervisor Don Schoenberg.

"If we had a full bus, we certainly might consider it."

The township board voted against funding the route at their Tuesday, Nov. 5 meeting.

Board Rejects Headlee Tax Cut; Court Action Sought

After further review of the question of compliance with a court order, the Board of State Canvassers unanimously agreed that there were insufficient valid signatures to certify the legislative initiative petition filed by Taxpayers United for Assessment Cuts, which would have forced a vote on a 20 percent reduction in property tax assessments.

The petition was originally filed, with 224,048 signatures, with state elections officials on Sept. 11, 1990, and the board found 182,365 valid signatures, short of the 191,726 signatures required. The number was reduced from 197,905 after the board voted 4-0 to discard 15,540 signatures that were on petitions without approved warnings against duplication.

The board's action included a "reluctant" yes vote by Republican Jim Alexander, who called for action from the Court of Appeals or Supreme Court to tell the board whether it was appropriate to discard all duplicate signatures, ones made on petitions without approved warning labels against duplication, and signatures that did not indicate whether the voter was registered in a city or township, where those two might have the same name.

"This board is never going to certify the Headlee petition," Alexander said. "It would do better for the public to move this to the courts and get them to decide," adding he wants the court to rule on whether extrinsic evidence should be permitted in reviewing the petitions.

Alexander then tried to increase the number of valid signatures by adding 5,419 to count about half the duplicated "fresh" signatures instead of throwing them all out (10,258) and signatures of the 2,373 individuals who did not check the city or township box when both locations had the same name.

Democratic Chairman Mike Pyne opposed adding the duplicated signatures on the grounds that past Michigan court decisions, including those of the Supreme Court, have ruled that all duplicates should be thrown out when they are discovered.

Gary Gordon, representing the Attorney General's office, and Mike Hodge, representing the Michigan Education Association in opposition to the petition drive, also cited Michigan court cases to that effect.

Pyne noted the courts have also set a precedent against considering signatures valid where the city and township share a name in the county and the person who signed has not indicated whether he or she lives in a city or township. "We abide by case law and precedent," Pyne said. "The board does not flip-flop on issues."

But Lansing attorney Tom Downs argued that other states' courts have ruled that one of the duplicates should be considered valid.

Alexander said he thinks as long as no fraud exists, as suspected when one person, especially the petition circulator, signs four or five times, one signature should be counted.

Macomb County Taxpayers Association Chair Michael C. Sessa challenged the board's action on the grounds that it has been operating for years without promulgated rules. But Elections Director Chris Thomas said the board has been given authority through statute and court precedent.

Sessa also charged the Democrats and Republicans with striking a deal to defeat Headlee so that they can move forward on their own property tax cut petition drives. Alexander and Pyne strongly denied the charge.

Engler Says G.O.P. Petition Drive Is at Halfway Mark

Governor John Engler said that the Republican property tax cut plan, the so-called "Cut and Cap" petition drive, has reached the halfway mark on the way to the 256,457 signatures needed to place the initiative on the 1992 general election ballot.

Engler said 135,000 signatures have been gathered since the drive began in late August. Early in the campaign, Republicans said they hoped to reach 90 percent of their goal by Thanksgiving or early December.

When fully implemented in 1997, the plan would grant some $2.3 billion in relief.

Democrats are also gathering signatures for their own tax cut plan, one which would exempt the first 50 percent of the value of a home from school taxes, to a maximum of $30,000. It would be funded through a repeal of the capital acquisition deduction (CAD).

The Democratic effort, which needs 206,186 signatures (less because it's a

Uncle Lew from Lima Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I saw by the papers recent where Leningrad is St. Petersburg again, and I fell to wondering if the Russians were jumping from the frying pan back into the fire. They may be convinced that any change is an improvement, but from what little reading I've done they suffered as much under the zar as under Communism.

As for the name change, Lenin must of spun in his mosoleum to see em put a free enterprise spin on it. The papers said folks were in a hurry to ferget Leningrad, so the city was picking up big rubles by charging folks extra to use the recycled name on buildings, streets and printed letterheads until the supply of Leningrads runs out.

I mentioned the name change during the session at the country store Saturday night, and Zeke Grubb picked up on it quick. He said this goes to show that map making ain't the growth industry everybody figured it would be with all the upheaval in Europe. All we got to do, Zeke allowed, is dig out maps of 60 year ago to find our way around. He had saw where a reporter covering breakups in the Baltics and Checkoslovakia said 1989 maps were useless, but she got along fine with maps from 1939.

Where big money with be made is in American school books. Schools in the rest of the world will put out supplements to update old textbooks, but we'll throw out the old, buy the new and keep griping about education costs. With talk of making Washington, D.C. the 51st state and calling it New Columbia, he noted, and the move to put world geography back in schools, ever school will have to order new flags to go with their new books.

General speaking, the fellers saw Zeke's point that it is the nature of this country to spend and waste, and that's why recycling is catching on ever bit as fast as the metric system and energy conservation. Still, allowed Bug Hookum, there's somepun to be said for seeing dollar signs in ever situation.

The trick, Bug said, is to see the situation coming, because to sell you got to be in position to sell. Fer instant, he had saw where a feller in Atlanta quit his sales job in August, borrowed $5,000 to buy material to make foam rubber tomahawks fer Braves fans to chop with, and he had sold 200,000 at $5 a pop before the World Series started. Another young man in Greensboro, N.C. didn't like a rattle in the trunk of a sports car he bought two year ago, so he made a elastic strap to hold the jack in place. Other owners of the same car wanted the strap, and now he's doing a $2 million a year business selling straps and other extras by mail.

Fer all the privatizing talk in Guvernment, Clem Webster said, you would think some of them agencies would see at least one situation coming. He said he was thinking of what he read about one of the most abused perks in Congress. He said The Nation magazine wants a "people's frank" where citizens can write their Congressmen free.

The idea, Clem said, is fer members of Congress to enclose a self-addressed postage-paid envelope with ever piece of mail sent out under his frank. The cost of the return mail would be took from his mail budget, so he's spend less promoting hisself by mail.

Yours truly,
Uncle Lew.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
Our family is a third generation "Rock Painter"—guilty as charged. Our daughter's birth was announced on it 25 years ago and again two weeks ago.

We have seen Chelsea go from "old fashioned" to "get modern" back to "old fashioned" again. The "Rock" has not changed in generations; give or take a few thousand painted messages, good or bad. It was moved once. The park is a perfect location.

It is tax free and as for maintenance, I'm sure there are people who would donate time and paint to "clean up" tasteless graffiti.

As Mrs. Kanten said "Better on a rock than a place of business, schools, homes, etc."

Press time and council time should be better spent on problems at hand... taxes, landfill problems, robberies, detour problems, etc. If only the "Rock" were the only problem!

The "Rock" was a refreshing topic for a change. It made people stop and think. Some said "Remember when... or 'What is the big deal about the Rock?'" Some newcomers said "What rock? Where?"

Formerly from Chelsea and guilty Madalene Salyer.

Correction

The Ypsilanti woman who was charged with balking several Chelsea and Ann Arbor merchants recently was incorrectly identified in last week's front page story.

Kimberly Denise Moore is the correct name, according to Chelsea police. In last week's story she was identified as Chrystal Murdock, who is Moore's sister. Moore has used her sister's name as an alias, police said.

Sumner Speaks To Chelsea Jaycees

Chelsea police officer Scott Sumner spoke on home security at the Tuesday, Nov. 5 meeting of the Chelsea Jaycees.

Sumner told the group that good lighting around the outside of a home is one important aspect of good security. Another is making sure all doors and windows are locked. He said the best way to check a home for security is to think like a person who wants to break in.

The Jaycees meet on the first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m.

