CHELSEA BOY HONORED

Made Captain of Washtenaw County Draft Contingent Yesterday.

A Chelsea boy, Clayton C. Hesel-schwerdt, was honored yesterday in Ann Arbor when he was made captain of the contingent of drafted men who were sent to Camp Custer. Clayton is a graduate of the Chelsea high school and for some time past had been Michigan Central station agent, resigning only last week in order to answer the draft summons.

The special train bearing the Washtenaw contingent passed through Chelsea at ten o'clock yesterday and made a short stop here, but few of the many Chelsea people at the depot knew that "one of their boys" had been so honored. Every business place in town was closed in order to give the boys a good rousing "send-off" and here's hoping that we may soon be obliged to close again in order to welcome them home.

UNADILLA.

Ruth and Douglas Watson entertained the Laugh-A-Lot club from Gregory, Saturday evening.

Erma Pyper of Jackson visited her parents the past week.

Miss Helen Watson died Sunday afternoon at the home of her niece, Mrs. G. A. Pyper, at the age of 73 years and 15 days. She has been a long and patient sufferer since the cyclone in 1914 when she was hurt. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the house, Rev. Ellis preaching the sermon.

W. E. Moore and family of Lansing spent Sunday at Nancy May's.

Grace Ellis is home from her school work in Wisconsin, for the summer.

Rev. Ellis visited in Alma the last of last week and first of this week.

There will be an ice cream social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Marshall, Wednesday evening, August 7th.

LYNDON.

(Too late for Friday.)

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ulrich spent Sunday in Jackson.

Claude Marshall is helping George Macdon with his harvest.

Mrs. Mary Mullen of Detroit is visiting Mrs. E. McIntee this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hila Barton and children of Detroit are spending a few weeks at the farm home.

Austin Balmer and son Clayton spent Sunday and Monday in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wright of Jackson spent Sunday with his uncle, Herbert Young.

A. Balmer is entertaining his uncle from Saginaw.

Miss Rose McIntee is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Howard Collings, of near Grass Lake.

At the school meeting of Dist. No. 11, Austin Balmer was elected moderator to fill vacancy and John Young was elected director.

Mrs. Tompkins and daughter Agnes, of Detroit, are visiting Mrs. Alice O'Connor and family.

Christopher Lyman of Dexter township spent the first of the week with John and Alfred Clark.

MORE CEMENT ROADWAY.

The Eastern Washtenaw good roads district commissioners have decided to enter upon another important piece of road construction this year, and have let the contract for three miles of the Detroit and Chicago paved way between the city line of Ypsilanti and the county line between Washtenaw and Wayne.

This contract goes to C. D. Chamberlain, of Cleveland, and the contract price is $7,800. This will be a concrete road, 18 feet wide, and will complete the paved way from Ypsilanti to Detroit. With the section which is being built west of Ann Arbor this year there will be a goodly stretch of splendid automobile road completed by the end of the year.

This will be a federal aid road.

The government has approved the building of a splendid concrete bridge over the Michigan Central railroad tracks at Michigan avenue in Ypsilanti. This is within the city limits and is at the end of the three mile section of concrete roadway which Chamberlain will commence to construct immediately. It will be a 24-foot roadway and two five-foot sidewalks.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank the members of the Red Cross, also the doctors and nurses for their kindness to my husband, Private Oscar Decker, who was killed in the interurban wreck on July 20th.

Mrs. Maud Decker, Detroit, Michigan.

CARD OF THANKS.

I desire to thank my friends and neighbors who gave the pleasant surprise party, Friday evening, also for the beautiful wrist watch presented to me. They will be pleasant memories of friends at home when I am on duty for Uncle Sam.

Aaron C. Hoffman.

Cause of Despondency.

Despondency is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and quickly disappears when Chamberlain's Tablets are taken. These tablets strengthen the digestion and move the bowels. Adv.

Mrs. H. E. Defendorf and son Nelson returned to their home in Grand Blanc yesterday after a two weeks' visit with Chelsea relatives. Her mother, Mrs. A. Steger, accompanied her home for a visit.

The Tribune gladly corrects an error in Friday's paper. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Alexander are the parents of a daughter, born Saturday, July 13, 1918, instead of a son as reported in our previous issue.

The home nursing class will meet at the Congregational church at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening. Those who intend to join the class should notify Miss Agnes Gorman not later than Wednesday evening.

Howard Congdon and family, of Flint, visited Misses Mary and Alma Pierce the last of the week. They had just returned from an automobile trip to Grayling and other points in the northern part of the state.

Miss Cecelia Kolb returned Friday from a visit with friends in Detroit. She has resigned her position with an Ann Arbor produce firm and has accepted an office position with the Levi Spring & Axle Co. in this place.

James Willis and Clarence Gilbert narrowly escaped being passengers on the D. J. & C. death car Saturday evening. The two boys are working on the Starr Seed farm near Grass Lake and were waiting at Francisco for a car to Chelsea. The ill-fated limited car slowed down considerably at Francisco and the two boys would have boarded it if the conductor had not ordered them off, a very fortunate circumstance for them.
