THE JOYS OF THE HAIRLESS

Young Man Without Hair Is the Happiest, Declares a Well-Known Doctor.

There is hope and comfort for the bald-headed man. His baldness is not a disfigurement, but a positive charm to a pretty woman's eyes.

That at least is the theory of a well-known doctor who has had ample opportunities of studying human nature.

Just when a man is beginning to notice with anxiety the ever-increasing patch of baldness on his head that appears to be the time when he is entering into the happiest period of his life. For he then stands higher in the opinion of the fair sex than he ever did before.

His character undergoes a subtle and indefinable change. "It is difficult to give an exact reason why the bald-headed man is so well liked by women," he said, "but in my experience the fact is indisputable."

"I am referring, of course, to the man between thirty and fifty-five years of age, who is prematurely bald, not to the elderly bald-headed man."

"For various reasons, either through some malady of the scalp or the constant pressure of a silk hat, a man loses his hair."

"At first he does not notice it, and then, one day, looking in the glass, he is horrified to find he is rapidly growing bald. Almost immediately his outlook on life alters—he becomes more sedate, more trustworthy, as if were."

"An eminent psychologist has said that the external appearance of a man inevitably alters his interior character."

Will Banish Old Mexican Coins. The circulation of large 1-cent copper coins, generally known as "cavatavos grandes," and also the 5-cent silver coins called "quintos," will cease at the end of the year, and be replaced on the first of January with new, small 1-cent pieces and the others by 5-cent nickel coins.

Owing to the announcement that this money will soon be out of existence, frequent incidents occur between the public and the merchants, especially in small stores, where they refuse to take those coins and the people are compelled to go to many places before they take them.

To prevent such trouble, the banks and the mint will exchange those coins for new 1-cent and 5-cent pieces, and in order to prevent the lack of change in the commercial transactions and in the market, the mint will strike a sufficient quantity to furnish the public all that is needed in January of next year.—Mexico Herald.

Feminine Logic. Hailed as "The Master of Feminism," Marcel Prevost endeavors to make good his right to the title by the following bit of philosophy: "Is a woman's hat meant to cover her head? Is a woman's sunshade meant to shade her from the sun? Are a woman's shoes made for walking? Or her bejeweled watch meant to tell her the time? Why, then, should a woman's letter be meant to convey her real thoughts!"—Argonaut.

Reasons. Professor—Why did you come to college, anyway? You are not studying. Willie Rahrah—Well, mother says it is to fit me for the presidency; Uncle Bill, to sow my wild oats; Sis, to get a shun for her to marry; and pa, to bankrupt the family.—Puck.

Communication.

Without doubt some are ignorant of the anti-cigarette law now existing in the state of Michigan, and that persons can be punished for violating the same, right here in the village of Chelsea.

The following is the law in part: The people of the State of Michigan enact:

Section 2—Any person within this state who sells, gives to, or in any way furnishes any cigarettes in any form to any person under twenty-one years of age, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed thirty days for each offense.

Section 3—Any person under twenty-one years of age who shall smoke or use cigarettes, in any form on any public highway, street, alley, park or other lands used for public purposes, in any public place of business, may be arrested by any officer of the law, who may be cognizant of such offense; and further, it shall be the duty of all such officers, upon complaint of any person and upon warrant properly issued to arrest such offenders and take them to the proper court. In case the offender is found guilty, the court may impose a punishment at its discretion, in the sum not to exceed ten dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed five days for each offense.

Provided, that if said minor person shall give information which may lead to the arrest of the person or persons violating section two of this act, in giving to or selling, or in any way furnishing said minor person tobacco or cigarettes, and shall give evidence as a witness in such proceedings against said party or parties the court shall have power to suspend sentence against such minor person.