School Board Notes

Present at a regular meeting of the Chelsea Board of Education Monday, Nov. 4, were Comeau, Redding, Satterthwaite, Knutsen, Eisenbeiser, Diesing, McCalla, superintendent Piasecki, assistant superintendent Mills, principals Mead, Stielstra, Stieber, Wescott, assistant principal Rossi, community education director Tracy, curriculum director Bissell, special education director DeYoung, athletic director Welton, guests.

Meeting called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Comeau.

Board approved the minutes of the Oct. 21 meeting.

Board approved the minutes of the executive session of Oct. 21.

Entered as official communications were (1) thank-you note from former superintendent Ray Van Meer, (2) notification that Principal Wescott received a regional honors award from the Michigan Elementary and Middle School Principals Association, (3) letters from three district residents regarding the Sept. 23 bond-issue election, (4) information from MASA regarding their labor relations services.

Richard Funk, of the Michigan Association of School Boards, was present at the meeting to review the MASA analysis of the district's Board Policy Manual.

Beach school teacher Sue Craig was present at the meeting to show slides taken of last year's 8th-grade trip to Washington, D.C. She distributed a copy of the itinerary for this year's proposed trip (April 23-26).

Discussion was held on the subject of a random-sample survey, to be conducted by three members of the administrative staff, regarding the recent bond-issue election. Board members will submit for consideration some questions which can be reasonably tabulated.

Community education director Tracy and athletic director Welton reviewed the history of facility use in the district. Because of the increasing number of programs, requests for Sunday use of the buildings are increasing, and a policy will need to be formulated regarding this issue.

The board accepted the low bid of Chelsea State Bank for interest to be paid on the borrowing of $1,050,000.

The board convened in executive session at 10:27 p.m. to discuss personnel matters, reconvened in public session at 10:50 p.m., and adjourned the meeting at 10:51 p.m.

About half as much hot water is used in the average shower as in the average bath.

THE 45th PARALLEL, an invisible line that circles the globe, crosses Michigan at the tip of Old Mission Peninsula north of Traverse City, as pictured here. The 45th parallel circles the earth midway between the North Pole and the equator.

45th Parallel Crosses Michigan

It's there, but you can't see, hear or smell it. Northern Michigan residents and tourists walk on and across it all the time, but don't feel it.

At first, some people couldn't care less, but then they hear about it, think about it, talk about it—and ask what it means.

"It" is the 45th parallel, an invisible line that circles the earth halfway between the equator and the North Pole.

The 45th parallel passes through 12 states and 11 countries—and through the tip of Old Mission Peninsula north of Traverse City. An engaging spot to visit, and some 1,000 people do each summer.

A sign near Old Mission Lighthouse marks the spot. A visitor heading west across the west arm of Grand Traverse Bay would find a similar marker at the Peshawbestown Indian reservation in the Leelanau Peninsula.

A trip across the east arm of Grand Traverse Bay and the imaginary line is noted north of Alden on Torch Lake in Antrim county. Farther east, it passes through or near, Gaylord, Atlanta and Alpena on the shores of Lake Huron.

For the world traveler, similar markers might be found in Bordeaux, France; Venice, Italy; north of Belgrade, Yugoslavia; at the north end of the Caspian Sea; Minneapolis and Yellowstone National Park.

Almost 90 percent of the Soviet Union is north of the invisible 45th parallel, while all but the northern tip of China lies south.

Parallel lines are nothing new, the experts say, noting they have guided navigators, mapmakers and aviators for years, and have been used to determine the boundaries of states and nations.

Remember the popular saying, "54:40 or fight?" That was by U.S. expansionists in the 1800s who wanted the northern boundary of the country to be established at 40 degrees north of the 54th parallel.

The lines mark latitude, circling the earth by degrees from the equator to the poles in both the northern and southern hemispheres. Longitudinal lines circle the globe perpendicular to the latitude markings, pinpointing any spot on earth.

The only thing people living along the 45th parallel have in common, notes the Traverse City Record-Eagle, is the length of the day and the intensity of the sun.

That means, according to the experts, that you'd get about the same tan with the same sun exposure anywhere on the parallel line.

But the similarity ends there. Temperatures are not the same because of physical characteristics of land.

Now, if Michigan's not your bag, there's always Kyzil Orda in the Soviet Union. You've got it! It, too, shares the 45th parallel.

At 6:45 p.m. the Living Creche, complete with live animals, will be located outside of the Merkel building. The Creche will again be presented by the Ministerial Fellowship. The celebration at the Living Creche will include singing by area church choirs.

Revelers can proceed downtown where they will be greeted by choirs, victorian carolers and store open houses for shopping and browsing.

County Okays Waste Recycling Center Plan

Calvert's Rolloff Containers, Inc., received permission from the Washtenaw county board of commissioners to construct a solid waste recycling center in Scio township.

Final approval on the county level came by unanimous decision of the commissioners at a meeting held Wednesday, Nov. 6, in the Washtenaw county administration building in Ann Arbor.

"We have cleared two major hurdles," said Sherman Hunter, sales manager and administrator of Calvert's.

An application for a building permit will now be considered by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR).

The application for the recycling center has been found to meet requirements set by the Washtenaw county solid waste disposal plan. Section 641 of the plan regulates solid waste disposal and/or processing.

"We are on course, we haven't reached the finish line yet but have passed the most difficult procedures," Hunter said.

It will take another three to four months to complete the application process, Hunter said, he expects to break ground in early 1992, possibly in February or March.

Russell R. Calvert, owner and president, will do much of the co-ordination and general contracting for construction of the building, Hunter said. J.D.

Phillips and Associates are principle engineers, and sub-contractors will be hired along the way, Hunter said.

The facility will be located in Scio township, 7887 Jackson Rd., Ann Arbor. Loads of materials from Calvert's commercial construction sites will be taken to the recycle center. Wood, metal, glass, cardboard and types one and two HDPE plastics will be sorted at the center.

An excess of 200 cubic yards of materials per day will be routed back into the county's re-use pipeline. Today these materials are sent directly to landfills.

Washtenaw county's solid waste disposal plan is to reduce materials going into landfills by 30 percent.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES:

Our Unaffordable Health Care Costs

One of the longest running debates in Washington concerns our health care system and what to do about it. The biggest problems are soaring costs and who pays the bills.

By Philip C. Clarke

It's no big news to Americans that health care costs are high—so high, in fact, that they have outstripped the costs of any other sector of the economy. To be precise, spending on health care accounted for some $871 billion last year—or more than 11 percent of GNP. Yet, despite this level of spending, more and more individuals are uninsured. The latest estimate is that between 30 and 40 million Americans lack health insurance.

It is the combination of these two—cost and coverage—that has prompted a raft of proposals to supposedly "fix" the system. And most of these proposals are intended to hold down costs while providing coverage for the uninsured. Some policy-makers say we should copy Canada's nationalized health system. Others want to require all businesses to provide health insurance. But, just like any other product or service, health care isn't free. Somebody has to pay for it.

At the heart of most of these proposals is a basic misunderstanding of the economics of the health care system. Here's why. Common sense dictates that supply of and demand for a product will change when the price changes. Ordinarily, when prices go up, the demand goes down—fewer people want to buy the product. The reverse is true, as well. When prices come down, demand goes up. Think of all the items you've bought because they were on sale at a lower price. So, price becomes an influencing factor in decisions to buy and sell products, or goods, or services. And it's when you remove price from the equation that the problems arise.

This is what has happened in the health care field. Insurance companies and the government pay for most health care now. That means patients who are insured and the doctors don't have to worry too much about costs. The patient because all or most of the cost is not coming out of his or her pocket, and the doctor because he's getting his fee, regardless of the patient's ability to pay. And since there's rarely a shortage of patients demanding medical care whatever the cost, there's little incentive for the health care profession to hold down costs.

Thus, the so-called "third-party" payment system—Uncle Sam being the "third party"—effectively has removed price from consideration. Also, in the medical marketplace, this means more people go to the doctor with minor and self-treatable ailments, because they don't have to pay for the visit. More trips to the doctor mean more bills to the insurance company, which means higher costs, which mean higher premiums which in many cases leads to individuals being forced to do without insurance because they can't afford the premiums.

But even worse, these high costs have also led to health care rationing, particularly where the government is footing the bill, both here and abroad. Consider the bills of general practitioner, Dr. Jane Orient, writing in the Washington Inquirer: "In systems funded by the government, the money comes partly from skimping on the care of people who are really sick. Just look at who is at the bottom of the list in Canada and England and on the Oregon prioritized health prioritized health services list. People with cancer wait weeks for radiation treatments. People with clogged coronary arteries wait months for bypass surgery. Old people may never get a total hip replacement. People like that can suffer—to spare healthy people the agony of writing a check at the time of an office visit."

So, as Washington debates ways to "fix" the health care system, especially ways that would hold down costs and cover the uninsured, an old adage comes to mind: There's no such thing as a free lunch. Or free health care, either.

Money raised at this event is used to aid burned out families. Approximately 12 years ago, Beverly Penix and 12 women formed this Ladies Fireman Auxiliary. Two money-raising activities are held each year, the annual Fall Bazaar and the Strawberry Shortcake booth at the Fourth of July parade. Members meet four times each year to form their plans and make decisions. Many of the area residents have benefitted in their hours of need.

★ When Your Dog Breaks Housetraining . . .

Why would a puppy or adult dog begin urinating or defecating in the house after the animal has already been housetrained? Several factors can lead to inappropriate elimination behavior in dogs. Identifying the cause of the problem can help determine the solution.

Communication

Dogs may urinate and/or defecate as a means of communicating with other animals. Urine (and, to a lesser extent, feces) contains odors that allow dogs to leave their individual scents in the environment. Scent marking may identify the dog's territory or communicate sexual status. Urine marking is most often used by unneutered male dogs. The behavior usually doesn't develop until the dog is one or two years old. The most effective treatment for scent marking is immediate neutering of the pet by a veterinarian.

Occasionally neutering alone is not sufficient to stop scent marking. If the dog is urinating in only one or two spots in the home, then you can alter the spots to stop the behavior. First, thoroughly clean all traces of urine from the areas. I recommend using a solution of 50 percent white vinegar and 50 percent water, as this will neutralize the odor to the dog. Never use products containing ammonia, as ammonia is present in urine and the spot will continue to attract the dog. Once the areas are cleaned, try placing the dog's food bowl or bedding in the urination locations. These can deter an animal from scent marking in specific spots. However, if the dog marks in several areas or simply switches to new spots, then you may need to confine the dog in a crate while you're away and discipline when you're home.

Effective discipline for scent marking must take place within one-half second of urination. So you must actually see your pet marking in order to discipline him for it. Never hit your dog as punishment for urinating. Hitting can lead to fear, aggression, and other elimination problem behaviors. Instead, a loud shout or siren-noise should be used.

Other causes for inappropriate elimination in dogs are submission, excitement, fear, and physiological disorders. Your veterinarian should always be consulted about possible medical problems associated with house training. Handling urination/defecation that is a result of extreme fear involves treating the fear, as described in an earlier column. We'll look at submission wetting and excitement-induced elimination next week.

To learn more about elimination and other behavior problems in dogs, along with obedience training, health care, grooming, and dog selection and introduction advice, attend the Humane Society of Huron Valley's upcoming Puppy and Dog Training and Care class on Sunday, Nov. 10, 6:02-5:54.

CHAIRMAN OF THE MEMORIAL COMMITTEE John Kinzinger expressed the feelings of the Vietnam Veterans during Sunday's dedication. He noted, "We are here today to dedicate the Washtenaw County Vietnam Veterans Memorial. 'It is not a statement for or against the Vietnam war, but rather a place for all the people of our communities to come and pay honor and tribute to all Vietnam veterans, men and women, from Washtenaw county, especially the 72 men who made the supreme sacrifice for our country, and the three men still missing-in-action.' Kinzinger explained, 'This memorial was made possible through the dedication, loving concern and generosity of the people from all the communities of Washtenaw county and the surrounding area. We are very proud of this fact. No state or local tax-based funds were used for this project. You, the people of Washtenaw county, built this memorial. We would like to thank all the people, businesses, veterans, civic and labor organizations who donated money, time, planning, materials, ideas, a 'shoulder to lean on,' and an 'ear to listen.' Thank you to the young boy, who picked up a muddy quarter at the Chelsea Fair, near our display, and asked if he could put it in the donation jug. Then, as he walked away juggling his treasure of four empty pop cans, he came back to us and asked if we could cash them in and donate the 40 cents to the memorial. Thank you to the many people who helped us with our fund-raising efforts. It was a lot of work and many long hours, but we had fun. Thank you for making this dream a reality."

Vietnam Memorial Dedicated

The Washtenaw County Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated, Sunday, Nov. 10, on land donated by Ypsilanti township, near the Ypsilanti Township Civic Center on Huron River Dr.

The occasion was a very solemn one, to which parents and close relatives of the 72 veterans who lost their lives in Vietnam, and the three veterans reported missing-in-action, were invited.

Thousands of people turned out at the site on a bright but brisk day.

The purpose for the memorial was strictly to give proper honor to all those from Washtenaw county who served in the Vietnam war.

Members of the memorial committee explained, "It will give them an overdue place of honor and prevent their sacrifices from being forgotten."

"It is not intended to be a political statement about the Vietnam war."

"Rather, this memorial will serve as a place of remembrance, and/or reflection, for those whose lives were touched by that war."

"It will be a special site for ceremonies honoring these veterans on future Memorial Days, Veterans Days, and Declaration Days."

The plaque on the wall's center section reads, "To honor and remember all Vietnam war veterans from Washtenaw county."

"They answered our country's call and served honorably at a time, and in a place, that divided our nation. They did what they thought was right."

"May they never be forgotten. 'Remember those who returned and lost the struggle here at home, those who still wage a battle long forgotten by all others, and especially these men who made the supreme sacrifice or are still missing-in-action. 'Remember them all.'"

Committee members advised, "The committee's reasons for wanting to design and erect this memorial are more emotional than anyone who is not a Vietnam veteran can imagine. 'Though most of us did not know these particular young men to be honored with this memorial, it is felt that they were really no different than anyone else who served in Vietnam.'"

"It is our hope that school children and others in the future will both remember and learn from the presence of this memorial."

"This memorial will represent a significant page in the history of this country, and the people of this community."

"It will be a patriotic place for ceremonies, so that children and others may better understand the sacrifice that men and women before them made for our great nation.

"A hundred years from now, most of us will be forgotten, but the sacrifice these 75 young men made will be remembered."

"Many of these young men left children behind that had to grow up without their father, lost in a war many people would like to forget."

"That must have been difficult to understand and live with."

"The memorial site is planned to be a beautifully landscaped area."

"There is a proposed bike and walking path, which will join the memorial site for improved access."

"Very importantly, there will be a United States flag flying prominently at the site, 24 hours each day."

Ceremonies at the memorial site included marching music by the Lincoln High school band as the Color Guard Grand Entry parade began.

A helicopter flyover was provided by pilots from Selfridge's Air National Guard, after which Fat Bob Taylor sang the national anthem, as flags were raised by the flag team, Vietnam Veterans of America chapter 310.

Tim Armentrout gave the invocation.

"Sgt." Dave Kelly from the W-4 Country radio station introduced the program speakers.

After Ypsilanti township supervisor Wes Prater addressed those at the dedication ceremonies, Ruth Ann Jannick, township treasurer, read a poem written by Paul Stewart Dumsch, ceremony chairman.

The poem, entitled "I Knew Them All," read, "Did you know anyone on this wall?" she asked.

"I knew them all," I said.

"The kid from Boise whose helmet was too big, the guy whose pants didn't fit, and the one whose feet hurt 'cause his boots were too small."

"I knew the funny guy from Cleveland, and the bouncer from Detroit."

"We had a guy they called 'Head,' he ate with his fingers and had a head as big as basketball."

"They weren't the Hollywood phonies, like Charlie Sheen or Tom Cruise."

"These were men who had walked the walk, some were heroes and some were cowards, but they were all there."

"Some were wounded, and some died."

"Others are POW/MIA, and some came home."

"They were from every walk of life, and every color."

"Some were bright, and some were dirt dumb."

"They worked in offices, on ships and firebases."

"They fought from the Delta to the DMZ."

"They were brave and scared, they laughed and cried."

"They were nurses and doctors who patched us up, and we went out, again."

"They were the best people I'd ever met in my life."

"Did I know any of them? I knew them all."

KEYNOTE SPEAKER at the dedication of the Washtenaw County Vietnam Veterans Memorial was General William C. Westmoreland, United States Army retired. Dedication ceremonies were held, Sunday, Nov. 10, near the Ypsilanti Township Civic Center on Huron River Dr. During his address, Gen. Westmoreland explained, "In Vietnam, young Americans adapted themselves to climate, undesirable weather, the jungles and mountains, in order to survive. I was there in 1964-65-66, and I returned during 1968. It was a long time ago. I'll be 78 on March 26, 1992. A soldier's call is to serve. He or she leaves behind life's normal concerns over danger and death, so that ends, more meaningful than comfort and security, may be attained. The soldier's code is the faithfulness incumbent upon anyone who accepts to discharge a duty." Gen. Westmoreland is shown shaking hands with Larry Arnet, owner of Arnet Monuments, which accepted the task of erecting the monument. At far right, is Dexter's Jim Klumpp, who served in Vietnam.

Bulldogs!

Chelsea Cagers Come Close To Upset of Tough Dreadnaughts

Chelsea Bulldogs varsity basketball team lost two Southeastern Conference games last week.

The Bulldogs nearly upset the Dexter Dreadnaughts last Tuesday, Nov. 5, as they lost 43-40.

The teams played a dead-even game after the first quarter, when the Bulldogs trailed 10-7.

"Their big girl, Tricia Clark, really hurt us inside," said Chelsea coach Dave Wojcicki.

"We had no one who could stop her. Dexter also had 19 offensive rebounds."

Christine Burg, who scored 21 points for Chelsea, "had an outstanding game," Wojcicki said.

Other Chelsea scorers included Heather McConeghy 7, Nikki Piasecki 6, Mara Smith 3, Kate Steele 2, and Ginny Flannery 1.

Chelsea shot 33 percent from the field and 10 of 17 from the line.

The Bulldogs lost to the state-ranked Tecumseh Indians on Thursday, 76-33.

The Indians are 18-0. "Every girl they have is an outstanding athlete," Wojcicki said.

"We're a little young and a little small and they double-teamed us quite a bit. We had a hard time throwing that skip pass across court to the open girl."

Chelsea had 30 turnovers, mostly due to the Tecumseh defensive pressure.

Tecumseh took a 14-6 first-quarter lead and a 38-10 half-time lead.

Burg again led Chelsea with 13 points. Other scorers were Flannery 5, Piasecki 4, Smith 4, Steele 2, Kelly Cross 2, and McConeghy 1.

"I'm real proud of the girls," Wojcicki said.

"They've made up their minds to get the most out of the season no matter what the score is or what their record is."

Chelsea is 4-14 over-all and 2-8 in the Southeastern Conference.

Terpstra, Hurst, Poulter on On Grid All-League First Teams

Chelsea seniors Mike Terpstra and Ben Hurst were two of four unanimous selections to the Southeastern Conference All-League First Team on offense in a vote of the league's coaches.

Hurst, a running back, gained 956 yards for the season for a 4.8 yard average. He also caught passes for 94 yards and was one of the league's best punters.

Terpstra was a three-year starter at tackle and was regarded as the league's most dominant lineman, according to Chelsea coach Gene LaFave.

Other unanimous selections included Tecumseh end Brian Burns and Tecumseh tackle Ramon Torres.

Chelsea junior defensive end Tom Poulter made the defensive first team and the offensive second team as a tight end.

Other Chelsea players to win post-season honors included sophomore defensive back Colby Skelton and senior linebacker Adam Taylor, both second-team selections.

Bulldogs on the honorable mention teams included junior offensive guard and defensive end Colt White, senior defensive tackle Mike Eder, and senior defensive lineman Jeff Moore.

Terpstra Named Football MVP

Senior tackle Mike Terpstra was named the Chelsea Bulldogs Most Valuable Player at the annual football banquet last Tuesday, Nov. 5.

Terpstra, a Southeastern Conference First Team selection as a junior and a unanimous choice this year, was a nose guard, offensive tackle, and team tri-captain.

"Mike's real intelligence in the line keyed everything," said Chelsea coach Gene LaFave.

Terpstra also carries a 3.9 grade point average.

Seniors Ben Hurst and Adam Taylor were named co-winners of the Best Back Award. Hurst rushed for 956 yards on 201 carries for a 4.8 yard average. He also caught passes for 94 yards, was an exceptional punter, and played defensive back.

Taylor rushed 72 times for 370 yards, a 5.1 average. A few games into the season, he was also inserted at linebacker.

Senior Mike Eder was named Most Improved Player as the team's right offensive tackle.

"Mike was a non-starter his junior year and in the off-season he became quite a weight-lifter and never missed a session," LaFave said.

"He became a full-time starter this year and became a solid player as he made the all-league honorable mention team. He set a great example."

Thirty-one players earned letters this year.

The Summer Youth Employment and Training Program administered by the U.S. Department of Labor provides jobs, job training and educational services to disadvantaged youth ages 14 to 21. For the 1990 summer program, more than $709 million was appropriated to serve about 600,000 youths.

State House Resolution Makes November 'Kids Bowling for D.A.R.E. Month'

The Michigan House of Representatives has passed a resolution commemorating the month of November as "Kids Bowling for D.A.R.E." month.

This resolution was passed by 54 members of the Michigan House of Representatives, and is further example of the impact that the "Bowling for D.A.R.E." programs are having state-wide.

The following is an excerpt from the House Concurrent Resolution No. 458 commemorating November as "Kids Bowling for D.A.R.E." month.

WHEREAS, no issue is of greater immediate importance to our young people than the fight against drug abuse. The Michigan Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D.A.R.E.) Program is a major contributor to this effort, reaching tens of thousands of students each year with help in learning how to "Say No to Drugs;" and

WHEREAS, in an innovative and ambitious program to raise money for this worthy effort, the Michigan Bowling Centers Association is observing November as Kids Bowling for D.A.R.E. Month. During this month, youth leagues across the state, including more than 3,000 youngsters, will be working to raise more than $75,000 for the D.A.R.E. Program. This is part of a continuing effort to raise money for this worthy cause while, at the same time, promoting greater public awareness of steps we can take to safeguard our children; and

WHEREAS, representing more than 300 independently owned bowling centers in Michigan, the Bowling

Centers Association in 1991 voluntarily began a five-year fund-raising effort for the D.A.R.E. Program. In only seven months since this effort began, member bowling centers have raised more than $100,000. This makes the Bowling Centers Association of Michigan the single largest contributor to the work of the D.A.R.E. Program. Clearly, this is a wonderful example of private sector involvement in attempting to deal with an issue that touches the lives of all of the people of this state, but most especially our young people; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), that tribute be hereby accorded to commemorate November as Kids Bowling for D.A.R.E. Month. We salute the Michigan Bowling Centers Association on its fine work and commend the volunteer efforts of Donald Williams, who is co-ordinating this major undertaking; and be it further

RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Mr. Williams as evidence of our wish for the great success of this effort.

Over the past several years, increases in output per hour has averaged a dismal 0.7 percent per year, according to "Workforce 2000," a U.S. Labor Department publication. This poor performance was largely responsible for the slow growth of wages and family income that the nation has recently experienced and the stubborn persistence of poverty during the 1980's.

MAKING HER MOVE around Dexter's Amy Hlatt is Chelsea senior Christine Burg. Burg led Chelsea in scoring but the Bulldogs lost by three points in last Tuesday's game.

NORTH LAKE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH will celebrate its 125th year on Sunday, Nov. 24. A special service will be held at 10:30 a.m. with the Rev. Brunger as guest speaker. A pot-luck dinner will follow at 12:30 p.m.

N. Lake Congregation Observing 125th Year of Church Building

On Sunday, Nov. 24, the North Lake United Methodist church congregation will celebrate 125 years of worship in their church building on North Territorial Rd.

They will have a special service at 10:30 a.m. with the Rev. Brunger (conference historian) as guest speaker. At 12:30 a pot-luck dinner will be enjoyed followed by a program at 2 p.m. The community is invited to attend.

One year before Michigan was admitted to the Union and one year after the adoption of the State Constitution, the Methodist Episcopal Society was organized at North Lake.

These pioneers, who struggled with swamplands, forest, wild animals and Indians, to establish homes, schools and churches, had a deep appreciation of the inner things of life. These 12 men and women felt the need of God in their own lives, and who looking down through the years envisioned this need in other lives.

From 1836 to 1848 the society held services in the home of John Glenn. In 1848 Charles and John Glenn, brothers, built at their own expense a one-story building 20x26 feet, which was used for both school and church purposes. It stood on the line between the farms of Richard Webb and John Glenn. Later it was moved to the Robert Glenn farm and used as a shop for many years.

In 1857 John and Jane Glenn deeded the land on which this church stands to the society. Not until Jan. 27, 1866 was a meeting called to consider building a church. The Rev. T. P. Johnson was then minister.

The present building was built during the year 1866 at a cost of $2,645.87. This included an indebtedness of $800 which was loaned by four members. At this time there were 57 members, four of whom were members of the first class. Church records show that two gallons of kerosene oil were purchased for the church at a cost of $1 and that the janitor was paid $4 for caring for the church for six months.

In this same year of 1866, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glenn presented to the church a pulpit Bible.

In 1907 the church building was remodeled at a cost of about $1,000.

In 1919 a Delco lighting plant was installed, with every pledge paid. It cost $500.

The Rev. Elwyn Stringer secured pledges for the improvement of the church building and the annexation of the Grange Hall, which was located on the first corner west of the church. Charles Johnson, a faithful member of both the church and the Grange, secured this building for the church for $1.

The entire community was interested in this project and gave liberally both of time and money to help, especially in moving the hall to the south of the church. It has proved to be very useful with its classrooms for the Sunday school classes, its kitchen, dining room, and assembly room for social activities. This was done at a cost of about $1,200.

After the celebration of the Centennial in 1936, the Rev. Herbert Brubaker was appointed pastor. During his pastorate the church was redecorated and a new carpet was purchased.

In 1946 the Rev. Dalton Bishop was appointed as pastor of the Dexter-North Lake charge. During his pastorate the church was completely redecorated, inside and out, a new oil furnace was installed. The cost of this campaign was $1,537.

In 1956, in preparation for the 120th anniversary celebration, the church was redecorated, new carpet laid, altar rail rebuilt, floors sanded and finished, front steps repaired and railing installed. The women of the church painted the dining room and kitchen at this time. The above was accomplished at a cost of more than $1,700.

At the time of the celebration of the 120th anniversary the church started raising money for the purchase of additional property which was accomplished in the spring of 1957.

In 1960 new lights were installed in the sanctuary, and in 1976 the windows were redecaled. A new gas furnace was installed and in 1989 new carpeting.

This fall the outside of the church has been painted.

If anyone has any pictures or memorabilia they would like to display call the church in the morning at 475-7669.

THREE FLAGS WERE LOWERED, the United States flag, the flag of the State of Michigan, and the POW/MIA flag, to half-staff during the dedication of the Washtenaw County Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Sunday, Nov. 10, near the Ypsilanti Township Civic Center on Huron River Dr. The three flags will remain at half-staff for a period of 75 days to honor the Washtenaw county men who were unable to return from the Vietnam war.

Q. My broker recommended Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing stock. He pointed out that MMM had a good long time record and that if I bought it I would not have to pay much attention to it.

What do you know about this company? Would you recommend it to a person who only wants to look at it every couple of months?

A. MMM is a household name because of the wide variety of well known products that it sells to the consumer. These mostly involve "coating" one material on another such as Scotch tape or Post-Its memo pads. About 10% of sales are made to consumers.

About 50% of the $134 billion annual sales go to service type industries. The remaining 40% of sales are bought by manufacturers.

The company has one of the premier long-time growth records in U. S. industry. The company's goal is to have 25% of its sales from products developed within the last five years. MMM meets this goal. It is this emphasis on new products that produces the 10% annual growth of profits and dividends. About half of sales are to foreign countries.

Earnings are affected by the recession, but not nearly as bad as most manufacturing companies.

At the recent price of $9.44, the $3.12 annual dividend yields 3.4%. Quality through a combination of acquisitions and internal expansion. The $0.53 dividend yields only 1.3%, but is increased at regular intervals. The stock is very high quality and primarily one where your hope for profit is in an increase in the price of the stock rather than in dividends.

Analysts estimate 1991 earnings per share at $2.22, up from $2.13 in 1991. The estimate for 1992 is about $2.70.

'Showcase' Features Wide Variety of Talent

Featuring some of the area's most talented and interesting people, the Lary Hafner Showcase will be presenting a wide variety of guests on this week's edition of the Showcase.

Back by popular demand this coming Sunday night is one of the most popular regular Showcase performers, singer Angela Myers. Miss Myers is quickly becoming a favorite entertainer on the show with her moving and powerful renditions of "Amazing Grace," "Time After Time," and the soulful "First Time Ever I Saw Your Face." This week will be Miss Myers' third performance on the show.

Debuting for the first time on local television the Showcase will present this week's very special guests "The Girls." Made up of four young ladies, ages 7, 8, and 10, this singing group is brand new to our community. They are Dana Featherly, and Sara, Stacey and Katherine Ziegler. Performing for their friends and neighbors "The Girls" sing a capella style songs from the 50's and 60's.

Also featured on this week's show will be Ruth Stielstra and her fifth grade class. This group of young people have been active in the planning stages of the new walk and bike path that is being developed for the community. Recently, they spent a very cold and windy morning walking the new prospective pathways in and around the Chelsea area, identifying problem areas and figuring out solutions to potential problem spots throughout the nine mile stretch.

All of the 21 members from the class will be on the show with Mrs. Stielstra.

Included on the Showcase line-up will be Gloria Foster, a local person, who is an expert in the art of sign language. Mrs. Foster has been teaching this to many deaf people in the Chelsea area and will be on hand to show how this form of communication is so important to those who are unable to hear. From the Faith in Action Organization, a feature guest will be the Rev. Dr. Jerrold Beaumont who will discuss the many sides to the organization which he leads. In addition to this array of guests, regional director Mary Lou Riggs and director Dom Nair from the Washtenaw Community College will explain the opportunities offered locally for continuing education, extension and outreach programs.

Mrs. Cindy Bear, and Katie Chapman from the American Business Women's Association will be guests on the Showcase to talk over everything that is happening with their group.

This is an exciting line-up of community folks and is a show you won't want to miss!

The Lary Hafner Showcase is taped before a live audience and the public is invited to attend. Admission is free. Taping is held every Sunday evening from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Faith in Action building located just off of South Main St. at the north entrance to the Chelsea Community Hospital across from Domino's Pizza, the first building on the right hand side after you enter the hospital drive.

The Lary Hafner Showcase airs every Monday and Thursday evenings on the Chelsea cable channel 22 at 7 p.m.

The Showcase is still looking for volunteers, guests, and pet tricks.

For more information you may call 475-9911 or write to Showcase, P.O. Box 571, Chelsea 48118-0571.

NEARSIGHTEDNESS

Our patients frequently ask what we mean when we tell them they're "nearsighted." They're not sure if it means they do or don't see well for near vision.

A nearsighted eye is an eye that has "too much" focusing power, and instead of being naturally focused for far distance, as a perfect eye would be, the eye is naturally focused up close. So a nearsighted person can see well for near vision, such as reading, without glasses. For distance vision, the nearsighted individual must wear "minus" lenses, either glasses or contact lenses, which are thinner in the middle and thicker on the edges, to "subtract" from the excessive focusing of the eye.

Nearsightedness, also called myopia, usually is first noticed in Grade School age and continues to increase for several years, occasionally worsening well into adulthood. Both eyes are usually affected approximately equally, and frequently some degree of astigmatism accompanies nearsightedness. Of course the degree of nearsightedness varies. Some people become so nearsighted they can only see a few inches in front of their face without glasses!

No treatment has been consistently proven to prevent the progression of myopia, although many things, including wearing bifocals and hard contact lenses, have been tried.

Myopia tends to be hereditary, so you may have to blame your ancestors for those glasses you're wearing!

A VIETNAM VETERAN HELD THE FLAG of the United States, which was later placed on the Washtenaw County Vietnam Veterans Memorial, erected to honor the 72 men from the county who were killed in the Vietnam war, and the three men listed as missing-in-action. Three flags, that of the United States, of the State of Michigan, and the POW/MIA flag, were lowered to half-staff during the ceremonies, Sunday, Nov. 10. The three flags will remain at half-staff for a period of 75 days to honor the Washtenaw county veterans who were unable to return from the Vietnam war.

Funding Loss Threatens Conservation Districts

Many of Michigan's 83 Conservation Districts are faced with closing their doors as a result of Governor Engler's veto of $1.3 million of administrative funding for Conservation Districts. The Governor supports restoring funding to Districts at the $1.1 million level he recommended in his executive budget. However, the restoration depends on the passage of a supplemental appropriations bill which may be tied up for months as the Legislature resolves other funding issues.

During the interim, as many as one-third of Michigan's Conservation Districts may have to close their doors. "Districts use those state administrative funds to leverage other dollars from private sources and other levels of government. Their loss threatens the availability and effectiveness of an additional $14 million which directly supports Conservation and environmental programs at the local level," said Michigan Association of Conservation Districts executive director Debra Bogar.

William Fishbeck, chairman of the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District, indicated that in Washtenaw county, immediate cuts will have to be made in educational materials and programs for our local schools, assistance to landowners will also have to be limited and staff time may have to be reduced, and that any long-term delay in funding could cause the District to close its doors.

Phone Directories Recycling Campaign Ending Nov. 16

This is the last chance for Ann Arbor area residents to recycle their outdated Ameritech PagesPlus® telephone directories at area Kroger stores and Recycle Ann Arbor. Ameritech Publishing's telephone directory recycling campaign, dubbed DirectoRecycleSM, ends Saturday, Nov. 16.

Fifteen tons of outdated directories have been recycled since the Ann Arbor campaign began Tuesday, Oct. 29. Pepsi has been transporting the directories to Nu Wool Co. in Jenison, where they are recycled into hydro-seeding mulch and building insulation.

According to sponsors, the Ann Arbor DirectoRecycle campaign is off to a sluggish start. The campaign goal is to recycle 400 tons of outdated PagesPlus directories.

"Kroger, Recycle Ann Arbor, Pepsi, Nu Wool and Ameritech Publishing made the campaign possible," said Gary Drook, president and CEO, Ameritech Publishing. "But it's the community that will make this campaign successful."

PagesPlus directories can be recycled at Kroger stores located at 1140 Broadway, 2803 Jackson, 2502 Packard, 4745 Washtenaw, 1919 Industrial, 2841 Plymouth and 1771 Michigan Ave. Directories also can be recycled at Recycle Ann Arbor, located at 2050 S. Industrial.

Ameritech Publishing has recycled more than 1,000 tons of outdated PagesPlus directories in eight previous Michigan DirectoRecycle campaigns. These campaigns include Grand Rapids, Grand Traverse/Charlevoix, Southfield, Lansing, Grosse Pointe, Holland/Grand Haven and Kalamazoo.

★ Financial Advice for
The Newly Unemployed...
Gone are the days when a loyal employee could count on a long-time career with one employer. If you have been the unlucky recipient of a pink slip, keep in mind that unemployment need not lead to financial disaster. A positive outlook and wise financial decisions can minimize the damage, says the Michigan Association of CPAs.
Unemployment Insurance Benefits
As a rule, if you have lost your job through no fault of your own and are actively seeking another job, you are entitled to unemployment benefits.
Since each state has different eligibility requirements, you will need to check with your local unemployment
office to see if you qualify.
Make the Most of Severance Pay
If you receive a severance package,
you may have to choose between taking the funds in one lump sum or stretching them out over several weeks or months. CPAs generally recommend that you opt for the lump sum so that you can invest the money
and start earning interest right away.
What's more, if your former employer's financial stability is questionable, taking a lump sum gives you one
less thing to worry about.
Protect 401(k) and Pension Funds
When you leave a job, you may receive a sizable sum from your tax-deferred 401(k) retirement plan or pension plan. Because this money is earmarked for retirement, an early withdrawal could trigger trouble. To avoid hefty taxes and penalties, it's best to roll over the proceeds of your 401(k) or other pension plans into an Individual Retirement Account
(IRA). Any money you don't roll over is taxed as ordinary income. If you are under age 59½, you may be hit with a 10 percent penalty as well.
If you think that you may be forced to use some of your retirement savings to meet living expenses, invest your funds in a liquid account. This way, your money will not be tied up in a long-term investment and taxes and penalties will be due only on the amount you actually withdraw.
Staying Insured
Employers with 20 people or more
are required to offer medical insurance to departing employees.
Regardless of whether you are fired
or leave a company voluntarily, you and your dependents can continue to receive health coverage for up to 18 months, providing you pay for it yourself. If your spouse works, it may be cheaper for you to get family
coverage under your spouse's plan.
But find out if your spouse's coverage will last for the duration of your unemployment period.
If you have a family to protect and most of your life insurance came from an employer's policy, you should also consider picking up life insurance coverage. Term insurance is generally
the least costly way to go.
Manage Your Debt Carefully
If you can't meet your monthly payments, talk to your creditors.
Most are willing to work with responsible borrowers. Explain your situation and offer to send smaller payments. If paying your mortgage is a problem, you may need to make formal arrangements with your mortgage lender to delay monthly payments. Some lenders may agree to rewrite your loan to lower your monthly payments; others may even offer a forbearance agreement that allows you to pay nothing or interest only for a few months.
For more advice on coping with an economic downturn, contact your CPA.

way, your money will not be tied up in a long-term investment and taxes and
penalties will be due only on the amount you actually withdraw.
Staying Insured
Employers with 20 people or more
are required to offer medical insurance to departing employees.
Regardless of whether you are fired
or leave a company voluntarily, you
and your dependents can continue to receive health coverage for up to 18
months, providing you pay for it yourself. If your spouse works, it may be cheaper for you to get family
coverage under your spouse's plan.
But find out if your spouse's coverage
will last for the duration of your
unemployment period.
If you have a family to protect and most of your life insurance came from an employer's policy, you should also
consider picking up life insurance coverage. Term insurance is generally
the least costly way to go.
Manage Your Debt Carefully
If you can't meet your monthly payments, talk to your creditors.
Most are willing to work with responsible borrowers. Explain your situation and offer to send smaller payments. If paying your mortgage is a problem, you may need to make formal arrangements with your mortgage lender to delay monthly payments. Some lenders may agree to rewrite your loan to lower your monthly payments; others may even offer a forbearance agreement that allows you to pay nothing or interest only for a few months.

economic downturn, contact your

★ Financial Advice for
The Newly Unemployed...
Gone are the days when a loyal
employee could count on a long-time career with one employer. If you have been the unlucky recipient of a pink
slip, keep in mind that unemployment
need not lead to financial disaster. A positive outlook and wise financial decisions can minimize the damage,
says the Michigan Association of CPAs.
Unemployment Insurance Benefits
As a rule, if you have lost your job
through no fault of your own and are actively seeking another job, you are entitled to unemployment benefits.
Since each state has different eligibility requirements, you will need to check with your local unemployment
office to see if you qualify.
Make the Most of Severance Pay
If you receive a severance package,
you may have to choose between taking
the funds in one lump sum or stretching them out over several weeks or months. CPAs generally
recommend that you opt for the lump
sum so that you can invest the money
and start earning interest right away.
What's more, if your former employer's
financial stability is questionable,
taking a lump sum gives you one
less thing to worry about.
Protect 401(k) and Pension Funds
When you leave a job, you may receive a sizable sum from your tax-deferred 401(k) retirement plan or pension plan. Because this money is earmarked for retirement, an early withdrawal could trigger trouble. To avoid hefty taxes and penalties, it's best to roll over the proceeds of your 401(k) or other pension plans into an Individual Retirement Account
(IRA). Any money you don't roll over is taxed as ordinary income. If you are under age 59½, you may be hit with a 10 percent penalty as well.
If you think that you may be forced
to use some of your retirement savings to meet living expenses, invest your funds in a liquid account. This way, your money will not be tied up in a long-term investment and taxes and
penalties will be due only on the amount you actually withdraw.
Staying Insured
Employers with 20 people or more
are required to offer medical insurance to departing employees.
Regardless of whether you are fired
or leave a company voluntarily, you
and your dependents can continue to receive health coverage for up to 18

yourself. If your spouse works, it may be cheaper for you to get family
coverage under your spouse's plan.
But find out if your spouse's coverage

If you have a family to protect and

consider picking up life insurance coverage. Term insurance is generally
the least costly way to go.

Chelsea Village Council Proceedings

Regular Session
Tuesday, October 8, 1991
The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. by President Steele.
Present: President Steele, Assistant Village Manager Kuehn, and Administrative Assistant Fredette.
Absent: Clerk Morrison and Village Manager Myers.
Trustees Present: Anderson, Hammer, Kanten, Dorer and Finch.
Trustee Absent: Merkel.
Others Present: P. Newhouse, R. Harook, D. Bulson, L. Kusterer, J. Evans, R./Reynolds, B. Hamilton and G. Waters.

Public Participation:
John Evans, an employee of BookCrafters and Chamber of Commerce treasurer, expressed his concern over the spread of painted graffiti present at Pierce and Veterans Park. He feels the catalyst for this problem is The Rock at Pierce Park. Mr. Evans presented Council with pictures he had taken at the parks wherein miscellaneous rocks, as well as the portable toilet facilities, had been painted. He asked Council for a solution to the problem. Trustee Kanten expressed her personal opinion of the historic and nostalgic importance of The Rock to long-time Chelsea residents and she is strongly in favor of leaving it in the community. Rosemary Harook suggested posting signs at the parks alerting the public that painting of miscellaneous rocks, buildings, etc., will be punishable by a fine and violators will be prosecuted. Trustee Dorer suggested The Rock be transported to the Wastewater Treatment Plant, sandblasted and a plaque placed upon it in memory of Cal Penix (deceased village employee). No formal action was taken.

Tim Eder addressed Council regarding the AATA bus service and asked that they act favorably on continuance of the service.
Motion by Hammer, supported by Dorer, to approve the Consent Agenda. Ayes all. Motion carried.

There were no Department or Commission Head Reports.
Trustee Finch (Fire Department Committee) informed Council that the Fireman's Association requests that Council consider the donation of village-owned land to the Fire Department for the construction of a 30-foot by 60-foot pole barn for storage of equipment. President Steele inquired as to whether or not the fire department had contacted the Fair Board and researched the possibility of utilizing their buildings for storage. Trustee Finch will check into this. President Steele also suggested waiting until the village garage situation is resolved. There may be space available at that site depending upon the final outcome of the contamination problem there.

Gretchen Waters, representing the Washtenaw Development Council, asked that Council take formal action and affirm our commitment to and financial support of the Washtenaw Development Council's "United for Progress" program for the five (5) year period of 1992-1996. Dues would be frozen during said period at the 1992 rate.

RESOLUTION OF THE VILLAGE OF CHELSEA

Resolution to support the "United for Progress" campaign and economic development initiative of the Washtenaw Development Council for the period 1992 through 1996:

WHEREAS, since 1982, the public/private partnership of the Washtenaw Development Council has been recognized as one of the hallmark economic development programs in both the state of Michigan and in the increasingly competitive national industry of job retention and attraction; and

WHEREAS, since its creation, the Washtenaw Development Council partnership has resulted in the creation of 5,222 new jobs, the retention of 4,845 existing jobs and the investment of over $384 million in private capital in Washtenaw County; and

WHEREAS, in April of 1991, the Washtenaw Development Council introduced a new five year initiative entitled "United for Progress" which is an updated and expanded economic development program with the objective of increasing economic stability and employment in Washtenaw County through business retention, expansion and attraction services; and

WHEREAS, the acknowledged success of the Washtenaw Development Council partnership during the past nine years has been due to participation and funding by both the private and public sectors, including the membership and financial support of the Village of Chelsea; and

WHEREAS, the future success of the "United for Progress" economic development initiative will depend upon continuation of the Washtenaw Development Council's public/private partnership and financial support from both of these sectors; and

WHEREAS, the Washtenaw Development Council is submitting requests to benefiting entities, both public and private, to support this five year economic development and marketing efforts; and

WHEREAS, the Washtenaw Development Council has requested that the Village of Chelsea reaffirm its commitment to this economic development partnership by actively participating in, and financially supporting the five year "United for Progress" initiative;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Village of Chelsea affirms its commitment to the Washtenaw Development Council in the five year "United for Progress" economic development initiative, and in doing so resolves to provide $2,774 per year in financial support of the program for the fiscal years 1992 through 1996, pending annual review of the Council's performance in reaching the objectives of the "United for Progress" program.

Motion by Anderson, supported by Kanten, to adopt the above Resolution. Roll call: Ayes: Anderson, Hammer, Kanten, Finch, Steele. Nays: Dorer. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Assistant Village Manager Kuehn explained the AATA Purchase of Service Agreement for the fiscal year October 1, 1991 to September 30, 1992.

Trustee Finch expressed his concern over the ridership percentages and felt that the townships should consider contributing toward the $5,081.00 financial obligation. The current village budget does not have this money allocated. Action on this matter was tabled to the October 22, 1991 meeting.

Administrative Assistant Fredette presented a Resolution regarding proposed Revenue Sharing cuts for Council's consideration.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the State of Michigan is currently in the process of formulating the 1991/92 Budget; and

WHEREAS, it is proposed that a "freeze" in revenue sharing funds be implemented within said Budget; and

WHEREAS, if a reduction in revenue sharing is included in the State's approved budget, cities and villages would be forced to absorb $22.7 million or 65.1% of the reduction; and

WHEREAS, this action would result in local governments losing an average of 3.2% of the revenue sharing payments they otherwise expected to receive based upon State fiscal year 1991/92 projections; and

WHEREAS, this proposed cut comes at a very difficult time due to the fact that revenue sharing payments were decreased in 1990/91 as a result of reduced state tax collections; losses were experienced in the 1990 census and the Legislature froze property assessments for 1992; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Chelsea would stand to lose revenue in excess of $9,500.00 between October 1, 1991 and September 30, 1992; now

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Village Council of the Village of Chelsea respectfully urges Governor Engler and the legislative leaders of the State of Michigan to carefully consider the impact the proposed revenue sharing cuts would have on local governments during the budgeting process; and

BE IT STILL FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Village of Chelsea opposes approval of Senate Bills 509, 510 and 511.

Motion by Anderson, supported by Hammer, to adopt the above Resolution. Ayes all. Motion carried. Resolution adopted.

Fire Station Proposal matter was tabled to the October 22, 1991 meeting. A request was received from the National Environmental Law Center to conduct a door-to-door canvass in the Village of Chelsea from September 29th to October 30, 1991 between the hours of 4:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, one hundred twenty newcomers will reside at The Chelsea Retirement Community in the Dancey House.

AND WHEREAS, the completion of Dancey House culminates a ten (10) year renovation and building project on the campus of The Chelsea Retirement Community.

AND WHEREAS, the Village of Chelsea welcomes the new residents to the area.

AND WHEREAS, The Consecration of Dancey House will take place on Sunday, October 20, 1991.

AND WHEREAS, Chelsea Retirement Community has been a part of Chelsea for 85 years serving the needs of our senior citizens.

THEREFORE, I, Richard Steele, Village President, do hereby proclaim Sunday, October 20, 1991 as Chelsea Retirement Community Day, in honor and recognition of the staff and residents at The Retirement Community.

Motion by Anderson, supported by Dorer, to accept the above Proclamation as written. Ayes all. Motion carried.

DOZENS OF COLOR GUARD UNITS were in evidence during the dedication of the Washtenaw County Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Sunday, Nov. 10, near the Ypsilanti Township Civic Center on Huron River Dr. Three flags, that of the United States, the State of Michigan, and the POW/MIA flag, were lowered during the ceremonies, and will remain at half-staff for a period of 75 days to honor the 72 Washtenaw county men killed in the Vietnam war, and the three listed as missing-in-action.

Crashes Reported By Sheriff's Deputies

A Mount Pleasant area motorist was injured in a crash on southbound M-52, north of I-94, at 7 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 31.

Deputy LeVanseler investigated the crash, which she described, in her report, "The injured motorist had stopped to turn left into the pool parking lot, waiting for a gravel truck to turn onto westbound I-94."

The gravel truck apparently proceeded to turn, so did a Chelsea area driver who was traveling southbound on M-52, but the Chelsea woman didn't see the vehicle which had stopped, until the collision.

After her vehicle hit the motorist who had stopped, that automobile rolled and collided with the gravel truck, which was exiting the lot.

Huron Valley Ambulance transported the injured motorist to Chelsea Community Hospital.

Deputy Steve Platt was dispatched to investigate a one-vehicle crash at 6:30 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 31, on eastbound Interstate-94, just west of Zeeb Rd.

An eastbound trucker didn't see the traffic slowing as it began to back up. He hit his brakes, went across one lane of traffic into the median, where his vehicle jack-knifed.

Deputies reported an incident which occurred at 2:40 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 31.

An Ann Arbor driver had stopped to turn from Jackson Rd. into the Scio Farm Estates entrance, when a second motorist was unable to stop in time to avoid striking the first auto.

Two vehicles were involved in a traffic mishap which occurred on Tessmer Rd., south of the Scio Church Rd. intersection, at 2:10 p.m. Friday, Nov. 1.

Deputy Steve Platt was dispatched to investigate.

Apparently, the first driver was operating a vehicle which was scraping the road, when a Grass Lake area driver pulled up behind the scraper.

The driver of the road-scraper was approaching a stop sign. He slowed and came to a stop, then began to back up, striking the auto.

Flashers and warning lights were apparently operating at the time of the collision.

A motorist from Grand Blanc was cited for basic speed violation by deputy Mark Mesko, last week.

Terry Lee Cousineau and a passenger in his automobile both received minor injuries in a crash which occurred on North Territorial Rd., west of Jennings.

Mesko's report explained Cousineau drove over a puddle of water, he lost control of the vehicle, which crossed the oncoming lane of traffic and rolled over into the ditch to the south of the roadway.

An injured Pinckney area motorist was cited after what deputies described as an alcohol-related crash occurred on North Territorial Rd., west of Maple Rd., at 5:38 p.m. Friday, Nov. 1.

Deputy James Anuszkiewicz was dispatched to investigate a one-vehicle crash reported at 2:20 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 3, on Kalmbach Rd., north of Garvey.

A Chelsea area motorist was cited for a seat belt violation at the scene. He lost control of the vehicle he drove, and went off the road.

Although he received minor injuries, he refused treatment.

Grant Received To Fund Research on Head Start

Washtenaw Community Services Agency (CSA), was recently awarded a grant to develop a family support program for 50 Head Start families in the Ypsilanti program.

CSA, a division of the human services department, was awarded the three year Head Start-Research and Demonstration Grant. The grant is part of a national research effort by the Department of Health and Human Services Office of Human Development Services.

It will be used to determine whether providing comprehensive and intense services on a long-term basis to Head Start families is effective in assisting them to become self-sufficient.

The primary areas that families will be assisted in are employability, management of substance abuse problems and literacy.

Case managers are assigned to families to assist them in developing an individualized service plan. The manager ensures that the family has access to community services; monitors progress toward self-sufficiency over a period of time; and advocates for and evaluates service outcomes.

The county grant, totaling $900,000 over a three year period, is one of 23 awarded nationally this year. It is one of four awarded in the state of Michigan.

Washtenaw county, as required by Health and Human Services, will be responsible for an in-kind match of 20 percent of the total cost of the project.

The program will be part of the county's Human Services department, integrated service delivery system. This includes employment and training, health care, social services and veteran services. It will be supervised by the Community Services Division.

Head Start has been one of the most successful programs to emerge from

Dangerous Deer Dart into Traffic

Motorists, please be aware that a minimum of two car-deer collisions are reported to Washtenaw County Sheriff's Dept. deputies, each day, in western Washtenaw county.

Sheriff's Deputies Union Seeks Pay Increase for All Personnel

At its Wednesday, Nov. 6, meeting in the county administrative building, the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners delayed a decision on implementing the arbitrator's award, accepting the last best offer of the deputies union for Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department personnel.

After a brief executive session during which the board considered purchase of the Ann Arbor Inn property, in addition to the arbitrator's award, chairman Meri Lou Murray explained the county had agreed to attend three additional negotiating sessions with representatives of the deputies union, and to consider the item at its meeting scheduled at 5 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Union president Harry Valentine explained WCSD personnel had been granted no raise during the past four years.

Valentine said, in the past, the county has offered raises to all WCSD personnel, for which the union negotiated.

Washtenaw county corporate counsel Robert Gunzel argues that only detectives, deputies assigned to the road, and communication operators qualify for the award by the arbitrator.

The Village of Dexter contracted for the services of three and one-half deputies during the four-year time period, although frequently the village was provided a sergeant, in addition to the 3½ deputies.

An Oct. 29 letter from Perry Bullard, chair of the Michigan House of Representatives judiciary committee, advised Commissioner Marty Straub, "The Police Officers Association of Michigan (POAM), on behalf of the Washtenaw County Deputy Sheriffs Association (WCDSA), has recently received an arbitration award, after advancing contract negotiations to P.A. 312 (binding arbitration)."

"This award is effective Jan. 1, 1989, to Dec. 31, 1991.

"The members of the WCDSA have not received a pay increase for approximately four years.

"The WCDSA wage structure is substantially lower than all surrounding and comparable communities.

"The results of the arbitrator's award brings these employees into the proximity of what they should be paid.

"However, they will remain at the low end of the comparable scale.

"The WCDSA is a 200-person bargaining unit comprised of deputies, detectives, communication operators, correction officers, secretarial and support staff.

"As a result of a determination made by the Michigan Employment Relations Commission, the union and employer must accept the award for only deputies, detectives and communication operators.

"The remainder of the employees are not covered by this award.

"I urge you to consider extending the same wage and benefits package to all Sheriff Department classifications.

"This would include the approximately 100 employees not covered by Public Act 312, most of whom are women and minorities."
